They surely enjoyed the day to the fullest and returned home in the evening well satisfied with the enjoyment of the day.

Steady Hand There. Brother. One of the best of inventions and the bringing the present day into pace of inventions in other lines was the automobile. Probably the best device for safety on all appliances, thereon is the steering wheel. This wheel must be used with care, and reason if one is to get the best results. A good thing for all drivers to do is to keep your eye on the roadway and a firm hold on the wheel. We are told of a man, who was not long ago passing swimming pool where a crowd of bathers, dressed in the gay bathing suits, made a very pretty spectacle, we would be willing to admit, and it might be dangerous for one to try to drive an auto past such a scene. Nevertheless, it is said that one of the people driving not a thousand miles from Union, made the attempt and lured by the merry crowd of bathers, the eye wandered from the roadway to the bathing pool and at the same time the car left the beaten track, sought the roadside, then took the ditch at a bound, and then the fence and finally lodged fast among some trees in the pasture. Well, that was all there was of it with the exception that it cost nearly one hundred bucks to restore the car to its primitive glory.

Attempts a Hold Up. Some time ago, while Miss Mary E. Foster was in Union, with the folks she went to Nebraska City, where they were looking after some business and with the number of things which required looking after, the family were detained in Nebraska City until nearly 9 o'clock, when they started home and had gotten a few miles out of town when they noticed as they approached a car standing by the roadside and a man in the middle of the road, who, when they neared, signalled them to stop and also said "wait a minute."

Fearing some design Miss Mary Foster, who was driving, increased the speed of the car, and hastened to Union. The man immediately jumped into his car and pursued, overtaking the Foster car near the Union cemetery. The strange car awaited for the car containing the Foster party at the corner of the bridge west of town and again tried to stop the car, but without effect. The man then came to Union and stopped for a short time here and departed in haste, so that the man feared he would be arrested. It was evident that the man had intended to hold up the occupants of the car, but the coolness and quick thought of Miss Foster frustrated his designs.

Spend Pleasant Evening. Last Friday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. W. L. Hoback, there was gathered a crowd of about thirty-five friends and neighbors of this family, who had come together to pay honor to their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yowell, who have been visiting for some time at the home of Mrs. Yowell's father, Mr. W. L. Hoback, she being formerly Miss Lettie Hoback. The evening was very pleasantly spent with visiting and social conversation and not the least pleasing of the events of the evening was the delightful luncheon which Misses Harriet and Lettie Hoback furnished, and which included ice cream and cake. Mr. and Mrs. Yowell, in whose honor the gathering was held, departed on Monday afternoon for Nebraska City where they will spend a few days, after which they will go to Illinois to make their home.

An August Christmas Tree. The new innovation, which the Baptists are just at this time inaugurating in their car for Christmas, is a very profitable and pleasant undertaking as well. The plan is to have a Christmas tree in the month of August, the snow and ice is expected to be absent, but the real Christmas spirit will be in evidence. Donations for the occasion and gifts for the tree which will be sent by the Missionary ladies to a home for children at Indiana Harbor, Michigan. Now if you want to do some real missionary work, get behind this movement. Watch for the date in August of this celebration.

Had Interesting Game. The teams of Union and Murdoch and composed of boys, fellows, tried out the national game at Union last Sunday, wherein the Union team won by a score of nine to six. They both played an excellent game. The coming Sunday Union will play with them, on the Union grounds.

Will Bring Mother Here. Last week D. C. LaRue and family, who are in the car for Mr. and Mrs. D. C. LaRue, where they went to visit with the mother of Mr. LaRue, and to bring with them on their return the mother of Mr. LaRue, who has been making her home in the north for some time and will in the future make her home with her son, D. C. LaRue and family here.

Visited Friends Here. Ernest Hunsahl, now of Blair, but in the insurance business, was a visitor in Union and a guest of his friend, Simon Gruber, with whom he was a comrade in the camp at New Stanton, when "Camp Only" was in its glory days. He is well acquainted with many of the boys at Plattsmouth who were in the service there, and especially friendly with Frank Smith of the Journal, and M. D. Brown, who is in the jewelry business at the county seat.

Celebrates Ninth Birthday. Little Louise Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster, near Union, celebrated her ninth birthday anniversary and had a large crowd of her friends and relatives present for the occasion. Both her grandparents of both sides were present and assisted in the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Larson from Plattsmouth, grandparents, were present and enjoyed the occasion.

Hold All Day Meeting. The membership of the Baptist church last Sunday held at their church building an all day meeting which was well attended and considered the Bible school in the morning in the beginning, followed by the morning service, which consisted of a number of addresses well worth hearing. There were nine from Lincoln at the meeting, four being in the quartette which rendered very pleasing music. Miss Minnie Beckus of Indiana Harbor, Mich., made a very pleasing address, while M. R. Bucklin of Lincoln, made a very capable address. Then followed the dinner, after which a number of meetings touching the missionary work of the church, the Bible school, and the Baptist young peoples meetings and work was had. The ladies had a meeting in the evening which was for women only and an illustrated lecture in the basement by M. R. Bucklin, in the live subject of "America For the Boy," in which the stereopticon was used. In the evening the Rev. J. H. Dabney preached in the auditorium, making in all a very profitable all-day service.

