

HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES HAVE JOINT PARTY

HALLOWE'EN FESTIVITIES HELD AT HIGH SCHOOL LAST NIGHT ENJOYED.

VERY CLEVER ENTERTAINMENT

Each Class Has Special Stunt that Pleases and Entertains Crowd of 175 Persons Present.

Last evening the four classes of the Plattsmouth high school held a most delightful Hallowe'en party at the high school building and which was attended by 175 of the young people as well as the faculty of the school and various stunts given were more than pleasing to every one of the members of the party. The high school gym was very prettily arranged with the orange and black of the Hallowe'en season as well as the blue and white of the Plattsmouth high school, the festoons being draped over the lights and bleachers and here a portion of the social festivities were held.

Each class had been required to furnish some special stunt and these were given on the stage in the auditorium of the school and were novel and entertaining. The freshmen put on a miniature vaudeville show with four big acts, well advertised and carried out in fine shape. The first act was that of the "strong man" and in this role Frank Godwin won much applause by his great feats of lifting and was assisted in the act by Russell Hackenberg. The trained animal act also was much enjoyed and was in charge of Russell Hackenberg with Carl Ofe, Guy Graves, Willis Hackenberg and Ray Lambert furnishing a part of the fun. In the boxing match Clyde Graves appeared as the freshmen champion while Frank Godwin represented the senior boxers and the result was that the senior took the count in the third round. The last of the freshmen acts was the football song by the girls who were costumed in white with blue sweaters and P. H. S. emblems and wearing blue head guards and made a pleasing finale to the act.

The sophomores for their part of the program furnished a song in pantomime, with Blanche Braun appearing as the star and assisted by Stewart Chase in the role of the lover while Kenneth Vandervoeth and Carroll Craig as Satan assisted. Mary Heilas and Caroline Schulhof were the ponies of the act and hauled the tiny wagon over the stage in a spirited manner while a large chorus of the girls assisted in the pantomime.

The juniors performed the very difficult task of operating on the head of a supposed member of the senior class and Roy Olson was the willowy and distinguished M. D. that did the heavy work while Glen Henry and Charles Hartford assisted and the report of the operation was that there was a vacuum found in the dome of the supposed senior.

In the part assigned by the senior class one of the most clever stunts of the evening was produced in the dialogue between Allison Flynn and Will Matchalott and the two young men kept the audience in the best of humor. The two young men put on several musical numbers that rivaled the work of some of the masters of the musical world but it was found that the Edison concealed back of the scenes furnished the chief part of the music.

In the last portion of the evening the unfortunate freshmen were led to the gym where they were given a real initiation into the high school and at the conclusion of the ceremony were presented with certificates that entitled them to keep on attending the high school.

BROTHERHOODS REGARD IT AS VICTORY

Since Further Wage Reductions and Action on Rules Indefinitely Deferred—U. S. Ready.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 28.—The official recall of the rail strike orders issued by the switchmen, trainmen, conductors, engineers and firemen were dispatched today when leaders of the "big five" flashed code messages from Cleveland headquarters to their general chairmen. The chairmen will submit the messages to the locals, and the official order recalling the strike will thus permeate the country in a few hours.

Railroad brotherhood chiefs said that their resolution, adopted last night calling off the strike, emphasized two points as evidence of a victory for the men.

First, that action of the railroad labor board on further wage cuts that the railroads may ask will receive consideration after pending questions before the board are cleared, thereby deferring immediate action on further reductions and possibly postponing the question of a new wage revision for nearly a year.

Second, that action on the rules which the men's organizations wish to maintain will likewise take its place on the regular calendar of the board, so that it will not likely become an immediate issue.

Government's Injunction Plan

Plans to avert the railroad strike, which was scheduled to begin October 30 but called off last night, had been made by the government while the strike still appeared a certainty, District Attorney Clyne made known today.

Application for injunctions, restraining the brotherhood chiefs from carrying out the strike, with orders necessary to conduct these proceedings, were in the hands of district attorneys throughout the country ready to be presented in federal courts.

The applications were drafted by Attorney General Daugherty at a conference with five district attorneys earlier in the week, and followed closely those drawn by Attorney General Richard Olney in 1894 for the injunction issued in July of that year, restraining Eugene V. Debs and other officers of the American Railway union from interfering with transportation of the United States mail, Mr. Clyne said.

