REPORT DR. BASS TO WITHDRAW FROM RACE

Lincoln, March 17.—Friends of Dr. T. W. Bass, Broken Bow, Neb., say he will retire from the republican primary race for secretary of state in favor of Deputy Secretary of State W. L. Gaston, also of Broken Bow.

Dr. Bass will run for railway commissioner against Harry L. Cook, present incumbent, they say, with the understanding that if he loses and Gaston wins Dr. Bass will be given the deputyship in the secretary of state's office.

George A. Williams of Fairmont is the only other candidate for secretary of state.

PASS RESOLUTIONS AGAINST WARFARE

E. R. C. of A. of This City Adopt Resolutions Against the Private Gains From War.

To the President and Congress of the United States:

It is common knowledge the world over that the desire for dividends and profits from war equipment manufacture has in the past contributed its share to the causes of wars. Investigations have proven that armament firms have been active in promoting war scares. They have attempted to persuade their own countries to adopt war-like policies and to increase their armaments. They have tried to bribe government officials both at home and abroad. They have spread fake reports concerning the military and naval programs of various countries in order to stimulate armament expenditures. They have sought to control newspapers for their own selfish, disastrous ends. They have tried to organize international armament rings for the purpose of stimulating international competition in armaments by playing one country off against another.

They have organized international trusts which have robbed governments by controlling and increasing the price of armaments sold to governments. They have interfered with the full, free, efficient and economical use of the government-owned arsenals and navy yards, thus wasting untold millions of the peoples' funds. In short they have been a serious menace to the peaceful relations between nations and a constant source of corruption, bribery and waste to the people of this and all other countries.

Be it therefore resolved that the United States government again take the initiative and, by appropriate action, as far as this country at least is concerned, destroy the tendency toward war which springs from private munitions manufacture. To this end we urge that all future war equipment production be concentrated into the splendid government plants available for this purpose, and now largely idle; namely, the arsenals, navy yards, torpedo stations, equipment shops, powder factories and aircraft plants. "TAKE THE PROFIT OUT OF WAR!"—Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, Platte lodge 763.

SENATE LEADERS FLY ALIEN OVER MONEY DUE U. S.

Senator Norris Says if America Submits to It, Debtor Nations Can Refuse to Pay Anything

Washington, March 17.—Declaration that the United States should insist upon payment of its bill of $241,000,000 for keeping American soldiers in Germany, were made in the senate by both party leaders—Senators Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Underwood, Alabama, and Senator Borah, republican, Idaho. Mr. Underwood also urged appointment of an American representative on the allied reparations commission.

Both Senators Lodge and Underwood charged the allies with attempting "by a technicality" to oppose payment of the bill for the American troops, while Senator Borah said the allies' attitude was "entirely unwarranted."

"To my mind," Senator Norris of Nebraska, said, "it's treating the American government with disrespect. It's not fair; it's not honorable. There have been times when diplomatic relations were broken for reasons much less impelling than exist now."

Senator Lodge again declared that the troops were coming home as rapidly as practicable, and Senator Norris replied that he "hoped they all would come back."

"I hope so too," replied Mr. Lodge. Mr. Norris said he had the reservation that if the United States would submit to this "deceit" of the allies they might properly reach the decision "that they can refuse to pay anything else and get away with it." He added that if Uncle Sam has reached that condition he like to call a halt and wake him up."

BLOW KILLS OMAHA BOXER

Omaha, March 17.—Terry O'Mallory, Omaha boxer, died tonight shortly after being knocked out by Ray Carter in a preliminary to the Logan Padgett fight. Doctors examining O'Mallory declared that a blow on the neck and cut off his wind.

Carter landed a blow to O'Mallory's chin early in the fourth round knocking him out. O'Mallory landed on his neck. He died twenty minutes later. Physicians examining the dead man said that in striking his neck on the floor, the respiratory organs had been paralyzed and breathing stopped. Carter was arrested and booked for investigation, but was released under $20,000 bond. This was O'Mallory's third fight. He won the first two by knockouts.

O'Mallory's real name is Charles Havlicek.

John Kilmartin, state boxing inspector, issued a statement tonight exonerating Carter of any blame. "The arrest was merely a matter of technicality," Mr. Kilmartin said, "and Carter cannot be held liable for the accident."

COUNTY SPELLING CONTEST TEST HELD HERE TODAY

From Saturday's Daily.

The county spelling contest was held this morning and afternoon at the high school building in this city and with a pleasing number of young people taking part. County Superintendent Petersen presided and at the conclusion of the awards, presented the winners in both the oral and written contests with the prizes, $5 for the first, $2.50 for the second and $1 for the third.

