Death is as sure as taxes—and far more peaceful.

Sometimes the real movie hero is the fellow who sits through it.

Rolled stockings don't necessarily make men look down on women.

Little girls are punished for making faces. But not when they grow up!

Fewer babies were born in Plattsmouth this summer. We don't blame them.

Every girl is looking for a husband—both before and after marriage.

An English duke has married a blacksmith's daughter. Watch her forge ahead.

Perhaps you have noticed it, but, as a general rule, the speed fender isn't fit for anything else.

If you don't believe there has been a drop in the cost of living, read the automobile advertisements.

A magazine writer says that a dog fills an empty place in a man's life. Yes, especially if it is a hot dog.

Future wars will be fought in the air, say military experts. That's the same place where we left the world's peace.

After its experience with foreign airships the United States may be moved to manufacture its own dirigibles.

The first time you catch a severe cold sleeping by the open window where you have slept all summer—then it's Autumn.

Calling a man a liar is the last word in wasted talk. If he is a liar he already knows it. If he isn't he has found you out.

Come now, be honest about it? Does your wife know any more about politics than she did before she was enfranchised?

If you forget to take your medicine you can forget that you are sick; and if you forget that you are sick you are nine-tenths well.

Earnest welfare workers are still after the adenoids and tonsils of school children. Some day, perhaps, this may be a snoreless world.

They give Gen. Pershing a glad welcome when he landed in France the other day. However, regardless of what he may do, Pershing will never again be given a welcome like unto that he received when he first landed in France about four years ago.

It is to be noted that the big California gold strike is not at Hollywood after all.

Breat Britain says she will make good the loss of the ZR-2. Well, we don't want another exactly like that one.

Women are more careful in addressing letters than men, says an employe in the Washington dead office.

The senate has decided to put the tariff bill on the shelf for the present session. On a high shelf, we suppose.

Nebraska would be much better off this year if we could transform all of our corn crop into pork and less into moonshine.

No man is bigger than the law, but occasionally you hear of a fellow who has a bank roll larger than all the statute books.

After all, the average married man kisses his wife just about as often as she shows symptoms of being willing to stand for it.

Here's another thing we can say in favor of bobbed hair: You can feel reasonably sure that it is securely fastened at one end.

Charlie Chaplin has gone to Berlin, and now we shall see whether the Germans think there is still anything funny in the world.

One of our high school boys recently said he would take three subjects this year, which no doubt will be football, cigarettes and girls.

First-class mail service has been established to Russia. The only first-class article Russia has established by herself is a first-class famine.

Steel mills are reopening in the Ohio valley, and thousands of men will be given employment. Everywhere the outlook is brightening.

It is said that a man's blood pressure increases when he lies. Perhaps that's the reason why some of our politicians are in bad physical shape.

An ex-keeper has applied for a vacancy in the rectorship of a New York parish. Probably he thought the congregation wanted a good mixer.

If all individuals had to cook their own meals they wouldn't eat so much. We charge nothing for pointing out this road to universal health.

While corn is worth four bits per bushel on the cob and $100 per bushel in the jug, it is going to be a hard job to enforce prohibition in this country.

Sid Farrar, the father of Geraldine, has been interviewed regarding the Arbutuck case, and expresses his opinion very freely, but just why we don't know.

Fatty Arbutuck made money making a fool of himself, and then money made a fool of him. It strikes us that Fatty was foolish chiefly in picking his friends.

Not many years ago a crime was thought to be explained when the defendant pleaded that he was drunk but nowadays the courts want to know how he got that way.

Poultry Wanted!

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1921.

A car load of live poultry wanted to be delivered at poultry car near the Burlington freight house, Plattsmouth, on Thursday, October 6, one day only, for which we will pay the following—

Hens, per lb.	18c
Springs, per lb.	18c
Ducks, per lb.	17c
Geese, per lb.	15c
Old Cox, per lb.	7c

Remember the date. We will be on hand rain or shine and take care of all poultry offered for sale.

