

The Victor Store!

The Victrola is used in the schools and homes the country over. Almost without exception, the artists who draw the largest audiences in opera or concert, make records for the Victrola.

In order that the students of our schools, as part of their education, may have the advantage of hearing really great, worth while musicians, as they themselves wish to be heard, the Victrola is very largely used in the city and rural schools of our country.

New York City, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Chicago, Brooklyn, Cincinnati, Los Angeles, Tacoma, Kansas City, New Orleans, Minneapolis and Indianapolis are but a few of the places where the Victor is used in the schools.

Most of the records used in the schools are the same you would use and enjoy in your own home.

Take the Omaha Schools for Instance

$18,000.00 worth of Victrolas and records are used in the Omaha city schools. There are 145 Victrolas—no other make used; hundreds of records—every one a Victor record.

Only instruments of manifest superiority, of real merit, can prove their worth in this manner.

WILL THERE BE A VICTROLA IN YOUR HOME THIS CHRISTMAS

There are a large number of Victrolas owned in Plattsmouth and vicinity. Ask your neighbors how they like them. Better yet, call and hear them play.

ARBUCKLE'S FATE IN THE JURY'S HANDS

CASE OF ARBUCKLE GOES TO JURY YESTERDAY—COURT ROOM IS JAMMED.

FATTY APPEARED HOPEFUL

Closing Arguments Term Comedian "Belshazzar" and "A Great Artist"—Idle of Children.

San Francisco, Dec. 2.—The manslaughter case of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle went to the jury at 4:15 p. m.

Arbuckle is accused of having fatally injured Miss Virginia Rappe, a motion picture actress, during a party in his rooms in the Hotel St. Francis, September 5.

The case has occupied the court for approximately three weeks. Today's entire session was taken up with final arguments, instructions to the jury and jury deliberation.

Gavin McNab, chief defense counsel, opened the session today with a continuation of his closing argument. He was followed by Milton U'Ren, assistant district attorney, whose summing up lasted nearly an hour.

The court room was crowded throughout the day and the adjoining corridors also held an anxious, crushing crowd that taxed the ability and good nature of the augmented police guard. Arbuckle appeared to show deep interest in the arguments, especially that of McNab, who characterized him as "a great artist who has sweetened the lives of millions of little children."

Says Coerced Witnesses McNab attacked what he termed the "imprisonment" of two prosecution witnesses, Miss Zeh Prevost and Miss Alice Blake, show girls, by the district attorney "in order to coerce them into giving testimony beneficial to the prosecution's cause." He said that the "forces of law and order should not assume the leadership of a mob or take its commands from the mob," adding that "Arbuckle told at the time of his arrest the simple story he told on the stand, God knows what would have happened to him."

U'Ren referred to Arbuckle as a Belshazzar sitting on his throne and pouring his wine during the party in the Hotel St. Francis. "Thank God, he has been told, as Belshazzar was told, that his kingdom is divided and his reign is over," U'Ren said.

Asked at the cessation of final arguments what his future plans were, Arbuckle said he would make no statement "until the thing is out of the way." He remarked that the final argument of Gavin McNab, or "the old man," as he characterized him, had not been answered adequately by U'Ren. The prosecution reiterated its hope for a speedy conviction.

"Watched Like Hawks" Alternate Juror Hopkins said that the jury had been watched closer than any other in San Francisco for twenty-five years. "They censored our mail, both incoming and outgoing," he said. "We each had a separate room at the hotel where we stayed, and were watched like hawks by the four deputy sheriffs who guarded us. They certainly did their duty well."

"The newspapers were carefully kept from us, I have no idea of what has happened in the world for two weeks. The prosecution had failed to prove its case and that the jury would be four or five hours in reaching a verdict."

Hopkins told a representative of the San Francisco Call that in his

MASONS HOLD VERY LARGE LODGE SESSION

Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. Confers Third Degree at Meeting Last Night.

