No woman is a heroine to her hired girl.

Heart failure covers a multitude of bad diagnoses.

If at first some men don't succeed, they fail, fail again.

Wholesal e business is what the mining shark generally does.

In the politicians's new bonnet you will find the same old bee.

A woman's idea of a true believer is one who believes as she does.

Some men never borrow trouble as long as they can borrow money.

Revising an ancient proverb, one half the world does not know what the other half is doing, but is trying its best to find out.

Luke McLuke remarks that baking powder and girls are supposed to be absolutely pure. Other things may get by under a reasonable doubt.

It is easy enough to tell your small boy not to go swimming, but the only way to stop him is by locking up the water and guarding the key.

Wouldn't it be nice if we could settle all our international affairs by saying that we will have nothing to do with them.

Senator Penrose says that the recent tax hearings were a waste of time. Nearly everything that Congress does seems to be a waste of time.

Short skirts are said to have lessened the number of street accidents to women, but no decrease is reported in the number of backward looking men.

A member of the German Reichstag declares that the people of Germany drink too much alcohol. The probabilities are that he is not seeking re-election.

A subscriber wants to know if Edison was the inventor of the talking machine. He was not, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. Adam beat him to it.

If somebody will assist us in framing up a good excuse for a trip to New York just about the time that Dempsey-Carpentier fight it will be very much appreciated.

Several women magistrates are holding office in Texas, which causes us to wonder whether, when a woman magistrate marries a couple, does she kiss the groom?

Eight hundred members of the so-called Ku-Klux-Klan, clad in white robes, paraded the streets of Dallas, Texas, the other night. And one first class policeman could have chased the entire bunch out of town.

We Americans are a very smart people in some respects, but somehow or other we don't seem to have sense enough to build houses when we need them. Plattsmouth today needs at least 500 new homes.

Albert Burleson, former postmaster-general, is in Berlin trying to strike a bargain with Gremman cotton spinners for the sale of Texas cotton. If he is no more successful at this job than he was running the postoffice department the Texas surplus will not dwindle.

Perhaps all Americans ought to be enthusiastic backers of Jack Dempsey in that coming fight with Carpentier, but it is hard to forget the fact that the world's champion fighter was holding a make-believe job in a ship yard while the fighting was so awfully good in France.

Germany can now live up to the teachings of one of her greatest philosophers, Arthur Schopenhauer, in one of his essays, declared that it was advisable for a man who wished to become steady and successful to go into debt. The war indebtedness of Germany is now $5,236 per capita.

France has asked J. Pierpont Morgan to float a loan of $100,000,000 in the United States, all of which is to be spent within our borders. Let us hope that it will not be a repetition of our experience with Belgium. That country touched us for a big loan some time ago and spent it all in the Argentine.

Ordinarily we are a credulous people, but somehow or other we can't believe that story perpetrated by one of our enterprising young reporters about a partnership being formed between the mosquitoes and the lightning bugs, whereby the latter light the way for the mosquitoes to find their victims at night.

What the rose to the garden is, What the dew is to the rose, What rain to the springtime is, What the start to day's close, What the hush to the twilight is, What the yeast to home brew, What the crank to the flivver is, Is the rouge, girls, to you.

FELT LIKE AN IRON BAND AROUND HEAD

Mrs. Osborne Says She Shudders When She Thinks of How She Suffered.

"For years," said Mrs. V. B. Osborne, of 718 Lancaster avenue, Lexington, Ky., "I have been in a run-down condition; nervous, weak and dizzy. I was actually so nervous that any sudden noise or excitement would produce a palpitation of my heart that frightened me. I absolutely could not climb stairs, for to attempt such would thoroughly exhaust me.

"I had nervous headaches and when they came on it seemed that an iron band was drawn tight around my head. I now shudder when I think of those headaches. My stomach was weak and I could not digest the lightest liquid food. Any food of a solid nature caused nausea and the sickening sensation remained for hours.

"My misery was almost unbearable. My sleep was never sound and I was worn out all the time. My condition was indeed a very deplorable one. I finally sought treatment in Cincinnati, but nothing helped me one particle. I was on the verge of giving up in despair when a neighbor pleaded with me to try Tanlac. I obtained a bottle of the medicine and began its use.

"I began improving at once and soon felt my nervousness and dizziness disappearing. Then my headaches left me and I realized my strength had returned. My appetite and digestion improved and I am now so much better in every way. This Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and the only one that ever really helped me. I hope every poor woman who is suffering as I did will try it."
