BOOZE CASE CONTESTED IN POLICE COURT

ONE OF FIRST CASES WHERE A CONTEST IS OFFERED HAS A HEARING TODAY.

CITY AGAINST EMIL KOUKAL

Prosecution Offers Testimony and Matter is Taken Under Adjudication by Court.

From Wednesday's Daily.

This morning the case of the City of Plattsmouth against Emil Koukal was given a hearing before Judge M. Archer in the police court and attracted quite a number of spectators to hear the facts in the case set forth by the prosecution and the defense.

The defendant, through his attorney, D. O. Dwyer, objected to the form in which the complaint had been drawn as it was made in the name of the city of Plattsmouth instead of the people of Nebraska, and Mr. Dwyer cited an opinion of the state supreme court to this effect. Mr. Rawls after the motion of the defense stated that they would waive any question of this kind and prepare a new complaint and warrant which was done and the case proceeded to trial.

On hearing the complaint read which charged the defendant with two counts, first that of possession of intoxicating liquor on the night of August 21st, and second, driving an automobile without the proper license number, Mr. Koukal entered a plea of not guilty to both charges.

The defense also asked that the court order the sum of $105 belonging to the defendant, which had been taken from his person at the time of the arrest, returned to Mr. Koukal, but Mr. Rawls stated that this was not necessary as the money could be returned without any formality and Chief of Police Jones then turned over this amount to the defendant.

The first witness to be examined by the prosecution was Sheriff C. D. Quinton, who had been one of the members of the party that placed Mr. Koukal under arrest. The sheriff stated that the car which Mr. Koukal had been driving was stopped in the west portion of the city by Mr. Quinton, Chief of Police Alvin Jones, Frank Detlef and Officer Chandler on the night of August 21, 1921.

He also stated that Mr. Koukal had been told to halt his car, but had continued to run it for some distance before it had stopped. The sheriff also stated that he had stepped up onto the left running board of the car in which Mr. Koukal had been seated and he saw him prepare a bottle over the side of the car and that another bottle had been broken a short time before while the car was in motion. The sheriff stated that the smell was that of corn whiskey and that the police had been able to secure a small quantity of the liquor from the broken bottles. Mr. Rawls had the exhibit of "white mulie" brought forth, there being about two or three teaspoonsful of the liquor, and which the witness identified as of the same kind as that in the broken bottles.

On cross examination of the sheriff, as well as the succeeding witnesses, it was evidence the defense was preparing the groundwork of a charge of conspiracy to "get" the defendant as the cause of the officers being where they were on the night that Mr. Koukal was arrested.

Sheriff Quinton stated to Mr. Dwyer on the cross examination that he had been out the greater part of the evening in question looking for bootleggers and at different times had been accompanied by the chief of police and the night police as well. The parties had gotten into the car of Mr. Detlef near the city hall and followed a car west to Oak street and this was the same car that was driven by Mr. Koukal.

According to Mr. Quinton's testimony there had been nothing said by himself to the young man who accompanied Koukal, at any time previous to their arrest. Both men had been arrested by the police. In reply to questions Sheriff Quinton stated that only a few shots had been fired by the officers.

The testimony of Chief of Police Jones, Officer Chandler and Constable Frank Detlef was practically similar to that of the sheriff and in each case the defense made special effort to stress the fact that the man who had accompanied Koukal had been approached by the officers to aid them in securing some definite evidence on the defense, but in each case the officers denied having made any proposition to the young man named Hull relative to his assisting in getting evidence on the defendant.

The case occupied the time of the court until noon and Judge Archer then announced that he would take the matter under advisement. The testimony was taken by Reporter Turpin and the case will probably be given an airing in the district court.

STATE SEAL WILL NOT BE CHANGED

Design Prepared by Isaac Wiles of Cass county Will Remain For The Present at Least

Because the last legislature failed to repeal the act of 1867 adopting a seal of the state and a similar adoption by the legislature in 1913, and because there is no specific approval of a new seal by the legislature, Assistant Attorney General Mason Wheeler expresses the opinion that the old seal remain the official seal of the state until these defects are remedied by legislative act.

The opinion is pleasing to many pioneers of Nebraska, who are as much opposed to a change in the design of the state seal as was a certain mythical man man opposed to a change in the name of the state of Arkansas. The attorney general's opinion is very displeasing to many who believe the old seal does not contain a single item except the sheaf of wheat that is now representative of the present-day Nebraska. Dr. G. E. Condra of the state conservation committee is one of these. Representative George A. Williams of Willmore county, who introduced a bill calling for a new seal is another.

