

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

Alimony is a peace tax.
Common cents help—now.
Our berth rates are high.
Burbank is an honest grafter.
The "note of optimism" is past due.
The limelight often discloses a lemon.
Dentists get on other people's nerves.
It's fine to hit prices when they are down.
Love is blind and so are American tigers.
You don't have to know a girl to see lots of her.
Girls' finishing schools teach how to handle figures.
Corn-on-the-cob hasn't the kick of corn-on-the-hip.
On some dime cigars the band must cost a nickel.
Even if you can tell a woman's age it is best not to.
Lenine is slipping back because his clutch won't hold.
Selling hootch isn't as big a crime as the prices they charge.
Fall will be welcome, after the long hot summer—especially fall of prices.
Angora falls, says a news dispatch. Somebody's angora is always falling into other hands.
"Harding at Sea," reads a newspaper headline. His usual case, whether on or off the yacht Mayflower.
Jud Tunkins says one encouragement to unemployment is the fact that so many people seem to regard it as a luxury.
German marks are down to 1,005 cents in exchange value, which is believed to be about the value of German Kaisers.
We have only one consolation about that new tariff law. The Republican party didn't take salvation off the free list.
A New Jersey doctor says idleness induces insanity, but it's remarkable how many people there are who seem crazy to become insane.
Washington is facing the problem of disarming the gougers to prevent war with the delegates at the coming disarmament conference.

It's a short road that has no holes.
A fool and his money seldom meet.
A fast life outruns running expenses.
Mosquitos are becoming good bareback riders.
The most favored watering place is the water cooler.
Eve had the leaf on; her daughter has the leaf off.
A wise man changes his mind; a wise woman her face.
Congress isn't passing any more bills than the rest of us.
"Reds Free Americans"—headline. Bet they wish they were.
A life saving raft has been adopted by England for each airplane.
Canada, with an area of 729,655 square miles, has a population of about 9,000,000.
There are 6,449,998 farms in the United States, of which 2,758,591 are of more than 100 acres.
The president of the Anti-Cigarette League has quit his job, and the other members may as well do so.
Geraldine Farrar says she'll never marry again. "Farrar but colder," as the weather man would express it.
Speaking of dresses, Methuselah lived nearly a thousand years without seeing as much as we do in one day.
A pessimist says there'll be bread lines three blocks long next winter. Incredible! That's a block longer than the picture show line was last night.
A sharper was arrested in Washington for "tricking a number of real estate agents." Anyone who can trick a real estate agent must be some tricker.
Lumber is being piled 70 feet high in Seattle and other big lumber centers—or five times as high as it used to be. Price is piled up in about the same proportion.
A Chicago girl offers to marry any man who will promise to educate her. Doesn't the poor child know that every married man thinks he educates his wife?
Boston reports that the shoe factories are running full time again, which seems to be another indication that with the opening of school the barefoot season is at an end.
The number of marriage licenses being issued in the eastern Nebraska counties indicates that the peach crop in this territory is not a failure, regardless of what the horticulturists have to say on the subject.
The United States government is said to be coming to the view that early recognition of the Oregon government in Mexico is desirable. With West Virginia on our hands, it probably will be wise not to be too finicky about one or two little insurrections.
The women of America have demanded representation at the disarmament conference, and now comes the ex-service men with a similar request. It makes little difference whether either request is granted. The conference won't amount to much, anyway.
It seems that John Worthington, Chicago's J. Rufus Wallingford, was known as "Honest John," and the Topeka Journal says it's too bad his victims didn't know it in time. There is a suspicion, however, that a good many of these "Honest Johns" are so named by the reporters after the fact instead of before.
An assistant treasurer of the American Red Cross has been arrested on the charge of stealing $14,000 of Red Cross funds. The police say he has confessed that he lost the money betting on horse races. What kind of a brain and heart must a man have who will steal charity money for such a purpose?

