

New Apparel and Household Needs in Notable Assortment at Bargain Prices!

Good Gloves!

—in mode beaver, black and white silk, add much to the costumes of summer time. These silk gloves are reinforced at fingers which gives them longer wearing quality.

Short gloves in all sizes, prices $1.25 to $1.50.

Long gloves in all sizes, $2.50.

Linens and Towels!

Mercerized damask, per yard, $1 and $1.50. A fine quality of white mercerized damask in attractive patterns, 68 to 72 inches in width.

Linen crash, per yard, 33 and 35c. All pure linen crash, brown, 18 inches wide.

Russia cotton crash, per yard, 30c. In white only, 16 inches wide. An excellent quality for the money.

Turkish toweling, per yard, 45c. Heavy quality, 18 inches wide—gives you the opportunity to make your towels the length you like.

Dresser scarfs, $1. Lovely lace trimmed scarfs in neat patterns, 50 inches long.

Art scarfs, 60c. 18 inches wide for table runners and dresser scarfs.

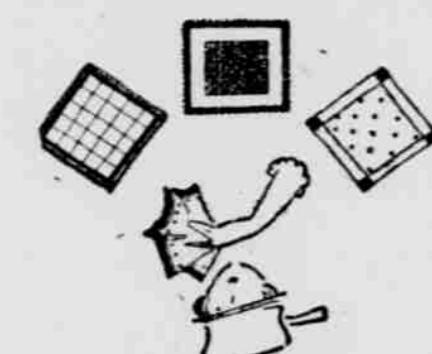

Embroidery thread in all wanted colors that will not fade for those who like to while away the long summer afternoons in some dainty work that will give the home a personal touch.

Japanese lunch cloths, 48 inches square, $1.25.

Japanese lunch cloths, 63 inches square, $4.

Japanese dresser scarfs, 54 inches long, 89c.

Japanese bed spreads, 2½ yards long, $4.50.

Handkerchiefs!

We have purchased a large assortment of lovely handkerchiefs and the price is within the reach of all. Take along a good supply for that vacation trip. These hot days one cannot have too many—plain white, white with colored edges, also colored edges with embroidered corners, priced 15c to 35c.

Plain white handkerchiefs with narrow or wide hem, specially priced at 7c each.

House Dresses and Aprons!

Plaid gingham porch dresses—organza trimmed. All sizes, $3.95.

Plain colored gingham porch dresses—cretonne trimmed, all sizes.

Percale housedresses in light and dark colors—all sizes, $3.95.

Percale slip-on bungalow aprons—in light and dark patterns, all sizes, $1.25.

Fluffy and New

—are these dainty ruffled vestings made of tiers of narrow and wide Val edgings and insertions. They lend a touch of freshness to your suit or frock—or perhaps you'll want insertion banding, lace for collar and cuffs to match the vesting. Vest length, $1. Banding, $1.75 per yd.

Collar and cuff sets all of crisp sheer organza in the most delightful style—of plain white organza with embroidered dot borders, just the thing for your frock or sweater. Price $1.50.

Philippine nightdresses—daintily scalloped, ribbon drawn, $2.50.

Philippine nightdresses—embroidered vine pattern, $3.50.

Philippine nightdresses—finely scalloped, handsomely embroidered, $4.50.

Philippine envelope chemises—scalloped neck embroidered, $2.25.

Philippine envelope chemises—embroidered dots and figures, $3.50.

Philippine envelope chemises—handsomely embroidered, $3.85.

Philippine Lingerie:

Philippine nightdresses—daintily hand scalloped, ribbon drawn, $2.50.

Philippine nightdresses—embroidered vine pattern, $3.50.

Philippine nightdresses—finely scalloped, handsomely embroidered, $4.50.

Philippine envelope chemises—scalloped neck embroidered, $2.25.

Philippine envelope chemises—embroidered dots and figures, $3.50.

Philippine envelope chemises—handsomely embroidered, $3.85.

BOXING PROVES BIG CARD IN THE STATE

Many Fast bouts Staged on National Independence Day in Different Towns Over the State.

The boxing fans over the state were given a real treat yesterday in the various matches held under the regulations of the new boxing law soon to become effective, and which were staged under the auspices of the American Legion posts of the various towns.

In addition to the Roper-Schmader bout in Omaha the following are a few of the matches and the result:

Columbus, Neb., July 4.—Sudenberg won a decision in a boxing contest against Roy Rector tonight. Rector was completely knocked out in the second round.

Norfolk, Neb., July 4.—Jack Leahy of Winona, S. D., was given a decision over Harry Reed, of Lincoln, in their boxing bout here tonight.

Frank Farr, of Decatur, Neb., knocked out Jack McGinn of Wisner, Neb., in the fourth round of a scheduled eight-round bout.

Grand Island, Neb., July 4.—"Kid" Schlaifer of Omaha and "Big" Rolfe of Philadelphia, fought a fast ten-round draw here tonight in the main event of the local Legion post's athletic entertainment.

Bob Ferguson, of Omaha, knocked out "Kid" Ted O'Brien, of Sioux City in the second round of a scheduled six-frame semi-windup bout.

Columbus, Neb., July 4.—Tony Melchoir, of Chicago, won his fight with George Lamson of Waltham here this afternoon when Lamson dislocated bone in his right hand in the second round and refused to go on for the third.

Melchoir had the best of both rounds, landing at will with a left jab that served to keep Lamson back, and at the same time cut him up considerably.

Undoubtedly this piston-like jabbing would have provided a kayo opening had the fight gone farther.

Lamson landed very few blows, as Melchoir's cleverness apparently was in a class away over the Indian's in the semi-final, a six-round affair.

"Bud" Lamson stopped Bernard Dempsey, of Grand Island, in the second round.

TIMES FLAYS THE POLICY OF SECRECY

Quotes Birkenhead as Saying Anglo-Japanese Pact Automatically Renewed—Points Harm

Herman Hennings was among those going to Omaha this afternoon to spend a few hours there looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. Joseph McCarthy and little daughter were among those going to Omaha this afternoon to visit for a few hours with friends.

Percy H. Field departed this morning for Red Oak, Iowa, where he will spend the day looking after some matters of importance in that city.

Dr. J. F. Brendel of Murray was among those going to Omaha this afternoon to visit for a few hours with patients at the hospitals in that city.

Miss Katherine Waddick was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will be the guest of friends in that city for the week and enjoys a short outing.

Henry F. Goos, the genial representative of the Fetzer Shoe Co. was in the metropolis today looking after some matters with the wholesale houses in that city.

Percy H. Field departed this morning for Red Oak, Iowa, where he will spend the day looking after some matters of importance in that city.

Dr. J. F. Brendel of Murray was among those going to Omaha this afternoon to visit for a few hours with patients at the hospitals in that city.

Miss Katherine Waddick was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will be the guest of friends in that city for the week and enjoys a short outing.

Henry F. Goos, the genial representative of the Fetzer Shoe Co. was in the metropolis today looking after some matters with the wholesale houses in that city.

It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."

No harm could be done by publication of Lord Birkenhead's discovery," says the Times, "and the sooner all British peoples have the benefit of it the better. The puzzle is why the foreign office failed to make the discovery long ago.

"It would seem indeed that had the dominions been frankly informed of this simple legal position before the departure of their premiers, a vast amount of misunderstanding, unnecessary speculation and controversy might have been spared to the press, public and politicians of the whole world.

In a year's time, all the Pacific problem hinging on the treaty question may be viewed from a totally different standpoint, since it is opened and is probable that the powers concerned will have adjusted many of the positions which now seem, if not reconcilable, at least difficult and potentially dangerous."</