

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

F. H. Resnik has been visiting in Omaha for the past week, accompanied by the family.

Bud Willis from near Union was looking after some business matters in Nehawka last Friday evening.

Harry Barkhurst, of Otoe county, was looking after some business matters in Nehawka last Friday afternoon.

John Lawrence has been constructing a small house during the past week and has been assisted by Nicholas Klarens.

Mrs. Carrie L. Stick of Sterling, Colorado, is staying for a time at the home of her father, Mr. D. D. Adams, since the calling of the mother.

Messrs Miller and Gruber have just completed a cistern at the Methodist church, and which will make the matter of the housekeeping one of less work.

Mrs. E. N. Griffin is reported as being very poorly again, and while she has been sick for some time, she is not showing the recuperative strength which is desired.

Mrs. Fred Schumaker and daughter, Miss Katherine, of Lincoln, were visiting from Friday until last Wednesday at the homes of J. G. Wunderlich and John Schwartz.

Mr. Steele, the carpenter, is putting the finishing touches to the car-penyer work at the Arthur Wolph home, and which is to be a very comfortable and convenient home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Massie were looking after some matters in Plattsmouth last Wednesday, driving over to the county seat, where they visited with friends for a few hours as well.

John Koop and wife, of Louisville were visiting in Nehawka last week, being guests where here at the home of Mr. John Swartz and C. D. St. John, where they enjoyed a most pleasant time.

W. W. Stokes was shelling and delivering corn at the Farmers elevator last Friday, cleaning up his work for the past year on the place where he lived, and will farm on the former Simon Gruber place.

After negotiating for some six weeks, Chalmers Switzer and Ham Martin have succeeded in trading a cow and a mule. They have both made an excellent trade and just how well only time can tell.

Miss Doris Cross, formerly of this city, but now making her home in Colorado, has been visiting with friends in Nehawka and vicinity, being a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Balfour, south of town.

R. B. Stone & Sons have just completed an additional shed at their home in the north portion of Nehawka, which they had added to care for the stock on the farm, they having much stock to provide shelter for.

Mrs. J. A. Whiteman and sons, Glen and Ray, were visiting in Omaha last Wednesday, driving to the metropolis in their car. On their return, Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick, who was also visiting there, returned with them.

The new home of Mr. Arthur Wolph is coming along nicely under the work of Messrs Switzer & Switzer. The heating plant has been completed and is doing excellent work just now. The plumbing is being pushed forward.

J. M. Palmer and Stewart Rough were looking after some business in Omaha last Friday, driving over to the metropolis in the sedan of the latter. They stopped in Plattsmouth on their return also to look after some business as well.

Charles Hall was a visitor in Murray last Wednesday, with a load of flour and mill stuff and on Friday also visited at Union with a load for A. L. Becker, while on last Monday he also took a load of the product of the mill to Riverton, Iowa.

Like the morning surries has been our meeting with Nicholas Klarens, always cheerful and with always a smile. But now when one meets this genial Nehawkaite it is like the effervescence of the mid-day sun in its strength, and you know there is a grandson, Mr. Nicholas K. Frans.

Well the happy mother is pretty well pleased, as well as the father and Grandmother Klarens to say nothing of the smile that won't rub off on the face of Ray.

At the last meeting of the Knights of Pythias, and which was a very good representative meeting having a large number of the membership in attendance, after the regular order of business had been attended to, the matter of the selection of officers for the coming year was looked after.

The result of the canvass of the votes is as follows: F. R. Cunningham, C. C.; Albert Johnson, E. C.; Henry Feltes, prelate; H. L. Thomas, M. W.; Charles Bates, M. of A. D. Steffens, K. R. S.; Joshua Sutphan, M. E.; Earnest Kropp, I. G. and Melvin Sturm, O. G.

It has been said April showers bring May flowers, but December showers are different. Still there are many showers just at this time. Five were on the calendar when we visited Nehawka last Friday evening. One for that evening which was given by that genial couple, Geo. C. Sheldon and wife in honor of Mr. Arthur Wolph and Miss Ethel Stander, who are soon to wed and which was known as a can and bottle shower, being of the things which will be needed in the household. A most pleasant time was had by the merry crowd which assembled at the pleasant home of the host and hostess.

The schedule of these storm periods are as follows: One at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon, as above narrated Friday evening. At Mrs. Albertine Ost, given by Miss Alma Saturday afternoon. At Silas Munn on Saturday evening and one Monday at the home of Mrs. Frank P. Sheldon, and which is to be followed by one of friends near Weeping Water.

