Guiding Your Children

Bad habits lead children astray. Good habits guide them safely into the path of character, uprightness and independence.

You can start them right by teaching them to save money. Set them an example by saving yourself. Make them admire thrift.

Once started, the saving habit helps to form other good habits. It provides experience for them in handling their own funds.

This start in the right direction is but a simple step. Bring children to the bank when you start them to school.

BLOCK SIGNAL SYSTEM ON BURLINGTON
Trunk Line West of the Missouri River Now Has 300 Miles—Facilitates Train Movements

Approximately 300 miles of the Burlington line west of the Missouri river are now equipped with the automatic block signal system. The main line east of the river are now practically under the block system.

The first modern automatic block signal system installed on the lines west of the Burlington was between Akron and Denver, a distance of 112 miles. Since that time the system has been extended from Pacific Junction by way of Omaha to Lincoln, Lincoln to Dorchester, Lincoln to Grand Island and Oxford to McCook.

The automatic block signal system enables the railroads to run a large number of passenger and freight trains between given points. In other words, it is considered the last word in increasing the velocity of traffic. Once another block system was in service, but it did not prove nearly as satisfactory as the new one. It was from station to station and the blocks might be only eight miles apart or as distant as twenty-four miles apart. Under the modern system, the blocks may be placed as close as two miles apart.

In time, the western lines of the railroad, rather than the main lines, will be equipped with the block system. The cost is estimated at $3,000 a mile to install. With the system in proper operation a much greater number of trains will be able to travel within a certain mileage.

The signals are so arranged that a train cannot get by them without a warning. The Burlington also maintains an interlocking switch plant in the Lincoln yards similar to the one at the union station in Kansas City, and which greatly facilitates the movement of traffic in the yards, but is so constructed that any mistake made by the operator will not cause any damage. It is the only plant of its kind on the lines west of the river.

Fullerton, Neb., Oct. 17.—Mrs. E. B. Penney, who was elected president of the woman's auxiliary at the American Legion convention in Fremont, has resigned.

"It is impossible for me to undertake the work, much as I am in sympathy with every aim of the Legion," she explained. "My election was a complete surprise to me as I had not been consulted in advance. I have presented my resignation to the executive board of the state to be acted upon at the first business session of that body."

Mrs. Robert Simmons of Scottsbluff, first vice president, will carry on the work as acting president of the auxiliary.

MINERS GOING BACK TO WORK
Pittsburg, Kas., Oct. 17.—Arrival tomorrow of Van A. Bitner of Pittsburg, Pa., was expected by miners and mine operators tonight to be the next development in the situation in the Kansas coal fields brot about by the suspension of the Alexander Howat administration last week on order of John L. Lewis, international president of the mine workers. Bitner, it was stated, had been designated by Lewis to cooperate with George L. Peck and Thomas Harvey of this district, acting president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of a provisional administration set up by President Lewis.

More than 1,000 miners—part of the 12,000 who struck when Howat and August Dorchy, union vice president, were sent to jail at Columbus recently for violating the state industrial court law—were at work again today, according to a statement issued by the Southwestern Coal operators association.

LLOYD GEORGE IN THE LIST
London, Oct. 18.—The British delegation to the Washington conference, according to the London Times will consist of Premier Lloyd George, A. J. Balfour and Lord Lee of Fareham, with Srinavasa Sastri, representing India; Sir Robert L. Borden, Canada, and George Foster Pearce, Australia. Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador to the United States also will attend the conference when required.
