 These Parisian women's leg muffs must come awfully high.
 The more fool questions you ask the more you don't learn.
 His satanic majesty is always getting something for nothing.
 The poor, evidently have nothing this year to be thankful for.
 When a man is unable to bear misfortune he is indeed unfortunate.
 Poverty ought to be listed as a crime when work will prevent it.
 Don't wait for your happiness until others hand it to you on a silver plate.
 The first United States presidential election was held on January 7, 1789.
 The first surgical operation for appendicitis was performed on January 4, 1883.
 Always purchase umbrellas in dry weather, as they are sure to go up when it rains.
 The scientist who says we will all be dead in 20,000 years is suspected of exaggerating.

 Our latest criticism of those one-piece bathing suits is they don't make good winter underwear.

 Remember that the nations will never be able to have a peace if each one insists on having the whole thing.
 It is only the rich that enjoy the pleasures of this life. And some of those are too stingy to enjoy the occasion.
 Nothing is lacking now except for some profiteer who made a big wad in the great war to come out with a ringing denunciation of the disarmament conference on account of the expense of entertaining the delegates.

 according to Dainty Dorothy

"It don't take a man long to bag his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly respectable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.

A turkey on the market is worth two on the farm.
 Colds come and colds go; where from or to, we do not know.
 "Thanksgiving originated 300 years ago." How time does fly!
 Whoever holds the key to disarmament can do the world a good turn.
 "How will men look in 1950?" asks a woman writer. Often, very often.
 Philippines sell stogies to 40 countries. Maybe that's why they need protection.
 Why doesn't the movie star, who complains all men want to kiss her, try onions?
 Will Hays says we are having too many mail robberies. Just how many is enough, Will?
 Disarmament in a few words, is merely scrapping one's own battle-ships instead of the other fellow's.
 Brown autumn ditty from the Dallas News: "The rose is red, the sunflower huge, sugar is cheap and so is rouge."
 Thanksgiving day next Thursday. Remember the day and date and secure your turkey early, if you can stand the price.
 Asparagus, says a botanist, is one of the oldest vegetables. And all this time we have been blaming its toughness on the cook.
 This is the hunting season, and a correspondent remarks that girls hunting for husbands also frequently mistake men for deers.
 All the Huns in Germany couldn't put the American army in a hole, so it is useless for a dirty blatherskite like Tom Watson of Georgia to attempt it.
 Only three years ago the world was seeking far and wide to find the man for the job, and now it is seeking far and wide to find the job for the man.
 Georgetown university has made Marshal Foch a doctor of canon law, which is understood to be the highest military distinction in the university's gift.
 Speaking of the present exhibit of calves—some of those that have been revealed by short skirts would seem rather to come under the classification of cows.
 Bulgaria levies a $100 luxury tax on women who appear in public in low neck dresses. Shame! We know old men, and a whole lot of them, who wouldn't go to the movies at all, were it not for the beauties in low-neck dresses.
 Again and again it needs to be said that Americanization means far more than learning to speak and read English. Americanization is a spiritual attitude and not a linguistic achievement. The anarchist can use the language and is more of a menace because of that fact.
 When disarmament starts they're not going to sink the battleships, but sell the mto Henry Ford or anyone else who wishes to buy them. It's a Ford everything—the government doesn't want, Henry is a good spender, pays cash, and would look good riding the waves as admiral of his own fleet.
 Secretary Davis says the produce men's policy of hiking poultry and egg prices during the winter is a short-sighted one. That's what we tried to tell our grocer in 1916—in fact, we told him he'd regret it—and every winter since then he reminds us of it, and says he hasn't regretted it yet.
 School attendance gains. Census shows that continental United States last year had 33,250,870 children between 5 and 20 years of age. Of these 60 per cent attended school. Year before, only 59 per cent were scholars. That's a real gain. Such statistics are more gratifying than increases in foreign trade. Making more intelligent adults is more important than manufacturing more goods or growing more horse radish. A nation's real wealth is its children.

It doesn't seem as if the Irish editorials have ever been so heavy since as they were in the days when they were all about Cork.
 John D. Rockefeller, at the age of 82, says he will live to reach 100. Well, he won't be handicapped by any financial worries.
 Listen brides: Sooner or later you will learn that the way your husband wants you to press his trousers is not by sitting on his lap.
 An optimist is a man who spends his money for gasoline and believes the Lord will provide cash with which to pay the grocer's bill.
 A New York woman has been fined $5 for striking her husband. It sounds inadequate, but, after all, $5 is a rather stiff punch at a meal ticket.
 President Harding served no wines or liquors at the White House to disarmament delegates. Is it possible that Eddie McLean is no longer a friend of his?
 Whether to give small amounts to many charities, or large amounts to only a few of them, is the question now worrying many Plattsmouth citizens.
 Count Laszle Szechenyi has refused appointment as Hungarian ambassador to the United States. The printers of this country ought to give him a vote of thanks.
 Publicity is a fine thing up to a certain point, but we suspect Peggy Joyce may find the pickings pretty slim on the next half dozen millionaires she attempts to vamp.
 In China when a woman becomes too talkative she is promptly divorced. And, just think, we are sending missionaries to China under the delusion that her people need enlightenment.
 "Have You Left Anything?" is the placard now used in the rooms of many hotels as a reminder to departing guests. They ought to be changed to read, "Have You Anything Left?"
 One uncomfortable thing about that disarmament conference is that Secretary Hughes and our other statesmen in Washington will have to wear their Sunday clothes for quite a spell.
 Here's a little lesson in economics: If we as a nation make more goods than we can sell abroad we must consume them at home. And if they are to be consumed at home they must be cheaper.
 Berlin don't like the proposal of Secretary Hughes says a press dispatch. Well, Berlin was not asked for her approval or disapproval. Fortunately, we have a way to make Germany stay good.
 Farmers have discovered that a dozen of eggs will buy two and one-half bushels of corn, and believe the only way to solve the corn problem is to convert the corn into eggs by keeping an army of hens.
 That disarmament conference suggests the idea that the next Nebraska legislature ought to consider the question of disarming all quail hunters for a period of three years, and give the partridge family a chance to replenish.
 A little Chicago girl was too shy to submit to a kiss from Marshal Foch after he accepted a bunch of flowers from her. They say some Chicago girls preserve that bashfulness until they grow up to the advanced age of 19 or 20.
 Despite the apparent progress being made by the disarmament conference, we would not advise any young man to join the navy with the hope that the scrapping of battleships will cause his dismissal within a few months.
 "Men may not like to shave," says a Plattsmouth girl, "but that is what gives them such good complexions. They are sure to have soap applied to their faces regularly." Does the young lady mean to say that soap and water are good for the complexion?
 A wife in Somerville, Mass., estranged from her husband, says she "wouldn't take him back for all the money in the world." Simultaneously, in Burlington, Vt., a wife asks $1,000,000 for alienation of her husband's affections. The market price of husbands seems to vary. Some women know when they are rid of a bad bargain. Other don't.