At the last meeting of the Degree of Honor, they selected the following for their officers for the coming term: Mrs. T. E. Fulton, who has been the Chief of Honor, now becomes past chief; Mrs. Dora Waldo, Chief of Honor; Miss Freda Petersen, Lady of Honor; Miss Alta Duckworth, recording financier; Mrs. Lucile Davis, guide; Mrs. Max Schaefer, chief of ceremonies.

On Wednesday of next week the Masons will put on their free show for the citizens of Nehawka, it being for December 21st here and on the following day at Union. At three in the afternoon there will be given a matinee for the children and it is urged that all attend this show and that in order not to greatly crowd the house at the evening sessions. The afternoon show will be at 3 o'clock. There will be two sessions in the evening, one following the other. The first one will begin at 7:00, while the latter will be at 8:30.

There will be two reels of the Panama canal, one of the apple industry in Nebraska and many scenes from her. Hon. Isaac Pollard, who was one of the pioneers of the apple industry, will be shown. The cattle industry in the northwest will also be shown, these making a most interesting and worth while series. This will be followed by a Christmas carol. Everyone is urged to come and enjoy this show, which the Masons are furnishing without cost to any one.

We wish to thank all of our friends for the many kindnesses shown at the time of the death of wife and mother. We assure you that we appreciate all that was done for us at the time of our great sorrow.—David D. Adams; Mrs. W. L. Stuck and family; Charles D. Adams and family.

Report cards were given out last Tuesday in the high school. The girls in domestic science have been making fruit cakes this week. For hand work the first and second grades decorated Christmas trees.

The grade pupils are learning Christmas songs together for their joint program.

The pupils of the third and fourth grad enjoyed the treat given them by Joy Murdock, this being her eighth birthday.

The second grade has finished the Baldwin and Bender reader and are now reading the "Progressive Road to Reading."

The Juniors are working hard on the carnival plans for Friday evening, and it should be successful if work counts.

There were twenty-four pupils in the third and fourth grades who were neither tardy nor absent during the month of November.

The primary room is planning on giving a little play at Christmas time. The play is taken from a story worked out in the Language class.

Christmas calendars are being made in the third and fourth grade drawing classes. They are also preparing their part of the Christmas program.

The Sophomores had two class meetings this week, choosing for their motto, "He conquers who works," being written in Latin. Crimson and cream was chosen as the class colors.

The basket ball tournament Friday evening was a great success and was enjoyed very much by both players and audience. The Blues won the championship of the girls' teams and the Red boys' team defeated the Blue.

The high school team won from the town team in a very rough game, by 14 to 10, making most of their points on fouls. $7.20 was taken in as admission which will be put towards athletics.

Women of Avoca Precinct showed much interest in the meeting held at the home of Mrs. P. Nutzman, Friday Dec. 2. The project was on Selection and Remodeling of Clothing, and many problems were brought up for the solution. Each woman was interested in the type of dresses she should wear and the reason she should wear these styles. The women were also instructed how to use the dress form. Commercial patterns were taken and tested out on the dress form and as most women vary from the standard measurements they were shown how to make patterns larger or smaller. The altering of sleeves proved very interesting and helpful, color patterns were also remodeled.

Many helpful bulletins were distributed and many women asked that these bulletins be mailed to them. These bulletins were found to be helpful and may be secured from the Farm Bureau office at Weeping Water: "Removal of Stains," "Sele-tending west from the board of trade, is now well filled with four very staid gentlemen. The place has become very popular and no wonder when one considers the attainments of this quartette of sterling Americans.

Warren Munn, the Goliath of Gath, who is the personification of good nature; Edward Wood, the sweet singer of the past, present and future; Milton Hilton the muse, who with the wave of his hand is able to transport one into the world of the poetical. Then comes the last, Henry Feltes, who by the force of the education which he has gained in his vocation is able to transfer the visions which he gets of the sublime, to the relatives in the matter of fact, when he "Brightens the corners" with his brush dipped in the better qualities of human nature, and adds to the spice of life in his embellishments.

Mr. Leo Switzer, the new implement man, who has been making his home in the country has just constructed a foundation for a garage on a lot which he owns in Nehawka, and is thinking with the coming of spring of having a home built in town.

Grover Hoback and wife are now enjoying a "sun room" or so the maker thereof calls it, that being Mr. Henry C. Pollard. Any ways the porch which has been enclosed by glass will make a very pleasant place for the work which is designed to care for.