THOROUGHLY AMERICAN
The boast of the effusive American, that his country offers better opportunities to the young man than any other country on the globe, is not all buncom. It may not be tactful to make such remarks, but they are true.
Moreover, the young American, because perhaps of his environment and traditions which he imbibed early in life, is willing to take the chance and do the hard work to exploit his opportunity. He tackles fortune with an assured air, and enjoys success when he wins it to the limit.
Kipling, much in America in his early years, caught and recorded the spirit of the American who "shakes dice with destiny for the beers," and "who treats alike the twin imposters, triumph and dance."
Here in the last day or two a book reviewer, writing of one of the late war books, describes two Americans in France sitting in the costly and luxurious palace of Marshal Lanes, built and unfinished by one of Napoleon's lieutenants. The Americans were engaging because John J. Pershing, one of them, was heading an American army larger than even Napoleon ever commanded at one time. With the commander-in-chief of the American forces was Charles G. Dawes, a business man who had been drafted by General Pershing to be his personal representative in handling the grave problems of modern supply and transportation for a great army. They had been young fellows together in a Nebraska town, each eating fifteen cent lunches on high stools and planning and working together for a start upward.
There, in one of the most beautiful and luxurious palaces of the old world, in the midst of sumptuous surroundings, Charles Dawes, late of Nebraska, and Pershing, late of the same general vicinity, recalled the lean days and the fifteen-cent lunches the two had had together, and he said slowly, "John, when I contrast these barren surroundings with the luxuriansness of our early surroundings in Lincoln it does seem that a good man has no real chance in the world."
To which Pershing replied mediatively, "Don't it beat hell."
The story is bound to be true. General Dawes tells it himself in his recent book, "A Journal of the Great War."
OPERATED ON AT OMAHA
From Monday's Daily.
This morning Mrs. Roy Dew of this city was operated on at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha as the result of a very severe attack of gall stones and which made necessary her removal to the hospital last week. The many friends will anxiously await the outcome of the case and trust that she may soon be on the highway to complete recovery.
Poland China Boars
I have a number of choice Poland China boars of large type ready for service, that are for sale. They are of February farrowing. Call at farm five and one-quarter miles west and one mile north of Murray.
OTTO PULS
ORDER OF HEARING
on Petition for Appointment of Administrator.
The State of Nebraska, Cass county, ss.
In the matter of the estate of George Grebe, deceased.
On reading and filing the petition of William C. Grebe, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to Fred Drucker as administrator;
Ordered, That September 21, A. D. 1921, at 9 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.
Dated this 25th day of August, A. D. 1921.
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
CHAS. E. MARTIN,
Attorney.
ORDER OF HEARING AND NOTICE OF PROBATE OF WILL
In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska, County of Cass, ss.
To all persons interested in the estate of James W. Taylor, deceased:
On reading the petition of Melissa J. Taylor, praying that administration of this court on the 9th day of September, 1921, and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, may be proved and allowed, and recorded as the last will and testament of James W. Taylor, deceased; that said instrument be admitted to probate, and the administration of said estate be granted to George Everest as executor;
It is hereby ordered that you, and all persons interested in said matter, may, and do, appear at the County Court to be held in and for said county, on the 10th day of October, A. D. 1921 at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.
Witness my hand and seal of said court, this 9th day of September, A. D. 1921.
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
CHAS. L. GRAVES,
Attorney.

