Murray State Bank, MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Jack West and wife visited at the home of Henry Creamer last Sunday. Isaac Todd, son of Harry Todd, is reported as being sick at the home of his father. T. J. Brendel was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth and Omaha last Tuesday. Dr. Taylor was called to Elmwood last Tuesday to look after some business in a professional line. Joseph Cook is in charge of the Murray garage while Esmie Hinkle is in the hospital at Omaha. Frank Hogue of near Mynard was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, coming down to have a team shod. Miss Leora Robbins is reported as being rather sick at her home, but is at this time showing some improvement. Phillip Kell, from east of town, was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Robert Rainey, who has been sick at her home southeast of Murray, is reported as being some better at this time. Nick Friedrich and Herman Wohlfarth shipped a car of mixed hogs and cattle to the South Omaha market last Tuesday.

John Becker and James Fitch from near Union were looking after some business matters in Murray on last Tuesday afternoon.

Frank Mrasek was a visitor in Nebraska City last Tuesday, taking a truck load of hogs to the market there for Mr. Wm. Schwab.

F. E. Vallery was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday afternoon from his home in Plattsmouth and was looking after some business matters.

Mrs. D. M. Lloyd is reported as being sick at her home southwest of Murray. Her many friends are hoping that she may not be ill long.

Jacob Minnear was on the market last Wednesday at Nebraska City, with a load of hogs, they being taken to market by Frank Mrasek in his truck.

John Vantine and wife have been visiting in Murray for some few days, being guests at the home of Mrs. W. A. Brown and J. H. Brown and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Puls, of Plattsmouth were guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young last Sunday and all had a most enjoyable time.

W. J. Philpot shipped another car of cattle in from South Omaha the other day and placed them in his feed yards for fattening. This makes a large number which he now has on feed.

Louis F. Kohrell, from south of Nebraska City, arrived in Murray last Tuesday evening for a visit with his son, Edward Kohrell, and will also visit with friends in Plattsmouth while here.

Glen Bodeker, the genial banker, has been laboring under some of the difficulties of the past few days, trying to look after the business at the bank, and also at the same time wrestling with a case of the grip.

Miss Elsie Puls, who has been visiting for some time in the northern portion of the state, returned home last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Wm. Puls and daughter, Miss Marie, went to Omaha to meet the daughter and sister.

Master Ellis and Miss Verona Shumaker, children of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Shumaker, are reported as being rather sick with a touch of pneumonia, but are getting along all all right, and it is hoped they will soon be well again.

Henry C. Creamer has been kept in his home for some days past with what is threatened to be pneumonia. He is being given the best of care and medical attention, and his many friends are hopeful that he may soon be on the highway to recovery.

Albert Young shipped six pairs of pigs to Wayne City, Ill., this week, this making another of the many shipments which he has made. Mr. Young is raising some fine hogs and is furnishing those who care for better stock an opportunity to better their herds.

Robert Craig, better known as "Bob," arrived a few days since from Springfield, Mo., and will make his home in this section for the coming summer. Some of the people are now willing to bet that the winter will be short, for Bob has never come before until the winter was nearly over.

Orville Sherman, living over on the river, shipped a car of cattle to the South Omaha market last Tuesday, the shipment being made from Plattsmouth. These cattle had been to market before but on account of the low price and condition of the market at that time, were returned and fed a little longer.

Dr. B. F. Brendel is so far improved that he was able to accompany a patient to Omaha this week for an operation. This is very encouraging for Dr. Brendel, who has made such a determined fight with the sickness which has trammelled him for the past many months. His many friends are much pleased to know of his improvement.

Three are Sick
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henry three of the boys are sick, and the smallest one very badly so. While there is no thought of it being dangerous, with the three sick at once, makes much work nursing them.

Home for a While
Miss Catherine Brown, who has been attending a business college at Lincoln for some time past, and who is now near completing her course, is home for a two weeks' stay before going to finish the work. Miss Leora, who is also in school at Colner university, was home for over Sunday, returning to her studies on Monday morning.

Hoping Return of Health
Mrs. O. A. Davis, who has been troubled for some time past with not the best of health, was compelled to go to the hospital at Omaha, where she a few days since underwent an operation for appendicitis. Since the operation she has been reported as feeling relieved and is making very fair progress towards recovery. Her many friends will be pleased to know of the fortunate condition of this popular lady.

Mother Received Injury
Last week Mrs. E. F. Brendel received the sad news that her mother, just approaching ninety years of age, fell and fractured one of her hip bones. Mrs. Brendel hastened to the mother's bedside. Mrs. Amanda Parr, of Lebanon, Indiana, but who is staying at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Ella Shelby. Mrs. Brendel reports her mother as being very low.

