A woman is known by the company she snubs.

Good-humored lawyers often make a cross examination.

"Put your best foot foremost—but not too far ahead."

These girls who pose for magazine covers make a bare living.

All the world is a stage, and the best way to act is natural.

There are no hard times coming. It's just the soft ones going.

Picnic parties believe Noah had more than two ants in the ark.

President Harding found matrimonial bonds were not below par.

In some restaurants you can read the menu on the waiters' coat front.

Americans spend almost as much for chewing gum as for foreign mission.

The only thing that you can find and be sure no one will claim, is fault.

Some children are naughty because they have heard that the good die young.

The United States Secret Service arrests about 400 counterfeiters annually.

If a man is a success he knows it; if he is a failure, all his neighbors know it.

Charity covers a multitude of sins and a circus tent covers a multitude of sinners.

Just now the weather man is moving in blisterous ways his blunders to perform.

According to a news item, a woman was recently married while in a trance. It is usually the bridegroom.

The American embassy at Buenos Aires is upstairs over a mattress factory. However, the mattress factory will soon move to better quarters.

The talk about Lord Northcliffe being the William R. Hearst of Great Britain is all tommyrot. We never heard of Northcliffe being a candidate for king.

What would be the use of putting Gov. Len Small in jail when he could crawl out through any key-hole and turn somersaults while he was doing so.

Will some psychologist kindly explain why 11 o'clock at night is the best time to write on a typewriter and 7 in the morning the best time to play on a cornet?

Cave Creek, Arizona, went on a rampage Sunday and swept through the Arizona state house. Perhaps it was the weather man's idea of a political house cleaning.

The short and ugly word has appeared in the house taxation debate, but it was expunged from the record. The house missed an opportunity there. It should have put a tax on it.

They have found a new oil field in Alaska, which reminds us that once upon a time men went to that far-away land and thought themselves sufficiently rewarded when they merely found gold.

A young Greenwich Village matron offers her husband for rent for $5,000 a year. She says she writes lovely poems. Thus making it evident that she is not averse to doing a little profiteering now and then.

The house has declined to free residence properties from liabilities of search for booze with warrants, and has substituted a clause empowering officials to search motor cars. Which after all may extend the search power over more people.

There are a few pleasant features of the new tax bill now before congress that it were ungrateful not to take notice of some of them. One especially is the fact that Representative Claude Kitchen is writing the minority reports on it this time.

A wife on hand is worth two on a vacation.

Even a barber loses by cutting acquaintances.

People who play with fire often get cold feet.

A fool and his father's money have a merry time.

The man always buzzing about himself is a humbug.

Speaking of gluttons for trouble, there is Ralph Oberchain.

That mysterious booze ship contained only pickled herring.

In reply to "How could we do without jazz?" We would say better.

A Toledo man lost his wife in a poker game. But won his freedom.

Many a little girl who was fond of dolls has grown up fond of dollars.

The United States is the greatest cattle raising country in the world.

Clocks regulated and operated by water power are common in China.

A speedy motion picture machine can photograph the flight of an insect.

International trade shows Germany is making her marks in the world.

The first newspaper in the U. S. was the Boston News Letter, started in 1704.

The British may lack sense of humor, but they have complete accents of trouble.

Paris has had a plague of house flies this year for the first time in many years.

Christopher Morley says the most fascinating book in the world is one's own bank book.

Bachelors are like automobiles—girls don't want one that has been run 10,000 miles.

A Frenchman predicts beards for women. Then hubby can trim corns with wife's razor.

MINISTER DISCUSSES HIS WIFE'S TROUBLES

Rev. A. H. Sykes, former pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., says: "After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes had been in delicate health for ten months suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdown.

"I frequently sought medical advice, but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it only a short time until her health will be fully restored."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke and Company; in Murray by the Murray Drug company, and the leading druggist in every town.

GOES TO HOSPITAL

Owing to a very severe nervous breakdown, Mrs. Lillian Carraber, who has been matron at the Nebraska Masonic Home for some time past, has been compelled to resign her position and has been succeeded by Mrs. Ona Lawton, who has heretofore been head nurse at the home.

Mrs. Carraber has been compelled to go to the University hospital in Omaha for treatment and will have to spend some time there before she can return to this city. Her many friends will regret very much to learn of her illness and trust that it may be only temporary.

Mrs. Lawton is one of the efficient employees of the Masonic Home and has been employed there for some time and as matron she should make a most worthy successor of Mrs. Carraber. Mrs. Lawton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young of Murray and a sister of Miss Clara Lee Young of this city.

Oscar Anderson, one of Norway's recent contributions to the ranks of automobile race drivers, will come to Lincoln for the Labor Day contests which will mark the opening of the 1921 Nebraska State Fair. Anderson is piloting a "Scandia", a foreign make of car that has won many victories across the Atlantic during the last two years. Just how much of a driver Anderson is, cannot be ascertained as he only has his records on foreign tracks to show. That he may be another Dario Resta or a DePalma, is probable, but his prospects for success will be more apparent after he clashes with the field of American drivers on the State Fair track on Labor day.

TO SHOW SILOS

This isn't an unusual sort of doll house but a miniature silo intended for exhibition at the coming show. Every new type of farm machinery is to be shown. Shortage of farm labor is compelling farmers to buy and use labor-saving machinery whenever possible. Farmers interested in all the new models should visit the Nebraska State Fair, Lincoln, Sept. 4 to 9.

GOING TO SHOW

Over a million girls have been enrolled in home canning work in this country, under supervision of government specialists. Canning is being emphasized, not only to teach girls how to can, but prevent waste of fruits and vegetables. A girls' exhibit features the Nebraska State Fair, Lincoln, Sept. 4 to 9.

The heavens will be lighted up like a war front when the mammoth fireworks display is staged in connection with the night show of the coming Nebraska "Progressive" State Fair, Lincoln, September 4th to 9th, according to officials who have been working all year to make the live stock show an unusual success.

Students of farming all admit that live stock raising is the most important farm industry. Farms that have no stock, or only poor stock, cannot expect to be as profitable as those on which lots of good stock is kept.

Visitors at the coming State Fair will be surprised when they find out how much good stock we have here at home. Nebraska pure bred live stock breeders have some of the finest animals to be found anywhere in the country. The best of it would compete on an even basis with the best from any surrounding district. A blue ribbon won at the Nebraska State Fair will be of wonderful value as an advertising asset to the owner of the animal winning it.

In the belief that "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," Fair Officials have arranged an entertainment program that will satisfy visitors every moment of the fair. These features include Auto Racing, Horse Racing, plenty of music, fireworks and a Mammoth Circus. It is the best program of the kind ever put together and it is to be hoped that the people of the State will show their appreciation of the efforts of the management by an unstinted patronage.

A crew of experts will be sent to prepare the set pieces and conduct each evening's fireworks program. Many of the "sets" and giant bombs to be exploded, are extremely dangerous for anyone but a trained person to handle.

The entertainment and educational program of the fair is the greatest ever offered.

Lovers of live stock will enjoy themselves to the limit when they attend the Nebraska "PROGRESSIVE" State Fair, Lincoln, September 4th to 9th, according to officials who have been working all year to make the live stock show an unusual success.

Dry cleaning makes his suits and span according to Dainty Dorothy

"It don't take a man long to bag his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.
