

ALVO DEPARTMENT

The weather has been quite cool the past few days.

Dr. L. Muir and wife autoed to Lincoln Friday afternoon.

The Boy Scouts are planning a hike to Elmwood Friday evening.

Several people from this place attended the county fair at Weeping Water.

I. D. Willis is spending several days in Minnesota, where he went on business.

Austin Ough of University Place called on Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shaffer Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Powell, of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shaffer spent Sunday in South Bend.

Chas. H. Shively of Shell Lake, Wisconsin, visited relatives and friends here from Saturday till Monday.

Miss Alta Linch was home from Beatrice Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Veri Linch, of University Place also spent Sunday with the home folks.

The Farmers and Merchants bank here was broken into at an early hour Friday morning and the safe blown open, by a quartette of bandits who at the time of writing are still at large. Further particulars of the astounding robbery appear elsewhere in this paper. The loot consisted of some $1,200 in currency and about $5,000 worth of Liberty bonds and other securities.

Made Good Showing

The "Happy Workers" garment club won second place at the county fair at Weeping Water this week and the Boys' pig club won second place in judging. The garment club is under the leadership of Mrs. William Timblin.

Former M. E. Pastor Here

Rev. M. A. Keith and bride of La Grange, Indiana, visited from Wednesday till Friday here at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ganz, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Foreman. Rev. Keith was married July 3, 1921, at La Grange, Ind. the bride's home. They will make their home in Omaha, where Rev. Keith will be pastor of the Pearl Memorial church.

To Have Lyceum Course

Alvo will be fortunate in having a Lyceum course this winter. The Cadmean Chautauqua system is putting on a course under the auspices of the school, which will consist of four numbers. The first attraction will be J. R. Barkely in crayon, cartoons and clay modeling. This is an especially entertaining number, the last part of which is not often seen on the lyceum stage. The second number will be an entertainment by Miss Cora B. Lanham, who will give a series of readings and a descriptive talk on the costumes of France and their significance. The third number will be The Scotts, who together give a number of character sketches in costume, Harry Lauder songs and Irish folk numbers. The fourth number will be a local number prepared and given by the teachers of the Alvo schools.

Mr. Barkely will be here on October 13, in the opening number.

Public School Notes

Attendance in the school has been very good this fall. It is to be hoped that it continues to be so during the entire school year.

Mr. Lynn Keefer, nephew of Mr. Chris Keefer of this city, visited the school one day last week. Mr. Keefer has just graduated from the high school at Covina, California, and is now paying his first visit to this part of the country.

The faculty was very pleasantly entertained by the ladies of the Methodist church and community on Tuesday night. The spirit of the occasion and the good will shown on the part of all were greatly appreciated. Ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. Howard McKeeney, principal of the high school, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. C. T. Edwards. Miss Noyes and Miss Haddon were at home at Louisville; Miss Traut at Lincoln and Miss Arnold and Miss Mayer were visiting in Lincoln.

A number of the pupils have been excused from their school duties in order to attend the County fair at Weeping Water. Many of them have made entries in the various departments. The good that they get from this sort of work very largely replaces that which they would get if they were in school.

Miss Anna Traut, in addition to her regular work in the kindergarten, is giving a course in Art to the pupils of the remaining rooms. She has had a number of special courses in the university in this work and we feel that the school is to be congratulated on being able to take advantage of her training and ability.

Miss Doris Arnold entertained the teachers of the school at the home of Mrs. L. Laureston on Wednesday night, September 21. The evening was spent in making candy, playing games and getting acquainted with each other. All were able to report for duty the following morning, in spite of the hulls found in the nut candy, the responsibility for which seems to lie between Miss Mayer and Mr. McKeeney.

ALVO ROBBERS MAY HEAD FOR KANSAS

Four Men who Robbed the Alvo Bank Reported to Have Been Seen in Nemaha County Friday.

No definite clues have been secured to the robbers who wrecked the bank at Alvo on Thursday morning, and who escaped with money and securities aggregating $7,000. A car speeding southward was seen Friday morning three miles west of Johnson in Nemaha county, according to reports received at the state law enforcement department at Lincoln and State Sheriff Hyers and Sheriff Davis of Nemaha county, as well as the sheriffs of Richardson and Pawnee counties were notified of the supposed flight of the robbers.