Had to Take Rabbits
Those of the crowd who with the Plattsmouth bunch were out last Saturday hunting the wolves were not blessed with a great number of scalps on their belts but were able to bring home a few rabbits. That is those who were not afraid of rabbits. It is understood.

Most Pleasant Afternoon
Last Wednesday Mesdames B. F. Brendel, J. F. Brendel and T. J. Brendel at the home of the latter entertained the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church, and where all enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon. The time was spent looking first after the business of the society and pertained to the church and latterly to the entertainment of the members who were present. This was followed by a most delightful lunch which the ladies served and which added to the enjoyment of the afternoon.

Woodmen Have Eats and Fun
Last Thursday at the Peterson hall the members of the Modern Woodmen of America met for the installation of their new officers and had a very enjoyable evening as well as something worth while to eat. After other things they received two applications for membership which shows that the order is in a healthy condition. They installed the following officers as well: D. A. Young, V. C.; J. A. Scotten, W. A.; E. A. Root, E. B.; K. L. Kniss, clerk; A. G. Long and J. W. Berger, escorts; D. C. Rhoads, secretary; J. V. Edmunds, J. W. Berger and W. H. Puls, managers.

Have Added Books to Library
The young people who gave the carnival a few weeks ago at Murray have with the proceeds purchased some seventeen books for the library, which is adding a number of good books and with worth while reading. Mrs. Spangler, the librarian, is very busy every day with the books, which is being done on Wednesday afternoon and Saturday afternoon and evening. The work which the people have done for the library is one very commendable and the furnishing of these books free makes it a very easy matter to get good reading by those who are desiring the same. The library affords an opportunity for all and they derive just that amount of good which they make use of. Come in and get a book which will help spend the long winter evenings and also add much to your store of learning.

Missionary Society Will Meet
The Women's Missionary society will meet this month with Mrs. W. S. Smith. The meeting will be called to order at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, February 10th, and it is requested that all be punctual in arriving and that all members be present.

LESSON COMMITTEE.

Sophomores Entertain Freshmen
The Sophomore class of the Murray high school entertained the Freshman class at the home of Miss Marie Puls, at which there was a large crowd in attendance. A very pleasant evening was had, and all who were present enjoyed the occasion greatly. The evening was spent in singing and games and was made more enjoyable by the delightful luncheon which Miss Marie and her mother, Mrs. W. H. Puls, served. There were present for the occasion Misses Ardella Leyda, Rhea Stubb, Catherine Leyda, Mabel Howard, Blanche Scotten, Hazel Davis, Henry Hill, Victor Wehrlein, Will Minford, Orville Robbins, Lloyd Leyda, Lloyd Scott and Forest Rainey.

Go Into the Ditch
Last Monday evening while a number of Italians were seeking other of a party who were hunting in this neighborhood, they ran off the bank with their Dodge car near the home of H. G. Todd and there the car rested until Tuesday morning, when Harry Todd righted the wagon and drove it up a very steep bank and delivered the wagon to the owners. They were more or less bruised when the car rolled over and lodged at the bottom of the embankment with the wheels in the air. The top of the car only was broken, while the other portions were still intact.

He Keeps Them Guessing
Jesse Chambers, who conducts the cream station, during his spare time makes puzzles for those of his customers and others who frequent his place of business, to solve. If there is anything new under the sun, you may expect to find it there. They had the Journal man trying out some of the devices, but they were too strong for your Uncle Hiram.

Underwent an Operation
Earnest Hinkle, the garage man, and withal one of the finest of fellows at that, was taken with a very acute attack of appendicitis a short time since and on Sunday became so severe that he was taken to the Methodist hospital in Omaha, where he underwent an operation for relief, and after the operation he was reported to be getting along as well as one could reasonably expect.

Received Severe Injury
Last Saturday while Orville Robbins was riding one of his father's horses, the animal slipped on some icy place and fell, catching Orville's foot under its body, breaking some of the bones and thus laying the young man up for some time. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Brendel and the patient is getting along nicely.

DOING WORK IN OMAHA
From Wednesday's Daily

Frank R. Gobelman of this city has been engaged for the past week in the work of the interior decorating of the home of Ludwig Miller in Omaha and it is needless to say that the artistic touch of Mr. Gobelman has added much to the appearance of the home there. Mr. Gobelman has done a great deal of this work here and it was the exceptional beauty of this that attracted the attention of Mr. Miller and led to his being called to Omaha to look after the decorating job there.

Tablets, note books, pencils, etc., for the school children, may be had at the Journal office.