THOROUGHLY AMERICAN
The boast of the effusive American, that his country offers better opportunities to the young man than any other country on the globe, is not all buncom. It may not be tactful to make such remarks, but they are true.
Moreover, the young American, because perhaps of his environment and traditions which he imbibed early in life, is willing to take the chance and do the hard work to exploit his opportunity. He tackles fortune with an assured air, and enjoys success when he wins it to the limit.
Kipling, much in America in his early years, caught and recorded the spirit of the American who "shakes dice with destiny for the beers," and "who treats alike the twin imposters, triumph and dance."
Here in the last day or two a book reviewer, writing of one of the late war books, describes two Americans in France sitting in the costly and luxurious palace of Marshal Lanes, built and unfinished by one of Napoleon's lieutenants. The Americans were engaging because John J. Pershing, one of them, was heading an American army larger than even Napoleon ever commanded at one time. With the commander-in-chief of the American forces was Charles G. Dawes, a business man who had been drafted by General Pershing to be his personal representative in handling the grave problems of modern supply and transportation for a great army. They had been young fellows together in a Nebraska town, each eating fifteen cent lunches on high stools and planning and working together for a start upward.
There, in one of the most beautiful and luxurious palaces of the old world, in the midst of sumptuous surroundings, Charles Dawes, late of Nebraska, and Pershing, late of the same general vicinity, recalled the lean days and the fifteen-cent lunches the two had had together, and he said slowly, "John, when I contrast these barren surroundings with the luxuriansness of our early surroundings in Lincoln it does seem that a good man has no real chance in the world."
To which Pershing replied mediatively, "Don't it beat hell."
The story is bound to be true. General Dawes tells it himself in his recent book, "A Journal of the Great War."
OPERATED ON AT OMAHA
From Monday's Daily.
This morning Mrs. Roy Dew of this city was operated on at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha as the result of a very severe attack of gall stones and which made necessary her removal to the hospital last week. The many friends will anxiously await the outcome of the case and trust that she may soon be on the highway to complete recovery.
Poland China Boars
I have a number of choice Poland China boars of large type ready for service, that are for sale. They are of February farrowing. Call at farm five and one-quarter miles west and one mile north of Murray.
OTTO PULS
ORDER OF HEARING
on Petition for Appointment of Administrator.
The State of Nebraska, Cass county, ss.
In the matter of the estate of George Grebe, deceased.
On reading and filing the petition of William C. Grebe, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to Fred Drucker as administrator;
Ordered, That September 21, A. D. 1921, at 9 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.
Dated this 25th day of August, A. D. 1921.
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
CHAS. E. MARTIN,
Attorney.
ORDER OF HEARING AND NOTICE OF PROBATE OF WILL
In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska, County of Cass, ss.
To all persons interested in the estate of James W. Taylor, deceased:
On reading the petition of Melissa J. Taylor, praying that administration of this court on the 9th day of September, 1921, and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, may be proved and allowed, and recorded as the last will and testament of James W. Taylor, deceased; that said instrument be admitted to probate, and the administration of said estate be granted to George Everest as executor;
It is hereby ordered that you, and all persons interested in said matter, may, and do, appear at the County Court to be held in and for said county, on the 10th day of October, A. D. 1921 at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.
Witness my hand and seal of said court, this 9th day of September, A. D. 1921.
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
CHAS. L. GRAVES,
Attorney.

APROPPOS OF THAT OBSERVANCE OF THE
LaFayette anniversary was the only Frenchman who ever won in a fight in this country.
Don't look down in the mouth. The only folks who can make money that way are dentists, horse traders and throat specialists.
Some one has discovered that the ne plus ultra of being slighted is to have a society girl cut you shorter than she cuts her own skirts.
The first oysters of the season have reached the local market—but they have been away so long they have not heard about price reductions.
One good reason for believing that we shall not soon have again such a war as that which we have just had is that no nation can afford it.
If the disarmament conference fails, the Washington hotel keepers ought to be required to furnish the money with which to build a new navy.
The big corn crop reports this year make one wonder if any of the corn will get far enough away from the farm stills to be made into cornbread.
When a girl tells a young man that he ought to save his money, it is a sure sign he is going to need it—that is, if she has her way in the matter.
An Omaha youth who gets a salary of $40 per month was married the other day—thus usurping Sergeant York's place as the greatest hero of the age.
It is said in Japan women's dresses are now being sold by weight. If styles are as they are over here, what practice the wily Japs are getting in short-weighting.
There are approximately 4 1/2 million breadwinners out of employment, according to calculations made today from the latest government reports on unemployment.
A man can be as patient as Job and still get pretty mad when breakfast is delayed while the cook stops to look up what her last night's dream means in the dream book.
We have always had serious doubts about the wisdom of foreign mission work, and at last our judgment has been verified. The South Sea Islanders have taken up golf.
And now the Illinois coal miners have declared war, and engaged in a pitched battle with guards. If things keep up we may have to again put the selective draft into operation.
A few years ago, a lot of people blamed their poverty onto the war, and they are still poor; and a lot of girls blamed their loneliness onto the war too; and they are still single.
A New York girl swam from Akahay to the Battery in sixty-three hours, but even that probably won't induce the railroads to lower their rates enough to make such swims unnecessary.
Large floating dice are being used at seaside resorts to gamble while bathing. Roll 'em on the water. The one-piece bathing suit girls will take up any fad except swimming.
October 9th has been named for "Fire Prevention Sunday." Observances in all churches. We thought every Sunday enjoyed that distinction, and that every church was a fire department.
Mr. Ford is proving a great help to insurance companies and state officials who run down motor car thieves. He has brought his cars down to a price where they may profitably be used as decoys.
We have almost succeeded in getting rid of phonetic spelling, and now if we could only do away with telephonic price fixing, we might be drawing near that corner normalcy is said to be just around.
Tables, note books, pencils, etc., for the school children, may be had at the Journal office.

