NEBRASKA CITY HIGH SCHOOL WINS GAME

By Score of 33 to 0 the Local Team is Shut Out in the Game Yesterday Afternoon.

Accompanied by a large and enthusiastic gang of rooters and boosters the Nebraska City high school team came up to this city yesterday afternoon and in the storied words of another "got" by the decisive score of 33 to 0. The game was one in which the visitors had the locals outclassed in almost every respect, showing much more clever generalship on the field and the experience that goes a long way toward making a winning football team.

Several of the Otoe county team have had a number of years experience in the line of high school football while the Plattsmouth team was almost wholly new to the game and the fine points of the gridiron sport.

For the visitors, Hoberg, the fleet-footed captain of the team, was the outstanding star and their interference for their runners was at all times of the very best and also their working of the aerial attacks, as their passes were perfect and successful almost without exception and in the opening quarter of the game they were a puzzle to the locals and added two touchdowns to their score. For the Plattsmouth team John Plak, the left half, and Stewart Chase, full, were the chief ground gainers, and Plak in particular was the shining light amid the encircling gloom of defeat.

In the opening of the game the series of end runs to bring the pigskin into the Plattsmouth territory and then were able to score on a pass to Hoberg who took the ball over the line.

Hoberg then proceeded to pull several other daring runs that resulted in another touchdown and his teammates gave him the tightest of support and it was impossible for the locals to do anything with the onrush of the visitors, who scored at the end of the first half 21 to 0, three touchdowns and three goal kicks having been added by the Otoes.

In the second half of the game the Plattsmouth team refreshed made a great effort for a touchdown and it was only the rare good luck of the visitors that prevented Plattsmouth from pushing over the line in the opening quarter of the second half. Chase intercepted a pass of the City and advanced the ball into their territory and from then on with a series of line rushes with Plak at the battering ram the locals came down the field to within the visitors' five yard line, but the repeated use of this play caused the massing of the opposing team and their stone wall defence held the local lads when in sight of the goal. The failure to score at this stage was the last real opportunity of the locals as the Nebraska City team added two more touchdowns to their credit before the final whistle called the game.

The Nebraska City team was accompanied by a large delegation of friends and rooters and in fact far outnumbered the Plattsmouth people on the grounds and showed the great support that the school athletics receive in the Otoe county as compared with other towns.

A Reliable Remedy for Colds and Croup

It would surprise you to know the number of people who use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. J. N. Ross, Verona, Pa., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used by myself and husband for a number of years for coughs and colds. I also gave it to my little granddaughter, three and a half years of age when she had croup last winter. It broke up the attack at once. I have recommended this remedy to many of my friends and neighbors who have also used it with good results."

There is no doubt but that the line of school supplies carried by the Journal is the most complete that can be found and embraces everything that the student may need in his or her work.

A NEW COURT ORDER FOR MINE-WORKERS

Injunction of Judge Anderson is Set Aside—Checkoff System to go on as Before, Temporarily

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Action of the United States court of appeals here today in suspending that part of the injunction issued by Judge Anderson of Indianapolis applying to the checkoff system until further order of the court, was proclaimed tonight by officers of the United mine-workers of America as a decided victory. The nullifying of the part of the writ injunction applying to the checkoff system allows this system of holding out union dues and assessments from the coal miners' pay to be continued by the operators temporarily. An appeal hearing was granted the union for Wednesday, November 16.

Union leaders professed to see in the action today a reopening of the case, but attorneys for the mine-workers said tonight that they would present all the testimony presented at the hearing before Judge Anderson to prove that the case had not been handled thoroughly.

The action today, union leaders said, would do much to clear up the labor situation in the mining industry and would help to hold in line miners who had been work without authority.

Operators, on the other hand, said they saw the action of the court of appeals only as a delay of the final issue. They said that it would be better to have the issue of the checkoff system decided at once rather than delay the decision until cold weather, if there is to be a cessation of work over the action.

The writ of injunction issued by Judge Anderson forbade the operators to withhold from the miners' pay union dues and assessments, as the operators had agreed with the unions to do. Union officials asserted that compliance by the operators with the decision of the court would require a strike and in some cases where the operators have decided to follow the court's orders there have already been walkouts and miners in other states have had sporadic walkouts.

No Statement From Officials Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—No statement from officials of the United mine-workers of America was obtained here tonight as to the effect of the court suspension of the injunction against the union's checkoff that threatened a nation-wide strike, but it was said authoritatively that strike developments would be in abeyance awaiting further action by the federal circuit court of appeals in Chicago, unless operators voluntarily stop the checkoff of union dues.

President John L. Lewis was on his way to his home in Springfield, Ill., and Secretary William Green was going to his home in Ohio. Vice president Philip Murray, who joined last Tuesday in sending the message that threatened the strike in sixteen states by advising local union officials to regard discontinuance of the checkoff as breaking the existing wage agreement, was said to be in Pittsburgh.

With these officials absent, other persons connected with the miners' union declined to make any formal statement, but it was pointed out that the original message of the officials left decision for a strike in ten states in the sixteen states where their decision awaiting action of operators stopping the checkoff.

LOOKING AFTER INTERESTS

George F. West, president of the Plattsmouth Water Co. arrived in the city yesterday from his home at Portland, Maine, to spend a short time here looking over the interests of the company. The water company is asking an increase in rates at the expiration of the present first ten year period of the franchise granted by the city, or that the city if they desire may purchase the plant when the period expires in May 1922, and Mr. West is meeting with the committee of the city council to discuss the matter and determine just what can be done to give the company an adequate return on their investment or turn the plant over to the city.

HAS BAD FALL

A few days ago R. L. Propst was in Omaha assisting his daughter and family move their household goods to a new location and that night Mr. Propst spent the night in the new home. Arising he opened what he thought was a door leading into one of the rooms of the house and instead he discovered that it was a staircase and when he discovered himself at the foot of the flight of stairs it was found that his old friend had sustained a broken shoulder as well as a badly bruised arm and general shaking up. He has so far recovered however that he has been able to return home but is still feeling pretty sore and stiff.

NOT A SAFE PLACE TO BE

Since the bank robbery at Wabash last week it isn't a safe place to hang around, especially if you are dressed up.

Last Friday morning a young man got off the early train and waited around for his relatives to come in from the country to get him. The citizens got suspicious and had him arrested, thinking he might in some way be connected with the robbery. He had no trouble proving his innocence when his relatives came after him.

While such an experience is embarrassing, under the circumstances the people could not be censured for taking every precaution.—Weeping Water Republican.

The Phonograph that amazed Plattsmouth can be bought!

There is a rumor abroad that the instrument which triumphed in the drastic comparison test, made last Tuesday at the Parmele theatre, was a special exhibition model. That rumor is FALSE. The instrument was a regular Official Laboratory Model—out of our own stock.

Ever Official Laboratory Model in our stock is guaranteed to sustain the same test.

If you were one of those in Tuesday's audience, who wistfully exclaimed: "Wouldn't it be wonderful if I could buy a phonograph like that?"—know that you can. Know that it will perform the miracle every day for you in your own home.
