"The man who dreams will be all right. If he will only dream at night; But he who dreams both night and day. Is sure to stumble on the way."

It is somewhat cool.

Plenty of snow out west.

The "Old Mizou" is booming.

Another successful "Bargain Day" passed.

Coal is very useful—in the stoves just now.

Easter weather unsettled. Easter bills, same.

However else you may gamble, never bet on the human race.

Has Mr. Tumulty heard from Colonel Harvey or Colonel House?

Out of 100 known species of mosquitos, only one is really dangerous.

Ducks can play up and down the river in safety and they seem to know it.

He who speaks a good word for his town is a patriot. He who knocks it is a tory.

Scientists are trying to determine why it takes a pretty girl so long to learn to swim.

A tip to automobilists: No street is wide enough for a woman who is learning to drive.

Good luck may be defined as ending the season with more shirts than you sent to the laundry.

Even if women can vote, we shall never have a petition government—unless the styles change.

Wild west shows no longer draw in the east, probably because what they portray seems tame by comparison.

A flapper is a small bundle of femininity entirely surrounded by cosmetics—if it doesn't happen to be a man.

Everything looks prosperous this season for Plattsmouth. Why not? The best town of its inches in Nebraska.

Mr. Bryan isn't going to run for the senatorship from Florida, but he seems to have got into something just as interesting.

The business of deporting alien bootleggers must be a measure of law enforcement rather than of protection of American industry, since Congressman Fordney doesn't seem to have the matter in charge.

"It don't take a man long to bag his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.

S. Fowler, first real name unknown; Nancy E. Fowler; Mrs. Joshua Brown, first real name unknown; Benjamin Williams; Martha Williams; Samuel Hanna; Mrs. Samuel Hanna, first real name unknown; Adam Davis; Nancy Ann Davis; Charles Powell; Ellen Fowler; Jefferson Decker; Anselmo B. Smith and Sylvia E. Smith, each deceased, real names unknown, and all persons having or claiming interest in the west half of Section 4, southeast quarter (SE $\frac{1}{4}$) and the southeast quarter (SE $\frac{1}{4}$) of the southeast quarter (SE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section five (5) and Government Lot four (4) in the southwest quarter (SW $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section four (4) all in Township 10, North Range fourteen (14) East of the 6th P. M., in Cass county, Nebraska, real names unknown: You and each of you are hereby notified that Joseph A. Everett as plaintiff, filed a petition and commenced an action in the District Court of the County of Cass, Nebraska, on the 31st day of March, 1922, against you and each of you, the object, purpose and prayer of which is to obtain a decree of court quieting the title to the following described lands, to-wit: West half of the southeast quarter and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter (SE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section 4, and Government Lot 4 in the southwest quarter of Section 4, all in Township 10, North Range 14, East of the 6th P. M., in Cass county, Nebraska, against you and each of you and for such other relief as may be just and equitable.

One pastor announces that prayer reduces the blood pressure. But the colossal nerve some folks display in their prayers must be a strain on all but the strongest arteries.

Margot Asquith on returning home very sweetly told the reporters that in her opinion Americans were a "wonderful people." We could almost, but not quite, kiss her for that.

On the first lap of his journey to the pole, Amundsen's plane hurt him. That plane is going to take Raold 'way up to the Arctic circle where there are no hospitals and nurses with cupid-bow mouths, and hurt him irreparably. He should either walk to the pole, or stay at home, if he is looking for safety.

Mrs. Asquith's American lecture tour cleared her $35,000, a figure upon which both parties may find cause for self congratulation. Margot probably did not expect to make so much, and the lectured public probably never dreamed of getting off so high.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle says that in the other world marriage is on a higher and more spiritual plane than here and in reality is merely the matter of affinites, and no babies are born. Very interesting, Arthur, but we don't believe you know what you are talking about.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schliefert entertained on Easter at their home for the day and dinner a number of their friends, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Theo Harms and children, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Reicke and daughter, Miss Bertha, and Herbert Schliefert.

The birds at the farm of Morgan McCurdy have nothing on this young man when it comes to music, for they can not touch him when it comes to whistling. And why should he not whistle, as at the home there is a young son which came to gladden the home on Good Friday. The young man and mother are doing nicely.

Earl Wiles, who has been at the hospital at Omaha for some time past, was able to return home last Monday, and while he is getting around, is feeling pretty poorly as yet, being very sore from the incisions made at the time of the operation. He however is on the road to recovery and his many friends are hoping he will soon be well and strong again.

The Parish House of the St. Patrick Catholic church in Manley on last Friday caught fire. This fire, which resulted in a portion of the roof being burned, the citizens of Manley, with heroic effort were able to subdue the flames before a considerable damage was done. However, the damage was extensive enough that a new roof was required. This time asbestos shingles were used in covering the house and were placed on the structure by Messrs. John Fleischman and Herman Stohman.

Will Play Ball This Year. Manley, the place where they play good ball and where they always have an excellent team, had a base ball meeting last Friday and arranged for the coming season. They elected the officers who did such effective work last year, they being Teddy Harms, manager; Wm. J. Rau, treasurer; Rudolph Bergman, secretary; O. K. Coon, marshal and Wm. Heebner as care taker of the ball park. They have an abundance of talent from which to select, but are also looking for one who is above the average in ability as a player. They will be in readiness in a short time to take any appointment which may come.
