Will Engage in Business With the beginning of the coming month, which is, however, the beginning of the fiscal year, of the F. P. Sheldon mercantile house, Mr. Walter Wunderlich will sever his connection with the business. Mr. Wunderlich is putting for other business He has begun with the business house of Mr. Sheldon for the past seven years and has proved a most valuable man. During the fourteen months of the war Mr. Wunderlich was with the American Expeditionary forces in France and on his return took up his work again. He has added much to the sales force and management of the business. His friends are legion and his severance from service of the house will be a decided loss to the business. He is wishing the firm the most unbounded success and all are also wishing him the same in whatever he may choose to engage in.

School Notes The class in agriculture is testing seed corn. Tessie Philip and Clara Ahrens have left school. Joy Murdock was absent Friday because of her eyes. The English literature class is reading "Hamlet." The Freshman class has finished reading Silas Marner. The second grade is having the tables of lives this week. Report cards were handed out last Monday in the high school. Mrs. Helen Johnson was absent this week because of pink eye. The basket ball party will be given Friday night in the school gym. The first grade finished the poem, "The Baby," by George MacDonald. The first year English class is taking up the study of the "Lady of the Lake." The first grade has read half way through the Seanson and Martin primer. Miss Hazel Scott was absent Wednesday and Miss Fiamme substituted for her. The Clothing class has been studying about the consumers league this week. Misses Jones and Johnson were the guests of Mrs. Will Stoll Wednesday night. The Hygiene class had their lesson out by Geo. Hansen's Wednesday morning. The Seniors are busy looking for a class play which they hope to give in the near future. Elementary Trigonometry is being studied by those that have passed third semester algebra. The seniors are reading examples of plays this week for the purpose of picking out a class play. The first and second grade have been doing some special work in writing and are showing great improvement. Pearl and Elizabeth Chappell gave short talks on "Letter Writing" during convocation period last Friday morning. There were twenty-six from the third and fourth grades who were neither absent nor tardy during the month of December. LeRoy Ketch has been absent from school for several days because of a severe cold. Ida McFarland has also been absent because of a cold. Sleng was the subject discussed at convocation last Friday morning. Papers were read by Velma Vessely, Dorothy Lewis and Esther St. John. Two young ladies expressed their desire to have charge of the convocation next Friday morning. We are looking forward to an interesting program. Linville and Mary Ahrens served a dinner Tuesday noon to the High school faculty as part of their work in Home Economics. Mrs. Burby was also present. The first grade number class is learning to count by twos this week. The second grade are reviewing the tables thru fives. They are also having analysis in numbers. The Sunny Side Sewing club will meet with Ruth Palmer Thursday afternoon, it was necessary to change the place because of pink eye in the home of Mrs. John Opp. The grades give their quarterly examinations last week. The state school inspector visited us last Monday. Before leaving he stated that we were still in class A. He also left a copy of the University yearbook, "The Cornhusker," that was very much appreciated by the faculty and the students. Velma Munn and Venis Griffin read short stories for convocation Wednesday noon. The English classes are to have charge of convocation three days per week. One group will read papers on our opportunity, which was written recently by Percy MacKaye. Halleck Pollard had a birthday on Tuesday and he surprised his class mates and friends of the fourth grade with a fine luncheon at the noon hour. The birthday cake held eight candies and Halleck chose some of his friends to blow them out for him. The pupils and also his teacher will not forget this happy event and all wish Halleck many more happy birthdays.

Five members of the English 2 class gave an interesting 15-minute play for convocation Wednesday morning entitled, "The Assessor." It was very good and the ones taking part are to be complimented. The characters were as follows: Mr. Taxshirk, a farmer, Lucian Carper; Mrs. Taxshirk, his wife, Genevieve Stone; Bub Taxshirk, Earnest Pollard; Sarah Jane Taxshirk, Irene Johnson; the tax assessor, an inquisitive person, Joy St. John.

The pupils of Miss Buckingham's room and Miss Steinmeyer's as well, gave a dinner for Miss Buckingham Wednesday noon. We are sorry that she is to leave us soon. The dinner consisted of sandwiches, salad, pickles, beans, cookies, bananas and tarts. Everyone seemed to enjoy the event. We wish to thank the mothers who so kindly took part in furnishing the food. Other persons present were Mr. and Mrs. Burby and their daughter Ruth and Mr. Keltner. The dinner was given in the school cafeteria.

WRITES OF MEETING OF ORGANIZED AGRICULTURE Editor Journal: The twenty-first annual meeting of the Nebraska State Agricultural association was held in Lincoln January 3rd to 6th, 1934.

The Home Economics association put forth every effort to entertain and instruct the delegates to its convention. The music for all the meetings was furnished by Mrs. Elizabeth Luce and her daughters. "Better Health" was the plea of several of the speakers principally Dr. Caroline Hedger, of Chicago, Dr. B. F. Bailey, of Lincoln, discussed the "Rotarian Health Program." A demonstration of a health class of children from one Lincoln grade school was given, giving practical instructions for correcting underweight and other ailments.

Mrs. Vera Schuttler of Missouri, a member of the National Farm Bureau Federation spoke on the "Farm Woman's Problems" and appealed to them to use a "sense of proportion" in their work. She said there must be "house-keeping." Mrs. M. B. Wheeler gave a review of the work of the legislature of 1931.

The principal speakers of the Farm Bureau Federation were Mr. Chas. E. Gunnels, treasurer of the organization and Mrs. Shuttler. Both discussed the work already done by the Farm Bureau.

