Jack Frost is showing his work.
We hope the strike will be called off.

Bargain day was a big one, as usual.
America's biggest running expense is motor cars.

Walnuts are ripe, and the boys are gathering them in.
A double chin develops quickest when two women meet.

After vacation thought in the St. Joseph Gazette: "Returning tourists are sick."

A man with a large family to support hasn't time to develop an artistic temperament.

Drunkness is reported to be on the decline in Chicago. Perhaps the policemen have quit peddling liquor.

Guatemala, Honduras and Salvador have merged into one republic. Now look out for some nice fighting.

This is going to be a hard winter, and the man out of work and money, too, will have a hard time getting along.

Aw, well the world ain't so bad. In fact we believe it's getting better. We hardly ever see a red necktie anymore.

No wonder Mexico has been so friendly to us lately. She wants to float a $250,000,000 bond issue in this country.

The awkward man must be having quite a breathing spell since he can't be accused of stepping on women's skirts these days.

The people are being taxed to death in Nebraska and if it is possible to make a change for the better, why not up and do it?

Consider the humble oyster. It cannot understand why there should be any scarcity of oysters. The mother oyster lays 400,000 eggs annually.

While wages are high the profiteer is also high in his charges. Consequently if the wage is cut, the profiteer must cut also. Ain't that proper?

It begins to look like the corset manufacturers of the United States are going to have to ask for a government subsidy to keep out of bankruptcy.

California grape growers are selling more grapes now than they did before the days of prohibition. Incidentally, they are selling them cheaper.

Dry cleaning makes this suit as good as new according to Dainty Dorothy

"It don't take a man long to bug his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.

One fair sized sago palm will supply a man with food for more than a year.

Now Edgar Howard comes to the front, and he says the sentiment for a new party is gaining strength every day in the western section of the state.

Of course, it is none of our business, and we may never have our curiosity gratified, but sometimes we have wondered if rouge rubs off on the pillow.

A Georgian who has reached his 100th birthday says he expects to live another hundred years. He must be waiting for Bill Bryan to be elected president.

Judge Arthur G. Wray says he will not run for governor under the manipulations of either of the old parties. Alright, judge, organize a new party, then.

It is predicted that Germany just can't stand the loss of Upper Silesia, but then, it has been predicted that Germany couldn't stand a lot of things that she did.

The department of agriculture has issued a bulletin describing the phenomena of yellow rain and pink rain. Somebody in Washington has been drinking again.

Norma Talmadge says that this is the day of the short skirt, the short hair, and the short story. Norma might have added the short look ahead and the short pocketbook.

One of the strangest things in this world is why poor men never have nervous breakdowns, and why negroes never have appendicitis, cancers, anemias, or diseased tonsils.

The republican leaders say they are willing to compromise with the democrats on the tariff question. An offer of compromise on such a measure is equivalent to admitting defeat.

Politics have about ruined this country, and the grafters manipulating them are growing richer every day, while the poor downtrodden tillers of the soil are holding the sack with nothing in it.

The old fashioned spelling bee has been revived in some of the public schools in Nebraska. Perhaps the day will yet come when the rising generations will be able to look up words in the dictionary.

If Uncle Sam wants a law on immigration with teeth in it, pass one to the effect that no immigrant will be admitted to this country who does not agree to buy a farm and till it. We have quite enough of the riff-raff of Europe.

A Y. M. C. A. secretary in New York has written a story declaring that Uncle Sam could wipe Japan off the map within three months. Perhaps so, but we would prefer to have a better authority on that subject than a Y. M. C. A. secretary.

If the weather man will just continue to furnish us with this brand of his goods for the next seven days he will incur our everlasting gratitude, and we will be willing to stand for almost anything he wants to send during the remainder of the year.

The state department at Washington is receiving renewals of the old complaint that our ambassadors abroad are forced to live in furnished rooms. Perhaps it is just as well. It may convince some of these European nations that we need the money they owe us.

Politics may work wonders in the campaign next year. The democrats will line up with great hopes of success. The republicans will be right in line and sure of retaining control of Nebraska and there is no question as to a third party, with already many followers.

Mrs. Crandall (Iowa) Tells How She Stopped Chicken Losses

One good way to curtail armament would be to have plumbers build our battleships.

Chimneys lean toward the east, due to drying of their moisture by the morning sun.

It sounds almost as bad to hear a woman say "damn" as to hear a man say "darn."

A newspaper in Athens has all of its advertisements and news matter written in verse.

A bankrupt in France loses all rights of citizenship and regains them after he has paid all his debts.

The demagogue always does his promises before he gets into office, and fails to make good thereafter.

By helping to stimulate the building industry in Plattsmouth each of us will be stimulating his own industry.

"Sympathy," so called, may be a nice thing, but it cannot extend to an empty pantry and a fireless stove in mid-winter.

When a man repeats the smart sayings of his children he naturally expects you to understand that he is responsible.

Of course, it is none of our business, but we sometimes wonder whether stockings need darning as often as socks do.

Governor Kendall of Iowa, told a conference of mid-west governors that "we have not yet sounded the ultimate depths of our depression." Since when did Iowa get all that gloom?