Mr. Williams is chairman of a commission appointed by Governor McKelvie to obtain a new design for a seal. Mr. Williams asked the attorney general if notarial seals now in use will be discarded when the new seal is adopted. In reply Mr. Wheeler says notaries are not required by law to use the state seal as a part of their seals, and therefore no changes need be made by them. Notaries use only the name of the state and words "Notarial seal" and in addition may use the date of the expiration of their commission. Mr. Wheeler does not stop with this reply. He says the act of the last legislature, known as H. R. 571, providing for a commission to design a new seal for the state does not repeal the legislative acts of 1867 and 1913 approving the design for the present seal, nor does it provide for approval of the new seal by the legislature. It authorizes a commission to file with the governor by January 1, 1922, the approved design for such state seal and such state banner. The act also provides, "The design for the state seal shall first be approved by the commission." It authorizes no other approval. Mr. Wheeler says:

"It is our opinion that the present seal of the state remains the official seal of the state until a new seal is specifically approved by the legislature."

DEATH OF FORMER PLATTSMOUTH BOY

Floyd Barker, Twenty-eight Years Old, Passes Away at Alhmeto, Cal., After Long Illness

To announcement has been received here by the family of the death of Alhmeto, Cal., on Monday, August 29th, of Floyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barker, old residents of Plattsmouth.

The young man has been in poor health for the past six months and had been gradually failing until he was compelled to keep to his bed. For years he was afflicted with a serious skin disease and with which he was a great sufferer while living here in Plattsmouth, but this seemed to have passed away and in the last few years he was but little bothered with this malady.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker and family removed from this city a number of years ago and Floyd made his home in Omaha up to about a year ago when he removed to the Pacific coast where he passed away.

DEATH OF HENRY ASH

Henry Ash died at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha Wednesday noon where he had been taken last Thursday for treatment. Henry has been a sufferer from kidney trouble for years, but has fought a good fight, working when most men would have quit entirely, and he always remained cheerful in spite of his circumstances.

The body will be brought to Weeping Water on this Thursday evening's train and taken to the home on east Eldora avenue until Saturday morning when funeral services will be held at the Catholic church at Manley and the body laid to rest in the cemetery north of town.

Mr. Ash leaves to mourn their loss, besides the wife, three children, ten of whom are yet at home one brother William Ash of Weeping Water; four sisters, Mrs. Charles Beneman of Kingman, Kans., Mrs. Jack Kelly of Pittsburg, Pa., two sisters in Chicago, Mrs. Nellie Robinson and Miss Frankie Ash; other relatives and many friends.—Weeping Water Republican.

GO ON FISHING TRIP

Haywood Ellledge, one of the switchmen in the Burlington yards here, is to enjoy a very pleasant outing for the new week at a fishing camp near the mouth of the Platte river and which will be shared by his nephew, Harold Ellledge, of Council Bluffs, who arrived this morning to start in on the fishing. The young men will locate in a very choice spot just a short way from the mouth of the Platte and which Mr. Ellledge has figured out is a crack-a-jack place to fish.

SCHMADER KAYOS CLIFFORD IN SECOND

Pride of Minnesota Goes Down Before Avalanche of Blows from the Ex-Navy Champion.

Minnesota—famed for its Gold Medal flour and blue ribbon boxers—went down to defeat yesterday before the Pride of Nebraska when Andy Schmader stopped Jack Clifford, the formidable Minneapolis boxer who occupied a place in Dempsey's training camp prior to the Carpenter bout July 2nd. The fight had just gotten well under way when Andy landed the winning blow in the second round and Clifford stretched his length upon the canvas for the count of ten. The show was staged at Nebraska City under the auspices of the American Legion post and was held in connection with the Labor day celebration there.

Some disappointment in the preliminaries led to considerable delay in getting started and it was nearly 4 o'clock when George Schmader, brother of Andy, and another boxer were substituted for contestants who failed to appear, and boxed a no-decision bout, which is said to have been filled with greater action than either of those that followed. George is slated to appear in the Legion's show here on the night of September 14, in a six round decision preliminary, and is expected to give equally good account of himself.

The semi-windup was between Billy Rolfe and Harry Boyle of Omaha, Rolfe having much the better of the fight and gaining the referee's decision with very little effort.

While the wind-up was short lived, it was the inevitable result of Clifford, who is a well known boxer and has many victories to his credit, having met a better man than he and one who is on the road to a place at the top.

Andy Schmader is a hard-hitting scrapper and one who can assimilate a world of punishment if necessary. For this reason it takes a good man to outlast him in a ring battle. The local Legion post believe they have a good man in Jim Marples, the Chicago heavyweight who floored Tony Melchior recently, and we can see no reason why a great scrap isn't in store for the fight fans here on the 14th, although, as we have said before it takes a mighty good man to outlast Andy.