Last evening Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. held a very interesting session and one of the most largely attended of the fall season, with a number of visitors from the neighboring lodges of Springfield and Papillion, to witness the conferring of the work. Judge James T. Begley, Worshipful Master, presided and following the work of the order a number of very interesting speeches were given. Attorney W. A. Robertson speaking for the local lodge in welcoming their brothers from Sarpy county and in turn Earl Haney, Roy Harberg, Joseph Elwell, Sr., and sons Joseph and Alois Elwell, John Monahan, and Sam Metzger, Springfield; E. B. King, son, Forest King, Charles Martin, Ralston Spearman and Henry Fricke of Papillion, and Ivan Deles Derner of Weeping Water were called upon in turn and responded to a few remarks on the good of the order.

The members and their guests were also treated to a very dainty and enjoyable luncheon at the close of the work of the evening and the visitors returned to their home feeling that the visit here had been one of the greatest pleasure and the local membership highly appreciative of their fraternal meeting with the visiting brethren.

Mrs. C. S. Forbes Entertains Ladies at Social Gathering—2 Members Given Flags.

The ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps were entertained very pleasantly at the home of Mrs. C. S. Forbes on west Fourth street, Thursday afternoon in a social gathering which was quite largely attended by the ladies as well as the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and proved an occasion that will long be very delightfully remembered.

The Forbes home was filled with the party of friends and during the afternoon a number of musical selections were given by the ladies as well as the old veterans that served to add to the pleasures of the event.

At an appropriate hour, Mrs. F. G. Egenberger, president of the Relief Corps arose and in a few well chosen words presented Mrs. Forbes, the hostess, with a handsome silk flag as a token of esteem of the ladies of the Corps and which will be kept by this lady as a token of the kindly feeling of the members of the organization and the great country that it represents.

The ladies also were remembering one of their oldest members, Mrs. Sarah Goucheur, who was called by telephone to the Forbes home and arriving there found the members awaiting her coming to present her with one of the beautiful flags, the presentation being made by Hon. R. B. Windham, one of the active members of the Grand Army and a long time friend of the lady who was being honored by her associates. Mrs. Goucheur is one of the first of the Relief Corps members in the city and her associates took the greatest of pleasure in doing her this honor.

To complete the delightful occasion dainty refreshments were served that afforded the guests a real one of the rarest of delight to all present.

INDEPENDENTS ARE MEETING

From Saturday's Daily.

This afternoon the members of the proposed third party were busily assembling at the court house in order to elect the delegates to the state convention of the new party that will meet at Grand Island on December 12. The convention of the new party was delayed beyond the scheduled time for assembling owing to the slowness of the residents of the country districts getting in and Chairman Nolte was unable to call the meeting to order until after 2 o'clock.

SCHMADER GETTING IN SHAPE FOR BOUT

Will Meet George Lamson in Omaha December 17th—First Match Since He Broke His Arm

Andy Schmader, the light-heavy-weight boxer, is getting back in shape for his coming bout December 17, with George Lamson, the Waltham Indian, at the Omaha auditorium.

On September 14 Andy broke his right forearm at the American Legion boxing match at Plattsmouth, since that time he has been out of the game, but now his many admirers will be pleased to know that he is coming back stronger than ever.

In fact he says he experiences no weakness or ill results from his accident and will go into the ring on December 17th in perfect condition.

It is expected that the Schmader-Lamson exhibition will draw the largest crowd that has ever turned out to a boxing contest in Nebraska. Both are confident of success. They like each other not and when these two big Nebraska boys meet it will be to settle some scores of long, long standing. It will be some fight—and the "pale face" will win.—Louisville Courier.

STATE PRIMARIES TO COME IN JULY

Complications Caused by Referendum Result in Setting of Earlier Date, Says Amsherry.

