The Dusterhoff Shops,

MAX DUSTERHOFF

MURDOCK -- -- -- NEBRASKA

E. W. Thingan and wife were visiting in Omaha on Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Landholm spent Easter in Omaha last week and made the trip in their auto.

Conrad Baumgartner was attending the short horn cattle sale held near Wabash last Thursday.

Mr. Lloyd Way was at Syracuse one day last week, where he went to load a car of posts for shipment.

Business called W. O. Schewe to Omaha last Tuesday, he making the trip via the Burlington from South Bend.

Fred Deickman was in attendance at the short horn cattle sale held at the home of Clarence Earhart last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillespie and Mrs. H. V. McDonald were visiting with friends in Omaha for the day last Tuesday.

Miss Eva Sorick, of Lincoln, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lawton of Murdock for over Sunday.

Miss Leona Rush, who makes her home at Lincoln, was spending a few days at the home of her parents during last week.

Mrs. Wm. Neilson was visiting for the day in Omaha last Thursday, making the trip via the Burlington from South Bend.

Messrs. Frank Melvin and Ray Boldin, the carpenters, are placing a roof on the home of Mr. Robert Crawford this week.

Emery Wilson of near Ashland was looking after some business matters in Murdock, hauling some corn to the elevator here.

John Burt and wife of Omaha were visiting in Murdock yesterday (Sunday) and guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rush.

W. H. Rush and M. E. Shatto shelled corn last Thursday at the home of Fred A. Stock, which was used for feeding purposes.

J. H. Foreman and wife of near Alvo were spending the afternoon in Murdock, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rush.

J. H. Buck and family were looking after some matters in Elmwood last Thursday evening, Mr. Buck having some dental work looked after while there.

E. E. Marshall and son, Willie, of west of South Bend was a visitor in Murdock last Thursday and were looking after some business matters for the afternoon.

Dr. A. R. Hornbeck has been beautifying his home by trimming and pruning the trees in the yard and otherwise adding to the beauty of the home grounds.

Henry A. Guthman of the Bank of Murdock was a visitor in Lincoln last Thursday, driving over in his car to look after some business matters for a short time.

Emil Kuehn was a visitor in Murdock on his home in Lincoln last Thursday for a short time, when he drove down to look after some business matters for the day.

Oscar McDonald was looking after the appetites of the crowd at the sale held near Manley last Thursday with a lunch counter and was greeted with many a hungry mouth to feed.

Mr. and Mrs. David Way of Arriba, Colo., who are the parents of Mr. H. Way, superintendent of the Murdock schools, visited here with his son and family for a portion of last week.

Frank Mabes and family, of Bennett and Louis Hite and family, of Cheney, were visiting in Murdock on Easter, coming to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hite and with John Amgwert and family.

Harry A. Williams and wife of Elmwood were visiting in Murdock for the afternoon last Thursday, and the ladies visiting at the home while Mr. Williams and Mr. E. W. Thingan attended the fine cattle sale near Manley.

Miss Mary Rush has been looking after the telephone station during the day time during the absence of the Misses Esther and Marie Schmidt, who were spending some time in Omaha during last week, visiting with their friends.

See the ad of J. H. Buck in this issue of this paper and note the low prices which he is making on some of his goods and work. You know, besides the low prices that you are getting the best of materials as well when you trade with this man.

W. O. Schewe, the breeder of short horn cattle and of which he has made a specialty, was assisting in the sale of this excellent strain of cattle at the home of Clarence Earhart on last Thursday, when the sale of his cattle and that of D. F. Tighe was had.

Harold Tool will in the near future also add another room to his dwelling, in the shape of enclosing the porch, which has been a feature of the home, making a kitchen of it and adding materially to the comfort and convenience, as well as the value of the home.

A number of the young ladies of Murdock were enjoying a very pleasant evening last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Norton, and spent the evening in games and music and had a most excellent time as well as enjoyed the fine luncheon which the hostess served.

John Mockenhaupt, who has been away from Murdock for the past fifteen years, arrived here last Sunday evening and has been visiting at the home of E. O. McDonald for the past week or so. Mr. Mockenhaupt has been in the north for some time past and has not been in the best of health, but is making good improvement at this time.

Will Hold Meeting

There has been called by the president, J. C. Brown of the Wabash Cemetery association and by H. V. McDonald, secretary, their annual meeting to be held at Wabash on Monday May 1st at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to look after matters of interest pertaining to the association and the cemetery. All interested in the work are urged to be in attendance at this meeting.

Cabbage Plants are Ready

We have cabbage plants ready to set out. Can supply all. The tomato plants will be ready in season, or as soon as they can be safely set out. 224-2M MRS. G. V. PICKWELL.

