

ALVO DEPARTMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stevens were in Lincoln Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson autographed to Lincoln Tuesday afternoon.

Verl Rosenow visited friends in De Witt from Tuesday until Friday.

Mrs. M. C. Keeler and son Don and Miss Mayer were Lincoln visitors Saturday.

Harley Wolfe of Ashland is spending a few days here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coatman called on relatives in Weeping Water Thursday afternoon.

The first four grades will give a Christmas program at the school next Friday afternoon.

The freshmen class held a wienie roast Thursday evening in the Dan Menchau grove near Eagle.

The Alvo high school will give a Christmas party at the high school auditorium next Thursday night.

The M. E. Sunday School will give a Christmas program at the church Saturday evening, Dec. 24. There will also be a Christmas tree for the children.

The 2nd number of the lecture course was given Saturday night by the Wesleyan quartet from University Place which was a pleasing entertainment and took the place of a local talent play which had been planned for December.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robson of Benedict, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. Ritter and little daughter of Waco, Texas, visited Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brobst and children.

Mrs. Robson and Mrs. Ritter are sisters of Mrs. Brobst.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Menchau, Jr., fell off a box Wednesday afternoon and badly wrenched his arm at the elbow. It was at first thought that it was broken but the X-Ray examination in Lincoln revealed no broken bones.

Everett Toland fell while running at play Wednesday afternoon and broke his right arm above the wrist. A playmate running close behind him fell on top of him. Dr. Muir attended the lad and his friends hope he may recover as soon as possible and resume his studies at school.

On Saturday evening, Dec. 10, the Boy Scouts and Campfire girls held a pie social at the school building during the evening the Alvo Boy Scouts played basketball with the Elmwood Boy Scouts, the former winning with a score of 32 to 0. The Campfire girls put on a program.

The proceeds amounted to about $20.00.

A community social will be given on Thursday evening Dec. 29 at the M. E. church basement. Those in the community whose names begin with A, B, C, will give a program.

This will be the second social of the kind to be held here this winter, the Ladies Aid having given the first some few weeks ago. It has been planned to hold one each month, the next to be given by the D's, E's, and F's. Everyone is invited and should come and have a good time.

Obituary

Conrad R. Rash, Sr., was born in Pennsylvania, August 5, 1849, and died December 13, 1921, aged 72 years, 4 months and 8 days. He grew to manhood in his native state, where he was married to Miss Barbara Plum September 3, 1874. They moved to Butler county, Nebraska, later coming to Alvo, where he passed away. To this union were born nine children, seven of whom, with their mother, survive. For years he had suffered much with rheumatism but was able to accomplish much work being very industrious. He became a member of the Church of the Brethren early in life and was a faithful worker, serving a number of years as a deacon of the church. He was honest, ready to help the needy and affectionate in the home. The funeral was conducted from the Church of the Brethren at Alvo, at 10 o'clock Friday afternoon, December 16, 1921. Rev. M. E. Stair, pastor, officiating. The remains were taken to Omaha for burial accompanied by the relatives. At the cemetery Rev. W. W. Blough pastor of the church in Omaha, will take charge of the services.

Mr. Rash is survived by his wife and four sons, Conrad of Elkhart, Indiana; John Rash and Albert of Omaha and Harvey of Alvo and three daughters, Mrs. Fred Manners of Elmwood; Mrs. Orville Dickey and Miss Anna Rash of Omaha, all of whom were present at the funeral and six grandchildren, three brothers and one sister, the latter, Mrs. Anna Becker of Bayard, Neb., attending the funeral and burial.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our deep appreciation of the loving kindness shown us by our many friends during the sickness, death and burial of our beloved husband, father, Conrad D. Rash, and for the beautiful floral offerings.—Mrs. C. D. Rash and children.

Funeral of their friend the late Charles Murphy.