Mrs. W. H. Marks, of Union, spent Sunday with Mesdames Kivitt and Partridge, returning home Tuesday morning.
 Frank Domingo accompanied his sister, Mrs. John Swindle, Jr., and little daughter to Omaha, Monday, and helped them get started for their home in Hardin, Montana.
 Wm. Edgar, an old settler of this section, but now of Lincoln, was here between trains Saturday. There are a very few faces left here that he knows. He expects to leave Lincoln next week for Modesto, California, to spend the winter.
 The many friends here of Mrs. Sam Smith will be sorry to learn she has suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home in Orange, California. Mrs. Smith is one of the pioneers of this section and has a large acquaintance among the older residents.
 John Bates and his son Earnest butchered a hog last week. Earnest took his half home. On Thursday both he and his sister, Miss Verlie, were away from home and some one took advantage of their absence and went into the cellar and took the meat. Daylight stealing takes a little more nerve than to go under cover of darkness.
 Mrs. E. E. Day returned home Friday from a visit with her children in the west. She spent four weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Card and family at Boise City, Idaho. The first of last week she visited her daughter, Mrs. George Corley and Mrs. Dan Switzer and families at East Lake, Colorado. She came down to Cambridge, Nebraska, and visited her son Harold and family there, and they all came to Lincoln on Friday for the Lincoln-Cambridge football game. They all came down to Weeping Water in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schoeman and family and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Knutson and family drove to South Bend recently to spend the day with Mrs. Schoeman's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell. A large number of friends and neighbors were present upon this occasion and they spent a very pleasant day.
 Mrs. John Heil and Mrs. John Rohrdanz and their sister, Mrs. Theodore Berdorf, of Papillion, left the first of the week for Norton, Kansas, to attend the wedding of their youngest sister, Miss Amanda Jung, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. Jung. The wedding occurred on Wednesday of this week. Many Louisville friends of the bride will wish her much joy and happiness.
 The many Louisville friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Steele of near Elmwood, will be sorry to learn of the serious illness of their youngest son, Gilbert, who has been down with an attack of pneumonia and under the care of a trained nurse from Lincoln. However, he seems to be on the mend at present and the Courier sincerely hopes that the progress may continue and be permanent.
 Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ball are in receipt of a letter from Mrs. J. W. Chase, of Portland, Oregon, telling of the death of her husband on October 13, after an illness of only two days. His passing was a great shock to his wife. She had been with him, but he insisted upon her going to bed, so she lay down upon a couch in the same room with him at about midnight. When she arose about 10 o'clock on the 13th day of November, 1921, and prepared the breakfast and then went in to speak to him, but he was dead, and had been for some time. He was 76 years of age. Their daughter, Stella, who died some time before, was cremated and Mrs. Chase buried the urn containing the ashes in the cemetery with the father. Mr. Chase and family lived in Louisville a good many years ago, but will be remembered by the earlier residents of this locality.

THE RESULT OF A PHYSICIAN'S TEST IS CONCLUSIVE

On October 31, we received a letter from Tennessee. A physician who is there in high esteem made a test with Triner's Liniment and now writes: "I have tried Triner's Liniment on a boy suffering from enlarged joints. The ankle joints were almost dislocated with a very limited movement of the joint. The result of the application of Triner's Liniment is very pleasing indeed. Please send me a pint C. O. D. at once."
 If you try this remedy for sprains, strains, rheumatism or neuralgia, you will be surprised at the results. Keep it at home for such cases, and also ask your druggist or dealer in medicines not to be out of Triner's Bitter Wine. Authorities in many sections of the country look for the recurrence of "flu" this winter in a more severe form than last year. Prophylaxis is the best thing. At the first sign of trouble look through your medicine chest whether Triner's Bitter Wine is on the shelf, because that is the very remedy that will bring you out of danger.

TURKEY FOR HARDING DINNER

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Wearing an aviation helmet and goggles and clad in a black and gold sweater, held on by a pink bow, "Supreme II," a thirty-nine pound turkey, was placed on a silver tray today bound for Washington, where the bird will be killed to supply Thanksgiving dinner for President Harding. The turkey is the Harding Girl's club of Morris & Co., packers, and is the second to be sent to the president by the club. The girls knitted the turkey's sweater.
