Miss Graff told of the advantages that might occur from such an association to the grades, while Miss Reed read a paper pertaining to the high school. Mrs. Vilas Sheldon read a letter to her from her sister, who is president of a Parent-Teachers' association. It was very interesting and showed some of the things that might be done in providing for play ground equipment, library facilities and music; also more co-operation between the parents and the pupils.

It was voted by those present to start such an association and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Vilas Sheldon, president; Miss Harriet Reed, vice president; Mrs. Bruce Stone, secretary; Mr. Julian Pollard, treasurer.

The high school students have been wearing some long faces this week from 11:45 to 12 M. They have been trying to figure out who to lay the blame on for not having 15 minutes to squander in having class meetings. All classes in the morning have been lengthened by five minutes.

Following the wedding ceremony the party was invited to the elaborately decorated dining room where the delectable refreshments were served. POLITICAL SITUATION LOOKING UP
Two Filings for Office Received at First Starting of the Political Campaign in County.

The political situation is beginning to show signs of life and those who may aspire to office this fall are getting their lightning rods up and ready for business at the primary. Two candidates have already shied their bolts into the ring. J. A. Capwell of Elmwood has paid over to the county treasurer the sum necessary to secure his filing as democratic candidate for the office of county attorney, and A. F. Sturm of Nehawka, present state senator, filed again for that position as a republican.

Mr. Capwell was a candidate for county attorney in 1916 against A. G. Cole the present occupant of the office, and made a very good race especially in the western portion of the county. Mr. Sturm is now in his second term as senator.

These are the only candidates to get out into the running but the number will soon be increased as there is quite a little time until the filing dates are up as the candidates have until June 17th to get into the race. The primary that will be held this year on July 18th.

As a fitting close to the evening's entertainment, Mrs. Wolf presided by Miss Merna and Miss Edith Farley, served a delicious luncheon, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The guests then departed, thanking the hostess for the pleasant evening.

INTENSIVE BUILDING PROGRAM IS NEEDED
From Saturday's Daily.
One of the greatest needs in Plattsmouth this year to boom prosperity is an intensive building program. During the war and its attendant high prices the building work slowed up until it was almost at a standstill. Now, with lower prices of material and labor as well, it behooves the prospective builder to proceed. Further delay is useless. Moreover, it will likely prove costly in decreased profits.

For years there has been a growing demand for new homes. The Burlington recently sought thru the Chamber of Commerce to induce the erection of a section of more modern rental houses to accommodate the increased number of mechanics they would bring here to work in the shops.

Not only in homes, but in public improvements as well is there room for stimulated activity. Much work already in sight in this line, most important is the proposed remodeling of the Bank of Cass County building at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, which upon its completion will be occupied by the Plattsmouth State Bank.

Several paving and curbing projects are also viewed with favor as a part of the summer's constructive work.

Returning prosperity is on the way. Let us be ready to greet it when it arrives.
