Guiding Your Children

Bad habits lead children astray. Good habits guide them safely into the path of character, uprightness and independence.

You can start them right by teaching them to save money. Set them an example by saving yourself. Make them admire thrift.

Once started, the saving habit helps to form other good habits. It provides experience for them in handling their own funds.

This start in the right direction is but a simple step. Bring children to the bank when you start them to school.

daughter, Alice Louise, visited relatives in Plattsmouth Sunday. Frank H. Resnick of Nehawka was looking after some business matters in Murray Tuesday afternoon. J. A. Scotten has finished the erection of a machine shed on the farm of Ben Dill southwest of town. Amos Wright has been overhauling the tractor belonging to William Seyboldt during the past week. Henry Vallery, of near Mynard, was looking after some business matters in Murray Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Will Carey and Mr. and Mrs. Will Oliver were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hendricks Sunday. James Tigner is now improving from a prolonged siege of ill health, which will be good news to his many friends. Dr. B. F. Brendel and Amos H. Wright were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday. Ray Clifton, Jack West and Jesse Vallery drove to Plattsmouth Tuesday morning to look after some business matters. Mary Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wilson was taken to the hospital Monday to receive treatment for her health. Jacob Hild and family passed thru Murray Tuesday on their way to Plattsmouth to attend the funeral of M. L. Friedrich. J. W. Berger and brother John visited with relatives in Nebraska City Sunday, going down with Henry Heebner in his car. Word has been received from Vail, South Dakota, that Mrs. Edward Lyman (nee Lena Young) is very sick with plural pneumonia.

Hans Christiansen, living south of Murray, has been under the weather the past few days, but is now reported to be improving.

Frank Good, Frank Mrasek and W. H. Homan have been busy unloading lumber for Banning & Nickles during the past week.

Mrs. Mitchell of Omaha, who has been visiting Mrs. Myra McDonald the past two weeks, returned to her home the first of the week.

D. C. Rhoden and wife and George W. Rhoden, wife and sons attended the funeral of their relative, William H. Rhoden, at Elmwood Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Brendel and Mr. and Mrs. William Seyboldt visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel at Avoca last Sunday.

Joseph Cook who was employed at the Valley garage has resigned and is now working with his brother, Charles Cook, near Plattsmouth.

Walter Sans shipped into his feeding lots from the South Omaha market last Saturday a load of fine cattle which he will feed this winter.

George H. Shrader was in town Tuesday and reported having been delayed with his threshing the fourth consecutive time on account of the rain.

O. E. McDonald and wife stopped off a couple of days with Mrs. Myra McDonald on their return camping trip through the western part of Iowa.

George Small and Font Wilson enjoyed the ball game at Union Sunday between the team representing that town and one from Percival, Iowa.

Banning & Nickles have been busy unloading a car of lumber and a car of shingles received this week. The freight charges amounted to about $800 on these two cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Logan returned to their home in Missouri Friday after a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ray, and were accompanied by Mrs. Ray.

Miss Ida M. Wilkins, county home agent, will be at the Lewiston church all day Thursday, August 25, instead of Tuesday, August 23, as first announced, to direct the sewing class.

Harry Goucheour came down the first of the week and trimmed the trees in front of the Christian church and the home of Oliver Davis that interfered with the electric light wires.

S. L. Furlong, who has been very sick the past week is considerably improved at this writing. Mr. Furlong, despite his advanced age, is one of the best informed men in Cass county.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel and Dr. and Mrs. Crozier of Weeping Water left this week for a sojourn in the west, and expect to tour a considerable portion of that country before returning.

Mrs. Ona Lawton has returned to her work at the Masonic home in Plattsmouth after a two weeks' vacation spent at the home of her parents, D. A. Young, and her brother, A. A. Young.

W. G. Boedeker and wife attended the funeral of Martin Friedrich at Plattsmouth Tuesday afternoon. An account of his death and narrative of his life appears elsewhere in today's Semi-Weekly Journal.

Jack West has taken hold of his new business in a way that bespeaks success. He has moved into town and being a farmer is used to the hard work and long hours necessary to accomplish results.