The senate foreign relation committee has voted to report favorably the administration peace treaties, which will establish peace with everybody except Senator Borah.

A Pittsburg man has been found with two wives who say that they have been lived in one room through fear of their husband. We know a lot of brave men who wouldn't attempt to do that with one wife.

Vice-president Coolidge says the country is rapidly getting back to a constitutional basis. That probably is true. But the senate still has some unfinished business we understand that isn't being so rapidly disposed of.

One reason why they don't admit Jews to membership in the Ku Klux Klan is that the robes worn by members cost $6.50. If our Hebrew friends were admitted they would soon be selling the regular regalia at $2.49.

Somehow the war seems to have robbed people of the capacity to react with enthusiasm to any great event. Even Babe Ruth's smashing of the home run record brought nothing more than a bored yawn from the public.

Premier Lloyd George and Premier Briand will not attend the disarmament conference. Both being politicians, they recall the jealousies aroused by Woodrow Wilson when he went away from home on a diplomatic mission.

Under the riot law, effective in Belfast, three persons constitute an unlawful assembly. One can see how a law like that would be a considerable handicap to debate, but we suppose it would be impracticable to try it on a legislative assembly.

"How many teeth has a normal being?" asks the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Well, if he's adult, and really normal, he has about fifteen, most of which he vows to have extracted and replaced with a plate next time he finds courage to go to the dentist.

Build your own home. A Michigan man, excavating toward a new house, dug up four bottles of old California wine. Of course, he had planned only a modest dwelling. Those who plan more pretentious houses, of course, stand to dig up imported wine.

Lowell Sherman, the motion actor, found in New York, who is wanted as a witness in the Arbutuck case, affirms that he was not running away from his duty. But was merely seeking to avoid publicity. That is too thin. There never was an actor or actress in the history of the world who desired to avoid publicity.

DOINGS AT COURT HOUSE

This morning in the district court a decree of divorce was granted in the case of Otis Hobbs Sargeant vs Harry E. Sargeant, and in which the plaintiff was allowed absolute divorce on the grounds of desertion.

In county court the complaint was filed by County Attorney A. G. Cole against Dwight Propst for failure to provide for the care of the minor child of the defendant under the decree of the district and the matter was continued until October 13th when it will be heard.

ONE BRAND- ONE QUALITY- One Size Package

All our skill, facilities, and lifelong knowledge of the finest tobaccos are concentrated on this one cigarette—CAMEL.

Into this ONE BRAND, we put the utmost quality. Nothing is too good for Camels. They are as good as it's possible to make a cigarette.

Camel QUALITY is always maintained at the same high, exclusive standard. You can always depend on the same mellow-mild refreshing smoothness—the taste and rich flavor of choicest tobaccos—and entire freedom from cigaretty aftertaste.

And remember this! Camels come in one size package only—20 cigarettes—just the right size to make the greatest saving in production and packing. This saving goes straight into Camel Quality. That's one reason why you can get Camel Quality at so moderate a price.

Here's another. We put no useless frills on the Camel package. No "extra wrappers!" Nothing just for show!

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And their added cost must go onto the price or come out of the quality.

One thing, and only one, is responsible for Camels great and growing popularity—that is CAMEL QUALITY.

NOTICE TO POLICY HOLDERS

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Platte Mutual Insurance company last evening, a new business policy was adopted, whereby in the future the amount of any one risk shall not exceed $1,500, and in the business district not closer than every other place of business. Under those conditions it was considered that Mutual Insurance can prosper and give good protection without making assessments of the Platte Mutual has been writing insurance in this city for the past twenty-five years and during all that time had only one assessment, notwithstanding the rate for insurance was about half that of the Old Line companies, hence the patrons of the local company have saved largely on cost of their insurance. It is a home company and all the money paid for insurance is kept at home and deserves the patronage of everyone who is interested in seeing the company prosper. Boost.