The judges were Superintendent Bundy of Nehawka, Miss Marie Bookmeyer, domestic science teacher of Omaha schools and Miss Marie Hibberd, also a teacher in the Omaha schools. Superintendent G. E. DeWolfe, of the Plattsmouth schools, officiated as referee.

In the oral contest, Rose Brandt of Union (teacher, Miss Bessie LaRue) was awarded first prize. Dorothy Wehrstein of Murray, was awarded the second prize and Henry Worden, of Nehawka, the third prize. In the written contest, Marie Leach of Union (teacher, Miss Jane Hollister) was given first prize; Ruth Applegate of near Union was the winner of the second prize and Emma Sedman was given the third prize.

The contest was conducted by R. W. Eaton of Omaha, one of the well known state educators.

DEATH COMES TO PIONEER RESIDENT OF STATE

Mrs. Emily Wills Passed Away Last Evening at the Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. Elliott.

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening shortly after 6 o'clock occurred the death of Mrs. Emily Wills, pioneer resident of this state and who for the past several years has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Elliott, of this city.

Mrs. Wills was an old resident of the vicinity of Brownville, Nebraska, where her husband, Alfred Wills, settled in the year 1870, and she has resided there for the greater part of the time since.

Emily Richardson was born September 28, 1850, near Helston, Cornwall, England and was married there on March 19, 1870, to Alfred Wills and in the same year the young people emigrated to the United States, and settled in Brownville, Nebraska county, Nebraska. Nine children were born to this union, Minnie and Pearl, the two oldest, dying in infancy, as did one son, Mrs. F. W. Elliott of Plattsmouth, John A., Arthur J., Bessie E., Harry L., Charles R., all residing near Peru, are the only ones surviving. Her brothers, Henry Richardson of Lincoln, Charles of Los Angeles, Joseph of White City, Kansas; Arthur of Chester, Nebraska, and two sisters residing near Avoca, Australia, are also left to mourn her death.

The deceased was united with the Church of England when quite young and when arriving in America she affiliated with the Methodist church in which faith she died. The husband preceded her in death February 27, 1894.

She will be taken to Auburn tomorrow morning and the funeral services held there conducted by Rev. John Calvert of the First Methodist church of Plattsmouth.

The Pneumonia Month

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly. Mrs. Virgel Delzen of Louisville was in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. Anna Kraft and son, Albert Kraft of Louisville were here today for a few hours looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. W. H. Seybert departed this morning for Omaha where she will visit for the day with her daughter, Miss Honor, and other relatives and friends in that city over Sunday.

TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily.

This afternoon Edgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wescott, was taken to Omaha where he will be placed in the Methodist hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Edgar was taken sick last night but nothing serious was thought of the case until this morning when an examination of the young man led to the discovery that he was suffering from an attack of acute appendicitis. It is hoped that the young man will not have to stay long at the hospital as he is in the best of condition other than this sudden sickness.

DEATH OF THOMAS M. CARTER AT BLAIR

Founder of that City and a Resident Here a Number of Years, Died Thursday at Blair.

The death of Thomas M. Carter, aged eighty-five, and a pioneer resident of the state, occurred Thursday night at his home in Blair amid the scenes where he has resided for the past sixty years.

Mr. Carter came to Blair in 1855 from Sciota county, Ohio, and erected the first house in the locality where the town of Blair now stands and he has lived there for the greater part of the time since from a few years that he spent as a resident of Plattsmouth. On locating on the site where Blair now stands, Mr. Carter staked out a claim and erected his home in the then Indian infested country and has lived to see it grow into a pleasing and thriving community.

For a short period Mr. Carter resided in Plattsmouth, living at the time in the residence property on South 10th street which is now occupied by Joseph McCarthy and family. During his residence here Mr. Carter was quite active in church and Sunday school work and also in the G. A. R. circles and the news of his death will bring a great regret to the many old time friends.

He was known to all residents of Blair as "Uncle Marlon" and had been a popular figure there during the city's entire history. He had been a resident there except for the three years of the civil war when he served with the Second Nebraska cavalry.

Telling of his experiences in coming to Nebraska, Mr. Carter once described his pilgrimage from Ohio to seek a home in the west.

"After four weeks of travel by steamboat, stage, horseback and afoot we reached Omaha, then a small village. It took us fourteen days to come from St. Louis to Omaha. At St. Mary we met Peter A. Sarpy who treated us royally, but we pushed on to De Soto and boarded in a log shack until we had laid our claim at Blair and built a log cabin on it. The claim club ordered us off, but it was only a bluff."