Mr. T. E. Fulton, when asked by the reporter how business was, replied, "Well, I cannot complain, but I can see a better condition growing all the time, and I think in a short time we are going to be where we were before with business going ahead like it was formerly."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fahrlander and wife, formerly Miss Edith Farns, were visiting at the home of friends in Nehawka and called at the office of the Sheldon Manufacturing company, where Mrs. Fahrlander formerly was employed. They are departing shortly for their home near Brule in the western portion of the state.

C. M. Chrisweisser, the hustling insurance agent, was a visitor in Lincoln last Friday evening and brought home with him for the week-end his daughter, Miss Zupha, also Miss Hope Saint John and Miss Doris Magney as well. Verner Lundburg also spent the week end here, this making the entire quota from Nehawka to the state university.

The Rev. O. E. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church, was a visitor for a few days in Plattsmouth, where he was in association with the Rev. John Calvert, pastor of the church at that place were looking after the campaign which is on for the raising of funds for the Wesleyan university. The ministers have been meeting with very good success in their work.

Like the morning surries has been our meeting with Nicholas Klarens, always cheerful and with always a smile. But now when one meets this genial Nehawkaite it is like the effervescence of the mid-day sun in its strength, and you know there is a grandson, Mr. Nicholas K. Frans.

Well the happy mother is pretty well pleased, as well as the father and Grandmother Klarens to say nothing of the smile that won't rub off on the face of Ray.

At the last meeting of the Knights of Pythias, and which was a very good representative meeting having a large number of the membership in attendance, after the regular order of business had been attended to, the matter of the selection of officers for the coming year was looked after.

The result of the canvass of the votes is as follows: F. R. Cunningham, C. C.; Albert Johnson, E. C.; Henry Feltes, prelate; H. L. Thomas, M. W.; Charles Bates, M. of A. D. Steffens, K. R. S.; Joshua Sutphan, M. E.; Earnest Kropp, I. G. and Melvin Sturm, O. G.

It has been said April showers bring May flowers, but December showers are different. Still there are many showers just at this time. Five were on the calendar when we visited Nehawka last Friday evening. One for that evening which was given by that genial couple, Geo. C. Sheldon and wife in honor of Mr. Arthur Wolph and Miss Ethel Stander, who are soon to wed and which was known as a can and bottle shower, being of the things which will be needed in the household. A most pleasant time was had by the merry crowd which assembled at the pleasant home of the host and hostess.

The schedule of these storm periods are as follows: One at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon, as above narrated Friday evening. At Mrs. Albertine Ost, given by Miss Alma Saturday afternoon. At Silas Munn on Saturday evening and one Monday at the home of Mrs. Frank P. Sheldon, and which is to be followed by one of friends near Weeping Water.

At the last meeting of the Degree of Honor, they selected the following for their officers for the coming term: Mrs. T. E. Fulton, who has been the Chief of Honor, now becomes past chief; Mrs. Dora Waldo, Chief of Honor; Miss Freda Petersen, Lady of Honor; Miss Alta Duckworth, recording financier; Mrs. Lucile Davis, guide; Mrs. Max Schaefer, chief of ceremonies.

On Wednesday of next week the Masons will put on their free show for the citizens of Nehawka, it being for December 21st here and on the following day at Union. At three in the afternoon there will be given a matinee for the children and it is urged that all attend this show and that in order not to greatly crowd the house at the evening sessions. The afternoon show will be at 3 o'clock. There will be two sessions in the evening, one following the other. The first one will begin at 7:00, while the latter will be at 8:30.

There will be two reels of the Panama canal, one of the apple industry in Nebraska and many scenes from her. Hon. Isaac Pollard, who was one of the pioneers of the apple industry, will be shown. The cattle industry in the northwest will also be shown, these making a most interesting and worth while series. This will be followed by a Christmas carol. Everyone is urged to come and enjoy this show, which the Masons are furnishing without cost to any one.

We wish to thank all of our friends for the many kindnesses shown at the time of the death of wife and mother. We assure you that we appreciate all that was done for us at the time of our great sorrow.—David D. Adams; Mrs. W. L. Stuck and family; Charles D. Adams and family.

Report cards were given out last Tuesday in the high school. The girls in domestic science have been making fruit cakes this week. For hand work the first and second grades decorated Christmas trees.

The grade pupils are learning Christmas songs together for their joint program.

The pupils of the third and fourth grad enjoyed the treat given them by Joy Murdock, this being her eighth birthday.

The second grade has finished the Baldwin and Bender reader and are now reading the "Progressive Road to Reading."

