ARTHUR ADAMS BUYS STORE

Last Saturday was consummated a deal whereby Arthur Adams became the owner of the stock and business of the C. W. Crabtree general store in Eagle. Mr. Adams is too well known to our readers to need any introduction. He was born and has grown to manhood in our midst, and while most of his energies have been expended on the farm, he has a practical business equipment which makes him fit quite naturally into the mercantile line. We understand he expects to materially increase the stock and appeal for patronage on the basis of up-to-date goods at moderate prices.

Mr. Crabtree will remain with the new proprietor for the present, perhaps until the spring business opens up, when he will doubtless go back to his favorite occupation of selling goods on the road.—Eagle Beacon.

MRS. JOSEPH PETERS PASSES AWAY TODAY

Died at Home in Omaha This Morning at 9 O'Clock—Funeral to be Held Here Monday.

From Saturday's Daily. It was with the deepest sorrow that the message was received here today announcing the death of Mrs. Joseph Peters at the home at North 43rd street, Omaha, this morning at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Peters was taken sick the latter part of December but her condition did not seem to grow serious until a few days ago, when her illness took a severe turn and she suffered several hemorrhages of the stomach and which have continued until her death. The mother, Mrs. Joseph Martin, of this city and the brothers, John and Henry Martin, were called to Omaha yesterday and the patient seeming about the same the two brothers returned here last night and early this morning they returned to Omaha to be with the sister, arriving there just about the time of her death.

The deceased lady was born in Illinois in 1873. Her parents, Joseph Martin and wife, were pioneer residents and the greater part of her lifetime was spent here where she was well loved and respected by a large circle of friends. It was in this city in 1898 that the marriage of Miss Mary Martin and Mr. Joseph Peters occurred, and following their wedding they continued to reside here until two years ago, when the family removed to Omaha. To this union there were born five children, Robert, Harold, Dorothy, John and William, who with the father remain to mourn the death of the kind and loving wife and mother. The aged mother, Mrs. Joseph Martin, and three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Engelke, of this city, Mrs. Arthur Stevenson, of Omaha, and Mrs. Bert Byers of Hastings are also left to mourn her death.

The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the St. Luke's Episcopal church and conducted by Rev. Father W. S. Leete. Mrs. Peters was for years a member of the St. Luke's church and during her residence here was very active in the work of the church.

LLOYD GEORGE TO FIGHT REBELLIOUS UNIONIST WING

London, Jan. 20.—Indications from today's meeting of the liberal conference are that Premier Lloyd George has decided to fight the rebellious unionist wing of the coalition which has been trying to force him to legislate to restore the power of veto to the house of lords, of which the house was deprived a decade ago, mainly through the instrumentality of Lloyd George, himself. His exact policy, however, will not be definitely known until tomorrow, when he makes his speech before the conference.

The election of Lloyd George and Winston Spencer Churchill, president and vice president, respectively, of the new national liberal council, decided upon by the conference today, is interpreted to mean that the premier contemplates turning the coalition into a distinctly liberal direction, hoping thereby to gather in to the ministerial fold, all moderate elements from both parties.

COURT DECIDES ON REMOVAL OF STULL CHILDREN

DISTRICT JUDGE BEGLEY IN DECISION, DEMANDS BETTER LIVING CONDITIONS.

WILL BE PLACED IN SCHOOL

With Privilege of Spending Vacation Periods with Father if Home Environment Improved.

From Saturday's Daily. This morning District Judge James T. Begley handed down his decision in the case wherein the State of Nebraska has sought the removal of the minor children of C. Lawrence Stull from their home on the Stull farm north of the city, and the trial of which case attracted much attention last week.

Since the submission of the case on last Monday Judge Begley has given much thought to the matter and in his decision his decision was governed largely by what he considered the best interests of the little ones whose future lies largely in the matter of the court ruling.

It was one on the points urged by the state at the trial that the little ones had not received the proper education and that the surroundings were not clean or sanitary and that under all circumstances the children should be placed in other hands than that of the father. The case is one that has been very hard for the court to pass upon and Judge Begley stated what he considered the best interests of all concerned in handing down his order that the children be removed from their home.

The court in making his decision, stated that he did not feel it was just to the children to have them placed in a state institution for care and education and that in his opinion the best solution was to have the children placed in some school where they could receive not only an education, but the spiritual training that is necessary in forming their future lives. The court stated that the expense of the education of the children will be paid by the father under the court ruling and if the conditions at the home are improved as they should be, the court is willing that the children spend their vacations at the home as Judge Begley stated a warm affection existed between the parents and children.

Through this means the best interests of the little ones can be protected and the father still enjoy the right of a parent in caring for them and having them with him at stated times.

The court gave a very able statement as to his views in the case at issue and indicated that he had meditated deeply before entering the order that would remove the children, as he stated it was a grave step to disrupt the home ties, but in this case the need of the children for better surroundings was so apparent that there could be no other step taken.

