Strictly High Class Legitimate Banking!

This is the policy you will find among all the conservative, reliable city banks, and is also true of the high class banks of the smaller towns and villages, where such banks really have the interests of their friends and customers at heart.

It has always been the policy of the Bank of Murdock to conduct a first class high grade legitimate bank, and to confine its business strictly to commercial banking, never permitting its name, or allowing its officers to assist in the selling of any Stocks or Life Insurance, or like schemes.

We use our influence on our friends only where it may be of benefit to themselves and our community.

The large commissions paid for assisting in selling Stocks or Life Insurance do not tempt us to work a hardship on our friends, at their expense, just in order that we might make a bunch of "SIDE MONEY." We strive for the regular, legitimate, conservative, honest banking business, paying a decent rate of interest on time deposits, and loaning money to local farmers and business men at reasonable rates of interest.

We congratulate ourselves on having built up a REAL BANK with over FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY SATISFIED CUSTOMERS.

If a dependable, conservative, "Live and let Live" strictly banking institution appeals to you, and you are not already a customer of ours, we earnestly invite you to join the BANK OF MURDOCK family, and you will rest assured that we will take care of all your reasonable demands, and you will not find us trying to sell you something you don't want, against your better judgment.

A Most Enjoyable Time

The Young People's association, an auxiliary of the Evangelical church, held a pleasant gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Vogt, on every hand. Mrs. William Vogt, a number who had intended to attend were prevented by the threatening weather, but even this did not daunt the majority and a large crowd was present to enjoy the social good time.

Business Getting Better

That business is on the upgrade and fast approaching a return to normalcy cannot be denied. As the volume of work has been rapidly increasing until now even the bosses are compelled to pitch in and work from twelve to fifteen hours a day. The elevators is another line in which the increase has been most marked. In every line, however, there is renewed activity and prospects look better every day.

In some of the wholesale markets there is a shortage of merchandise, due to the closed-down conditions of a few months, and this means the wheels of industry will have to turn with increased activity in order to again catch up. The so-called buyers' strike has not been without its good effects as well as its bad, and these are reflected in a cleaning up of the surplus market and a resumption of business on the basic law of supply and demand.

Found a Bridge Out

While the Journal field man was en route from Alvo to Murdock last Thursday, skipping along the country road east of the Bushberry school at the rate of about fifteen miles an hour, we met up with an accident that put our "white mule" on the hummer. The grass being high on both sides of the road as well as in the center, before we were aware of it we were right upon it and the place where a bridge had been but was no more. We applied the brake but to no avail and our "mule" plunged down the bank. No amount of coaxing would induce her to come up again, so we went down the road afoot in search of help, coming to the home of George Nickel, who furnished a spade and returned with us. After moving about some dozen or more cubic yards of dirt, we were able to get the car out, but tarried long enough to place some posts in the roadway so other travelers over the highway might not have the same luck. We afterward learned that three other cars had gone into the same hole.

The Local Cream Market

Some people are doubtless unaware that Murdock has an excellent cream station where the highest market price is paid in cash for butterfat. All you have to do is bring your cream to town and get the check for it—no risk of shipping or waiting for the returns. Mr. Inhelder, who conducts the station, uses the latest electrical testing appliances, and by shipping in large quantities is able just now, when time is the farmer's greatest asset, the time consumed in billing out the cream shipments at the railroad station, looking after collecting the empty cans as they are returned and waiting for his money, could be used to count to good advantage in other work about the farm. Another thing worth considering is the fact that cream may be delivered to Mr. Inhelder as late as ten o'clock in the evening, while at the Reek Island station there is a limit to the number of hours the railroad employees work.

Visiting Friends in Plattsmouth

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Guthmann and children went to Plattsmouth last Wednesday evening for a visit of several days with friends and relatives. During their absence, they turned the home over to Max Dusterhoff and Joe Wutehinek who have been busy refinishing the floors. Three coats of varnish and a coat of wax are on the program and when the work is finished the floors will surely present a "stick" appearance.

Met with Mrs. Gustin

The R. N. A. Kensington club met last week at the home of Mrs. J. J. Gustin southwest of town. The meeting was held Thursday afternoon and a most enjoyable time was had on the shady lawn surrounding this beautiful country home. The ladies were able to do a great deal of work, and were served a most delightful luncheon, which was one of the enjoyable features of the occasion. All who were present are loud in their praise of Mrs. Gustin as a hostess and will look forward with pleasure to the time of meeting there again.

ADVOCATES INOCULATION AGAINST TYPHOID

Army Records Show Its Value, Says Dr. Dillon, State Health Bureau Chief.

Lincoln, July 29th.—Protection against typhoid by the use of the anti-typhoid serum used to immunize the soldiers of the world war is strongly recommended by Dr. E. H. Dillon, chief of the state bureau of health.

"Every person in the state of Nebraska should be inoculated with the anti-typhoid serum," Dr. Dillon said today. "There is no need for anyone to be typhoid if he takes the proper precautions. Army records show that there is no element of danger in the use of the serum. Out of more than 4,000,000 men in the army inoculated there was not one case of disability as a result. There was so little typhoid in the army during the war when conditions are now ideal for it, that the value of the serum is conclusively proven."

