BOOZE CONVOY IS CAPTURED AT THE PLATTE RIVER

Ford Truck Carrying Two Omaha Men Runs Into Boozie Hounds at Bridge Saturday Night

From Monday's Daily.

Saturday night there were reports of a car scheduled to pass through this city carrying a load of the much sought after and invigorating corn juice and on the receipt of the word, State Officer Grebe accompanied by Frank Detlef hastened out to the Platte river wagon and auto bridge to see if it might not be possible to snag the car, and while they did not secure the one they were looking for, they got something just as good.

After laying in wait for some time, a few cars passed and then the Ford truck approached and while they were waiting to pay over the necessary toll, Officer Grebe glanced into the truck where a number of quills were piled in one corner and on lifting up the quills several glass jugs were discovered and which on examination revealed the fact that they contained corn juice of recent vintage and the parties were notified that they would have to come on to Plattsmouth and face the music.

One of the men gave the name of Joseph Duda and the other that of John Tondil, and both were lodged in the county jail until last evening when a number of their friends came down from Omaha and put up the necessary security to secure their release until they have their hearing in the county court. They will lose their truck in all probability under the state law as being used in the transportation of illicit liquor.

LOSE FIRST GAME OF STATE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Local Legion Team Meets Defeat at Kearney Saturday by Fast Central City Quintet.

From Monday's Daily.

After an all day ride the Plattsmouth American Legion basketball team hopped off the train at Kearney Saturday afternoon at 3:30 and at 4:30 had taken the floor to play the first game of Central City, and with the result that Central City carried away the grapes by the score of 36 to 23, in a fast and gruelling game that tested the metal of both teams. The locals have not been practicing for some few weeks and this told against their playing when they started in with their formidable rivals from Merrick county.

During the first half the locals led the greater part of the time and at the intermission the score was 12 to 16 in favor of Central City.

The Central City team, however, was humbled in the final round by the Cambridge team and which team was acclaimed the champions of the state in the Legion circles.

The Plattsmouth team returned home early yesterday morning without having had any rest and it is needless to say the members of the team kept close to the feathers for the remainder of the day.

The committee in charge of the community monthly sales, held on the third Wednesday of each month are busily engaged now in the plans for the forthcoming sale on April 19th and which will offer unusual buying opportunities to the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity. One of the new features of this monthly sales day is the public auction that Auctioneer Rex Young presides over the M. E. Smith building and where everything that is brought in for sale finds a market. The list of articles to be sold is already being arranged for and anyone who has anything they would like to dispose of should get their goods listed with Mr. Christ, chairman of the committee, or Auctioneer Young and to insure it being given the proper amount of publicity. It is a splendid chance to dispose of articles that may be cumbering the home but which are such that others would be glad to purchase them. Bring in your goods and have them listed.

Plattsmouth is soon to be called upon to part with one of the most popular families as H. R. Cole, local manager of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company, is to leave soon for Omaha to make his home and the family will reside in that city in the future. Hunter from this city the Boy Scout movement has been rather lagging and the once successful organization that was maintained here has been allowed to become broken up, and with a view of getting the Scouts once more in active work, the Rev. WOMAN'S CLUB HAS PLEASING MEETING

Enjoy Evening of Discussion and a Program of Parliamentary Drill and Music.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The Plattsmouth Woman's club met last evening at the auditorium of the public library with a very pleasing number in attendance and the meeting was filled with many interesting discussions among the members as well as offering a splendidly arranged program.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. E. A. Stanfield, Mrs. Nelson Jean presided over the meeting and the ladies took up the discussion of the matter of a playground for children with supervision, such are found in many of the cities of the country and while no definite action was taken, the club felt that this was a most important matter.

On the roll call the members responded with a current event that served to bring the gathering in touch with many of the civic problems of the day all over the nation as well as with international affairs.

The musical program consisted of piano numbers by Misses Genevieve Whelan and Marvel Whittaker and Mrs. E. B. Hayes in charge of the parliamentary law department gave a drill that covered some time and brought the ladies in touch with the procedure of public gatherings.

The musical and literary departments are now reaching a stage where they will be vital factors in the work and in these the ladies find much that is useful as well as inspirational.

BANDITS MISTAKE SUGAR TRAIN FOR ONE CARRYING SILK

Forty Armed Robbers Loot Dozen Cars After Holding Up Crew—Escape in Automobiles.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 2.—Forty bandits held up a special sugar train on the New York Central early today about 11 miles east of here, and after ordering the train crew to disconnect the engine and drive a mile up the tracks, looted more than two dozen cars. They then discovered they had held up the wrong train and after firing a volley of shots in the air, escaped in six automobiles. Eight posses are now conducting a search for the bandits.

Before the train was held up every telephone wire in the surrounding country had been cut. Following the holdup, the train crew was delayed more than an hour in notifying authorities.

The robbers were after the silk and money train which leaves New York City for Chicago every night at midnight except Saturday. When the sugar train reached Chelsea the engine brought in his long train to a stop when red signal was shown.

Immediately the bandits swarmed aboard the train. Under threat of death the entire crew was ordered into the engine or on the tender. Four bandits stood guard over them as the engineer was ordered to stop the tracks about a mile. The rest of the bandits remained to rifle the cars.

About an hour later several shots were fired in the air and the four bandits who stood guard over the train crew, taking this as a signal, ran back to the cars. Fifteen minutes later a volley of perhaps thirty shots were fired at the engineer and train crew by the bandits as they climbed into their automobiles and disappeared.

While the engineer and his fireman proceeded in the engine to Beacon, others of the train crew ran back to the cars. The seals of more than a score of the cars were broken while the locks on others were smashed. Only the most valuable parcels of merchandise were carried away.

HOLDS VERY FINE MOTHERS' MEETING

Mrs. C. A. Troop and Mrs. F. Spangler are Hostesses for W. C. T. U. Yesterday Afternoon.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. chapter were very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Troop and Mrs. Fred Spangler and Mrs. Troop were the hostesses. Hayes gave a very interesting and helpful discussion of present day conditions that would appeal to the mothers of the nation.

The afternoon program was in charge of Mrs. C. C. Wescott, while the devotional program was handled by Mrs. A. G. Hollowell, and these ladies acquitted themselves in a splendid manner in getting such a pleasant afternoon.

At the close of the afternoon a delectable luncheon was served that came as the climax of a most delightful time.

ELECTION DAY "DEAD ONE"

From Tuesday's Daily.

Today was the regular municipal election day but to the average citizen this fact meant little as there were no contests in the election save in the fourth and fifth wards where the race for councilman has brought on a little excitement and interest. The general city ticket and the first second and third ward councilmen were unopposed and as a result a very light vote was cast in those wards although a number of the voters took the trouble to write in the names of a number of their friends.

The day was in marked difference to the times when political feeling in the city campaigns ran high and when candidates represented the political parties rather than the "blobs" that have grown up in the last few years. The old war horses of the two parties have almost vanished from the scene of action, but in their stead they made the occasion of election day one of real purpose and meaning.