Mrs. Frank Bartnik, of Ogden, Utah, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Hobscheidt a couple of days last week, going to Plattsmouth for a visit before returning to her home in the west.

Mrs. Susan Cutler, of Modale, Iowa, aunt of Mrs. Mira McDonald and Mrs. W. G. Moore, gave them a very pleasant surprise by coming home with O. E. McDonald and wife and paying them a visit.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore attended a meeting of the Cass county Medical Society held at Weeping Water last week, at which a number of important things connected with the practice of medicine were taken up.

Wm. Puls and wife, W. H. Puls and wife, August Engelke and wife, Fred Lutz and wife and Charles Heron and wife attended the funeral of Martin Friedrich at Plattsmouth on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. G. W. McCracken and daughter, Elizabeth, left Monday for Orient, Iowa, where they will visit the parents of both Mr. and Mrs. McCracken, returning in time for Elizabeth to start to school at the opening of the fall term.

County Commissioner Fred Gorder and daughters of Weeping Water drove through town Tuesday while on their way to Plattsmouth where Mr. Gorder went to look after some county business and the girls to visit with relatives.

Fred Range, who has been in the west for some time, returned home Tuesday morning. He reported that as he was getting ready to leave Grant, Frank Vallery and family arrived in a rain storm, but still happy at having completed their overland trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Rev. Buchanan and sister, Mrs. Walker and daughter, Miss Margie drove down to the Albert Young home Tuesday for an evening picnic, cooking their supper under the spreading oaks that are very numerous on the Young farm.

Mike Rys, the blacksmith is indeed a busy man these days. With the added work of sharpening plow shares he is on the go from early morning till late at night. Monday he received work from two other towns in the county, which speaks well for his ability and excellent workmanship.

Pleasant Party at Reed Home

A party was given at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed, east of Murray a few days ago. The merry crowd arrived at an early hour and the evening was spent with violin music and the playing of games. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Reed, assisted by Mrs. Philip Kell and Mrs. Bob Burr.

Those present were Grace Long, Marie Puls, Nita Cook, Alice Nickels, Violet Kell, Mabel Howard, Ethel Ferris, Donabelle Edminsten, Helen and Rose Reed, Delbert and Gertrude Todd, Martin and Chester H. Spore, Buell Virgin of Syracuse, Irvin Minnier of Dunbar, Harry Puls, Lester Long, Owen and Elbert Kell, Frances Cook, Forest Shrader, Clair Ferris and Sanford Homan.

Making Good Improvement

Richard Reed, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel, who was operated on at the Fenger hospital in Omaha, is reported as getting along nicely at this time. Richard's condition was quite serious for a while and caused his parents and friends much concern.

Notice—Library Meeting

A special meeting of the Library association is called for Saturday evening at the library. Every member is urged to be present as there is important business to come up.

Will Visit in the West

Frank Vallery and family left on Thursday of last week for the west, where they expect to spend three or four weeks visiting Denver, Colorado Springs, Estes Park and Pikes Peak. They are traveling overland and drove from here to Grant, Nebraska, for a short visit before continuing their journey. During their absence, William Puls is in charge of the garage business of Mr. Vallery and it seems quite natural to see him again taking a hand in affairs there.

Are at Home Again

Mrs. Morton Bartlett and little daughter, Florence, arrived home on Thursday from a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Bartlett's parents near Hastings. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bartlett's brother, Charles Green, who will remain here and have charge of the switchboard in the Murray telephone exchange.

Doing Some Good Work

Last Tuesday while the roads were in just the right condition to be worked, Walter Byers, manipulator of the blades and Ed Lewis, the driver, for the north district, and Al Eston and Frank Glubitz of the south district, went over the road from Plattsmouth to Union and had the thoroughfare in excellent condition before night. This is the better way, as when the roads are left to dry out before being worked they are badly cut up and it is impossible to do much with them until another rain loosens them up again. The boys know their business and are sparing no efforts to keep the highway in good condition.

