Teaching You Thrift

Practice makes perfect. Schoolmasters of today as well as yesterday constantly repeat that truth. Pupils learn by applying it.

Application of that principle to our everyday habits proves its practical help. We learn by practicing, whether it be a good habit or a bad habit.

This bank teaches you thrift by leading you to practice it. The lesson is easily learned once it is begun. To become perfect in it requires constant practice. A savings account is the most consistent method of practicing thrift.

UNCOVER GANG OF AUTOMOBILE THIEVES

Omaha Police Force Nail Gang That Results in Uncovering Story of Stealing Insured Cars

The arrest on last Saturday night at Omaha of Frank Long, William Markovitz, Louis Clark, Emmett Long and several other parties, has disclosed the existence of a ring in the metropolis which had made the practice of getting rid of insured cars for the owners and no questions asked.

For some time the police of Omaha have been very suspicious of the existence of the ring in the underworld where the insured cars were taken to be disposed of, for some time and last Saturday night a "plant" by the police at the end of the Douglas street bridge resulted in the party of men being rounded up.

The trail of the auto thefts seems to have reached into Cass county as one of the cars supposed to have been "stolen" has been identified as that of a resident of this county and in fact one of the Omaha parties has given the authorities a very straight tip as to the facts in the case and it is not improbable that the chapter of the story in this county will prove very interesting before the matter is closed up.

ARRESTED AS DRUNK

From Wednesday's Daily
Yesterday afternoon Thomas O'Keefe, giving his residence as Omaha was in county court to answer to the charges of being drunk. The young man was arrested a few days ago near Greenwood and brought to this city Saturday evening and placed in the custody of Sheriff Quinton. The young man entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was given a fine of $50 by the court which he will spend as the guest of the sheriff.

The best results are obtained from the carefully written ad placed in the printer's hands in time to permit of artistic "set-up." Don't neglect your advertising or compose it hurriedly if you would get the greatest value for the money you expend.

LEGION BOXING BILL COMPLETED

Evenly Matched Contestants in Each of Four Bouts—26 Rounds of Boxing on Program.

The boxing card for the American Legion's forthcoming show Wednesday night, Sept. 14th, has been completed and includes as good a set of evenly matched boys as could be desired by any follower of fistcuffs. The bout is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m., and will be held in the Air dome theatre in Plattsmouth, which has upwards of 1,200 choice seats, none of which are more than forty feet from the ringside.

The main event as previously announced will be between Sailor Andy Schmader, of Louisville and Soldier Jim Marples, of Chicago. Everyone in this neck of the woods knows Schmader. Marples is a well known Chicago heavyweight and recently knocked Tony Melchoir the fighting Italian down twice in the second round of their bout. The main event will go ten rounds.

For the six-round semi-windup "Kid" Bruno and Harry Kinnear, of Omaha have been secured. These are the 124 pound boys who fought a whirlwind four-round draw in the Langford-Anderson show at Omaha, August 5th, and anybody who saw that show will tell you they are go-getters.

The second preliminary will be between George Schmader, brother of Andy, and "Kid" Roscoe of Omaha. These boys have met twice before in the squared arena, the first bout going to Roscoe and the second resulting in a draw. Both are in the welterweight class and the bout is scheduled for six rounds.

The first preliminary for the welterweight championship of Plattsmouth, is to be a four round affair between Joseph Smetana and Tommy Rabb, two local glove artists.

The Legion committee believes that of the four bouts and 26 rounds of boxing, they have been able to secure evenly matched contestants and followers of the fight game will bear out their contention that the probability of a "set-up" in any bout is meagre.

Tickets will be placed on sale one week before the fight in Plattsmouth, at Baseball headquarters in Omaha, the Bank of Commerce at Louisville, Russell's Pharmacy at Weeping Waters, Schwake Drug Co., Nebraska City and Murdock Mercantile Co., Murdock.

Popular prices of $2.20 and $3.30 will prevail and plenty of good seats are available.

FOOTBALL PROSPECT FOR THE YEAR GOOD

American Legion Squad Starts Practice and Large Number of Fast Men Available

The outlook for football for the season of 1921 seems the best for the past few years and the young men of the community are availing themselves of the opportunity of enjoying this excellent sport. This year the team that the American Legion is to launch will have the advantage of the work of the team last year, as almost all of the old team are here to aid in the work, only two having removed during the summer. In addition to the old members of the team there has been several very fast men secured that will add speed as well as beef to the line and strengthen the team in every way.

The manager and coach of the team will be Clarence Beal, who put in a number of years on the gridiron and whose work assists materially the boys in rounding into shape and in addition there are several experienced men in the squad that lend their efforts toward making this one of the best teams that has ever represented Plattsmouth on the gridiron.

Practice is held each afternoon at 5 o'clock and everyone who feels that they would like to play football whether they are members of the Legion or not, are invited to be present and work out as all the good football material in the city will be given a tryout if they desire. The cooling weather will mean that the season will soon be underway and the lovers of this sport can rest assured that they are going to see some fast games here the coming season.

RETURNS FROM TRIP

From Wednesday's Daily.
Last evening Rev. A. G. Hollowell and family returned home from a trip of two months duration and which carried them into the mountain regions of Wyoming. The greater part of the time was spent at Gillette, where a most pleasant time was enjoyed during the extremely hot months.

They left Gillette on Monday, September 29th for home and had a most pleasant time, the only trouble encountered being some car difficulty incident to such a long trip and all the family enjoyed the life in the open very much.

The congregation of the church here and the many friends will be delighted to learn that Rev. Hollowell and family are once more home and ready for the work of the coming season in the church activities.

We have a number of cars of coal in transit which are due to arrive in a short time, and we are making a very close price on same, especially when taken from the car. Just what the situation will be later on, we are unable to tell. With the prospect of a rail strike, the coal situation would rapidly become serious.