The Juniors are working hard on the carnival plans for Friday evening, and it should be successful if work counts.

There were twenty-four pupils in the third and fourth grades who were neither tardy nor absent during the month of November.

The primary room is planning on giving a little play at Christmas time. The play is taken from a story worked out in the Language class.

Christmas calendars are being made in the third and fourth grade drawing classes. They are also preparing their part of the Christmas program.

The Sophomores had two class meetings this week, choosing for their motto, "He conquers who works," being written in Latin. Crimson and cream was chosen as the class colors.

The basket ball tournament Friday evening was a great success and was enjoyed very much by both players and audience. The Blues won the championship of the girls' teams and the Red boys' team defeated the Blue.

The high school team won from the town team in a very rough game, by 14 to 10, making most of their points on fouls. $7.20 was taken in as admission which will be put towards athletics.

Women of Avoca Precinct showed much interest in the meeting held at the home of Mrs. P. Nutzman, Friday Dec. 2. The project was on Selection and Remodeling of Clothing, and many problems were brought up for the solution. Each woman was interested in the type of dresses she should wear and the reason she should wear these styles. The women were also instructed how to use the dress form. Commercial patterns were taken and tested out on the dress form and as most women vary from the standard measurements they were shown how to make patterns larger or smaller. The altering of sleeves proved very interesting and helpful, color patterns were also remodeled.

Many helpful bulletins were distributed and many women asked that these bulletins be mailed to them. These bulletins were found to be helpful and may be secured from the Farm Bureau office at Weeping Water: "Removal of Stains," "Sele-tending west from the board of trade, is now well filled with four very staid gentlemen. The place has become very popular and no wonder when one considers the attainments of this quartette of sterling Americans.

Warren Munn, the Goliath of Gath, who is the personification of good nature; Edward Wood, the sweet singer of the past, present and future; Milton Hilton the muse, who with the wave of his hand is able to transport one into the world of the poetical. Then comes the last, Henry Feltes, who by the force of the education which he has gained in his vocation is able to transfer the visions which he gets of the sublime, to the relatives in the matter of fact, when he "Brightens the corners" with his brush dipped in the better qualities of human nature, and adds to the spice of life in his embellishments.

Mr. Leo Switzer, the new implement man, who has been making his home in the country has just constructed a foundation for a garage on a lot which he owns in Nehawka, and is thinking with the coming of spring of having a home built in town.

Grover Hoback and wife are now enjoying a "sun room" or so the maker thereof calls it, that being Mr. Henry C. Pollard. Any ways the porch which has been enclosed by glass will make a very pleasant place for the work which is designed to care for.

Mr. T. E. Fulton, when asked by the reporter how business was, replied, "Well, I cannot complain, but I can see a better condition growing all the time, and I think in a short time we are going to be where we were before with business going ahead like it was formerly."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fahrlander and wife, formerly Miss Edith Farns, were visiting at the home of friends in Nehawka and called at the office of the Sheldon Manufacturing company, where Mrs. Fahrlander formerly was employed. They are departing shortly for their home near Brule in the western portion of the state.

C. M. Chrisweisser, the hustling insurance agent, was a visitor in Lincoln last Friday evening and brought home with him for the week-end his daughter, Miss Zupha, also Miss Hope Saint John and Miss Doris Magney as well. Verner Lundburg also spent the week end here, this making the entire quota from Nehawka to the state university.

The Rev. O. E. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church, was a visitor for a few days in Plattsmouth, where he was in association with the Rev. John Calvert, pastor of the church at that place were looking after the campaign which is on for the raising of funds for the Wesleyan university. The ministers have been meeting with very good success in their work.

Like the morning surries has been our meeting with Nicholas Klarens, always cheerful and with always a smile. But now when one meets this genial Nehawkaite it is like the effervescence of the mid-day sun in its strength, and you know there is a grandson, Mr. Nicholas K. Frans.

Well the happy mother is pretty well pleased, as well as the father and Grandmother Klarens to say nothing of the smile that won't rub off on the face of Ray.

At the last meeting of the Knights of Pythias, and which was a very good representative meeting having a large number of the membership in attendance, after the regular order of business had been attended to, the matter of the selection of officers for the coming year was looked after.

The result of the canvass of the votes is as follows: F. R. Cunningham, C. C.; Albert Johnson, E. C.; Henry Feltes, prelate; H. L. Thomas, M. W.; Charles Bates, M. of A. D. Steffens, K. R. S.; Joshua Sutphan, M. E.; Earnest Kropp, I. G. and Melvin Sturm, O. G.