Plan Trip Thru West

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scoff will leave in a few days for the west, where they will enjoy an outing in the mountains, visiting Denver, Colorado Springs and Estes Park, as well as trying their hand at ascending Pikes Peak. They will be gone about three weeks and will return through Kansas, where they expect to visit with friends.

Lewiston Church Supper

A general supper will be served at the Lewiston church Friday evening, August 26th, beginning at 6 o'clock. Everyone who is interested in the church or cemetery is requested to donate as much as convenient from the following list: Fried chicken, bread, salmon salad, potato salad, sliced tomatoes, cold slaw, lima beans, baked beans, pickles, jam, jelly and pie.—Lewiston Aid Society and the Lewiston Cemetery Association, committee.

Gave Enjoyable Program

At the meeting of the Young Peoples Christian Union last Sunday evening an excellent program was given that was enjoyed by all. A number of fine readings, songs, etc., disproves the contention that there is not enough talent to make such programs a regular event in church work here. Another is being prepared for next Sunday evening and will, we believe, be even better than its excellent predecessor. All young Weiners and eggs were boiled in a pot suspended from a tripod; and other weiners were roasted on forked sticks held above the coals. After the repast a number of favorite Boy Scout games were played, and then all repaired to a swimming hole for a plunge. A threatened rain storm resulted in an early dispersion of the hiker. It was unanimously decided by the boys to have another trip to the woods in the near future.

Boys Enjoy an Outing

About fifteen boys enjoyed the all-day hike last Monday. At the appointed hour the gang started on foot for Lyle Lawton's log cabin, about three miles northeast of town. It did not take long to build a fire and prepare the noon-day meal. The weiners and eggs were boiled in a pot suspended from a tripod; and other weiners were roasted on forked sticks held above the coals. After the repast a number of favorite Boy Scout games were played, and then all repaired to a swimming hole for a plunge. A threatened rain storm resulted in an early dispersion of the hiker. It was unanimously decided by the boys to have another trip to the woods in the near future.

PAPERS TO AID THE CALL

New York, Aug. 15.—Representatives of leading newspapers of the country will meet tonight at the Civic club with the committee for a free press for America to determine upon final steps in connection with a proposed appeal to the supreme court against the decision of the court of appeals in the case of the New York Call, which sought to have its mailing privileges restored.

This follows the action of the Baltimore Sun in announcing a gift of $500, towards a legal fund to appeal the Call case to the highest court. Since that time, many other publishers have signified their intention of joining the movement. Under the decision of the court of appeals, many publishers feel the rights of a free press in America are seriously endangered.

In Honor of Bride-to-Be

On Tuesday afternoon, August 9th, Mrs. Albert Young and Miss Clara Lee Young entertained a few friends for Miss Ogia Minford whose marriage to Elbert Willes took place on Thursday, the 11th.

The rooms of the Young home were decorated with goldenrod and early fall foliage, and the color scheme of yellow was carried out in the brick ice cream and cakes. The bride-to-be wore a dress of burnt orange.

The afternoon was devoted to hemming tea towels and a prize was given for the most finished work.

Mrs. Mattie Gopen Willes, mother of the groom, won the prize, which was an angel food cake.

COUNTY W. C. T. U. TO MEET NEXT WEEK

Thirtieth Annual convention will be held in the Louisville M. E. Church August 26th.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Cass county Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church in Louisville on Friday of next week—August 26, 1921, at which it is expected a large delegation will be present from each of the five local unions in the county. These are located at Eagle, Louisville, Weeping Water, Union and Plattsmouth.

The Cass county W. C. T. U. has for its motto, "For God and Home and Every Land," and at these annual conventions endeavors to formulate plans in accord with this motto.

The officers of the year now drawing to a close are Mrs. W. B. Hanning, Union, president; Mrs. John Gorder, Plattsmouth, vice president; Mrs. Mary Harmon, Avoca, secretary and Mrs. Irene McFall, Eagle, treasurer.

As much work is to be crowded into this one day, the morning session will begin promptly at 10 o'clock and the delegates and guests will be kept pretty much on the go the balance of the day. Following is the—