Gave Excellent Entertainment

The young people of Murdock, comprising a number of the teachers and other of the young folk, gave their play "Daddy" last Tuesday to a well filled and highly appreciative audience. The play was one of rare merit, and was surely enjoyed by all present. A neat sum was realized, which is going to assist in the liquidation of the expenses incurred by the school fair and basket ball team. The members giving the show are appreciating the excellent attendance which was given and for all courtesies extended.

Buff Rock Eggs for Sale

Pure bred Buff Rock eggs for hatching. Price 50 cents per setting of 15 at home or 75 cents by parcel post. Phone 10-L.—Henry Rueter, Murdock, Neb. m20-3w

Have an Excellent Ball Team

Mr. B. O. Mooney of South Bend was a visitor in Murdock last Thursday looking after some business matters and while here was looking over the stock of base ball goods carried by A. J. Tool, with a view of purchasing the needs of a team which they have recently organized in their town. The team has arranged to play at Wabash with the Wabash team on Sunday, and are getting in condition for any and all comers.

The team, which has just been organized, is composed of the following excellent young men and all ball players: B. O. Mooney, captain; V. H. Kitzell, manager; George Thimgan, catcher, while they have three pitchers and are preparing for any emergency which might arise. They are B. O. Mooney, A. Loberg and Glen W. Weaver, Joe Weaver, short; Clyde Haswell, first; Harold Towle, second; Emil Nicholson, third; Earl Talbot, left; Robert Long, center, and Billie Blum, right.

Was Some Obstreperous

Whatever that is you may guess, but at the home of Wm. Neilson, William Irving, who has been making his home there for some time on last Thursday evening created some trouble which necessitated the invoking of the strong arm of the county in quieting the disturbed atmosphere. After having exhausted all peaceful means of inducing the observance of proper decorum and the quietude desired, the sheriff was called for and upon a special invitation, which consisted of forceful persuasion and an auto conveyance, Mr. Irving went to Plattsmouth, where he spent the remainder of the night in the Cass county jail. He had broken up considerable furniture and assaulted Mr. Neilson before the law was invoked.

Will Discontinue Work Till Fall

The ladies having in charge the construction of dress forms will from this time on not do anything in the making of dress forms until the cooler weather comes in the fall, but will list the desires of those who are wanting dress forms and which will be taken up in the fall as soon as the meetings shall have been started again. Those who may be desiring a dress form can list their wants with Mrs. O. J. Pothast, who is in charge of the work.

Painting the Store Building

Harry McDonald, the enterprising druggist, is having the exterior of his business house brightened up with some fresh paint and is giving it a battle ship gray this time. Harry Davis is doing the work and the work and paint is adding materially to the appearance of the popular business house.

Making Some Excellent Signs

Max Dusterhoff, of the Dusterhoff shops, has just completed a large sign in white with a deep red background which is one of the most attractive pieces of sign work which we have seen for a long time. The work is of a character which requires the greatest skill in its execution to bring the best results. Just take a glimpse at the sign when it shall have been placed and see how you like it.

Looks Like a Better Murdock

H. W. Tool as the superintending architect of the consolidated water system which a number of citizens of Murdock are installing, has been looking after some of the work of building the system and with the aid of Mr. Henry Amgwert is making some very substantial progress, having completed the excavation for the cave which is to contain the pressure tank. The beginning of this plant is stimulating others in Murdock to a like move and may result in a system of waterworks which could embrace the entire town.

Enjoyed a Radio Concert

Mr. J. E. McHugh and family, with Miss Naomi Cogizer, saleslady at the Murdock Mercantile company, motored to Weeping Water Thursday evening where they enjoyed a radio concert at the home of John Crozier, who has recently installed a receiving station at his home, and being an inviter to the Murdockite party to come and enjoy the evening. There were present for the evening, Mr. J. E. McHugh and family and Miss Cogizer of Murdock; L. W. Stanton and family and John and Henry Crozier and families of Weeping Water.

Will Improve Property

Mr. A. J. Tool, the hardware and harness man is arranging to make some very substantial improvements at his home in the near future, which will consist of an addition of some 22x4 feet and will afford two more rooms for the convenience of the family.

Lumber Prices Lower!

When recessions in prices came, we were prompt to take our loss, as all business must which has not as yet done so.

We are in position to offer to the public an excellent line of building material of all descriptions, at the lowest price level for good lumber that has been possible since before the war.

See us for anything you may be needing in this line. We can save you money.

Yes, business is good! Our prices are doing their part in this restoration of commercial activity.