It has been said April showers bring May flowers, but December showers are different. Still there are many showers just at this time. Five were on the calendar when we visited Nehawka last Friday evening. One for that evening which was given by that genial couple, Geo. C. Sheldon and wife in honor of Mr. Arthur Wolph and Miss Ethel Stander, who are soon to wed and which was known as a can and bottle shower, being of the things which will be needed in the household. A most pleasant time was had by the merry crowd which assembled at the pleasant home of the host and hostess.

The schedule of these storm periods are as follows: One at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon, as above narrated Friday evening. At Mrs. Albertine Ost, given by Miss Alma Saturday afternoon. At Silas Munn on Saturday evening and one Monday at the home of Mrs. Frank P. Sheldon, and which is to be followed by one of friends near Weeping Water.

At the last meeting of the Degree of Honor, they selected the following for their officers for the coming term: Mrs. T. E. Fulton, who has been the Chief of Honor, now becomes past chief; Mrs. Dora Waldo, Chief of Honor; Miss Freda Petersen, Lady of Honor; Miss Alta Duckworth, recording financier; Mrs. Lucile Davis, guide; Mrs. Max Schaefer, chief of ceremonies.

On Wednesday of next week the Masons will put on their free show for the citizens of Nehawka, it being for December 21st here and on the following day at Union. At three in the afternoon there will be given a matinee for the children and it is urged that all attend this show and that in order not to greatly crowd the house at the evening sessions. The afternoon show will be at 3 o'clock. There will be two sessions in the evening, one following the other. The first one will begin at 7:00, while the latter will be at 8:30.

There will be two reels of the Panama canal, one of the apple industry in Nebraska and many scenes from her. Hon. Isaac Pollard, who was one of the pioneers of the apple industry, will be shown. The cattle industry in the northwest will also be shown, these making a most interesting and worth while series. This will be followed by a Christmas carol. Everyone is urged to come and enjoy this show, which the Masons are furnishing without cost to any one.

We wish to thank all of our friends for the many kindnesses shown at the time of the death of wife and mother. We assure you that we appreciate all that was done for us at the time of our great sorrow.—David D. Adams; Mrs. W. L. Stuck and family; Charles D. Adams and family.

Report cards were given out last Tuesday in the high school. The girls in domestic science have been making fruit cakes this week. For hand work the first and second grades decorated Christmas trees.

The grade pupils are learning Christmas songs together for their joint program.

The pupils of the third and fourth grad enjoyed the treat given them by Joy Murdock, this being her eighth birthday.

The second grade has finished the Baldwin and Bender reader and are now reading the "Progressive Road to Reading."

The Juniors are working hard on the carnival plans for Friday evening, and it should be successful if work counts.

There were twenty-four pupils in the third and fourth grades who were neither tardy nor absent during the month of November.

The primary room is planning on giving a little play at Christmas time. The play is taken from a story worked out in the Language class.

Christmas calendars are being made in the third and fourth grade drawing classes. They are also preparing their part of the Christmas program.

The Sophomores had two class meetings this week, choosing for their motto, "He conquers who works," being written in Latin. Crimson and cream was chosen as the class colors.

The basket ball tournament Friday evening was a great success and was enjoyed very much by both players and audience. The Blues won the championship of the girls' teams and the Red boys' team defeated the Blue.

The high school team won from the town team in a very rough game, by 14 to 10, making most of their points on fouls. $7.20 was taken in as admission which will be put towards athletics.

Women of Avoca Precinct showed much interest in the meeting held at the home of Mrs. P. Nutzman, Friday Dec. 2. The project was on Selection and Remodeling of Clothing, and many problems were brought up for the solution. Each woman was interested in the type of dresses she should wear and the reason she should wear these styles. The women were also instructed how to use the dress form. Commercial patterns were taken and tested out on the dress form and as most women vary from the standard measurements they were shown how to make patterns larger or smaller. The altering of sleeves proved very interesting and helpful, color patterns were also remodeled.

Many helpful bulletins were distributed and many women asked that these bulletins be mailed to them. These bulletins were found to be helpful and may be secured from the Farm Bureau office at Weeping Water: "Removal of Stains," "Sele-

MANLEY NEWS

Mrs. John Tighe of Wisner has been visiting at the home of Mary Heene.

George Goodman shelled and delivered his corn last Friday to the Kelly elevator in Manley.

Herman Dall was a visitor at Omaha where he was looking after some business last Tuesday.