Sheriff Quinton has been busily engaged in sending out the notices of the robbery to the law officers in the eastern part of Nebraska as well as neighboring states in the hopes that the fleeing robbers may be located and apprehended.

The securities taken from the Alvo bank were largely owned by customers of the bank and covered by insurance, as was the funds of the bank taken.

The similarity of the operations at Alvo to those at Gresham on Wednesday night leads the officers to suspect that the same gang of yeggs were responsible for both jobs.

LOAD OF 'CORN' RESULTS IN $10 FINE

Lady Acquires too Large a Burden of Invigorating Juice and Lands in Hands of Law

Last evening Chief of Police Jones was called upon to take into custody a lady who had tentatively lingered too long in the presence of King Corn or at least the liquid produced from the fertile Nebraska corn crop and as the result was required to deposit the sum of thirteen iron men with the hard-hearted guardians of the law to cover a fine and costs for being drunk.

The lady in question had come down to the main portion of the city in pursuit of supplies and her condition attracted the attention of the officers as she was evidently well supplied with corn juice and her actions finally led to the arrest being made and the sad parting with the necessary coin to appease the injured feelings of justice.

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON

From Friday's Daily. The friends in the city of Mr. and Mrs. John Schatz were assembled at the Burlington station this morning when No. 10 pulled in at 3:30 and gave the newly weds a fitting reception back home. The newly married couple, who have been spending the past two weeks in Colorado, sought to slip one over on the friends but they were too many leaks to the secret of the day of their arrival and accordingly when the train pulled in the noise of blowing horns, showers of rice and the usual trimmings of a bridal reception greeted the young people.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

From Friday's Daily. Last evening Mrs. W. A. Swatek, who has been at the St. Joseph hospital for the past two weeks, was able to return home, having recovered nicely from her operation and her return has brought great gladness to the household. The many friends of Mrs. Swatek are pleased to learn that she has recovered so nicely and trust that she may continue her improvement until restored to her former good health.

Harvey Manners, who has been employed at Holyoke, Colorado, for some time past, returned last evening to enjoy a visit here with his relatives and friends.

Why Mr. N. Windsor (R. L.) Put Up with Rats for Years

"Years ago I got some rat poison, which nearly killed our fine watch dog. We put up with rats until a friend told me about Rat-Snap. It surely kills rats, though house pets won't touch it." Rats dry up and leave no smell. Prices, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Bestor & Swatek Weyrich & Had-raba F. G. Fricke & Co.

STRIKE LIST GROWS; SIXTY-NINE WALKOUTS

Greatest Number in History Except During World War—Plans to Lower Living Cost.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The advance guard of a new "Coxey's army" of unemployed reached here today.

Fifty ex-service men from New York, most of whom have been out of jobs for three months, arrived in trucks to appear before the unemployment conference as "human documents."

Under the leadership of Urbain Ledoux, who sold "slaves" in Boston, "the army" will march before the conference to show the distress caused by unemployment.

Ledoux denied the men would "picket the conference."

Washington, Sept. 30.—The number of strikes now in progress throughout the country is higher than at any time since the war, Secretary of Labor Davis said today.

Official figures reveal that walkouts now total sixty-nine, he added. The highest previous record of strikes at one time was eighty during the war.

Washington, Sept. 30.—A recommendation that congress immediately pass the $500,000,000 railroad re-funding bill was to be presented late today to President Harding's national unemployment conference.

The conference steering committee which drew up the recommendation called it "the most important act the government can do toward bringing relief in the present labor distress."

Washington, Sept. 30.—An emergency recommendation that prices of many commodities be slashed as a means of stimulating business will be made to the national unemployment conference today.

It is the administration's plan to use the conference as a means of forcing down prices of many articles which have been reluctant to drop from the "war peak" regions.

The demand for lower prices will come from the committee on emergency measures that can be taken by manufacturers to relieve unemployment.

MEMBERS OF SHOP UNIONS HEAR INTERESTING ADDRESSES

John Whitcomb, Representing the Railroad Department, Spoke to Large Audience

The members of the shop crafts employed here by the Burlington held a very interesting meeting last evening at the Modern Woodmen hall and practically all of the shop employees were present to hear the present condition of affairs discussed by John Whitcomb, representing the railroad employment department of the unions.

The present situation is one filled with the greatest of interest to every employe of the railroad systems of the United States both in the train and shop service, following the long period of discussion begun by the various unions and the railroad managements.