CHANGES MADE AT THE STOREHOUSE

Evi Spier, Chief Clerk, Goes to Alliance and Ed J. Clark Succeeds to Clerkship Here

From Friday's Daily.
Several changes have been made in the store department of the Burlington in this city and which become effective at once. Mr. Evi Spier who has for the past year been the chief clerk here under W. F. Hunke, storekeeper, has received a distinct promotion in the service and has been sent to Alliance in the capacity of storekeeper there. Mr. Spier has made many friends here during his stay in this city who will regret very much to see him leave but they are well pleased to learn that he is receiving an advancement. To succeed Mr. Spier as clerk here, Ed J. Clark, now foreman of the store department, has been named. Mr. Clark was acting in this capacity during the absence of Mr. Spier in Chicago a few weeks ago and is a young man well qualified in every way for the position.

BACK FROM INTERESTING TRIP TO SOUTH AMERICA

Below is an extract from a letter received by Mrs. Charles Bailey, of Elmwood, from her brother, Elmer Woodruff, who is a geologist in the employ of the Oklahoma State Geologists and Refiners company, at Tulsa, Oklahoma, and who has just returned from a two months' trip to South America in the interests of his company. Mr. Woodruff was raised in Cass county and has many friends in the vicinity of his old home at Elmwood who will be pleased to hear of his success. Following is the extract from his letter:

"My trip to South America was a most interesting one. I passed thru the Canal, stopped at several points in Peru, Chile and Bolivia. They are countries of the Spanish type and in many ways are similar to Cuba.

Being south of the equator it was winter, so the weather was fine. Most of northern Chile is a desert, hence there are living beings only along the few streams which come from the mountains, and they are high, rugged mountains. I was up 15,000 feet twice and I could see peaks much higher.

"You may wonder how barren the coast is when I tell you it has not rained at Arica, Chile, for forty years. There are practically no wagon roads. Travel is on foot or by means of small mules. Goods are transported on the backs of mules or llamas. There are some Indian caravans. We always had plenty to eat though we did take some of it with us on our trips."

PLATTSMOUTH FIRST IN LINE.

Away back in July, before most Nebraska Legion posts had even begun to give consideration to the selection of a state commander, Hugh J. Kearns post of this city passed resolutions pledging the post delegates to the securing of endorsement of Earl Cline of Nebraska City for the office of national commander by the department convention at Fremont.

A month later when publicity was being given the action, other posts over the state fell in line and at the convention Mr. Cline received the united support of his home state.

SHERIFF UNDER WEATHER

Sheriff C. D. Quinton has been confined to his home for the past few days with a severe case of the grippe or heavy cold and is still feeling very much knocked out as the result of the illness. It is hoped that in a short time the cold will be in such shape as to permit the genial sheriff to be around as usual in looking after the peace of the county.

This also may be none of our business, and we certainly don't want one ourselves, but the idea has just occurred to us that perhaps there may be a man somewhere in this country who wants to buy one of those old fashioned, hard boiled shirts, and there ought to be a law compelling the haberdasheries to handle them.

How to Judge Gasoline Quality

In cold weather you can easily get a line on gasoline quality. If you have starting trouble, if you have to feed in a rich mixture, if carbon accumulates quickly, you have pretty good indications that there's something wrong with your gasoline.

Red Crown Gasoline vaporizes readily at all temperatures. It ignites instantly and burns up completely. It is straight-distilled gasoline that meets all U. S. Government specifications for motor gasoline.

Red Crown Gasoline does not vary. It is as uniformly high grade as the most modern processes of refining can make it.

Authorized Red Crown Dealers Everywhere

Wherever you go you can always get Red Crown Gasoline from reliable, competent and obliging dealers. The gasoline and motor oils they sell make motor operation more pleasant, more economical and more dependable. Drive in where you see the Red Crown Sign.

SILESIA EQUALLY DIVIDED

Paris, Oct. 20.—The decision of the council of the league of nations on the Upper Silesia question made public here today, divides the plebiscite area in almost equal parts between Poland and Germany, as to the number of communities and provides administrative machinery for the gradual inauguration of the new regime over a period of fifteen years.

The long awaited boundary line, according to an official communique, will follow the Oder river to Neibetschau, assigning 22 communities in this southern section to Germany and 19 to Poland.

To insure continuity of peaceful economic life in Upper Silesia after the partition, the council of ambassadors is urged to take measures looking toward German and Polish co-operation under a general agreement.

The administration of private railways is left unchanged and as for the German railway system a system of common exploitation is to exist for 15 years.

The German mark is designated as the momentary standard for not more than 15 years.

PEYOTE IS SAVED TO INDIANS

Washington, Oct. 20.—Peyote, sometimes called "Indian hootch," one of the last survivors of the family of John Barleycorn, was saved at least temporarily to the American Indian today by the senate. A plea by Senator Owen, democrat, Oklahoma, in whose veins there is Indian blood, caused the senate to strike from a house bill a provision authorizing the bureau of Indian affairs to suppress use of peyote, a beverage made from the cactus bean. Senator Owen told the senate that it was used in Indian religious ceremonies.

How Much Does Lubricating Oil Cost You Each Year?

Automotive engineers say that oil of the wrong body, failure to replace old oil with fresh oil and neglecting to keep oil up to the proper level cause fully 90 percent of all automobile engine repair bills. So the real cost of lubricating oil is determined by your repair bills.

Oil of the highest quality and correct body is the truest economy. It protects moving parts against wear and prevents bearings burning out. It keeps compression tight and assures maximum power and mileage from every gallon of fuel.

Polarine is the most perfect motor oil we know of. It maintains a protecting oil film in the closest fitting bearings and a fuel-tight and gas-tight oil seal between the piston rings and cylinder walls.

Polarine is made in four grades—light, medium heavy, heavy and extra heavy—but only one quality. Get the proper grade for your car next time by referring to Polarine chart at our Service Stations or dealers—and you will start cutting down motoring costs.