Mr. W. H. Brokaw, extension director, explained the relation of Extension service to the Farm Bureau Federation.

DRY LAW BEING ENFORCED Fremont, Jan. 25.—The eighteenth amendment is being enforced according to Mrs. Clayton, vice president at-large of the Nebraska W. C. T. U. in an address before the regional conference held in Fremont. The law is being enforced despite the fact that much is said of the contrary by newspapers and magazines. It cannot be expected, she said, that a habit of one thousand years standing can be wiped out in an instant by the mere passing of a law. She gave as an example the inefficiency of other laws and the fact that laws against trusts were not enforced for thirty years after their passage.

Mrs. Clayton appealed to the women and asked them to become acquainted with the work that is actually being done.

14 NABBED IN COLUMBUS RAID FREED ON BONDS Aided by Gus Hyers, state sheriff, and five deputies, "Big Tom" Carroll, federal rum sleuth, arrested 14 persons, including three women, in Columbus Tuesday for violating the dry law.

One of the women, Mary Christ Durkey, is the mother of two children, 7 and 9. The other women are Lillian Wilson, who runs the Pacific hotel and Mrs. Katherine Allison, who with her husband, Adolph Allison, owns the Union Pacific cafe.

The prisoners were released late yesterday by United States Commissioner E. C. Boehler of Lincoln after bonds of $1,000 each were furnished by friends from Columbus.

JAPAN TO RULE VALDIVOSTOK Washington, Jan. 25.—Japan has entered into an agreement with the Merkuloff government at Valdivostok governing concessions and control of that port for thirty years, the delegation of the Chita republic on the far east announced, on the basis of information received from its agent at Peking. Under the agreement, it was said, Japan acquires leases of the Ussuri railway, the port of Valdivostok and the Suchum coal mines. Japan, on her part, it was added, agreed to supply arms to the Merkuloff army and in case the latter is defeated by the Chita army, to take the officials of Merkuloff government to a safe haven.

Mrs. William Otte, who has been at Lincoln, where she accompanied her daughter, Dorothy, who has been troubled with appendicitis, and what was feared would result in an operation, but the malady took a better turn and the operation was avoided, the folks returning home with Miss Dorothy feeling much improved. Charles Murphy, Jr., Rev. Higgins, Michael O'Leary and James Murphy were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last week, being interested in the hearing of the matter of the estate of the late Charles A. Murphy, and at which time the Mr. Charles Murphy, Jr., was appointed administrator for the estate of his father.

The Wolf Hunt Tuesday Last Tuesday the wolf hunt which had been planned was pulled off with a great deal of fun but very few wolves. Four of them made their escape, while the remainder were not found. A little episode occurred which might have been disastrous but turned out not so bad for either the hunters or the wolf either. A very large brute attempting to break thru the line, was being intercepted by John Shehan, who had a blank shell in his gun and had forgotten to pump the same out and thus the wolf in making his sack broke thru the line and got away. By the time John had pumped the shell out and gotten a bead on the wolfship, he had gotten so far away that he escaped, though with the loss of some fur, as the charge brought a cloud of hair from his hips as he ran. The boys are joshing Johnny about getting ran over, but there appears to be nothing in it.

Very Enjoyable Gathering Mr. and Mrs. Walter Muckenaupt entertained last Sunday evening at their home, a large number of their friends in a very pleasant manner, when they had them for the evening, and which was spent most enjoyably by the guests and the host and hostess. evening which enhanced the pleasure of the gathering. Those present to enjoy the occasion were Messrs and Mesdames A. H. Humble, Wm. Hebbner, Theo Harms, W. J. Rau, Herman Rauth, Embrey Gibbons, J. C. Rauth, Misses Sue Muckenaupt, Anna W. Rauth, Rhena Christensen and Mr. Daniel Bourke.

LEGISLATURE IS VISITED BY MAN STRUCK BY HYERS

State Sheriff Admits Act, But Says it was in Self Defense—Gifford Will Demand Probe.

Lincoln, Jan. 21.—H. A. Meybohm, Kansas City salesman, walked into legislative halls this afternoon, saying to members: "Gus Hyers beat me up," and pointed to a red spot on his ear to back up his assertion. Representative Gifford of Pawnee led Meybohm to the governor's office and State Sheriff Hyers was summoned.

"Yes, I knocked him down," Hyers told the governor. "His car, bearing a Minnesota license number on it, stood in front of a hotel all day and night. I ordered the car put in a garage and told the police where it could be found."

"Meybohm walked into my office and began abusing me for locking up his car. I told him to sit down and I would explain. Instead he walked over to where I was sitting and hit me."

"I had my gun in my pocket but chose to use my fists. I knocked him down, then he got up and started after me again. I knocked him down again. Then I called Hans Nielson, who was in another room. We picked him up and set him down."

Meybohm admitted he was knocked down, but denied striking Hyers first and said he merely argued with the state sheriff.

The governor advised Meybohm to consult an attorney if he believed he desired recourse, and take the matter to the courts.

Gifford, who is one of the anti-McKelvie members, asked that he would examine another investigating committee to learn why Hyers hit the traveling man.

Tablets, note books, pencils, etc., for the school children, may be had at the Journal office.

Constipation Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, as to carry off this waste, as it that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and carry off the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed. Weyrich & Hadzina.

There is no doubt but that the line of school supplies carried by the Journal is the most complete that can be found and embraces everything that the student may need in his or her work.
