DON'T YOU THINK THIS REAL FUNNY?

Harold Lloyd Refreshingly Comical in "Among Those Present"—Double Bill at Parmele.

Thinking it only a harmless joke, the boy, who was a bell hop in the Ritz-Waldorf hotel, posed as Europe's greatest horseman and hunter, Lord Algernon Abbott Aberdeen Abernathy and attended the house party and fox hunt of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, newly rich.

When the boy learned that he had been used by the people who introduced him as Lord Aigy in a plot to rob the O'Briens and marry the daughter, he exposed them and confessed that he was only O'Reilly, a bell hop. Mrs. O'Brien was scandalized, but as daughter loved him, and father liked him, for once Mrs. O'Brien's opinion carried no weight. This 3 reel Harold Lloyd comedy will be at the Parmele Friday and Saturday in addition to the big feature, "Snow Blind," making a double attraction hard to beat.

LIQUID MEASURING DEVICES

Under an act of the legislature of 1921 Secretary Leo Stuhr of the Nebraska department of agriculture has adopted specifications and tolerances for liquid measuring devices. They are the same as those adopted by the annual conference on weights and measures held at the bureau of standards in Washington. They are now in effect. The use of mechanically operated liquid measuring devices are limited to one grade of liquid. When installed so as to be supplied from more than one tank they shall be used only for one grade of liquid.

Except in special tests described the tolerances to be allowed in excess or deficiency on all measuring devices shall not be greater than the values as follows, provided that manufacturers' tolerances or the tolerances on all new liquid measuring devices shall not be greater than one-half of the values given; and that these tolerances shall also be applied to all devices which are being retested after being found incorrect and subsequently adjusted or repaired: Delivery of one-half gallon, tolerance of 2.0 cubic inches; 1 gal. 3.0; T. gal. 4.0; 3 gal. 5.0; 4 gal. 6.0; 5 gal. 7.0; 6 gal. 8.0; 7gal. 9.0; 8 gal. 10.; 9 gal. 11.; 10 gal. 12. For Deliveries of over 10 gallons add 1 cubic per indicated gallon.

BRIAND CLAIM STIRS BERLIN

German Government Takes Exceptions to Plea—Warmly Denounces Briand Address.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—In a statement to the press today, the German government takes issue with the charges of Premier Briand of France in his address before the Washington conference that the German police forces and the reichwehr constituted a nucleus for a future German army. It declares M. Briand's assertion that the reichwehr is composed exclusively of officers and non-commissioned officers of the old army is incorrect, and says the bulk of the reichwehr is made up of youths between the ages of nineteen to twenty-one recruited since the war.

The statement says that the "protection police" were created at the bidding of the entente and adds: "The reichwehr is wholly unaffiliated with the schutzpolizei, which took the place of the security police when the entente ordered the latter's dissolution."

The schutzpolizei is primarily an agency to maintain law and order. It takes orders solely from the civilian ministries of the federated states. Its numerical strength and its composition with reference to the ratio of officers and non-commissioned officers and supervised by the entente control commission. The number of rifles and small arms it is permitted to have is specified. It does not possess heavy caliber arms. The einwohnerwehr, or civilian guards, retained by M. Briand's government dissolved and their arms have been surrendered and destroyed.

The statement disputes Mr. Briand's assertion that Germany still possessed numerous arsenals equipped to turn out war materials, and asserts these plants are limited to two or three required to keep the Germany army supplied and that their output is supervised by the entente control commission.

MOTHER NOT KILLED IN BURLINGTON TRAIN WRECK

At the time of the tragic death of the late Paul Stadelman there was more or less argument made by the old residents of this community as to the cause of the death of Mrs. Bloedel, mother of the unfortunate young man, and which was indirectly connected with the life long affliction of the deceased. Many of the older residents had stated that the mother and Paul were coming west to Plattsmouth from their home at East Orange, New Jersey, when they were caught in a train wreck and the mother killed and Paul so seriously injured that he failed to ever recover from the effects.

