Many bootleggers go to jail for their convictions.

Another figure worth improving is a bank balance.

Love may be blind, but it can see an expensive car.

Alleged prohibition is the cause of allied liquor.

The nation's greatest running expenses are autos.

Butchers don't have any trouble making ends meet.

High prices are beginning to feel the cutting remarks.

There isn't any "mystery" about why we don't "ship."

Falling in love and in debt are about the same thing.

Check to cheek dancing changes the complexion of things.

A girl with a dimple in her knee is usually a high stepper.

Wish it took as long to start a war as it did to end one!

Some people save money; others have a daughter in college.

We are on the brink of a new era—needing a little push!

One weather report that strikes us uncalled for is lightning.

Everyone would want our wooden ships if Ford tried to buy them.

Some people live to a ripe old age; others get off street cars backward.

When you see a man look at the calendar and grin he's a coal dealer.

Thirst in war; thirst in peace; thirst in the throats of our countrymen.

The Girl Next Door says beauty was once skin deep but now its knee deep.

A man with something in his cellar doesn't let strangers in on the ground floor.

"Save your tin cans," says an economist. Yes, and start a jazz orchestra.

The only thing that makes some husbands worth killing is their insurance.

One auto is sold each minute. Keeping up with the justly celebrated birthrate.

One half of the world doesn't know how the other half pays its taxes, and frequently suspects that it doesn't pay them at all.

Graie troubles loom.

Congress left at lagerheads.

The Russian Red feels blue.

Now it's "Watch your pp."

Lowering taxes raises hopes.

Cranks just lack self-starters.

Idle curiosity works overtime

High and dry—that's America.

A friend in need leaves you broke.

A man's castle is his home still.

Only three months to pay Christmas debts.

Fishing hasn't the kick in it that it used to have.

"Warden Captures Jail Birds"—headline. A game warden.

Don't be driven to drink! You'll need money to ride home.

Many a man is fenced off from success by his own railing.

Tariff may raise the price of sausage. The wurst has come!

"Music is the sunshine of the soul;" jazz, the moonshine.

Might as well put a luxury tax on jobs; that's what they are.

When many a man steps into his car he is getting into debt.

When opportunity knocks many a man is out buying his hope.

The prodigal son is at the beach turning fatted calves brown.

Modern had men count victims by the notches on their fenders.

Dancers look like they're trying to reduce instead of reform.

The French are pretending they are rich by not having any kids.

One thing about a woman with gray hair is you know it's natural.

The airplanes arn't as deadly as the battleships—to the taxpayers.

Many a bride opening the fruit she canned this summer will get an awful jar.

Don't expect to find a groom like the collar ads—or a bride like the corset ads!

If worse comes to worst they'll still wear an apron—to tie husband to the strings.

The American Legion consisted of nearly ten thousand posts at the beginning of this year.

In 1920 there were from one and a half to two million less cattle slaughtered than in 1919.

It is the exceptional family that hasn't a south section forever at war with the Ulster section.

The Leavenworth Post fears a lot of motorists believe the "Stop, Look and Listen" sign at railway crossings are for the engineers.

The more strict laws the government of Zion City adopts, the more people from a veritable heaven—and the more people from outside who lose all desire to go there.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion City, says that a bald head is an evidence of both brains and character. Too bad the bald-headed row can't think of some trade last for Wilbur Glenn.

The theatrical depression has hit hard in New York, says a report, and the chorus girls are going "back to the farm." Wouldn't a member of the milkmaid' chorus look funny trying to milk a cow?

MARPLES ARRIVES HERE YESTERDAY

Chicago Heavyweight Shadow Boxes Few Rounds Here—To Finish Training in Omaha, Mo.

Soldier Jim Marples, the Chicago heavyweight, arrived in Plattsmouth Sunday morning, and after conferring briefly with the Legion committee in charge of Wednesday night's bout, continued to Omaha in the afternoon, where he will spend the next couple of days working out at the Queensbury athletic club. Marples was accompanied by a second from the windy city, and his manager Jim Mullen, will arrive in Omaha Tuesday morning from the east. Wednesday forenoon, the party will come to Plattsmouth.

During his stay here, Marples did a little shadow boxing at the Eagles hall, and would have put on the gloves, but for inability to find a local boxer to work with him.

The workout was witnessed by a good number of local fans who declare Marples looks to be in good condition for Wednesday night's ten round mill.

Andy Schmaier is working out daily at his home in Louisville and was never in better condition before. He, too, will arrive here Wednesday forenoon, accompanied by his brother, George, who is on one of the preliminaries, and a large delegation of Louisville fight fans.

