Louis Stava, who has been in the employ of a large exporting live stock concern in the east is here to visit with his mother who is seriously ill at the hospital in Omaha. Mr. Stava has been traveling extensively over the east with cattle shipments and also has made trips to England in this capacity.

THE WAY HOW TO DO THINGS WELL

All the educated world will celebrate the memory of Dante Alighieri next September, in which month he died 600 years ago. Dante holds his place as one of the half-dozen greatest poets of all time by virtue of his Divina Commedia. It took him many, many years to write this poem, absolutely unique in literature. But that is the only way how to do things well. The work that lives does with thought and care; the work that dies was done thoughtlessly and carelessly. Triner's Bitter Wine is also such a work which lives and will live, because it took many years of studies, experiments and tests to reach the present perfection of this remedy which has no equal in case of constipation, poor appetite, headaches and other stomach disorders. "If it is good, we must make it better," has been the slogan of Triner's laboratories. Every druggist or dealer in medicines has Triner's Bitter Wine in stock. But insist upon the original Triner's!

GREEK TARTAR PREACHES NEW GOSPEL OF HEALTH

Says Man Has Three Personalities, Seeks Fourth to Control the Other Three.

Constantinople.—A new gospel of health—that man is not one, but three, and that he cannot function fully until his three personalities are in harmony—has come here from the middle East on the tide of Russian and other refugees from far countries.

This gospel is proclaimed by a small, dark man of mystery, a Greek Tartar, G. I. Gurdjieff. He has contributed to the meager intellectual life of the city a new throbbing.

The outward and primary form of his teachings begins with dances borrowed from the Mosques of Persia and the temples of India. He puts some of his patients on bread and water for months at a time but requires them, all the while, to carry on the most violent exercises which conform to the music of a piano.

Gurdjieff's teachings have some similarity with the ancient Greek conceptions of the development of mental force and bodily grace and activity.

He is persuaded that his teachings will change the art of living. He has gathered about him a group of converts who say they are going to spread his theories westward, some going to the United States. He says he was taught by Russian physicians and psychologists.

"In harmony there is health," declared Gurdjieff. "The western world of medicine and psychology has never grasped the truth that man is not controlled by one personality, but by three, and when these three are in harmony a man says he is 'sick.' A sick man, a man with that tired feeling, is like a horse and carriage without a driver. The man is not master of himself.

"Civilization has led man away from himself, physically and spiritually. Too much use of the head has dehumanized him. Man is composed of three parts, just like a machine. One part thinks, one feels and one acts and sleeps. If man thinks too much, or eats too much, or sleeps too much, he falls ill.

"My plan is to first put the three back into a common unity, and then gradually develop a fourth personality which controls the other three. If this fourth personality, or dominating consciousness, is not developed, the three men in the same body never establish contact with each other, and the anarchy we call sickness destroys him."

EARL USED A SILK HAT AS FOOTBALL IN LONDON

A recent report from London says that the Earl of Carlisle was charged with drunkenness in Burlington Gardens, London, and with kicking a silk hat about. The Earl's grandmother, Rosalind, is a prominent advocate of total abstinence. In 1915 on her instructions 1500 bottles of old vintage wine were poured into a hole in the ground at Castle Howard, her Yorkshire seat.

KITTEN GETS FREE RIDE

Was Found on the Trucks of a Car—Acted Like a Tramp.

Earl Parker, cook on a "Frisco" diner, was giving an omelet a fine beating with a spoon as his train rolled out of Fort Scott, Kan., when he heard a loud and plaintive "meow."

When the train arrived at Kansas City Parker heard the feline screech again. Investigation revealed a small gray kitten curled up comfortably on the trucks under the diner. It had hopped its way from Fort Scott to Kansas City, and when taken from the trucks and placed on the platform promptly climbed back on the trucks again. The "hobo" kitten is now the mascot of the train crews in the "Frisco" yards at Kansas City.

HARDING APPEALS TO SENATE TO DEFER ACTION ON THE BONUS MEASURE.

Washington, July 12.—Pledges of a wide majority of votes to lay aside the soldier bonus bill were claimed by republican leaders and conceded by opponents after President Harding in an address to the senate today had made formal request for temporary postponement of consideration of the measure.