From the files of the Nebraska Herald of October 22, 1921, we find the account of the wreck of Burlington train No. 5 at Monmouth, Illinois. It was in this wreck that the mother of Mrs. Bloedel, who had died in New Jersey, was being brought to this city for burial on this train and that as the result of the wreck the funeral was delayed until the 29th of October, when the body finally arrived here and the funeral was held at the St. Luke's church.

A nurse who was in charge of little Paul, then but a few weeks old, threw the babe out of the window of the train, fearing that he might be killed and from the effects of his fall he received the injury which resulted in his remaining in a paralyzed condition for life.

JAPAN WINS SIGNAL VICTORY ON MANCHURIA

Washington, Nov. 22.—Japan has won what later will appear a signal victory in the attitude with which the conference powers approach the Manchurian question which, with Shantung forms the "acid test" of the open door and Chinese territorial and administrative integrity.

While both Japanese and American delegates admitted that Manchuria was an integral part of China, and thus subject to application of the all-embracing Root resolutions, it was learned that the most significant amendment to these resolutions was offered by Baron Kato, and that its adoption by the committee means that the status quo will be maintained in Manchuria. This is the chief thing that Japan clings to in its efforts to keep the friendship of the other nations and at the same time promote its own national welfare.

STIVERS-SCHNEIDER
From Wednesday's Daily. William Stivers, a young citizen of Glenwood, and Helen Schneider of Cedar Creek, Neb., took upon themselves the bonds of matrimony Saturday, Nov. 19, at high noon. Rev. E. E. Goodrich pronounced the ceremony.

DAY WILL BE OBSERVED

The observance of Thanksgiving in this city will be quite general, the postoffice, government building, and the banks of the city being closed all day and the stores of the city will close after the noon hour so that all may enjoy the occasion and partake of the big Thanksgiving festivities.

In keeping with the custom of the years past, The Evening Journal will observe the day and there will be no edition of the daily printed on this day and the weekly edition is printed this evening so that the members of the force can enjoy the day as they feel best suited.

FREMONT SUFFERS A HEAVY FIRE LOSS

Wrote Variety Store Destroyed and Three Others Damaged by Blaze Raging All Day.

Fremont, Nov. 22.—Fremont suffered one of its worst fires in years today when flames raged from early morning until late this afternoon in the Wrote Variety store building on Main street. The loss is conservatively estimated at $100,000.

The entire stock of the Wrote Co., consisting of dry goods, shoes, notions, groceries and other merchandise, invoiced at about $50,000, is considered a total loss. The building itself, purchased by John Sonin, local merchant, some time ago for $50,000, practically is a total loss.

Three Stores Damaged
The offices of Drs. M. H. Hunter and C. F. Weiland were destroyed at a loss of at least $5,000. The walls of the Gumpert Department store building adjoining were considerably damaged and smoke caused much damage to the stock. The Olson & Co. shoe store suffered damage by water and smoke as did the Dudley music store.

All the possessions of Mrs. Emma Taylor, widow, and her four children, were destroyed in their small apartment on the second floor of the burning building. The mother and the children were carried from the building in their night clothes, shortly after the fire was discovered by Orville Stiles, newspaper vendor, when he took a morning paper to the front door.

Firemen are Hurt
Two volunteer fire fighters, Byron Paine and John Mathews, are in the hospital recovering from injuries received when the ladder which they ascended to the third story, buckled beneath their weight and sent them crashing to the icy pavement. Six other firemen were carried from the smoke-filled building in an unconscious condition.

They were Walter Broderson, Walter Adams, William Brunning, Bert Edwards, Max Trochenberg and McAllister. Equipped with smoke masks, the men were lowered by ropes into the basement of the building, where they guided the nozzle of a hose at the base of the flames. None were able to stand the strain more than 10 minutes when they were replaced by other comrades.

