AD CLUB FILM AND LECTURE INTERESTING

LARGE CROWD IS PRESENT AT LYRIC TO WITNESS ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

The Journal has just received a letter from Miss Marguerite Porter, formerly of this city and in which she has requested that her subscription be extended. Miss Porter is now residing at Seaside, Oregon, and has just been elected to a position as teacher in the public schools there for another term. Miss Porter and her mother, Mrs. W. F. Porter, have made their home in the west coast country for the last few years.

The Lecture given last evening at the Lyric theater under the auspices of the Ad club of this city, composed of some of the leading business men, and which had been furnished by the National Cash Register company of Dayton, Ohio, proved a real treat to the business men of the city who were in attendance.

The lecturer, W. H. Farley, is a young man of marked ability and keen insight into the modern methods of doing business and the conduct of large business enterprises and his discussion during the evening was assisted by slides showing the right and wrong means of attracting and holding trade and the steps that the business man should take to insure his success in a mercantile line.

MAKE CAPTURE OF WELL KNOWN YEGGS

Two of the Familiar Figures of the Underworld of Omaha and Council Bluffs Taken.

Last evening Chief of Police Jones and Officer Chandler were called out to the vicinity of Eighth and Pearl street by the report of a suspicious appearing pair of men and a car which they had parked in the shade of a tree near the residence of C. C. Despain.

The police at the time little suspected that they were to deal with two of the best known yeggs in this portion of Iowa and Nebraska, but such proved to be the case as the men have been identified as two of the most prominent crooks in Council Bluffs and who have been implicated in several deals in the past.

The officers found on reaching the scene of action that the car that had been so carefully parked contained a large and complete assortment of tools for the burglar's trade and among the articles found was a breast drill as well as several smaller drills and chisels as well as tools for prying open windows and a quantity of fuse such as is used by safe blowers. As soon as the articles were found in the car the police notified Sheriff C. D. Quinton and the two men who had been found near the car were turned over to the sheriff for safe keeping and lodged in the county jail.

The men when arrested gave the names of Frank Brown and Jack Kearns and it later developed on the man giving his name as Brown was in reality Roy Green, one of the notorious bad men of Council Bluffs and who had been strongly implicated in several previous cases of burglary. The man Kearns is also reported by the Sheriff Quinton to be a notorious bad man of Council Bluffs and who had been strongly implicated in several previous cases of burglary.

PAYMENT OF SCALP BOUNTIES CEASES

Opinion by County Attorney that Matter Must be Submitted to Voters is Responsible.

The payment of the bounties on the scalps of wolves and coyotes has ceased in Cass county as the result of the request of the county officials that the county attorney look up the law in the matter.

Heretofore it has been the policy to pay the bounties under the provisions of Section 478 of the law, which was amended by the legislature of 1919, and which provided for the payment of $2 per scalp for coyotes and $6 per scalp for wolves.

LITTLE ONE AT REST

Little Maxwell Joseph Vallery was born in Plattsmouth, Neb., September 11, 1920. The little one had been sick during all the days of his life. He had just been brought back from the hospital in Omaha some two months ago. All was done with loving hands and tender care that a mother could do until on Monday night, May 23, at 11:20 the Heavenly Father called the little one to the land where there is no more suffering. He was eight months and three days old. He leaves to mourn his passing his father and mother, grandparents, and hosts of other relatives and friends.

When you think of printing, you can't help but think of us.

MRS. HEINRICH LAID TO HER FINAL REST

Large Number of Old Friends Gathered to Pay Their Last Tributes to the Memory of Good Woman.

The condition of Father M. A. Shine, rector of St. John's church of this city continues about the same, reports from St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha state. Father Shine was taken quite sick Sunday evening and his case was diagnosed as appendicitis. He was taken to the St. Catherine's hospital by Dr. Dwyer, the specialist in charge of the case, but on the arrival at the hospital it was found that his condition would not justify the operation at this time and he will remain there until it is possible to perform the operation.

SENIOR CLASS HAS VERY FINE PARTY

Meet For Farewell Social Gathering at Beautiful Home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Parmele

The class of 1921, that is soon to leave the school where they have received their education, held a very pleasant party last evening at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Parmele in the south portion of the city which had been placed at the disposal of the young people for the evening.

DEATH OF THOMAS KEMPSTER

The many old residents of the city will learn with regret of the death at his home in Los Angeles, California, of Thomas Kempster, formerly a resident of this city and a well known figure in railroad circles some thirty years ago.

FUNERAL OF LITTLE BABE

The funeral of little Joseph Maxwell, eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Vallery, was held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 from the home southwest of the city and the body of the little one laid to rest in the Oak Hill cemetery.

INVESTIGATING CASE

This morning two representatives of the city police department of Omaha were here to look into the arrest of Green and Kearns, the two men who were captured here with a kit of burglar tools on Wednesday night. The Omaha representatives brought with them the materials necessary to take the finger prints of the two men and which will be used in an effort to determine their innocence or guilt.

FINE LITTLE GIRL

This morning Ray McCarthy was seen on the street wearing one of those smiles that make the sun appear insignificant and on inquiry as to the cause we learned that at an early hour this morning a fine little daughter arrived at their home and as it is the first child in the household, it is the object of the greatest admiration to the proud and happy parents.

MRS. ROY COLE IMPROVING

The many friends of Mrs. Roy Cole of Mynard, will be pleased to learn that she is now showing improvement following her operation on last Friday at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha and her family and friends are pleased to note that she is doing so nicely.

WILL NOT OPERATE YET

The condition of Father M. A. Shine, rector of St. John's church of this city continues about the same, reports from St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha state.

JACOB TRITSCH DIES AT HOSPITAL IN OMAHA

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY AS HE TOOK SICK LAST EVENING AND WAS HURRIED TO OMAHA

This morning the startling news was received here shortly after 9 o'clock announcing the death at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha of Jacob Tritsch, one of the old and distinguished residents of Cass county and for a long period of years a resident of this city and vicinity.

REMEMBERS THE JOURNAL

It is not often that the newspaper man receives a kind word and still less frequent that the printers receive any recognition of their services in serving the public, but today there was an exception to the rule and it was the work of Guy W. Morgan, the genial proprietor of the Sweet shop and Mrs. Morgan.