In making his request the president called attention to the condition of the treasury, saying that enactment of the legislation at this time would greatly imperil the financial stability of our country.

Immediately after the president had finished speaking, Chairman Penrose of the finance committee, moved that the bill be recommitted to his committee, but democratic opposition flared up and prevented a vote today. The motion was tomorrow was expected.

Says Prudence Warns President Harding delivered his address before a distinguished audience. Reiterating his recognition of the obligations to care for disabled and dependent war veterans, the president said "general compensation" should be entered upon at a time when it would be consistently possible.

"Overburdening of the treasury now means positive disaster in the years immediately before us," the president declared. "More prudence calls out in warning."

The president at the same time urged action on tariff and tax legislation for which the extra session was especially called. There was, he said, "confessed disappointment" that so little progress had been made on readjustment and reduction of the war time taxes. He also urged early passage of the bill to reorganize war risk and vocational training services to aid former service men.

Death of the Bill Immediately upon the president's departure, Senator Penrose offered the republican motion for recommitment of the bill with a promise of "further careful consideration."

Democrats rose at once in opposition. Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, declared the motion meant "death" for the bill. It would become "dead—for some years," he predicted, declaring the recommitment motion was a "shield" for senators pledged previously to support the measure.

Another opponent of the Penrose motion, Senator Jones, democrat, New Mexico, speaking for two hours, declared the president's action unprecedented. No other executive, he said, had ever appeared before congress to oppose legislation, but only to advocate it.

Defense of the president was made by Senator King, democrat, Utah, who said the executive's course was "proper and courageous."

SAYS INDUSTRIAL LAW AFFECTS BOTH PARTIES

Topeka, Kan., July 10.—The law establishing the court for industrial relations sets on both employer and employee, the Kansas supreme court held today in a memorandum in the wage case appealed from the industrial court by the Charles Wolf Packing company of Topeka.

The wages paid employees in a packing house are a matter of public concern, and the determination of the sufficiency of such wage is a question affected with a public interest, the memorandum sets forth. The court also declared that the law does not violate the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the federal constitution.

MUCH MORE FAVORABLE

The taking back into the employ of the Burlington shops of some 100 men as well as the extra work in the harvest fields has disposed of a great deal of the surplus labor in this city and several parties report that it is hard to secure any extra labor at the present time. In this vicinity a number of young men who have been employed here in the past year, left the city at the time of the layoff in the shops and this of course checked the supply of available labor.

The securing of harvest hands in this locality has been a matter of a great deal of importance and County Agent Snipes while here Monday stated that there were always calls for this class of labor at the present time and he was particularly anxious to see that any former service men who desire it are given a job on the farms during the harvest season, if nothing else.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO VISIT DEN

Cass and Otoe County Night at Ak-Sar-Ben Frolic in Omaha on Monday, July 25th.

The Chamber of Commerce of this city are preparing to take part in the Cass and Otoe county night at the Ak-Sar-Ben den in Omaha, which has been set for Monday evening, July 25th, and at which time delegations from this city, Nebraska City, Weeping Water and Syracuse will be present to take part in the festivities of which Samson is so fond of staging.

It is expected that it may be possible to secure sufficient automobiles to convey the party to and from Omaha and all the members of the civic organization as well as citizens who have cars will be solicited to take their cars on the pilgrimage to the big town up the river.

Those who have attended Ak-Sar-Ben shows in the past years realize that there will be something doing at the den that will be highly entertaining and everyone of the residents here who can, should be in attendance at the festivities.

LEGION MEN WRITE LETTER TO HARDING

Regret Attitude of President on the Matter of Deferred Compensation for War Vets.

Chicago, July 11.—Effecting a permanent organization to be known as the Mississippi valley conference of the American Legion, Legion commanders and executives meeting here today voted an unyielding stand for better hospitalization for disabled soldiers and sailors, and a bonus for all needy service men who may request it.

Six states were represented. The new organization will embrace eight new states, Robert G. Simmons, department of Nebraska, was elected temporary secretary.