The fire is believed to have been the worst suffered in many years, even surpassing in loss, the destruction of the Fremont State Bank building last winter.

JURY FINDS FOR PLAINTIFF

The jury in the case of Charles H. Biggs, vs. W. A. Galloway and W. H. Rainey returned this morning with a verdict for the plaintiff after making a number of reductions in the original amount claimed by the plaintiff. The case involves the settlement of a note made by the defendants to the plaintiff, Mr. Rainey being a security on the note, and which was for the amount of $400. The plaintiff had received the note as a renewal of one held previously and which guaranteed by a chattel mortgage on several head of cattle. The defendants contended that they had been damaged by the fact that the chattel mortgage had never been released by the plaintiff.

The case of the American Live Stock Insurance Co. vs. Rosa D. Barnes, et al, which was to have gone to trial this morning was settled by the parties interested and the case dismissed after a jury had been selected.

The case of Ralph Meisinger vs. Helen Wagner was placed on trial and will be one of the last cases in which the jury will be used and with the adjournment for Thanksgiving the jury will probably be excused as a number of the cases set for jury trial have been dismissed.

FRENCH NEWSPAPERS BACK OF PREMIER BRIAND'S STAND

Paris, Nov. 22.—Enthusiasm over M. Briand's presentation of France's case was carried by all afternoon newspapers in their comment but some notes of pessimism over the net result in prospect were not wanting. The Journal Des Debats expresses satisfaction that M. Briand had made what it refers to as such an effective refutation of charges of French imperialism and had justified the action of France in Poland and Silesia, but it declares America must bear its share of responsibility for the Silesian situation.

"The Americans do not understand our financial mess; our wastefulness or our lack of conscience among a certain class of taxpayers," it declares. "We can, however, remain certain of certain of their own affairs of a sufficiently painful nature; but they are our creditors and it is for us to give them evidence of good intentions."

W. H. Lohnes and wife of Cedar Creek motored in yesterday from their home and spent a few hours in the city visiting with friends and looking after some trading with the merchants.

SCHOOLS HOLD SPECIAL CONVOCATION

Junior High School has Services Fitting For the Occasion This Morning at School Gym.

This morning the high school "gym" was the scene of a very pleasant Thanksgiving day observance and at which a short program was given. Mrs. E. H. Westcott sang in her usual pleasing manner, a group of folk songs, negro melodies and Indian melodies, being accompanied by Mr. Westcott at the piano.

Mrs. Westcott also led the young people in the general sing that was enjoyed as a part of the program and in which all of the members of the audience joined.

Dr. John Calvert, pastor of the First Methodist church, gave a short address to the young people relating his experience in the foreign lands as a member of the American forces in France and Germany and also described the boys and girls of these countries, pointing out the many points of similarity in the characters of the little folks all over the world and the universal appeal of childhood that touches the heart of mankind of all the countries. The address was one very enlightening on the subject of the universal brotherhood of man and the common ties that bind together the peoples of all lands.

NEW COOK BOOK CAUSES A BAKING REVIVAL HERE

A new cook book which has just been published for free distribution is responsible for a sort of home baking revival in this town. This book, "The New Dr. Price Cook Book," is so crowded with good old-fashioned, as well as new and unusual recipes, that every homelover in town has been trying them out to see how really good they are. The index covers recipes for griddle cakes, waffles and biscuits, pies, loaf, layer and angel cakes, cookies, crullers, doughnuts, old-fashioned shortcake and many other good things.

For those who have not yet been able to procure a copy of this wonderful book on home baking—that is so easy for every housekeeper, even the most inexperienced to follow—we add that it may be procured free of charge from the Price Baking Powder Factory, Chicago. If interested in good home baking (and what housewife is not?) it will pay you to write for it.

WILL PREACH HERE

Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick, district superintendent of the Methodist church, will be here Friday evening and conduct the service that will be held at the church at 7:30. All members of the church are urged to be present.
