INTERMIX THEIR WORK AND PLAY

Annual Children's Day Service of M. E. Sunday School Followed by Big Picnic Yesterday

Sunday evening, June 19th, the annual Children's day program was given by the members of the Sunday school of the First Methodist Episcopal church...

Everyone present fell into the spirit of the occasion and some great two ball, base ball and croquet games were played in the shade of the fine grove and upon the greensward.

SEEMS LIKE OLD TIMES

From Friday's Daily. Last evening an incident occurred that reminded the former doughboys in this city of the palmy days in old Paree, when the Hotel St. Anne and the night hand salute were in their prime.

The similarity arose over the failure of a sailor to salute a second lieutenant of the army, who has been here on some work at the rifle range and the furor that followed was such as would have pleased the most hotheaded member of the staff at the St. Anne. Lester Bailey, who is home on a furlough was the storm center of the affair and the lieutenant was very full of wrath that the right semphore of the young man had not snapped into position as he passed by and for a few minutes the sailor was threatened with arrest, trial and all the various punishments that the army regulations can provide from the 1st to the 95th. However, the matter passed without serious trouble beyond the first excitement as the officer evidently concluded that the affair was not as serious as was thought at first.

RIVER AT LAST OVERFLOWS.

From Saturday's Daily. After a long threatening period of two weeks, the flooded Platte and Missouri rivers this morning commenced pouring their waters over the bottom land east of the Burlington passenger station. The water flowing onto the Bach farm comes from the first channel of the Missouri river, which has been swollen by the waters from the Platte and is at some points of sufficient depth to allow a skiff to be navigated with ease. Reports from Schuyler indicate a few inches rise in the Platte there, while reports from Omaha indicate that a small raise may be looked for at all points from Fremont east to the Missouri.

TAKES TWO YOUNG BOYS UP WHO HAD RUN AWAY

On Saturday Marshal John Linn took charge of two young boys about the ages of 12 to 14 who had decided that home was not good enough for them and had decided to go out in the world and see what they could see. They had gotten as far as Elmwood from their home in Lincoln when tired and hungry they were taken up by Marshal Linn who took them in charge. They seemed quite docile and ready for any chance to get back home. They were taken home in the Tip-Top bread truck that makes this place every day and we will venture to say that they were mighty glad that they were on their way home and that they had learned enough of the big, big world that they will be content to stay at home for the present at least.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.
