Mrs. Oscar Sandin and Miss Effa Patterson were down from Plattsmouth and favored the audience with some special readings which were highly appreciated. Rose Mae and Richard Friedrich pleased the people with one of their fine duets, while Elizabeth McCracken sang and whistled in a way that captivated the audience. Miss Neva Latta gave one of her superb selections, which always captivates the people here. With the solo by Uncle S. G. Latta, the one by Mrs. Dick Pitman and the two numbers, one by Charles Howard which was accompanied by his sister, Miss Mable Howard on the piano, gave those who attended the function a very enjoyable evening. Two of the young men of Murray, who with their gas wagon last Sunday afternoon went to call on a lady friend at another town, enjoyed the visit greatly until they started for home, and like many cars, their's got a spell of inactivity on it and had to be abandoned by the wayside while the young men walked home.

More Americans Are Arriving. Three new Americans have arrived in this vicinity during the past few days, and have brought with them happy breezes and a promise of more happiness, help and comfort for their abode. That the proud parents are well satisfied, one would only have to hear the joyful whistling tune as warbled by John Gruber of near Factoryville, where a little boy has come and to see the lightsome smile light up the pleasant face of Fred Warner, where a little miss has brought happiness and to her the pleasant humming of the song, "I'm delighted when executed by Kelly Rhoden for a pretty little brown eyed girl has found a home with her and wife."

THERE WAS ONLY ONE TITIAN IN THE WORLD. Titian, or Tiziano Vecellio, was one of the greatest painters of the world. In 1522 he painted in Bologna a portrait of the emperor Charles V., and was created a count palatine and knight of the Golden Spur, his children also being made nobles of the empire—for a painter, honors of such an exalted kind. Criticized because he ennobled Titian, Charles V., looking the protesting princes square in the eye, replied: "I know a great number of princes and kings, but I believe there is only one Titian in the whole world." And today many people in the United States and Canada say: "We know a great number of remedies for stomach troubles, but we believe there is only one which may be relied upon—Triner's Bitter Wine." For instance, Mr. Frank A. Novak wrote us on May 15 from Brooks, Oregon: "Triner's Bitter Wine is surely a good remedy. I have been sick for seven months, but now, after taking Triner's Bitter Wine, I am feeling much better." Therefore, when coming to your druggist or dealer in medicines, insist upon Triner's.