Will Hold Services Sunday. Both the Methodist and Baptist churches there will be services during in the appointed time for the day. The Bible school, the young peoples meetings and the morning and evening services of both churches.

Have Interesting Meeting. The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd, Mrs. Todd being the leader for the occasion. A very profitable day was enjoyed and a very pleasant program rendered. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the pleasant afternoon.

Spilled Much Rice. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Dane and formerly Miss Ethel Rough, who was a bride but a few hours ago, were driving in the Missouri Pacific station in Union, when they were showered with rice and good wishes when they took the train for Whitewater, Wis., where Mrs.

Dane will teach in a summer school before going to Janesville, where they will make their home and be at home to their friends after August 15.

Farmers Union Hold Meeting.

The Farmers Union had a very interesting meeting at the M. W. A. hall last Wednesday, when they listened to a program furnished by the Union young ladies in which Miss Nettie McCarroll rendered a solo, which was greatly enjoyed. Miss Alice Todd and Naoma Maugay gave a duet, which met with equal favor. Proceeded by an instrumental number given by Miss Alice Todd. Mr. J. O. Shrader of Lincoln, made an extended address touching the interest of the farmer. Ice cream and cake was furnished and all had a most pleasant evening.

FOR OLD AGE PENSION

Convention This Afternoon Goes on Record in Favor of Measure to Provide for Needy.

Unanimous adoption of a resolution favoring governmental old age pensions was made at the business session of state and federal provision in their state convention this afternoon. The resolution calls for an invitation to similar action by state senates to unite with the Indiana eagles in requesting the grand aerie of Eagles to take "such action as will awaken public sentiment to the wisdom of state and federal provision that shall remove from the minds of the laborers of the land the haunting fear of want and pauperism in old age."

Text of Resolution. The old age pension adopted by the state convention Monday afternoon follows:

"Whereas, Modern industry with its intricate, swiftly moving machinery and rush for production requires the steady nerve, ready initiative, and exhaustless energy of youth and places the elderly workman in a serious disadvantage even if it does not debar him from employment, and

"Whereas, Experience has proved that the remuneration received during his productive years is, in many cases, through no fault of his own, utterly inadequate to enable the workman to 'layby' sufficient to provide for the non-productive years of later life, and

"Whereas, The Federal Order of Eagles in the United States alone, there are 1,250,000 such old age dependents on public and private charity; and

"Whereas, Such charity with its brand of pauperism inflicts an unjust stigma upon those unfortunate victims of our industrial system, who have expended the energy of their vigorous years in production for the benefit of society; and

"Whereas, Among civilized nations, the United States is the only prominent one that has not in some form or other recognized the obligation of the state to the humble toilers whose labors are the basis of its prosperity; and

"Whereas, The Fraternal Order of Eagles is particularly interested in this question; not only because of the economic status of a large portion of its membership, but also because of its fundamental principle of upholding justice in production for the benefit of society; and

"Resolved: By the Nebraska State Aerie of Eagles that we are in favor of governmental old age pensions, and that we invite our sister state aeries, and the subordinate aeries of the order to unite with us in requesting that grand aerie of 1921 to take such action as will awaken public sentiment to the wisdom of state and federal provision that shall remove from the minds of the laborers of the land the haunting fear of want and pauperism in old age."

BOYS TAKING CAR ARE SENTENCED

Two Plattsmouth Young Men Arraigned at Nebraska City and Are Given Light Sentence

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon in the district court at Nebraska City, George Pries and James Zoubek, both of this city were brought before Judge Begley charged with having stolen an auto from Biller Deming of Nebraska City, a few weeks ago. The complaint as filed by County Attorney Heinke charged the young man with stealing the car and which is a most serious offense. Judge Begley talked the matter over with the two boys and pointed out their wrong doing and to the court the boys told their story, claiming that they had no idea of stealing the car beyond the fact that they wanted a joy ride and had not expected to try and retain the car longer than they were out riding.

On the suggestion of the court as the two boys were evidently sincerely sorry for their offense, County Attorney Heinke changed the complaint so as to make it taking the car for joy riding purposes instead of stealing it and the court then gave the boys a fine of $100 each and three months in the Otoe county jail instead of the penitentiary sentence which they would have secured under the original complaint.

ENTERTAINED AT GLENWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lyon of this city, were the guests the last part of the past week at Glenwood, where they were guests at the home of Mrs. J. D. Ironmonger, mother of Mr. Lyon. While there they were very pleasantly entertained at the first anniversary of their marriage and a number of the young friends in that city were guests at a porch party given by Mrs. Ironmonger. Musical numbers and games served to pass the time delightfully and the hostesses completed the pleasant observance of the anniversary with the serving of a dainty and delicious luncheon.

Stop! Look and Paint!

Have you examined your buildings recently? Do they need paint? If so, and you are waiting for lower prices, you are only adding expense later on. The extra paint required for the same job will more than offset any decline that might come, as paint prices are very reasonable at present.

Buildings allowed to go unpainted naturally deteriorate very rapidly. Those rusty streaks down the sides are from nails, and as nails rust the building becomes loose and is apt to become greatly weakened.

Now is a good time to Paint 'em up. We sell the famous Sherwin-Williams Co. products. Best by test.