A letter was sent to President Harding expressing disappointment felt by the members of the Legion over the stand taken by the president on the adjusted compensation bill before congress. The letter, in part, says:

"We feel deeply your attitude towards the adjusted compensation bill, when in 1917, we offered you and America all we had to preserve for you and your heritage the country over which you are president. We urge you seriously to reconsider your stand and do everything possible to carry out your pledge made to the men who preserved the country and expedite the passage of the adjusted compensation bill."

MAY DISBAND SOME ARMY REGIMENTS, SAYS WEEKS

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Some regiments may be disbanded rather than skeletonized and a number of divisions merged, Secretary Weeks said today in discussing the method of reducing the enlisted strength of the army from approximately 220,000 to 150,000 men as directed by congress.

It was estimated that six of the military encampments constructed during the war and still maintained as army posts, will be abandoned. The army would retain title to the land, water and sewerage systems of the reservations, it was said, so that they may be made available without delay in case of emergency.

JOHNSON CANNOT FIGHT IN NEBRASKA

Lincoln, Neb., July 12.—If Jack Johnson, negro, former heavyweight champion, stages any fights, he must do it somewhere else than in Nebraska, Secretary H. H. Antles of the department of public welfare declared yesterday. Under the provisions of the new boxing law which permits ten-round bouts in Nebraska, Secretary Antles is placed in charge of the boxing commission.

"Jack Johnson will never be issued a license to fight in Nebraska, so long as I am head of the department of public welfare," Mr. Antles said. The law gives the secretary discretionary power over the issuing of licenses.

The rules under which boxing contests will be staged in Nebraska under the new law possibly will be published this week, Secretary Antles said.

ATTACKS VISIT OF HARDING TO CAPITOL

Washington, D. C., July 11.—President Harding was attacked today by Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, for visiting the capitol last week and urging deferment of the soldiers' bonus bill. The president, Senator Harrison told the Senate, disregarded public promises made early in his administration to avoid interfering with congressional prerogatives.

Addressing senate republicans Senator Harrison said: "For eight long years you abused this side of the aisle, saying we were nothing but rubber stamps, and responded only to the will of the president. We, thank God, responded to requests for legislation for the people. You respond to request for the defeat of legislation for the people."

EITHER POOR ICE OR NO ICE AT ALL

Company Forced to Supply Customers With Ice Stored in Ice House—Which Causes Complaint

The customers of the local ice company have for the past two days been complaining of the quality of the ice served them and which it is admitted is not as good as has been sold out in the past but it fills a long felt want.

The artificial ice plant has not been able to supply the demand in the last few days and Manager J. B. Kuykendall that in order to keep the Plattsmouth patrons in ice he has had the ice stored in the ice houses to be distributed to the customers. This ice is in smaller pieces and not of the excellent cleanness of the regular supply but the manager feels that all of the customers when they realize that it is this ice or no ice that they will be satisfied to wait a few days until the plant is once more in running order.

Our neighboring towns of Louisville, Glenwood and Pacific Junction have all exhausted their local supplies of ice and it is only due to the foresight in having the ice houses filled here that the Plattsmouth people can have the pleasure of receiving their ice regularly.

It is hoped that a short time will see the plant here in full operation and which insures the ice being placed back in the same high quality as of the past.

The event has been looked forward to with the greatest of pleasure by the members of the class and the visits and associations among the members will be very enjoyable and bring in touch once more those who spent their years in school together. There are several members of the class residing out of the city who may be unable to be present but the greater part will be able to participate in the pleasant occasion.

The earlier portion of the evening is to be devoted to entertainment furnished by members of the class while the last part of the evening will be given over to dancing by the young people.

HEAVY WIND AND RAIN OVER COUNTY

Storm is Especially Heavy in Vicinity of Weeping Water and Very Heavy Rain in Cedar Creek

The storm yesterday afternoon seems to have been rather severe in the central and western portions of the county and was largely wind and rain parties coming into the city report that the wind in the vicinity of Weeping Water was particularly heavy and preceded the rain storm.

In the vicinity of Cedar Creek a very heavy rain fell shortly after 4 o'clock and was accompanied by a great deal of wind and lightning and several trees were damaged by the wind while the roads in the low places suffered from the overflow of watercourses. Parties traveling over the highways immediately after the storm experienced a great deal of difficulty in traveling but in a very short time the roads were in passable shape and the Louisville road which was being worked yesterday was little damaged by the storm.
