

Murray Department

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

If any of the readers of the Journal know of any social workers in this vicinity, and will mail same to this office, it will appear under this heading. We want all new items.—Editor

Here to Serve You!

A bank is one of the elements of safety in a community as well as one which renders service to all of the members of the community. We are glad to solve your problems when it is possible. Make this bank your office when in town. We are pleased to give you the best service possible.

If you are puzzled about some financial proposition, come in and we will talk it over and endeavor to find a solution.

Murray State Bank,

The Bank of Service

MURRAY -- NEBRASKA

Frank Valery was looking after some matters in Murray last Tuesday. W. H. Puls was looking after some matters of business at the county seat last Monday. Mrs. Asche was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday afternoon. Joe and Frank Mrasek were looking after some business matters in Omaha last Thursday. Frank Hill was shelling and delivering his corn at the D. J. Pitman elevator last Tuesday. E. P. Lutz was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday a guest with Mr. L. D. Hiatt for the day. J. W. Edmunds was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday afternoon. Messrs. L. K. Kniss and T. J. Brendel were looking after some business matters in Omaha last Monday.

Messrs. Morton Bartlett and Chas. Green were looking after some business matters in Weeping Water last week. John Fitch and son, Eugene, from near Nehawka were looking after some business matters in Murray Tuesday. Robert Good was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday taking a load of sheep and on his return bringing a load of barbed wire. Fred Campbell who has been down with the gripe is reported as doing nicely now and hopes soon to be entirely over the trouble. M. G. Churchill has been building a hot bed with other of his industries in his efforts to supply Murray with what the people want. Fred Nutzman from south of Nehawka was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday afternoon and was looking after some business matters for the day. Jasper Queen has proved himself an artist of no mean character in the line of landscape gardener, when the beautified the grounds at the home of Mr. Font T. Wilson. Mr. C. N. Barrows and wife who have been making their home at Milford for the past six months arrived home last week and are making their home here for the present. Charles Kennedy who has been so ill at his home for some time is now making good progress towards recovery and is feeling much better which is good news to his many friends. H. C. Long was a visitor in Plattsmouth for every day during the week where he is looking after some business matters and also taking treatments from Dr. H. C. Leopold. A. H. Engelkemier has been having a round with the mumps but while they were inconvenient he has come out of the fight victor, and is feeling pretty well, thank you. Messrs. Ray Schiappacasse and Albert Cotner of Plattsmouth representing the Lincoln Telegraph and Telephone company, were in Murray last Tuesday looking after some work on the lines. Walker Gilmore, who is attending the state university medical department arrived at home on Wednesday of this week and will be the guest at the home of his parents for the remainder of the week. Mrs. J. F. Bates of Rising City, who was visiting at the home of her parents at Lincoln came down for a visit of a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Brendel and returned home last Tuesday afternoon. Julius Engelkemier who returned from the hospital at Omaha a short time since is progressing as well as under the circumstances it is looked for. He still has to remain in a darkened room and is caring for his eyes as best he can. W. R. Young was a visitor at Ashland last Tuesday where he was looking after some matters of business, and Mrs. Young accompanied the colonel as far as Louisville where she visited for the day at the home of her brother Harry Hinton, and family.

The board of directors of the Farmers elevator company met at the elevator office last Tuesday and looked after some of the matters regarding the business and found the elevator had done an excellent business thus far under the efficient management of A. Gansemer. Mrs. B. F. Brendel, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Seyboldt were visiting at Avoca last Sunday being guests at a dinner which was given by Mrs. J. W. Brendel of that place in honor of the 42 anniversary of the birth of Dr. J. W. Brendel of Avoca and at which all enjoyed a most excellent time. Perr Young is having a very substantial hog house constructed which is in the most part being made from hollow tile and which is to be some 22 feet in width and 62 feet in length. Mr. J. A. Scotten is having the matter in charge of the building. The lumber company of Banning and Nickles is furnishing the materials. Mr. J. E. Bates and Mrs. J. W. Brendel, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel and their son Richard were guests at the dinner at which all enjoyed a most pleasant evening. Marland, the twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoback of south of Nehawka was taken to the hospital at Omaha where he underwent an operation for the removal of a mastoid process which had grown one side of his head. The operation was one of much pain and delicacy but the young man is getting along nicely since the operation. Dr. J. F. and Mrs. Brendel and their little son Richard, were visitors at Lincoln last Sunday being called there by the illness of Mrs. Jamison, the mother of Mrs. Brendel, whom they found very sick but since has shown some improvement. Mr. J. H. Hatcher and daughter, Laura, accompanied them as far as Havelock where they visited for the day at the home of Mrs. Vera Wassin.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

where they were called some time since on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McCracken's mother, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, who has been troubled with dropsy and heart disease. Last Monday Mrs. Johnson passed away at the age of some seventy years. Mrs. Johnson leaves a husband and some eight children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Johnson lived in the neighborhood in which she died for over sixty years, being about seven years of age when her parents moved there.

MRS. BARBARA TAYLOR PASSES TO HER REWARD

Dies at Home at Union Wednesday Afternoon of Attack of Heart Trouble of Some Length.

Another of the old and well beloved pioneer residents of Cass county has been summoned to the great beyond and laid aside the trials and sufferings of this earthly life for the glories of the life triumphant. Mrs. Barbara Taylor passing away Wednesday afternoon at her home at Union.