Lincoln, Dec. 2.—Through complications caused by referendum on Nebraska primary election laws, Secretary of State D. M. Amsherry finds that the 1922 state primaries must be held on the third Tuesday in July.

The old law fixed the date as the third Tuesday in August, except in years when it is the third Tuesday in April.

The change places the primaries before the state party conventions, formerly held the last Tuesday in July, but in the same law moved forward to the second Tuesday in August. Conventions heretofore had always been held before the primaries.

The referendum which held up I. R. 323, the new primary law of the 1919 legislature, applied only to portions of the law, and left untouched the change of date made to July.

During the course of the referendum I. R. 62, changing the date back to August, but this entire act was successfully referred, so that the 1919 act as to the primary and convention dates, rules, Amsherry says.

THIRD PARTY TO NOMINATE LATER

Postponing of Selections Until After State Conventions Would Give Them the Whip Hand.

Lincoln, Dec. 2.—Disposition is showing among the leaders of the new third party in Nebraska to defer nomination of candidates until after the July primaries, according to C. A. Sorenson, chairman of the state conference here in October, which inaugurated the new movement.

"Responsible leaders and particularly members of the Nonpartisan league, are in favor of stopping with the naming of the new party, preparing a comprehensive platform and electing a temporary state committee at the mass meeting in Grand Island, December 8," he said.

"Then the convention would recess until ten days after the primaries, when it would have opportunity to study the weaknesses of the old parties, and act on candidates accordingly."

"Such a course would tend to force the major parties to court the new party support by liberal platforms and liberal men. Besides, third party men could then stay in the other parties and help make their programs acceptable."

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED IN OMAHA

Miss Idelle Ackles and Andrew Landergren, two popular young people of Louisville, were married in Omaha last Saturday, November 26, 1921. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Kerns, a Presbyterian minister, in his office in the Peters Trust company building and the young couple were attended by Ellis Benedict, Louisville, brother-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Eunice Hall, of Omaha, sister of Mr. Benedict.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ackles and is a granddaughter of Mrs. H. J. Ackles of Louisville and also of Mrs. Ellen Haddon, of Omaha. Her grandfather, the late Thomas J. Haddon, was one of the early pioneers of Sarpy and Cass counties.

The groom is the younger son of August Landergren, now of Bemidji, Minnesota, but in the early days of Louisville he lived here and owned considerable property here until he bought a farm in Minnesota and moved there a number of years ago.

The happy couple will go to house-keeping in the home of Mrs. Mary Pribble in the east part of town and the Courier joins with their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.—Louisville Courier.

INTEREST IN BAZAAR

The local council of the Knights of Columbus are busy arranging for their big bazaar to be held in this city in January, and are now busy in selling chances on the fine laboratory model Edison phonograph that will be given away on the closing day of the bazaar.

Chairman L. W. Lorenz of the committee that has charge of the preparations for the big event has taken up the matter with the wholesale houses of Omaha and has met with a generous response in regard to donations for the bazaar and already eighteen of the large mercantile establishments have announced that they will be glad to aid by their donations in making the event a success.

JAPANESE FAIR IS A GREAT SUCCESS

Parlors of the Presbyterian Church Crowded With Merry Party to Enjoy Delightful Treat.

Last evening the parlors of the Presbyterian church was transferred into a joyous land of the far east and in which the Japanese food was in evidence in the decorative plan and in the costumes of the ladies found in the booths where the many dainty articles were offered for sale.

The Q. Z. society and the H. F. Class of the Sunday school of which Miss Clara Weyrich is the teacher, originated and carried out the delightful event and made it an occasion that will long be very pleasantly remembered by those in attendance.

The ladies had left no feature that might add to the enjoyment of the event and the result was a great success in every way for those attending.

Throughout the room there were gaily decorated booths in which the various articles offered for sale could be found and the Japanese booth, the fancy work, candy booths and tea room were the centers of attraction for the large number of visitors and the refreshment booth where coffee, cake and doughnuts as well as pie were offered for sale did a very thriving business.

