RELIEF BILL IS DOOMED TO RECOMMITTAL

SENATE TO VOTE TOMORROW ON REQUEST OF HARDING TO DEFER THE MATTER.

Washington, July 13.—An agreement for a vote Friday at 3 o'clock on the motion to recommit the soldiers' bonus bill was reached by the senate late today by unanimous consent.

The result of the vote, leaders of both factions agreed, was not in doubt. Recommitment, as requested by President Harding, is deemed certain.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader, secured the agreement at the close of another day's assault by democratic senators. He said the recommitment motion was in the way of other important measures such as the anti-beer and maternity bills. In agreeing to a vote, however, democrats gave notice that they would not only oppose the republican motion, but also would seek to instruct the finance committee to report the bill back at an early date.

Senators Watson, of Georgia, and Hefflin, of Alabama, led the democratic attack today on the motion to recommit. Senator Myers, democrat, Montana, however, advocated recommitment.

The voting agreement involves holding the bonus measure and the recommitment motion before the senate continuously until the roll call Friday. It was reached after the republican side gave up hope of securing a vote either today or tomorrow. Private overtures for a vote tomorrow were rejected by democratic senators, who insisted that ample time should be given for presenting the opposition arguments to the country.

Says Interests Command

That President Harding had exceeded his constitutional limitations in asking the senate to postpone consideration of the bill was asserted by Senator Watson. The republican move, he said, was to send the bill "to a chloroform committee presided over by a chloroform senator." That the republicans proposed "putting the bill to sleep forever" was asserted also by Senator Hefflin.

Senator Hefflin charged that big money interests contributed to election of a republican president and congress, and now were saying, "deliver the goods." The same interests, he said, were threatening to cause a panic if the bill should be passed. He contended that the treasury was amply able to bear the burden of the bill.

Senator McCumber, republican, of North Dakota, who caused the bill to be placed before the senate on behalf of the finance committee, today conferred with President Harding.

Legion to Continue Fight

Indianapolis, Ind., July 13.—The American Legion will fight on for adjusted compensation without any change in the provisions of its present program, following the message of President Harding to the senate, urging delayed action, John G. Emery, Legion national commander, declared in a statement issued from national headquarters here today.

"The sudden alarm, which apparently has swept over government officials, lest through adjusted compensation the United States treasury be so depleted as to mean national calamity, will cause no recession of our activity to bring about such measures of civil re-establishment and material readjustment as we believe to be for the best interest of the country itself," Mr. Emery declared.

"Our claims for adjusted compensation were not made until by a careful study the contentions of our ex-service men were ascertained, which beyond any doubt justify every provision set forth in the adjusted compensation bill," he said. "I believe that Secretary Mellon vastly overestimates the cost of such provision. Precedent disproves his prediction of financial collapse if the proposed bill passes. England and her overseas dominions, Italy, France and Belgium enacted national relief legislation and found money thus expended a potent factor in stabilizing economic conditions generally thru rehabilitation of individuals."

Mr. Emery today told Senator Porter J. McCumber, who has led the fight on the senate floor for the Legion measure, that recommitment of the bill to the committee must not be permitted. As the bill seemed doomed to almost certain delay, Mr. Emery wired:

"The Legion earnestly requests that members of congress do their duty by those who served in armed forces as they have done by those who served in industrial forces of our country."

RAIL BOARD REFUSES TO REDUCE TRAIN FARES

Lincoln, Neb., July 14.—The state railway commission today refused to order the reduction in street car fares that was asked at a hearing held some weeks ago. It authorized the continuation of the present emergency rate.

The decision on the Omaha fare hearing at which an increase in fares was asked by the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company has not yet been arrived at by the commission.

COX AMONG EDITORS GIVING HARDING CHAIR

Washington, July 13.—James M. Cox, "a newspaper publisher of Dayton, O.," was a caller at the White House today when a high backed "editorial chair," presented to President Harding by more than 600 fellow newspaper editors, was added to the furnishings of the presidential study.
The chair was made of wood from the famous old schooner Revenge, captured from the British on Lake Champlain during the revolutionary war and was presented through a committee headed by Ernest F. Birmingham, of the Fourth Estate. Senator Capper of Kansas, publisher of the Topeka Capitol, was selected to make the presentation speech in behalf of the committee of seventy-five which came to the White House.