Dr. Dillon declared, however, that there is no danger of a typhoid epidemic in Nebraska. The records show few cases, he declared, and are no more than ordinary. "Nebraska is not a typhoid territory," he said. "In Iowa, not 200 miles east, where the water is obtained from shallow wells, there is more typhoid in a month than we have in a year," he declared.

VISITS OLD HOME

From Saturday's Daily.

A. L. Cox, for many years a resident of Mynard, where he was in charge of a general store, came in last evening for a short visit through this portion of the state with old time friends. Mr. Cox is now traveling inspector of the American Steel Wire company, of Indiana, and has been making a flying trip over the west in the interests of his company. He will be remembered by the older residents of this portion of Cass county and also was for a number of years in business at Nebraska City.

A. J. McFarland, 306 2nd street, Plattsmouth, says: "Several years ago I was doing some heavy lifting which strained my back and kidneys. This put me in such shape I had to walk with a cane for a number of weeks and I couldn't straighten it. It felt as though there was a heavy weight across my back that was just holding me down. I couldn't sleep nights and it felt as though I had been struck in the back with a sharp knife. My kidneys acted irregularly and the secretions were thick and colored and burned in passage. I was told to try Doan's Kidney Pills and after the first box my condition was much improved. I put my cane away and was able to walk straight. I used four boxes from Fricke & Co.'s drug store and they made a cure that has lasted ten years. My back and kidneys have never bothered me since and I believe Doan's will do the same for other people if they will give them a fair trial."

ANOTHER SUBSTITUTE FOR NORRIS BILL OUT

Senate Committee Favors the New Measure With War Finance Credit Plan to be Passed

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Bipartisan senate forces today cleared the way for passage, possibly tomorrow or early next week, of an agricultural credit bill embodying the administration plan to make the war finance corporation the administrative agency. By a vote of 16 to 2 the senate agricultural committee reported a new substitute for the Norris bill, and another agricultural credit bill.

The new measure, presented by Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, had the general backing of democrats as well as republicans, and leaders said passage of the substitute was assured.

Besides adopting the plan for furnishing of agricultural credits by the finance corporation, the committee bill would increase the authorized bond issue to $2,000,000,000 and also authorize direct loans to producers and foreign governments.

Senator McNary, republican, Nebraska, today spoke again in support of his original bill and in bitter criticism of the substitute plan which he, with Senator Ladd, republican, North Dakota, had opposed in committee. The former declared that all "sins" charged against the Norris bill applied with equal force to the substitute which, he said, proposed "take off" for bankers and would increase farmers' interest burdens.

Senator Leuroot, republican, Wisconsin, declared the new substitute was "in real interest of the farmer." He deplored the "temper" he said Senator McNary had displayed, adding that Mr. Norris appeared "not in his usual, normal frame of mind."

Disclosures regarding genesis of the administration legislation were made by Senator Leuroot, who said that after being informed that Senator McNary refused compromises with Senator Kellogg, republican, Minnesota, held conferences with Secretary Hoover and Director Meyer of the war finance corporation, which resulted in framing of the administration measure. The first suggestions to have the war finance corporation take charge of issuing agricultural credits, he said, came from McNary, while the "principal mover" behind the Norris bill, Mr. Leuroot said, was Carl Vrooman, former assistant secretary of agriculture.

PASTOR'S SCHOOL TO CLOSE

The schools for the city and rural pastors, being held at Nebraska Wesleyan, will close Friday.

Rev. J. W. Bates of Kansas City presided over the city pastors conference Thursday morning. The subject was "The Score Card as the Standard of Activities of the Churches over the Country." F. O. Beck, author of a score card system for judging city churches, was heard several times in the discussion.

The city pastors went into a closed session while Charles C. Webber of Kansas read the findings of his committee on the program of the church for the ensuing year.

Rev. William W. Steer of Denver led the musical service at convocation when the city and rural pastors met in joint session. Rev. John T. Hantla of Sioux City spoke at this session on "The Preacher as a Magnifying Glass." He said the preacher should magnify his ministry. "The need of the world is to have a minister that will get down among the people and share their lot. Pensions and sufficient salaries? Yes. But I hope the ministry will never get to the point where they will not sacrifice."

Dr. Paul L. Vogt, superintendent of rural work department of the Methodist mission board, addressed the rural pastors Thursday morning. Dr. Vogt has general charge of rural pastor schools held at different places in the United States every summer. Part of his work is the aiding in establishing rural extension chairs in universities and colleges. He also plans to establish model pastorates in different sections for demonstrative purposes.

The rural pastors are giving much attention to the idea of recreation. They have listed all sorts of games and sports to be given a place in rural church programs. They have also made a list of toys which the children in a household should have for proper training.

Deposits in this Bank are Protected by the Bank Guarantee System of this State!

The Reason for a Bank Guarantee Law

The history of bank failures shows that depositors seldom lose their money absolutely, but that they generally lose the use of it for some time while the bank's affairs are being settled up. Under the Guarantee law, depositors get their money when they want it.

In case of a bank failure under this law, depositors are paid at once out of the funds held by the state, and the state waits to be repaid until the closed bank's affairs are settled up.

Isn't the assurance that never, under any circumstances will you be deprived of the use of your money—Isn't that worth something to you?

We give our depositors every accommodation that any safe, conservative bank does, in addition to the protection of the Guarantee law.

We pay 5% interest on the money you deposit and compound it annually.
