

DE MOLAY ORDER HOLDS INITIATION

Largest Meeting Held Since Organization and Class of Eleven are Conferred the Degrees.

From Wednesday's Daily. Last evening Cass Chapter, Order of De Molay held a very largely attended meeting at their lodge rooms and which attracted to the scene a large number of the members of the Masonic fraternity to enjoy with the young men the splendid ceremonies.

The officers of the chapter conducted the initiation ceremonies, both the initiatory and De Molay degrees being exemplified during the session that lasted until a late hour. In the class that were initiated were the following: Morris Whittaker, class orator; Stewart Chase, Charles Richards, Jr., Herman Hennings, Edward McBride, Russell Hackenberg, Nelson Sogard, John Pickwell, Henry Ofe, Clifton Garrison.

At the close of the active work of the initiation, Raymond Cook, Senior Counsellor on the behalf of the chapter, presented to the advisor of the organization, Ralph J. Haynie, a handsome solid gold watch chain and Masonic charm representing the Royal Arch Mason and Knight Templar degrees of the order, and which presentation Mr. Haynie acknowledged his heartfelt appreciation, indicating as it did, the deep feeling of friendship and appreciation felt by the young men of the De Molay for their advisor, who has been actively working with them since the organization and initiation of the chapter in June.

Members of the Masonic order including Judge James T. Begley, worshipful master of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, G. E. De Wolfe, superintendent of the city schools, C. E. Whittaker, C. C. and E. H. Wescott, S. S. Chase, gave a few remarks in which the work of the De Molay was praised and the splendid manner in which the initiatory work was carried out was complimented by the speakers. The chapter at the close of the evening served refreshments and which included coffee and cake that aided in making the evening one of profit as well as pleasure for all those in attendance.

SOME FINE FISH

While L. Kinnamon and F. Doty were fishing in the Missouri river a few days ago they succeeded in landing a magnificent catfish which it was found weighed seventy-five pounds and proved one of the best of its kind that has been caught in the river in several months. The young men had a picture of the fish taken and Mrs. Herman Fields of Council Bluffs and Mrs. Herman Gartman of this city also joined the fishermen in the picture that will prove a valued souvenir.

CELEBRITIES BIRTHDAY

From Wednesday's Daily. The birthday anniversary of Grant Wetenkamp occurring the last of the week, a number of the close relatives and friends gathered at his home a few days ago and joined in the proper observance of the day which marked the passing of the fifty-second milestone on life's highway.

The evening was spent in general conversation and inspiring music on the New Edison that aided in making the time fly with speeding wings. Refreshments were served at a proper hour that added to the general pleasure of the members of the party.

Near the midnight hour the members of the party wended their way homeward wishing Grant many happy returns of the day. Those to attend the event were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wetenkamp, Roy Howard and wife, W. T. Wetenkamp and wife, Elmer Wetenkamp, Arthur Wetenkamp and wife, Mrs. W. L. Propst, Mrs. O. H. Valley, Mary Gleason Wetenkamp, Mable, Charles, Edward and Grant Howard, William and Francis Wetenkamp, Betty Jean Wetenkamp, Clifton Propst, Lowell Pontius, Grant Wetenkamp.

HAVE YOU GOT TRINER'S WALL CALENDAR FOR 1922?

Triner's Wall Calendars never disappoint. Every year this beautiful work of art surpasses its predecessors. The new calendar 1922 has been inspired by the famous Walt Whitman's poem, "Pioneers, O Pioneers!" The exciting center picture of Progress is surrounded with a frame of nine smaller pictures which transport the imagination to past centuries (1530, Copernicus, pioneer of modern astronomy; 1632, Comenius, pioneer of the public school system; 1799, Volta, pioneer of electrical science, etc.) as well as to the unknown future inaugurated by the discoveries of the latest pioneers like Roentgen (X-rays) or Mme. Curie (radium.) Have you got this splendid wall calendar? Send 10 cents to cover mailing expenses (Address, Joseph Triner Company, 1333 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.) And look into your medicine chest whether Triner's Bitter Wine is there, because this excellent stomach tonic is the best guarantee for the coming holidays. If your stomach will be in good order, you will be in the right humor for Christmas and New Year.