Mr. Whitcomb discussed the situation thoroughly from the viewpoint of the heads of the labor organizations who have been carefully investigating the present conditions and have advised the benefits of his intimate knowledge of what is now confronting the railroad worker in this country. The labor organizations have spared no efforts to effect a settlement of the disputes in the most peaceful manner possible and have avoided the strike in every way, leaving the matter of adjustment to the United States labor board and it is expected that the board's action of a number of decisions will be awaited before drastic action is taken to secure for the railroad employes the benefits which they have enjoyed under the former national working agreement and which was declared abrogated on July 1st. The new agreement has not as yet been announced in whole and on its provisions will doubtless depend many of the matters to be settled and whose adjustment will be awaited by the members of the shop crafts as well as the four brotherhoods of the trainmen.

J. H. Bellows of Toledo, Ohio, and sister, Mrs. Anne B. Reed of Cleveland, old time residents of near Weeping Water, arrived here this morning and drove from here by car to their old home for a short visit there with friends and relatives.

Bach & Libershal will have a car of U. S. No. 1 early Ohio potatoes on track about October 4th. See them before you buy your winter supply

A. J. Schafer, one of the prominent farmers of this portion of the county, was in the city today attending to some matters of business.

Walter Minnear and O. B. Vir of near Syracuse, were among the visitors in the city today for a short time attending to some business matters.

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

CONTEST ATTRACTED MUCH INTEREST

Awards Made Last Evening in Word Contest Staged by Store of C. E. Wescott's Sons

The contest that has been conducted at the store of C. E. Wescott's Sons for the past week for the largest number of words that could be formed from the letters in the firm name, has attracted a great deal of attention and some very keen competition among the boys of the city.

There had been a large number of prizes offered and the competition was spirited among the school boys to cop the chief prize, a fine $10 sweater. The lists were turned over yesterday to a committee of three teachers of the high school who carefully listed and checked the various lists and at 4:30 the award was made.

The judges decided that the chief prize, the $10 sweater, was won by Robert Wurl, with a total of 212 correctly spelled words formed from the letters of the name C. E. Wescott's Sons, no letter appearing more times than it did in the firm name.

The two second prizes were awarded to Clifford Duxbury with 210 words and Rudolph Iverson with 196 correctly spelled words.

The three third prizes were given to Norris Cummins and Joe Schla-jors with 165 each and Charles Majors with 158 words.

There were a large number of minor prizes given with lists ranging from 155 to 100 correct words. During the time of the contest boys have been carefully studying the words that might be formed and as a result many words were discovered that do not enter to ordinary use and the time spent has certainly been well spent.

TO LIMIT DEBATE ON TREATY RATIFICATION

Senate Vote Expected to be Reached on October 14 or 15—Scare Given By "Anti-Beers"

Washington, Sept. 30.—An agreement was reached by the senate late today to impose a debate time limit of one hour on each senator in consideration of the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary by signing October 14, in order to expedite a vote on ratification. Under the agreement it is expected that the vote will be reached on October 14 or 15.

The original plan for an agreement to vote on October 14 was abandoned after Senator Lodge, the republican leader, and Senator Underwood, the democratic leader, had found that unanimous consent would not be protracted after the hour rule goes into effect. The agreement also provides that senators shall be limited to ten minutes for consideration or reservations.

The voting agreement was held up temporarily and almost rejected today by managers of the anti-beer bill who, fearing this measure might be side tracked, forced Senator Lodge to delay presenting the agreement.

Speaking later for the prohibition group, however, Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, said his fears for the anti-beer measure had proven unfounded.

"In fact, in conference with republican leaders," he said, "I have secured an even more distinct and explicit understanding that the anti-beer bill will be taken up and that there will be no adjournment of this session of congress until the conference report (on the prohibition measure) is disposed of."

Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, interjected that he and other opponents of the anti-beer bill were not to be bound by Mr. Sterling's understanding with the republican leaders.

Republican leaders of the senate expressed gratification today at the prompt ratification by the German reichstag of the peace treaty with Germany.

"I am very glad that the German government has acted so promptly," said Senator Lodge.

M. L. Ruby, for many years a prominent resident of Cass county came in a few days ago and will remain here looking after the care of his corn crop on the farm west of Mynard.