In 1855 Mr. Carter organized the first Sunday school in the county, and had been a devoted church member since. His first wife died fifteen years ago. He is survived by his second wife and several children, two daughters living in that vicinity.

RETURNS TO HIS HOME

One of the former residents of Plattsmouth, but who has been away for a number of years, departed a few days since after having visited here with his brother, Albert Reinback and sister, Miss Hattie Reinback, for the past week or more. Mr. August Reinback was for a number of years an employe of the Burlington railroad, but weeks ago he became one of the best, departed some twenty odd years ago and was for a while engaged in the agricultural implement business in Minnesota. He sold out his interest there and went west. He has been located at Hilliard, Washington, for a number of years where he is now in the employ of a railroad company. Mr. Reinback, or as he was better known, Gust, has a host of friends here who were rejoiced to see him and to know of his prosperity in the west.

A. H. DUXBURY ENTERS RACE FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

Rising Young Attorney Enters the Race For Position of County Legal Advisor.

This morning another filing was made in the race for county attorney in the person of Aubrey H. Duxbury, present city clerk, and one of the bright young members of the legal profession in the county. The friends of Mr. Duxbury have been urging him strongly in the last few weeks to enter the race and he has consented to allow his name to be placed before the republican voters of the county at the coming primary. Mr. Duxbury has been one of the most active leaders in the American Legion in the county and as service officer has been an untiring worker for the interests of the service men and as well one of the most efficient officials that the city has had. He is well known in the city where he has been reared to manhood and has been an example of earnest effort in securing his legal training and fitting himself for his profession, altho he laid aside the study of the law when he responded to his country's call in 1918.

DECIDE IN FAVOR OF TAYLOR

The case of Elmer A. Taylor vs. John Koukal, et al, which was on trial in the district court Thursday and Friday, has been closed. The jury last evening returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $569.50. The jury in their verdict found against both of the defendants, John Koukal as well as his son, August Koukal, who was the driver of the car that it is claimed caused the injury to the wife of the plaintiff.

District Judge Begley has excused the jury panel until Tuesday morning when the case of the Bank of Commerce of Louisville vs. William B. Spence will be placed on trial.

John R. Jones of Oklahoma City was here over night looking after some business matters, going this morning to Lincoln and from there home.

LINCOLN IS AGOG WITH GOSSIP ON POLITICAL PLANS

Bryan Denies Tie-up with Mullen-Hitchcock Machine—Admits Talking with Emisaries

Lincoln, March 17.—Stories of collusion between "Brother Charlie" Bryan and Senator G. M. Hitchcock, whereby the two elements in the democratic party they represent would get the double-cross in order that "Brother Charlie" might hold a public office and Senator Hitchcock might get a third term, brought fire to Bryan's eye today.

"That sounds like a huge joke," he said. "There is absolutely nothing to it."

The slate agreed upon, according to the story in circulation, is Hitchcock for senator, Morehead for governor and Bryan for congress in the first congressional district. Bryan didn't deny that he had recently talked with Mullen-Hitchcock emissaries.

Story is Explained

Bryan's friends declare the story was given life by former democratic office holders here who wish to sidetrack him for governor and endeavor to put Morehead in as they feel that Morehead is more likely to put them into good jobs than Bryan.

Another story in circulation, given more credence because of facts to support it, is that Hitchcock and Mullen have bowed to Bryan's demand that they keep their hands off the state slate or face opposition for United States senator in the primaries.

When Senator Hitchcock entertained lavishly at a love feast in Omaha recently, "Brother Charlie" didn't attend the meeting. But he sent word by his henchmen that a hands-off policy be maintained on the state ticket.

Watch for Double-Cross

And, so far, on the surface at least, they have behaved like good boys. The alert Bryan adherents have seen signs several times of what they believe to be a double-cross in coaxing Osterman of Merrick and Norton of Polk into the race to split the democratic progressive vote and defeat Bryan. These bubbles for the time being have burst.

Then there is a row in progress between democrats and third party members as to whether Edgar Howard of Columbus has deserted the democratic ranks to become a candidate for congress in the "Third district."

Want Howard's Return

J. H. Edmisten, third party chairman, declared vehemently today that Howard will return from his month's tour of the south as staunch a third party man as he was at the Grand Island meeting and quoted from memory utterances made by Howard before leaving Nebraska calling for a rally to third party leaders.

Democrats here declare as vehemently that when Howard returns he'll go to the democratic mule barn and emerge astride his old friend, the donkey, carrying a banner emblazoned with his name as a democratic candidate for the congress.

W. R. Young, the auctioneer, and sister, Mrs. Ona Lawton, were among those going to Omaha this morning to visit for a hours on business matters.
