Judging from the figures for coal production, a business revival this fall will be followed by a fuel shortage during the winter. NOTICE TO FARMERS

I will be in the County Superintendent's office in Plattsmouth on Monday of each week. If you wish an office call, make it in the forenoon, as in the afternoons I will visit the farms where asked to do so. Make use of these days and the Farm Bureau will continue its weekly visits. Phone 479.
