Working Like a Bee Hive
The department store of F. P. Sheldon, which is doing a good business, and for a reason, they have the goods, sell them at a figure which appeals to the purchasers and have salespeople when it comes to salespeople. The management is under Mr. Walter Wunderlich, who devotes his time and energies to the best interests of the business and which is reflected in the excellent business which they are doing. Miss Belle Buck, who has charge of the food department, is a very capable and painstaking saleslady, being always alert to the best interests of the customers and the store. The grocery department is looked after by two of Nehawka's young men, who are bending every energy to the best conduct of the store. Messrs. Chester Stone and George Pollard. The institution is working with the regularity of a bee hive.

Young People are JOINED IN WEDLOCK
Miss Myrtle O. Chappell and Mr. Paul Wolph Joined in Wedlock at Nehawka

One of the pretty home weddings of the fall season occurred Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chappell at Nehawka, when their daughter, Miss Myrtle, was united in marriage to Mr. Paul Wolph one of the progressive young farmers of that community.

The rooms of the home were very charmingly arranged with decorations of cut flowers, roses predominating in the decorations and lending an enchanting appearance to the handsomely arranged rooms. Rev. C. E. Moore of the Methodist church performed the wedding ceremony, the ring service being used in the joining of the lives of these two estimable young people.

Miss Bertha Pittman as bridesmaid and Corrie Wolph, brother of the groom, were the attendants at the wedding.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a costume of organdie over white tulle and presented a most charming picture as with the splendid young man whom she was to join in matrimony, took their stations before the minister to repeat the vows that were to make them as one.

Following the ceremony the bridal party and the members of the family were treated to a very dainty luncheon that had been prepared for the occasion and at the close of which the young people departed for the west where they will enjoy a honeymoon at Denver and other points in Colorado. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Wolph will be at home to their friends after October 15th.

The bride is one of the charming young ladies of the Nehawka neighborhood and has been reared to womanhood there where her friends are limited only by her acquaintance. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Wolph and one of the leading young farmers of the southern portion of Cass county. Mr. Wolph is having a handsome modern bungalow erected on his farm near Avoca and as soon as completed will bring his bride there to dwell and the young people become residents of that section of Cass county.

BOTH WERE FRIGHTENED
The other evening while little Edith St. John of Nehawka was gathering the eggs at her home, she spied two eggs in a nest in the straw and reaching in she disturbed a large bull snake which was feasting on the nest of newly laid eggs for his supper. The sudden appearance of little Edith startled the snake and his snakeship also frightened Edith and both disappeared leaving the nest with the remaining eggs. Neither the snake nor little Edith were injured but both received a good fright.

On account of the small wreck of a short time since Section Foreman Monroe Nelhart was layed off for ten days, and with him went also a number of his workmen as a silent protest of the injustice in the action of the railroad. The consensus of opinion being that it was not the fault of the section men.

Last Monday W. H. Frost, who has made his home in Manley for some time past, moved his household goods to Lincoln where they will make their home, and from which point Mr. Frost will travel for a lumber company of the capital city. Their many friends in and about Manley are very loathe to see them depart.

The new lumberman, Mr. John Crane, thinks the best way to have things in proper shape is to put them in that condition. He has been making some changes in the affairs at the lumber yard and has just rebuilt the scale in front of the office, having a new platform placed thereon and ready for what it will be necessary to weigh there on.

Wish to Change Streets
For the accommodation of those who come from the north into town, the matter of changing the streets on Manley is being agitated. The idea being to continue the main road running south near Mr. Vogler's place until it intersects with the main street near the public school building, thus eliminating two turns in getting into town. A petition is being circulated for the purpose of having the change made by the county commissioners.

LINCOLN AND DENVER IN THE WESTERN

Prospects Good Joplin and Sioux City will be Crowded Out because of Lack of Patronage.

With the Western league season drawing to a close next Tuesday considerable speculation is rife as to the towns that will hold franchises in the loop next year.

In Joplin, Mo., and Sioux City, Ia., the attendance has been very poor this year and the chances are that these two towns will drop out of the league. Denver and Lincoln are the cities that are being talked of to fill up the holes in the league. In fact Denver has almost clinched the Sioux City franchise while Lincoln is ready to take over the Joplin franchise as soon as it is placed on the market.

Both towns formerly held berths in the Western league and supported some rattling good teams until non-interest finally forced them to retire. Now the fans are said to desire entrance to the league and promoters have confidence in their pledges of support.
