CELEBRATES 11TH BIRTHDAY

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday was the eleventh birthday anniversary of little Miss Charlotte Field, and in honor of the occasion a number of the little friends were invited in last evening to spend the time with her. The young folks were first given a theatre party at the Parke and this was followed by the members of the party enjoying dainty refreshments at the Morgan sweet shop for a short time and which added a pleasing touch to the party. The guests also spent some time at the Field home in songs and games such as only the little ones can enjoy. Those participating in the party were: Ethel Quinton, Ruth Smith, Helen Sharp, Laura Grassman, Elizabeth Hatt, Charlotte Field and Master Edwin Field.

CONFERENCE MOVING IN HIGH GEAR

Nebraska Methodist Body Has Much Business to Transact Before its Final Adjournment

With a great volume of business yet to transact and the closing hours fixed for Monday, the Nebraska Methodist conference held a short session Saturday afternoon. It is now predicted that it will continue until late Monday night before final adjournment. Some of the delegates indicated that a Tuesday session may be necessary.

The conference placed five of its veteran preachers on the retired list. They were W. B. Alexander, Richard J. G. Hurlbut, Loomie; Richard N. Throckmorton, University Place, and A. J. Warne, Wasa. W. B. Alexander joined the conference in 1885; J. G. Hurlbut in 1880; R. N. Throckmorton in 1890, and A. J. Warne in 1897. The retirement of Mr. Throckmorton is due to ill health.

The annual report of A. V. Wilson, the conference statistician, showed surprising increases in church membership in the Sunday schools, Epworth league and in church property. His report covered the conference year of 1920-21 and related to statistics within the boundaries of the conference. The report does not take in the entire state, because there is a small conference located in the extreme northwest corner, but it cuts but little ice in the total results.

The report indicates that $625,066 was spent for pastoral support. This is an increase of $38,955 over the previous year. It cost $38,393 for the support of eight district superintendents. Last year it cost $41,186. Two thousand, three hundred and sixty-five adults were baptised and 2,574 children. Preparatory members received were 4,603, and 72,614 were received into full membership, an increase of 986. The deaths numbered 697.

Four hundred and seventy-four Sunday schools were reported with 7,861 officers and teachers, with a total enrollment of 88,905, and increase of 6,977. The Epworth league indicated a gratifying increase, the senior league having 9,343 members, an increase of 586, the junior league with 4,863, with an increase of 2,848, more than double the previous year.

The report showed that the rural churches are being absorbed somewhat by the towns, a decrease of eighteen churches being indicated. There are now 482 churches within the bounds of the conference. It was explained by the statistician that many churches have federated or merged in the country districts.

Church property is now valued at $4,416,456, an increase of $239,550. Three hundred and forty-eight parsonages are valued at $1,403,350, an increase of $241,850. This shows that the Methodist preachers are living in better homes and in charge of better churches.

THURSDAY WOMEN'S SENSITIVENESS.

The stomach of many women is so sensitive that it is often a hard task for the chemist to prepare a medicine in such a way that it would be acceptable for every woman. If he succeeds, surely nobody will hesitate to praise his efforts. Triner's Bitter Wine is a remedy of that kind. It acts surely, it cleans the stomach and removes all poisonous waste matter from the intestines, but it does not hurt even the most sensitive stomach. That is why Triner's Bitter Wine has always been in greatest favor with women. Mrs. Louise Goratowska wrote us for instance on August 7, 1921: "Pawtucket, R. I. Triner's Bitter Wine helps me remarkably. No other remedy gave me such a relief in my sickness. I express my most sincere thanks. Try also Triner's Liniment, which in these days of autumnal attacks of rheumatism, neuralgia and lumbago is a real benefactor. Your druggist or dealer in medicines will serve you with all Triner's remedies."

CEDAR CREEK WINS

Sunday afternoon the team of John E. Wolff of this city, known as the "Cubs" journeyed out to our neighboring village of Cedar Creek and staged a good game of ball along the banks of the placid Platte river and as a result of which the Cedar Creek team that R. M. Stivers had arranged for the occasion, skinned the Cubs by a score of 11 to 6. Connors and Wolff did the battery work for the Cubs while Meisinger was on the mound for the Cedar Creek and Warren did the receiving. This is the third game of the season and leaves the score of games at two to one in favor of the dwellers along the Platte, and the baseball fans of that community feel well pleased over the showing that they have made this season.

COSTLY PIES

From Tuesday's Daily.
Delicious pies like mother used to make at $10 per pie seems rather costly, still that is what the restaurateur or William Barclay was distributing today and as the result of a misfortune that befell Mrs. Barclay who personally supervises the pie making. Mrs. Barclay had a very large and handsome diamond, valued at $150, and while she was working with the pies in the kitchen of the restaurant the ring slipped off, it is thought, and got mixed in the dough. So far the missing ring has not appeared and Mr. and Mrs. Barclay have figured out that the batch of pies cost them just ten bucks each.