The deceased lady was one of the earliest settlers in Liberty precinct coming there when a child of some nine years of age in 1857 and has resided there almost continuously since that time. Barbara A. Lynn, daughter of Joshua and Sarah Lynn, was born August 24, 1849, in the state of Pennsylvania, and when a babe of one year, the parents removed to southern Illinois, where they resided for five years, going from there to Fremont Co. Ia., where they made their home until 1857 when the family came to Nebraska and settled in Cass county, near where the present town of Union is located. It was at the home in that portion of Cass county that Barbara Lynn was married on October 23, 1864, to Henry F. Taylor. To this union a large family came to bless the household, nine of whom, Mrs. Emma Morton, Mrs. A. L. Becker, Mrs. Mary Pell, Mrs. Minnie Banning, Mrs. Hattie Keady, Miss Elsie Taylor, all of Union, Mrs. Luella Woodruff of California, William L. and C. H. Taylor of Omaha, are left to mourn the passing of the kind and loving mother. The husband and four children have preceded Mrs. Taylor in death. Mrs. Taylor was also a sister of John Lynn of Union.

The deceased lady has been in poor health since last August and for the last week had been in very

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE MURRAY STATE BANK

Table with columns for RESOURCES and LIABILITIES, listing various assets and liabilities with their respective amounts.

State of Nebraska } ss. County of Cass } I, W. G. Boedecker, President of the above named bank do hereby swear that the above statement is a correct and true copy of the report made to the State Bureau of Banking.

LOCATED AT MURRAY Specialist on Swine and Cattle Diseases

DR. G. L. TAYLOR Veterinarian

Will receive calls at residence, Murray, Phone No. 59

We Are Needing the Money!

When the times were close I trusted a number of my friends for supplies from the store. Since then the firm has changed and the accounts should be settled. Please call at the store of Wilson & Puls where I will be found with the books for settlement. Do not neglect to settle these accounts as I want to close the books.

Spring Arrivals Here!

We have our spring goods here and are ready for your demands. It is ever our aim to satisfy the trade, and in our purchases of new Spring Gingham, we have endeavored to select the patterns and styles which the customers are desiring.

In the Millinery line we also have made very choice selections and have a line of very fine ladies' hats.

In the line of gentlemen's head wear, we have a wonderful array to select from.

Come and see us, we will endeavor to please you, and do not forget the excellent line of leather gloves as well.

Wilson & Puls, The Service Store Murray, Nebraska

serious condition, due to heart trouble and gradually sank gently to rest to awaken no more upon this earth. There have been no definite funeral arrangements made as yet until word is received from all of the family but it is thought that it will be held Saturday. In the loss of the kind and loving mother the family will have the sympathy of a host of friends over Cass county and with whom the Journal joins in the condolences over the loss that has been visited on the family circle. If you want good printing let us do your work. Best equipped job shop in southeastern Nebraska.

Many Peple are Building! More are contemplating building. Don't wait too long. Have us put in an estimate on the building which you want done. We will be pleased to serve you. PHONE 45 J. A. SCOTTEN, Contractor MURRAY -- NEBRASKA

Give the Hens a Chance! Kill the mites and other vermin. We have the solution. CARBOLA The Disinfectant, the White Wash and the Lice Killer. We would like to tell all about it. Banning & Nickles, Murray, Nebraska

We have a large 2-ton G. M. C. truck which is equipped for hauling Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Grain, Household Goods, and in fact anything that can be hauled by Truck. WE CAN HAUL IT Our prices are reasonable — One trial will prove it! CALL MURRAY PHONE Jack West, MURRAY -- NEBRASKA

Specials Next Week! We are offering some very interesting prices on our farm machinery, household equipment and other things, which are needed in the home. Pressure of business prevented us from publishing a list of what we are offering at some very special rates. Watch this space in the next issue and see some prices which will be money savers to you all.

Peterson Hardware Co. E. L. PETERSON, Manager MURRAY -- NEBRASKA

Saturday Specials!

Make out your list of the things you need from our special Saturday bargains. No matter if it is small or large it will receive good service, and co-operation in helping you to save, in quality and price.

- 100-lb. sack pure granulated sugar $6.75
5-lb. sack oatmeal .25
10-lb. best chick feed .35
4-lb. sack Gooch best pancake flour .35
2-lb. Iten's pure sugar cookies .35
3 cans No. 2 1/2 sliced pineapple 1.00
2 packages fresh dates, large size .25
3-lb. fancy blend Monarch coffee 1.00
Genuine Santos Peaberry, per lb. .25
Bulk macaroni, per lb. .10
Fancy, white dried apples, per lb. .25
Seedless raisins, large clean stock, per lb. .25
3 bars Palm Olive soap .25
3 bars Creme Oil toilet soap .25
20 bars Palm Olive Co. Galvanic soap 1.00
Gallon cans solid pack loganberries .90
Gallon cans apricots .25

Silks! Silk Hose! Organdies!

- Humming Bird hose, pure thread silk, extra full length, 8 1/2 inch lisle top, double heel and toe, lots of wear. Colors black and brown, pair $1.50
Ladies' outside pure thread silk hose, elastic top, pair 1.85
Iron Clad silk hose one of the season's best values. In a medium priced silk hose: brown or black, pair .95
36-in Heavy Taffeta, Corticello Silk Mill's finest quality, black, brown or navy, per yard 2.95
Silk Messaline, nice quality 36-in, highly lustrous and a special value, all colors, per yard 1.75
Organdies for dresses and trimmings, imported and domestic qualities: white and colors, yard .60 and .85

We Pay the Top Price for Produce!

SPECIAL NOTICE--Mrs. Gopen's Fresh Baked Bread and Cakes Wednesday and Saturday!

H. M. Soennichsen & Co., Telephone No. 12. Murray, Nebraska.