If the roads continue good, indications point to a capacity house, and for this reason the Legion asks the Plattsmouth people to buy their seats early, instead of at the last minute, so that provision can be made to seat an additional 200 if the interest warrants.

The preliminary men have posted forfeits for their appearance and it looks as though the show will run over without a single disappointment.

CASS CO. FARM BUREAU NOTES

Pig Club Members

The following club members showed at the state fair: Sterling and Harry Ingwerson, Isador Stone, Harry Knabe, Ronald Schlichtemeier, Frank and Ernest Pollard, Merrill Sheldon, Fred Koehler, of Nehawka; Rehoo, Harold and Willard Timblin, of Alvo. The above club members had a total of 57 pigs at the fair.

Co. Pig Clubs Win Many Prizes

Spotted Poland China gilts—Stone sisters won first and third; Harry I. Ingwerson and Willard Timblin, fifty.

Boars—Stone sisters second and Harry Ingwerson, third.

Little Class—Stone sisters, first; Ingwerson Bros., second and Timblin Bros., third.

Open class 50 Spring Boars—Ingwerson Bros., fifth.

Hampshire Gilt—Merrill Sheldon, second and fifth; Frank and Ernest Pollard, fourth.

Boars—Harry Knabe, first and Ronald Schlichtemeier, second.

Durocs—Fred Koehler, third.

The total premium money for the Cass county clubs was $125, apportioned as follows: Stone sisters, $37; Harry Knabe, $31; Ingwerson Bros., $21; Timblin Bros., $11; Merrill Sheldon, $11; Ronald Schlichtemeier, $10; Pollard Bros., $4.

Baby Health Department

The objects of the Better Baby contest are:

- 1—To arouse interest in child study and call attention to the importance of childhood, especially the physical and mental welfare of the child.
- 2—To secure accurate information which will assist parents to correct defects and improve child development.

RULES

Children between the ages of 18 and 36 months are eligible to enter this contest. No entrance fee is required in this department. Notice of time of appointment will be mailed. No child suffering from any acute or constitutional disease may be entered.

The examination will be given on Wednesday, Sept. 28, 1921.

Send all communications to Supt. Mrs. J. W. Carter, Weeping Water, or Secretary O. V. Boone, Weeping Water. First, second and third prize winners will receive prize ribbons.

ENTER EARLY

Mrs. J. W. Carter, who has charge of this department this year, is making a special effort to get as many babies in the contest as possible, and expects the number to overstep the one hundred mark. She asks everyone to enter their babies early. All the doctors of the county have already offered their services.

Garment Workers

Three of the Garment clubs from Cass county exhibited at the state fair, as follows: Happy Workers, of Alvo; (Mrs. W. C. Timblin, leader) Mount Pleasant, of Nehawka; (Miss Myrtle Chappelle, leader) and Maple Grove, of Nehawka (Miss Evelyn Wolph).

All of the work shown was very commendable, and some prizes were received, which speaks well for Cass county.

The garment clubs over Nebraska had an unusually large display at the fair this year and some very fine demonstrations were given, not alone in the garment line, but cooking and baking as well. Of special interest were the poultry teams from Dakota and Clay counties. These two teams certainly have the club spirit and know how to put things across.

The Garment clubs are working to prepare the team demonstrations for the county fair. This will be a fine opportunity to show what the clubs are doing.

Demonstration teams will give demonstrations Wednesday, September 28, 1921.

Mr. Edison announces MOOD MUSIC

BRING or send the coupon. Begin to use music in the remarkable new way developed by Mr. Edison.

Everybody admits music's power to banish unpleasant moods, relieve fatigue, bring peace and joy. But no one has been able to tell you which selections to play when tired, which when depressed, etc. Famous psychologists, associated with Mr. Edison, have been working on this problem for two years. They found certain Edison RE-CREATIONS which brought all these wonderful benefits of music. These they arranged under headings such as "To Make You Joyous", "For More Energy", etc. Get your copy of "Mood Music" at once. Bring or send the coupon.

William Stohlman, one of the leading merchants of Louisville, was in the city for a few hours today attending to some matters of business and calling on his many friends in the county seat.

Charles L. Graves, the Union attorney, was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters in the county court and while here stopped at the Journal for a short call. Charley has been feeling poorly for the past week, but is now feeling somewhat better.

Office supplies of all kinds handled at the Journal office.

Dry cleaning makes his suits spit and span according to Dainty Dorothy

"It don't take a man long to bag his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.