The Rev. Higgins was a visitor in Omaha last Thursday where he went to visit with his friend the Rev. M. A. Shine, who is at the hospital there recovering from an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stander of Omaha were in Manley last Monday called here to attend the funeral of their friend Charles Murphy, who also visited at the home of their sons John P. Stander and Eddie Stander west of Manley.

Leo Tighe and wife of Washington, Neb., were visitors in Manley during the past week called by the death of Mr. Charles Murphy, who also visited a number of their friends and taking dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth on Monday.

Wm. Harms who has been working at Nebraska City for some time with the conclusion of the contract on which he was employed, is about taking the outfit to Lincoln where the contractor lives and then later went to Wayne where he is working at the present time.

Grandfather and Grandmother York are rejoicing over the arrival at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Thacker, of a fine little son which made its appearance during the first part of the week. The mother and little American are getting along nicely and the father, Oh, boy! How he can whistle and sing the longest day.

J. C. Rauth and wife, Aaron Rauth and wife, Carl Davis and son and Searl Davis were all at South Omaha last Wednesday attending a short sale of cattle, but none made a purchase. While the stock were fine the prices ranged a little too strong and as a consequence there were no sales made by the people from this portion of the county.

Mrs. W. H. Gambin who has been for some time at the hospital at Omaha where she has been receiving treatment returned home last Monday assisted by Mr. Gambin. Mrs. Gambin has not received the help at the institution which was desired and still remains rather poorly. Her many friends are hoping that she may soon be much better.

Hears Mother Very Sick

Last Thursday evening John Crane received the word that his mother who resides at Sutton was very sick and was taken to Lincoln in time to catch the train for his home by R. Bergman.

Most Excellent Man at Rest

Charles Murphy who for many years was one of the moving spirits of this community and always loyal to the best interests of the community, always a loyal American and doing his portion of any laudable enterprise which was attracting the attention and interest of the community. All who remember Mr. Murphy do so only in honor and respect. During his later years he has been for some time an invalid but always cheerful and bearing his sickness with much fortitude. The death Angel called last week and Mr. Murphy cheerfully answered the call. The last sad rites were said over his mortal remains by the Rev. Father Higgins at the St. Patrick's church in Manley and they were laid to rest at the College Hill cemetery east of the town.

New Business Home

The new business home of Mr. Herman Dall which has been under progress of building for some time is showing the effects of the workmen who have been putting on the exterior finish. Mr. Paul Mann and Mrs. Dall have been making some very substantial progress in the building and are looking toward the completion on the outside at this time. The inside is also going forward and will be expected to be ready by the first of the year.

Will Give Program

The Manley schools have completed arrangements for the giving of a Christmas entertainment of which they will give a varied program of many worth while features and will be directed by the teacher, Mrs. A. H. Humble and Miss Clara Trilety. The presentation will be given at the Manley hall and all are looking forward to a most enjoyable occasion.

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

HOLDS CAPITOL LEVY HAS LAPSED

Treasurer Rules Commission Can't Spend Fund Because Ordered in 1919—Davis Not Sure.

Lincoln, Dec. 15.—Appropriations of $1,700,000 made by the legislature as the first of a proposed series of levies for six years to raise $5,000,000 for the new state capitol is declared by State Auditor George W. Marsh to have lapsed into the general treasury because the balance was not appropriated by the 1921 legislature.

Under this ruling he holds that the capitol commission can spend no money because the provision for this expense was made in the 1919 appropriation and in that appropriation alone.

"It appears offhand that the auditor may be right," says Attorney General Clarence A. Davis. He said he would look up the law before giving an official opinion.

The balance now in the treasury from the appropriation from the last biennium is $1,657,466 after the commission had spent $49,801. The commission, since the new appropriation went into effect, has spent $32,251 more according to the auditor's records.

The effect of the ruling if held valid by the attorney general would be that the capitol fund would have $1,707,000 with which to work during the coming biennium, while the old appropriation would lie idle until the next legislature should make it available.

It will be nearly the middle of next year before any appreciable amount of taxes come in to apply on the capitol fund for 1921 and 1922.