The government program included two actions to prevent a tie-up in transportation and a third looking to the punishment of strike leaders thru indictments for conspiracy against the public. These were to be presented to the court twenty-four hours before the time the strike was scheduled to begin.

Board is Congratulated

Smiles of relief wreathed the faces of members of the United States railroad labor board when they met today to clean up the many details of the cancelled railroad strike. Hundreds of congratulatory telegrams began to pour into the board's offices.

FORMER LOUISVILLE BOY DIES IN OMAHA HOSPITAL

Glen Brasel, step-son of Henry Schoeman, died last Saturday, October 22, 1921, at the South Side hospital in Omaha following an operation for appendicitis. The cause of his death was peritonitis, but he had not been in rugged health for some time. Last June, Mr. Schoeman was called to Kansas City, where he was seriously ill with heart trouble, and when he was able to travel, Mr. Schoeman brought him to Louisville to recuperate.

The young man was of a happy, cheerful disposition and made friends wherever he went. At the time of his last illness, he was in the employ of the M. E. Smith Dry Goods company of Omaha.

He was engaged to marry Miss Clara Donnelly of Omaha and had been making his home with his parents, where he was greatly liked by all the family. They were of the Catholic faith and the funeral services at the undertaking parlors in Omaha were in charge of a Catholic priest, the young man having embraced that faith before his demise. Mr. Schoeman brought the remains to Springfield last Monday to rest in the family lot in the cemetery at that place, beside his mother and his grandmother, Mrs. William S. Keaton. His only surviving relatives besides his step-father, is his grandfather, William S. Keaton of Ashton, Idaho, who was unable to attend the funeral. Miss Donnelly accompanied Mr. Schoeman to Springfield to attend the burial which was in charge of Undertaker P. C. Stander of Louisville. A large number of Mr. Schoeman's relatives from here and a few friends from here attended the funeral at Springfield. At the time of his death the young man was 21 years, 1 month and 16 days old.—Louisville Courier.

COURIER'S YOUNGEST SON JOINS RANK OF BENEFACTORS

Gall W. Mayfield, the youngest son of the Courier editor, joined the ranks of the Benefactors last Saturday, October 22, 1921 when he was married to Miss Myrtle Amick of Omaha. The ceremony took place at the People's church at 515 North 13th street in Omaha, the pastor, Rev. Charles W. Savidge, the "Marrying Parson," officiating in his usual pleasing manner. The ring ceremony was used and was simple and impressive. Only relatives were present.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. L. Gadway of Omaha and is a grand daughter of Mrs. Isaac Bates, a former Sarpy county lady now residing in Omaha. She is employed at the Athletic club as assistant cashier and has held that position for the past two years.

The groom has been employed at the Sprague Tire & Rubber company in Omaha since they first started in business a few years ago.

The pastor announced that this was his wedding number 5,291, and he has been preaching for more than forty years.

dinner was served amid much toasting and merriment. The young couple received some beautiful and useful presents and they will go to housekeeping in furnished apartments on Dodge street.—Louisville Courier.

Ask Some One Who Was There!

On Tuesday, October 25, at the Parmele the New Edison proved that there is no difference between its RE-CREATION of music and the original music. It was proof that would be good in any court of law.

If you did not attend, take the trouble to find out exactly what happened. Investigate all the details of this drastic test. It was given particularly for the music-lovers of Plattsmouth—so that they might know, thru their own personal experience, that there is a phonograph which can give them the exact performance of the living artist.

Harvey Hindermeyer, famous tenor, made the test.

He stood on the platform, beside the New Edison. He sang. In the midst of his song, he stopped singing. The New Edison took up the song, and continued it alone. Thus, they alternated—singer and phonograph.

The audience had to watch Mr. Hindermeyer's lips, in order to be certain which was singing. The New Edison's triumph was complete and spectacular.

A similar test was made by the Dann instrumental trio, with the same astonishing results.

Remember that no other phonograph can sustain this test! Remember that you want a phonograph which does! And remember that the New Edison did it—right here in Plattsmouth.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

You can have, in your own home, the exact kind of instrument used in the test. This was an Official Laboratory Model—out of our own stock. Select any Official Laboratory Model in our store, and we will guarantee it to sustain the test of direct comparison, and to do everything that was done in the test at the Parmele.

Ask us about our Budget Plan. It brings you this New Edison for a small payment. Any man or woman, who loves music, can make a gentleman's agreement with us.