During the course of the evening while the visitors were busily engaged in looking over the opportunities offered by the ladies, the Holly orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. W. Roy Holly, played very pleasingly a number of selections and also offered a great number on the program of the evening.

Comprising the program of the evening a large number of the talented people of the city were heard: Mrs. J. W. Falter giving a vocal number in her usual charming manner while Miss A. Louise Wescott appeared in a whistling solo. The male quartet composed of Rev. H. G. McClusky, Frank A. Clويد, R. W. Knorr and L. O. Minor also gave one of their always enjoyable selections. Miss Clara Tritley, one of the accomplished pianists of the city, gave a very difficult and enjoyable piano number that was received with the greatest of approval by the audience.

Another of the delightful features of the program was the number, "Hats of Other Days," in which the bonnets of the years long gone were shown by a number of young ladies with appropriate remarks as to the period in which the hats has been so popular. In this feature Misses Edith Gopen, Edith Farley, Chelsea Swope, Helen Farley, Marion Tritsch, Ednae Braun and Judith Johnson appeared.

"Miss Cherry Blossom" was another of the special features of the program in which Miss Catherine Schneider appeared in the title role and the cast supporting her consisted of Marna Wolf, Violet Vallejo, Edna Shannon, Edith Farley, Marjorie Shopp, Eileen Gilmore, Helen Gansemer and Helen Wurl, the young folks executing the fan drill in a very delightful manner and in their Japanese costumes making a very pretty picture.

The event throughout showed much thoughtfulness on the part of those in charge and was an evening of enjoyment to everyone fortunate enough to be in attendance.

FORBIDS EVICTION OF THE MINERS

Colorado Ranger Chief Says Men Must First Have Other Places to Live Before Ousted.

Walsenburg, Colo., Dec. 2.—According to Colonel Patrick Hamrock, state adjutant general, in command of the Colorado rangers in the Huerfano county martial law district, what was reported to him as a proposed attempt on the part of the company to evict miners from company houses at Oakview, was frustrated by the military this morning when the Oakdale Coal Co., which operates the property, was notified that no miners were to be ordered out of company houses until they had found other places in which to live.

Colonel Hamrock stated that the men who had been ordered to move from company houses were miners who had been employed in a section of the mine that is not now being operated. These men, according to the military, have been characterized by the company as agitators and troublemakers.

A report to ranger headquarters here said that 230 miners at the Pryor mine, owned by the Union Coal and Coke Co., went to work today at a 28 per cent reduction in wages, the company claiming that the reduction was made in agreement with the employees. The Pryor mine is not Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. property, and was not affected by the strike against that company, put into effect three weeks ago.

Figures announced today by officials of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. show a further increase in the number of men reporting for work, 705 coal miners working today as against 680 yesterday in the five Las Animas county mines in the Trinidad district with the exception of the Sopris property, at normal, the company announced.

Others to Cut Wages

Denver, Dec. 2.—Notices were filed with the Colorado industrial commission today for a proposed 32 1/2 per cent reduction in wages of the employees of five large coal companies in Huerfano county, Colorado. The reductions by the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. in the price of coal following wage reductions approximating 30 per cent "forced the companies to take similar action," it was announced.

RETURNS FROM KANSAS CITY

Mr. White is feeling somewhat better but shows the effect of the six weeks of ordeal that he has been compelled to undergo.

PRIEST CONVICTED OF INTIMACY WITH GIRL

Lemars, Ia., Dec. 2.—"Guilty as charged," was the verdict returned at 3:30 this afternoon by the jury which heard the evidence in the case of the state against the Rev. Father Francis Wrenn, charged with criminal intimacy with a 15-year-old girl student in the parochial school in his parish at Akron, Ia. The jury had been out since 11 o'clock this morning. The maximum penalty is twenty years.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE

An action has been filed in the district court by Herman C.
