RIVER CAUSES BURLINGTON MUCH GRIEF

Annual Overflow of the Missouri is Causing Much Expense in Ripping the East Bank

From Wednesday's Daily

The regular yearly battle between the forces of the water of the turbid Missouri river and the Burlington railroad is now on in full force and the portion of the river opposite this city on the Iowa side of the river is the scene of the battle ground and so far the combat seems to be a fifty-fifty draw although the railroad company is working day and night on the creation of new rip rap to resist the onrushing waters of the river.

The river succeeded on Sunday in tearing a large hole in the old rip rap and before it was checked had caused a great deal of damage in the farming lands that lie along the river bottoms on the Iowa side. The Burlington rushed all the available men to the scene of action and Division

Superintendent N. C. Allen of Omaha has personally been on the job to supervise the work and do all possible to check the flood waters.

All the available men that could be hired have been placed on the job and the railroad is still seeking men to send to the scene of action and assist in getting the breaks checked. Carloads of brush, rock and other material have been hauled to the scene of action and dumped into the greedy maw of the river in the hopes of assuring safety for the company property as well as the farming lands on the east side of the river.

The cost of the fight against the increasing force of the river has reached hundreds of thousands of dollars for the railroad company and still the river is able to seem almost as if it will rush in and wash away the efforts of hundreds of men's labors.

CELEBRATES TENTH BIRTHDAY.

The tenth birthday anniversary of little Dixie Allen was celebrated at the home here on last Saturday in a most delightful manner, and at which the members of the Sunday school class of the little lady were in attendance. The heat of the day led to the decision to hold the gathering in the cool shade of a nearby grove and there the young people spent the time most pleasantly in games and a general good time for the entire afternoon.

The guests were treated to a most tempting luncheon which was served by Mrs. M. B. Allen, mother of Mildred, Mrs. Jess Cahoon and Mrs. Olive Foster, which served to heighten the delights of the event.

Those to attend the pleasant occasion were Olive and Nina Hollowell, Leona Hudson, Hazel McBride, Jean Caldwell, Mabel Stedon, Florence Connor, Mildred Elliot, Janet Haffa, Arula and Dorothy Cahoon, Velna Fulton, Donald Jacks and Clarence Fulton.

ORDER FOR INCREASE OF MEN AT THE SHOPS

ONE HUNDRED MEN TO BE ADDED TO BURLINGTON PAY-ROLL HERE TUESDAY

SIXTY-FIVE IN FREIGHT SHOP

Other Departments Will Receive Additional Forces and Total will Near the 100 Mark.

From Wednesday's Daily

One of the most pleasing bits of news that has been received at the office of William Baird, superintendent of the Burlington shops in this city, is that authorizing an increase in the working force at the shops, which has been running very light for the past six months.

The orders received call for the putting on of sixty-five additional men in the freight car repair department which includes repair and steel car men and in other departments of the shops smaller additions will be made to the working forces that will make the total number added close to 100 in all departments of the shops.

The order is effective on Tuesday, July 5th, and will bring about a substantial increase in the amount of money paid out here each month by the railroad company and therefore is of the greatest interest to the citizens and business men of the community.

This change from the usual order of reduction in the working force is a most pleasing one and indicates that conditions are becoming more settled and that the railroads of the country are preparing to resume their usual activities and add to the material prosperity of the country. The greatest problem in the last half year has been the railroad situation and the constant reductions which were made around the first of the year, caused a large number all over the country to be thrown out of employment. The decision to resume the normal activities in shop work which is effective in almost all of the shops over the country will be most pleasing to the public and railroad men who have been out of employment for so many months.

HEAVY BATHING BEAUTY

One of the young men of the city, well known for his stepping ability and fascinations with the fair ones, is now limping around as the result of an injury received last Sunday while rusticiating at Krug park in the big town. It seems that the young man had donned a bathing suit and hid himself to the beach, which in the advertisements is made to appear as a rival of the real ocean depths but the bather discovered to his sorrow that such is not the case. While the fasinator was in bathing a fleshing bathing beauty whom it is claimed would tip the scales at 300 ringside weight, also entered the water and at once fell pray to the male vavup and their love-like antics in the water continued until the heavyweight with a graceful lunge threw herself into the arms of the of the young man, who being unused to wrestling any outside of the 130 class at once was forced downward and his knee cap came in contact with the bottom of the swimming pool and badly bruising the knee cap.

DOINGS IN DISTRICT COURT.

From Wednesday's Daily

This morning an action was filed in the office of Clerk of the District Court James M. Robertson entitled C. Lawrence Stull vs. Charles F. Richardson. In his petition the plaintiff alleges that the defendant had leased a portion of land of the plaintiff and one of the stipulations made was that the corn land should be cultivated and the plaintiff further states that he had secured Charles Dasher to cultivate the land and that the defendant refused to allow Mr. Dasher to continue the work and therefore the plaintiff asks that an injunction be given restraining the defendant from interfering with the work of cultivating the corn.

Yesterday afternoon Judge Begley heard the case of Margaret Lahoda vs. Henry Lahoda and after the taking of testimony the court handed down the decision granting the prayer of the plaintiff for a decree of divorce.

SUFFERS SERIOUS ACCIDENT

From Wednesday's Daily

A. W. Smith of this city was called to Council Bluffs yesterday by a letter that conveyed the news of a serious accident that befell Mrs. Smith in that city last Thursday. Mrs. Smith had been visiting her daughter at the Jennie Emmonson hospital where she is taking treatment, and had started to cross the street in front of the hospital to reach the street car, when an automobile driven by a lady came along and struck Mrs. Smith, knocking her down causing a fracture of the right leg as well as breaking one of the ribs. The word was not sent to Mr. Smith until Monday and he at once hastened to the bedside of the wife to do all possible for her care.

ASKS FOR PARDON

In speaking of the application of Henry Burrows, sentenced from Cass county for murder, for a pardon, official notices of which now appears in the columns of the Journal, the Omaha Bee has the following from Lincoln relative to the case. A greater part of the residents of this vicinity are familiar with the incidents related:

"The plea of Henry Burrows, 71, murderer, to return to his old home in England to die, will be heard by the state board of pardons and paroles at its hearing July 19.

"Burrows shot and killed his only friend Bill Sayles, at Plattsmouth, on Christmas eve, 1911. His statement to the board of the affair reads: "Bill and I were lonely that night. We went into Plattsmouth and bought some liquor. Then we went to my shack. We drank and laughed and talked. Suddenly Bill jumped up and struck me. Then he ran out of the door. I grabbed my gun and went across the street to his shack. When I opened the door, he grabbed for his gun. I shot first."

"Burrows and Sayles were gardeners near Plattsmouth, and were known as cronies. They were both about 65 when the murder was committed.

"Since his incarceration, Burrows has been in charge of the state prison greenhouse. He seldom talks to anyone except the flowers he tends.

"They are the only friends I have this side of the Atlantic since Bill is dead," he told a visitor recently.

"And they're the only one who understand and love me. "But across the ocean I have nieces and nephews who remember me, write to me, and urge me to come home. "They don't know that Lancaster, Neb., means the state penitentiary, and I want to go back and forget the past and have a real being love me again."