BIG EVENTS FOR K. OF C. BAZAAR

Contests are Now Launched that will be Made Features of the Various Prize Drawings

From Tuesday's Daily. The various events that will mark the bazaar of the local council of the Knights of Columbus are now launched and placed before the public so that those who desire may take part. The committee have arranged the prizes in the window of the Weyrich & Harbo drug store and there they may be viewed by those who desire to take part in the contests, or the friends of those who are going to get into any of the various events. The fine Edison photograph that is to be raffled off is the king prize of the array and the tickets for that are now being sold by the committee and members of the Knights to the residents of this locality and the final drawing will be made at the hall on the last night of the bazaar.

One of the prizes that attracts the eye is the fine gold wrist watch that is to be presented to the most popular lady in the city or county and the watch selected is certainly a beauty in every way and one that will cause a warm contest among the admirers of the ladies of the city. In this contest the names can be entered by the friends of the ladies and the vote sold at the price of 1 cent each, and this means that there will be a great battle staged in the contest.

The baby doll contest for the possession of the large handsomely gowned doll, that is so life like as to be almost human, will be given away at the bazaar and 10 votes will be given with each admission to the hall and 50 for each supper ticket.

Another of the events that attracts much attention is that of the guessing contest and in which each person who pays 5 cents can secure a guess on the number of beans in the large glass jar that is on exhibition at the drug store. The prizes offered are the best that the committee has been able to secure and in addition to these there are a large number of others that will be given at the hall during the progress of the bazaar and at the country store that is to be operated there.

MUST REMAIN IN JAIL

From Tuesday's Daily. The delightful spring like weather of the past few weeks has brot into the breast of Edward Smith, one of the colored guests of Sheriff Quinton, a great longing to be out in the great open spaces and enjoy the grandeur of the ideal winter weather. This morning a lady friend of the colored gentleman visiting the court house seeking to have Edward released and allowed to have his fling while the weather was good but unfortunately there was the lack of funds to settle for the fine and costs and consequently there was nothing stirring and Edward will remain in the county bastille feasting on the ration that the sheriff issues and there will be no homecoming for him in the colored belt of Omaha until the birds of springtime are wending their way northward.

ANOTHER LOUISVILLE BOY IS MARRIED IN OMAHA

From Saturday's Daily. Cupid has been working over time this winter and a large number of our young people have been his happy and willing victims.

The latest to succumb was Wayne Dorsey, of Omaha, who was married last Saturday evening to Miss Mabel Rosenbaum, of Omaha. The ceremony took place at the parsonage of the Rev. Titus Lowe of the First M. E. church and the young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Pat Mayfield. The two young ladies had been room mates before the recent marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield.

The bride's parents live at Missouri Valley, Iowa, where her father, J. E. Rosenbaum, is general foreman of the machine shops. Mrs. Dorsey is employed in the offices of Dr. W. O. Bridges, in the Brandeis theatre building. The groom is employed with the Adams-Kelley Sash and Door company of Omaha. They will continue in their present positions and will board with Mrs. George Harkins, of 1916 Laird street. Mrs. Harkins is a sister of Mrs. Bert McNealy of Louisville and has visited here often.

The bride is a very fine young business woman and is highly respected and has a large circle of friends in her home town as well as in Omaha. The groom is the second son of W. C. Dorsey, now of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, but for many years located here. He is one of our best young men of industry and high principles and his host of friends will join the Courier in congratulations and best wishes.—Louisville Courier.

LAW PERMITS HAVING ONLY ONE JUSTICE AT TIME

From Monday's Daily. The matter of the appointment of an additional justice of the peace for Plattsmouth, city, which was suggested several days ago to the board of county commissioners, owing to the illness of Judge M. Archer, was taken under consideration by the board, but owing to the new law there can only be one justice appointed or elected in the city and it would be impossible to make an additional appointment as no vacancy exists at this time and therefore all the cases demanding attention must be passed upon by the county court until such time as Judge Archer is able to resume his duties.
