We Have Their Word That it took Mr. R. D. Stine thirty-one licks with a hammer to drive a nail into a pine board and that Little Crawford after missing the nail the first time threw the hammer away in disgust and did not attempt the feat afterwards. It is reported that many of the ladies made good records in driving nails. Any-way there was a good deal of fun in the contests.

What is known as a parents and teachers meeting will be held at the Union school this Friday evening when ways and means will be discussed for the betterment of the schools. The teachers are desirous of imparting the best instructions possible and the parents are anxious to have the children learn as much as possible. Thus they are getting together for that special end. We are hoping that the matter may be one of benefit to all and especially to the children.

The total enrollment for the first semester was 137 of which 45 were non-resident pupils. Agnes Ervin had the highest score in the third grade in the National Intelligence Tests given some time ago.

During the semester of school just finished the following eight numbers showed the enrollment in the entire school. One pupil from Plattsmouth attends the grades and one whose home is at Auburn attended school here for three months.

La Von and Vera Upton have been taking turns at playing the piano at times of dismissal. Each one takes a week on and then a week off.

The school well has been given regular treatments of chloride of lime. This should sterilize the water and make it fit for drinking purposes.

Florence Thacker and Leslie Moore after an absence of one week are back in school. George Thacker is still unable to attend although he is recovering from his illness.

In the grades one to eight inclusive our own district has 73 pupils. District No. 12 sends over 17 pupils to our grades; district 13, 2. One pupil comes in from district 2 of Otoe county.

In the high school the following are the county districts: 17, 16 pupils; dis. 11, 8; dis. 12, 3; dis. 13, 5; dis. 14, 1; dis. 18, 2; Otoe county, dis. 1, 1; dis. 2, 2; dis. 3, 1; dis. 12, 2; Garfield county, dis. 27, 1.

Joy Garrens, Lewis Burbee and Judan Banning have moved from the grammar school into the high school. They will do high school work this semester. Louis Murray will also attend one of the upper classes.

A. Voss, high school inspector from the University of Nebraska, was at school for a short period last Monday afternoon. He was also present Tuesday morning for a while giving the Juniors a test in Algebra. He left a copy of the annual publication, The Cornhusker, 1921, for the school.

Monday the report cards were turned out the second time this school year. Parents should always observe reports critically and investigate the cause for and grades written in red ink. The first semester of school is over. In the high school some of the work to be taken up consists of Botany, Bookkeeping, Solid Geometry and Civics.

Leslie Everett Files Suit in District Court Against Omaha Parties Over Sunday's Mixup.

From Wednesday's Daily. This morning in the office of the clerk of the district court an action was filed by Attorney D. O. Dwyer on behalf of Leslie Everett of Union, in which the plaintiff asks damages in the sum of $20,000 against John Harlan, Rudolph Deltz, Fred F. Saffeld, W. L. McClintic, Otto Smith and William Lehman.

In his petition the plaintiff alleges that the assault from which the action arises occurred on January 15th at the farm of George Everett, father of the plaintiff, and that the defendants collectively did threaten and make an assault on the plaintiff and as the result he was struck a blow on the head for which he has been suffering ever since.

The plaintiff claims that he is unable to keep up his work as teacher in the public schools and has been injured and damaged to the extent of the damages enumerated above.

The Omaha parties who were involved in the case were tried at Nebraska City yesterday afternoon on the charge of assault and each were fined the sum of $10 each in the county court there. Their version of the case was that they were hunting on the land of Mr. Everett and when warned to leave had started off the land and reached the highway and at the time two of the party who had been hunting on another part of the farm came up and as they did Leslie Everett called them a number of names and that as he came toward them one of the men threw up his gun to protect himself from what he claims he feared was an assault and in the melee that followed the young man was injured.

Yesterday afternoon when the papers in regard to the damage suit was filed Sheriff Quinton started out to await the return of the parties back to Omaha from Nebraska City in order to serve the summons on them but they had evidently decided not to return via Cass county but crossed over to Iowa at Nebraska City and came home via Council Bluffs.

INSPECTS RADIO STATION Dr. L. E. Whittemore of the bureau of standards at Washington has just completed an inspection of the radio station at Nebraska Wesleyan. He conferred with Prof. J. C. Jensen in regard to research into problems of radio transmission.

Dr. Whittemore is making a trip thru the middle west for the purpose of working out definite plans for distributing weather and market reports by radio. These stations were recently added to the list receiving Wesleyan news service: A. Scholten, Dodge; George Hemminger, Wynote; C. S. Shudron, Coon Rapids, Iowa.

AUTO ACCIDENT OCCURS NEAR UNION SUNDAY Car of Arthur Hansen Badly Damaged as Result of Accident Near W. T. Swan Farm.

A very narrow escape from a very serious auto accident occurred Sunday afternoon on the highway north of Union near the Winfield Swan farm and which resulted in the occupants of the car driven by Art Hansen being quite badly shaken up.

Mr. Hansen was driving south in his car and had with him his mother, Mrs. Thomas Hansen, as well as several small children and as they were driving past the Swan farm there was a Ford in front of them coming from the south.

The Ford was going at a very good rate of speed and as they neared the intersection of the road going east from the Swan farm the party of hunters made an attempt to turn and "skid their engine" and by this time Mr. Hansen was quite close and to avoid a collision turned his car to one side, crashing into a post set along the road and also breaking off a small tree that was nearby.

The force of the impact jarred the members of the party up a great deal and caused a great deal of damage to the car of Mr. Hansen. The driver of the car had done his utmost to clear the stalled car as he feared the injury of the children in his car and it is fortunate that the accident was not more serious to all concerned.

It was necessary to have the car hauled in to town for repairs and the owner will be out quite a relay as the result of the accident. The names of the occupants of the Ford that had stalled on the roadway was not learned by Mr. Hansen.

Owing to my age and inability to care for such a large herd of sows I am cutting the herd half in two and am selling foundation sows in this sale that couldn't be best in the world. OMAHA HUNTERS CREATE TROUBLE AT UNION ON SUNDAY

George Everett and Son, Leslie, Have Argument with Sportsmen Resulting in Assault.

Last Sunday there was a great deal of excitement created in the Sciota bottoms southeast of Union when George Everett and his son Leslie became engaged in an argument with a party of hunters from Omaha who were engaged in hunting on the Everett farm, and as a result of the argument, Leslie Everett received one fractured rib and was badly bruised up by being struck by one of the men and Mr. Everett knocked down but not seriously hurt.

It seems that the men had motored down from the metropolis and had started in to hunt over the farm of Mr. Everett, which lies along the Weeping Water creek and is very favorable for hunting purposes. The owner of the farm on learning of the presence of the hunters at once hastened out, accompanied by his son, and asked the parties to leave the farm and cease their hunting activities on his land.

The request led to the passage of some words and finally in several of the party assuming a rather warlike attitude toward Mr. Everett and his son. One of the hunters, it is claimed, struck Leslie with his gun and knocked him down, fracturing a rib and otherwise bruising him up rather badly. Mr. Everett was also knocked down and the Omaha bunch then proceeded to load up in their car and make their getaway from the scene of action.

Sheriff C. D. Quinton was notified of the affair and at once took the trail and apprehended the men at Plattsmouth bridge and relieved them of their firearms and they will be given a hearing tomorrow on the charges preferred against them.

The party gave the following names to the sheriff: John Harlan, Rudolph Deltz, Fred F. Saffeld, W. L. McClintic, Otto Smith and William Lehman.

UNION ASSAULT CASE GOES TO OTOE COUNTY Affray in Which George Everett and Son were Injured Occurred in Neighboring County.

The assault case in which George Everett and son, Leslie, were injured Sunday at their farm southeast of Union, will be aired in the Otoe county courts according to the latest information at the office of County Attorney A. G. Cole. While Mr. Everett resides in Cass county, his farm is situated in both Cass and Otoe county and the mix up with the party of Omaha hunters occurred on that portion of the farm lying across the line in our neighboring county.

Mr. Cole is to lay the information before County Attorney George Heinke of Otoe county, and that official with Sheriff Fischer, will handle the case at Nebraska City.

Mr. Everett was here last evening bearing the marks of the affair in his injured hand and the general bruised up condition. Leslie Everett suffered most seriously from the injuries he sustained, as he has a fractured rib and was unconscious for some time after the assault was made by the Omaha parties.

KENTON TO ATTACK CASE Washington, Jan. 17.—Senator Willis' attack on the Newberry case today caused Senator Kenton to cancel an engagement made on invitation of Willis and Congressman Fitzgerald of Ohio, to deliver a McKinley day address at Dayton on January 23.

In a letter to Fitzgerald canceling the engagement, Kenton said he intended to discuss the Newberry case in all his public speeches from now on, and to emphasize in particular his opposition to the senate's condoning of corruption.

CHANGES IN THE INCOME TAX LAW ARE EXPLAINED

Collector of Internal Revenue Allen Gives Public Insight Into New Schedule of Exemptions

The following statement is issued by Collector of Internal Revenue A. B. Allen, district of Nebraska: "Forms 1040-A, revised and simplified, for filing individual returns of income for the calendar year 1921 of $5,000 and less, will be available Wednesday, January 18th, at the office of the collector of internal revenue, Omaha, and the following branch offices: Lincoln and Grand Island. A copy will be mailed to taxpayers who last year filed a return, but failure to receive the form does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to file a return on time—on or before March 15, 1922. The form has been reduced from six to four pages, two of which are devoted to instructions which should be carefully read by the taxpayer before filling in the blanks. A study of these instructions will greatly lessen difficulties heretofore encountered in correctly making out the returns.

"On page 1, under the head of 'Income' are spaces for reporting the following items: Salaries, wages, commissions, etc.; income from partnerships, fiduciaries, etc.; rents and royalties; profit (or loss) from business or profession; profit (or loss) from sale of real estate; profit (or loss) from sale of stocks, bonds, etc.; and other income. Beneath are spaces for entering deductions, such as interest and taxes paid during the year; losses by fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty; or by theft, contributions, bad debts, etc.

"On page 2 are spaces for entering explanations of the various items, i. e., the total amount of income from business or profession, with description of 'grocery,' 'retail clothing,' 'drug store,' 'laundry,' 'doctor,' 'lawyer' or 'farmer' from rents and royalties, sale of property, etc.

"Returns are required of every single person and every married person not living with husband or wife, whose net income for 1921 was $1,000 or more, and of every married person living with husband or wife whose net income was $2,000 or more. If the combined net income of husband, wife and dependent minor children equalled or exceeded $2,000, or if the combined gross income of husband, wife and dependent minor children equalled or exceeded $5,000, all such income must be reported on a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife. If single and the net income including that of dependent minors, if any, equalled or exceeded $1,000 or the gross income equalled or exceeded $5,000, a return must be filed. A minor, however, having a net income of $1,000 or $2,000 according to marital status or a gross income of $5,000 must file a return. The requirement to file a return of gross income, regardless of the amount of net income, upon which the tax is assessed is a new provision.

"Net income is gross income less certain deductions which are explained on the form.

"Under each of the above conditions, a return must be filed even though no tax is due. The exemptions are $1,000 for single persons and married persons not living with husband or wife; $2,500 for married persons living with husband or wife, whose net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less and $2,000 for such persons whose net income was more than $5,000.

"A dependent, a person under eighteen years of age or mentally or physically defective has been increased from $200 to $400. Thus a man with wife and one dependent child would be entitled to $2,900 exemption providing his net income is less than $5,000 or $2,400 if his net income exceeds $5,000.

"A head of a family—a person who actually supports in one household one or more persons closely related to him (or her) by blood, marriage or adoption, is granted the same exemptions allowed a married person.

"The normal tax rates are unchanged, 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. The tax this year, as last, may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or on four equal installments, due on or before March 15th, June 15th, September 15th and December 15th.

"Heavy penalties are provided by the new revenue act for failure to file a return and pay the tax on time. "Announcement will be made thru the press of the date of release of Forms 1040 for filing individual return of income of more than $5,000."

EGGS FOR HATCHING Order now, Rutledge's Single Comb Rhode Island Red eggs for hatching, for delivery in February, March or April. Prize-winning, trap-nested, pedigreed strain. None better. Hatched in March—lay in August. Eggs at hard-time prices. Catalog, 116-4tsw. A. B. RUTLEDGE, Nehawka, Neb.