FORTY YEARS AS A METHODIST PREACHER

Rev. J. D. M. Buckner Gives a Dinner to Friends he Helped—Former Pastor Here

Rev. J. D. M. Buckner, pastor for the past eleven years at Aurora, which is something of a record-breaker for Methodist preachers, is one of the most loved members of the Nebraska conference. He is now rounding out forty years of service as a minister. During this period of active service he has influenced a number of young men to become clergymen and has aided them to obtain education. He is considered one of the most valuable members of the Nebraska conference and is noted, his friends say, for his absolute fearlessness and independence. He says what he thinks.

During the week Doctor Buckner gave a dinner to ten of his friends at the Lindell hotel. Most of them were persons he had assisted in some way or another in getting them thru school. For years he was superintendent of the Lincoln district and many young men were helped by him during that time. Those invited to the dinner were F. J. Finch, Cedar Bluffs; G. W. Snyder, Blue Springs; William Ruyie, of Wesleyan university; Bert A. Bessire, University Place; Harry F. Huntington, University Place; Ralph Miller, Havelock; Wesley Wagner, Western; C. G. Gomon, Broken Bow, and L. E. Townsend, Omaha. Doctor Buckner made a short speech giving his impressions of his forty years as a preacher. He said that if he had a chance to live his life over again he would be a minister. He considered it the most satisfactory profession in the world.

Rev. Buckner was a pastor of the Methodist church in this city in the early '90's and at the time the church building was located on Sixth street and his splendid work here will be well remembered by the older members of the church.

EARLY MORNING FIRE DOES SOME DAMAGE

Erick Barn in the Rear of the M. L. Johnson Meat Market Badly Damaged by the Flames.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The brick barn located on the alley in the rear of the M. L. Johnson meat market on lower Main street, was greatly damaged by a fire that was discovered shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. All of the wooden floors, supports and partitions of the interior of the building were wiped out by the flames before they could be subdued and it was evident that the fire had been in progress some time before it burned through the roof and was discovered.

Officer Henry Chandler had been making his usual rounds shortly before 2 o'clock and as he passed thru the alleyway there was no sign of the fire and a few minutes later, when he reached the Barclay restaurant further up the street a faint trace of smoke was to be seen, but it was thought that it was from one of the engines in the Burlington yards and a few minutes later it was clear to be seen that it was a fire as the first traces of flame were seen on the roof of the building. The family of Harry Gouchenour, residing near the scene of the fire as well as residents of the Coronado apartment house were aroused about this time and the fire alarm given.

The department made a splendid record on reaching the fire, as it was not more than five minutes after the alarm was given that the firemen were on the way to the scene of action and shortly thereafter had a stream of water playing on the blaze.

The fire had originated in the northeast corner of the barn, where some old furniture belonging to Mrs. J. C. Petersen was stored, and was probably caused by combustion of some nature as there was no other means by which the blaze could have originated. The upper floor of the barn was completely burned away as well as the partitions in the structure and the Chevrolet touring car of Charles Petersen, Jr., which was in the barn was badly damaged, the top being burned and the leather coverings of the seats being badly charred.

The roof also was damaged so much that it will be necessary to have a part of it replaced. The structure being of brick held the fire well confined and with the prompt work of the department prevented the flames spreading to the nearby buildings.

The building loss was in the neighborhood of several hundred dollars, covered by insurance.

Rosencrans, will depart via automobile, for a trip to the south and with San Antonio, Texas, as their destination, looking over the land interests there of Mr. Rosencrans. The trip will consume some time and during the absence of Cate from the city he will have Dan B. Cooney of Lincoln here to assist in caring for the barber shop and the trade of his customers. SAYS TRUE STORY NOT GIVEN OF CASE

Nebraska Lighting Co., Not Wholly to Blame for Discontinuance of Service to Patron

From Wednesday's Daily.

Relative to statements made at the council meeting on Monday evening as to the discontinuance of the electric light service to a party residing in the former home of John Beeson near Lincoln avenue, Manager Kuykendall yesterday afternoon stated the circumstances of the case as they recurred to his mind to the Journal representative. It seems said Mr. Kuykendall that sometime before he assumed the management of the lighting company here, the manager of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph line had allowed an electric line to be strung in on their lines to the residence of Mr. Beeson and to this line the Nebraska Gas & Electric Co. were requested to supply current, which they did, now when Mr. Beeson sold his residence property, Mr. Kuykendall states, the telephone company promptly notified the light company that they would not tolerate the electric light wires on their poles and for the lighting company to discontinue the current along that line. This was complied with, the current shut off, and the wires removed. The line carried four or five blocks of wire and had the lighting company put them in on a copper circuit, Mr. Kuykendall states that the service would cost the consumer something like $1 per kilowatt.

This is the reason for the service being discontinued and not the fact that the man in question declined to purchase any stock of the lighting company. If the consumer is willing to stand the cost the company will put the line in for him.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN ELSEWHERE

From Tuesday's Daily.

The account of the robbery of Joe Smith which appeared in last evening's Journal has led Walter Gouchenour, the owner of the livery barn to state that while the robbery might have occurred there is a matter of doubt as to whether or not Mr. Smith might not have got touched up while out calling that night before returning to the barn for the night. Mr. Smith did not, however, desire to cast any reflections on the employes of the barn at any time and was in the belief that someone entered the barn and made away with the coin that he claims to have missed from his purse.