VERY PLEASANT MEETING

The Young Married People's Sunday School class of the Methodist church held their regular business meeting and party in the basement of the church Friday evening, January 20. Forty members and guests were present. Games of all kinds were played and refreshments served. Committees have been appointed to urge all the young married people of the community to join the class, known as the Victory class, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Edwards, president and vice president, respectively, of the new national liberal council, decided upon by the conference today, is interpreted to mean that the premier contemplates turning the coalition into a distinctly liberal direction, hoping thereby to gather in to the ministerial fold, all moderate elements from both parties.

BRYAN PREPARES TO MAKE RACE FOR THE U. S. SENATE

Former Nebraskan Will Try to Do in Florida What He Was Unable to Do Here.

Washington, Jan. 19.—William Jennings Bryan, three times the democratic candidate for the presidency and secretary of state during the first Wilson administration, will be a candidate for United States senator from Florida. Information has been received in Washington from personal and political friends of Mr. Bryan in Florida, to whom he has confided his political ambitions.

It is asserted positively here that Mr. Bryan will enter the Florida democratic primary in August against Senator Trammell. Already, it is stated, there is a well organized movement in Florida back of Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan will rely primarily upon a personal campaign and not upon any friendly organization in his behalf or upon such organized opposition to Mr. Trammell as already exists in the state. He expects to take the stump, probably late in the spring, and to go into every county.

GOVERNOR SAYS GAS TAX NOT TO MAKE NEW JOBS Norfolk, Jan. 20.—Gov. S. R. McKelvie in an address here guaranteed that not one payroll would be added to the state if the proposed gasoline tax goes into effect. He declared it would tend to help the general road program. The governor explained the reasons why he was calling a special session of the legislature, stating that if the legislature does what he believes it will do 25 per cent will be cut from the general state levy and that more than a million dollars will be checked off the state appropriations and will go into the general fund.

The governor declared that an answer is found for every objection to the proposed gasoline tax, stating it will not create a hardship on car owners. He declared the general state road program will be continued.

If you once give Tanlac an honest trial, you will add your voice to the thousands of others who are praising it. F. G. Fricke & Co.

AGED PEOPLE TAKE UP WEDDED LIFE

Mrs. Jennie Kendall, of Union, One of Old Residents of County, Married in Omaha.

Age does not seem to dim the fascinations of Cupid and this fact is borne out in the marriage of Mrs. Jennie Kendall, aged 75, of Union, and John D. Sawyer, aged 76, at Omaha on Thursday.

The aged couple were married at the home of Mrs. Roy Cole, a daughter of Mr. Sawyer, 4826 South 23rd street, and the Rev. R. L. Wheeler of the South Side Presbyterian church reading the marriage lines.

The bride is well known throughout the southern portion of Cass county, being the widow of Francis G. Kendall, one of the pioneer residents of Liberty precinct, and the family resided there for a great many years until the death of the aged husband a number of years ago. The aged couple will probably make their home in Omaha for the present at least, where the groom has resided for some years.

HAVE BIG TIME AT STATE MEETING OF FIREMEN

Plattsmouth Representatives Return Filled with Enthusiasm Over Norfolk Convention

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon the Plattsmouth delegates to the state convention of the Nebraska Volunteer firemen, returned home feeling very enthusiastic over the result of the meeting and the treatment accorded them in the northern Nebraska city made famous by Gene Huse.

There were over 1,000 delegates in attendance and the Plattsmouth contingent composed of Chief O. Sandin, Frank Detlef, Harry Smith and Dave Ebersole were very much in evidence at the meetings. The residents of Norfolk had provided a most royal time and one of the features was the appearance of one of the regular Columbia circuit companies presenting a fine burlesque show for the benefit of the visitors. The delegates were also guests at a fine banquet served at one of the large auditoriums and at which 1,000 persons were present.

The boys claim that it was a real treat in every way and the hospitable people of Norfolk sure won a warm place in the hearts of the Plattsmouth visitors.

The next convention will be held at North Platts.

George Winscott and wife departed this afternoon for Omaha where they will visit with their son, George, at the hospital where he is having his injured leg treated.

Miss Pauline Bajack departed this afternoon for Council Bluffs, Iowa, where she will visit for the week end and was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mrs. Helen Wallick.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs, When housework is torture, When night brings no rest nor sleep, When urinary disorders set in, Women's lot is weary one. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Have proved their worth in Plattsmouth. This is one Plattsmouth woman's testimony.

Mrs. Charles Mason, 312 Third street, says: "I have had quite a bit of experience with Doan's Kidney Pills up to a couple of years ago. I used to have attacks when my back would be so lame and weak it bothered me a great deal to be around on my feet. My kidneys could be disordered at times, too, and I felt miserable and had no ambition. A member of my family who had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results advised me to try them, and I did so with the best of results. In a short time I felt like a different woman. I got Doan's at Fricke & Co.'s drug store and use them occasionally when I get tired in my back and they always relieve me quickly."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mason had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