August Pautsch of Louisville was looking after some business matters in Manley last Tuesday.

Joe Miller and Jacob Hennings were attending the sale near Elmwood last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Michael Tighe, of Yuma, Colorado, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Murphey.

Edward Kelly and sister, Miss Nellie, were visiting in Plattsmouth last Tuesday, making the trip in their auto.

Mr. Patrick Murphey, of Butte, Montana, is here, called by the serious illness of his brother, Mr. Chas. Murphey.

Orris, Arnold and Andrew Schliet were visiting in Omaha and also looking after some business matters last Tuesday.

Mr. John A. Murphey of Omaha is here to see his brother, Mr. Charles Murphey who is very sick at his home near Manley.

Mrs. Earhart accompanied by Morgan McCurdy and Earl Quigg were attending the sale last Thursday at L. C. Dehning's.

Walter O'Brien, Wm. Heebner and Wm. Sheehan were attending the Louis Dehning sale near Elmwood last Thursday afternoon.

Charles Gerlich and son Will, of Benson, were visiting in Manley last Saturday and looking after some business matters as well.

A. H. Humble was a visitor during the past week at Weeping Water for a few hours, where he was looking after some business.

Sam Goodman, who suffered a slight paralytic stroke a few days since, is able to be up again and hopes to be around in a short time.

Mrs. Thomas Keckler, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Schafer, of Falls City, returned home last Friday.

M. R. Boom and John Boom, of near Chadron, have been visiting at the home of Clarence Earhart's and Henry Forno for the past few days.

The Rev. Higgins was a visitor at Nebraska City last Tuesday, where he was in attendance at the conference of the Catholic clergy of this district.

Fred Fleischman and family were the guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, parents of Mrs. Fleischman, living in Louisville.

W. J. Rau and wife and Herman Rau and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters in Omaha last Tuesday making the trip in their car.

J. C. Rauth, August Stander and son, John, were attending the sale at the home of L. C. Dehning last Thursday driving over in the auto of Mr. Stander.

Mrs. John Tighe of Omaha was visiting during last week at the home of Mr. Charles Murphey, her brother, called on account of the very serious illness of her brother.

Albert Selver and wife and Aaron Rauth and wife and son, John were visiting at the home of August Stander last Sunday and guests for a very pleasant dinner party.

Mrs. J. C. Routh and Mrs. George Stoll were visiting last Wednesday at the home of Albert Glanblitz where they went partly to see the little stranger as well as the mother.

Mrs. J. C. Rauth and Mrs. Aaron Rauth with little John made a trip to Plattsmouth last Tuesday where they visited for a short time and also had the young man's picture taken.

Mr. Rau, father of our banker, W. J. Rau, has been visiting at the home of his son in Manley for a short time, and was accompanied by the son to Omaha, where he is receiving treatment for his health.

Mrs. Andrew Broom, Miss Mary Desmond and M. R. Desmond of Lincoln were visiting at the home of August Stander and wife for the day last Tuesday coming over from the state capital in their auto.

Frank B. Goodman, of near Myrard, was a visitor in Manley, a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Steinkamp, and coming to visit his brother, Sam Goodman, who was not feeling very well. He also visited at the home of his brother, George W. Goodman, southwest of Manley.

Miss Katie Wolpert who has been at the hospital in Omaha for some time, where she was receiving treatment since she underwent an operation, was so far recovered that she was able to return home a few days since and is showing considerable improvement and hopes in the near future to be enjoying her former health.

Theo. Harms and wife were called to Talmage last Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Anna Faterenholtz, a former neighbor and friend, who passed away there a few days since after having lived here for the past 68 years. This good lady came to Nebraska City in 1863, during the Civil war and in a short time moved to near Talmage, when she has since lived.

Money and Groceries!

With cash you can buy more groceries at the store of R. Bergman than elsewhere.

We are making some very attractive prices for cash.

R. BERGMAN, Manley, Nebraska

Mr. Murphy has been in poor health for some time and his approaching death was known to the family circle but the family and friends had hoped that there might be a change that would enable the patient to rally, but without avail.

The funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock from the St. Patrick's church at Manley, of which Mr. Murphy was a very devout member, and the body was consigned to rest in the cemetery there. Father W. L. D. Higgins celebrated the requiem mass of the church.

COCKERELS FOR SALE

Rose Comb Rhode Island Reds and White Wyandottes at $1.50 each. MRS. JULIUS HEINKE, d12-2m-w South Bend, Neb.

Books! Books! Books! We have them till you can't rest, at the Journal Office.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT