Tissue Gingham

in such pretty pink, blue and green plaids, can be charmingly styled into such attractive, cool and becomingly designs, that no wardrobe is complete without at least one Tissue Gingham dress.

You note that the plaids of other summers cannot compare with the generous colorings offered in this season's display, and their chief charm lies in the tasteful patterns and dainty transparency of the fabric.

A trim frock can be piped and collared in plain colors to match, while others with plaits and panels vie with frills and scallops of organdie in more elaborate patterns for your favor. Price

50c to $1.00

DE MOLAY IS ESTABLISHED ORDER HERE

FINAL CEREMONIES OF INITIATION AND INSTALLATION HELD LAST NIGHT.

The final work of installing Cass chapter of the Order of DeMolay was completed last evening at the Modern Woodmen hall when under the working of the degree staff of the Omaha chapter the members of the local chapter were received into the order and the newly selected officers of Cass chapter installed into their stations and the chapter formally for the transaction of its affairs.

The lessons which should have a deep bearing on the future lives of the splendid class of young men who comprise the local chapter, was presented in a most impressive manner by the Omaha officers and staff and left on the minds of the new membership their lasting impression that will tend to mould their lives along the lines of higher ideals and inspirations for the future years as they broaden out into the fullness of mature lives.

The afternoon ceremonies were largely given over to the officers of the new chapter and fitting them for the positions they would hold in the future among their associates in the order. Both of the degrees were administered to the candidates by the staff.

The order held a recess from their work from 5 o'clock to 8 and during which time the members were given the opportunity of enjoying a most pleasing feast prepared for them by the ladies of Home Chapter No. 189 O. E. S. and which was served at the city park. The menu was all that the most discriminating could ask for and consisted of fried chicken, salads, ice cream and cake and all of the tempting dainties that the ladies know so well how to prepare. At the supper there were 170 present and it was an occasion that all felt had left nothing more to be desired.

The resumption of work at the hall took up the completion of the initiation of the remaining candidates and the formal installing of the order into their respective stations and was given in a manner that deeply impressed not only the candidates but the members of the Masonic fraternity of whom a large number were present to view the work.

Following the close of the session the members were given the opportunity of hearing a few remarks on the good of the order and under which, Dr. Zoro Clark of Omaha, one of the chief figures in the national organization of the Order of DeMolay was heard at some length. Dr. Clark is a notable figure in Masonry and has devoted himself heart and soul in the advancement of the Order of DeMolay which has been founded for the betterment and advancement of the youth of the land and to lay their lives along the pathway of the better things of life. The remarks of Dr. Clark were to the point and made a very marked impression on the auditors as he told of the principles on which the order was founded and the purposes and aims that its destiny demanded for its membership.

Dr. Clark is one of the truly notable figures in the life of Masonry in this portion of the west and his wonderful knowledge of the teachings and history of the fraternity has given a great advantage to the lodges with which he has been affiliated both in this state and in Missouri where he was for a great many years a prominent figure in the order. This gentleman is one of the men who was largely responsible for the DeMolay being made into a national organization and he may well be pleased with his splendid efforts for the young men of the nation.

The Order of DeMolay was founded in 1919 at Kansas City, Missouri, and grew to large numbers there and later the second chapter was established at Omaha. In March 1920 the two chapters had a membership of 415, while today the chapters under charter have a membership of 25,000 and with the chapters operating under dispensation it numbers 65,000 of the finest young men of the land.

The order bears as its name that of the twenty-second and last grand master of the Knights Templar, Jacques DeMolay, who was born in 1240 in Beaune, Burgundy, France, and who was received into the Knights Templar in the temple at Beaune France in 1265. He at once took an active part in the crusades in the Holy land and while absent on a crusade in the year 1298 was elected as the grand master of the order. He on his return to France was subjected to a series of persecutions at Poitiers, and on March 11, 1307 was burned at the stake in front of the cathedral of Notre Dame at Paris. Altho the life of the martyr was still in death his spirit carried on and today blooms afresh in the order that is to aid the youth of the world.

The citizens of Plattsmouth of all creeds can feel well pleased that this order has been established here as it lifts up the young men to a better understanding of the love of home, the cherishing of friendship, loyalty to home, country and flag and the reverence of the good that the world holds in the teachings of the christian faith.

FRANK I. FANGER TO TAKE OVER STORE

Rustling Young Manager of the M. Fanger Store Buys Stock and Will Continue Business.

As will be seen elsewhere in this issue of the Journal, M. Fanger, the owner of the department store on upper Main street, has closed out his interest in the establishment to his nephew, Frank I. Fanger, who will take over the store after the 1st of July and continue to operate it along the lines of offering the people of the city the best possible buying opportunities.

Mr. Fanger, on retiring from business, is extending to the many friends in this city his heartiest well wishes and the assurance that their generous patronage is more than appreciated by him and that the good people here will always have a warm spot in his heart.

Frank Fanger, the new owner of the store, has made arrangements with the owner of the White building, Mr. F. R. Gobelman, whereby he has secured a further extension of the lease that will enable him to continue in business at the old stand and he will be on the job every day to see that the good people of the city are given the fullest opportunity of getting their choice of the offerings of the markets of the nation.

The new owner of this up-to-date business house has been a resident in our city for the past eight or ten months and during his stay here has made a great many warm friends as he is personally of a very genial