HOGS
on the Installment Plan!
Three pure bred Duroc pigs for $65. A boar and two gilts, not related, with pedigrees. $10 down and $10 a month. Older gilts on the same plan. For particulars write, phone or call on—
Albert Young,
MURRAY NEBRASKA

You'll enjoy the sport of rolling 'em with P. A.!

FIRST thing you do next—go get some makin's papers and some Prince Albert tobacco and puff away on a home made cigarette that will hit on all your smoke cylinders!

No use sitting-by and saying maybe you'll cash this hunch tomorrow. Do it while the going's good, for man-o-man, you can't figure out what you're passing by! Such flavor, such coolness, such more-ish-ness—well, the only way to get the words emphatic enough is to go to it and know yourself!

And, besides Prince Albert's delightful flavor, there's its freedom from bite and parch which is cut out by our exclusive patented process! Certainly—you smoke P. A. from sun up till you slip between the sheets without a comeback.

Prince Albert is the tobacco that revolutionized pipe smoking. If you never could smoke a pipe—forget it! You can—AND YOU WILL—if you use Prince Albert for packing! It's a smoke revelation in a jimmy pipe or a cigarette!

Copyright 1921 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. Winston-Salem, N. C.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily.
C. A. Gauer of near Cedar Creek was here for a few hours today looking after some matters of business.
Misses Honor Seybert and Martha Valley were among those going to Omaha this afternoon where they were called on some matters of business.
Fred W. Ebinger and wife, who have been visiting at Holdridge and also at the state fair at Lincoln, motored in Saturday afternoon to visit for a short time here with relatives and friends.
CARPET WEAVING
Hit and miss, per yd.-----15c
Striped, per yd.-----20c
Rugs -----50c up
MRS. B. B. WARTHEN,
Plattsmouth, Neb.

For Sale

Four red coming 3 year old heifers, weighing around 800 lbs.
ALBERT YOUNG.
The best results are obtained from the carefully written ad placed in the printer's hands in time to permit of artistic "set-up." Don't neglect your advertising or compose it hurriedly if you would get the greatest value for the money you expend.

W. A. ROBERTSON

Coates Block Second Floor
EAST OF RILEY HOTEL

Dry cleaning makes his suits spic and span according to Dainty Dorothy

"It don't take a man long to bag his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.

Goods Called for and Delivered

FRED LUGSCH
WE KNOW HOW
PHONE 166
TAILOR OPPOSITE JOURNAL OFFICE

BE SURE TO ATTEND

-Cass County Fair!-

AT

Weeping Water, Nebr.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday,
Sept. 28th, 29th and 30th

Splendid exhibits in all classes of Stock, Poultry Agricultural, Domestic and Dairy Products. Don't fail to see the Woman's Needlework and Educational Departments.

Free Admission!

Live Stock Men Listen!

There will be a Public Action of Purebred Cattle and Hogs of different breeds at 2 p. m., Friday, Sept. 30th. Come and buy registered stock at your own price.