Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.—Prov. 3:13.

Who says talk is cheap? It costs $32,000 a day to run congress.

The only time play should come before work is in the dictionary.

There are probably very few prisoners who believe in their convictions.

Electricity travels 11,600,000 miles a minute or nearly as fast as gossip.

Should the credit for raising a good son nowadays go to the parents or the picture show?

Yes, the carnival will be here next week and the young folks can have all the fun they want.

The radio will be an unqualified success if congressmen do not try to broadcast their speeches.

We know what it is that makes a man give a woman a diamond engagement ring. It's the woman.

So far as we are personally concerned, the reformers may go as far as they like and never come back.

Mixed juries can escape being locked up together for the night by reaching an agreement before bedtime.

Wouldn't you have thought that Lady Astor would have profited by Margot Asquith's loose tonguedness in America?

If lots of pretty girls get to sitting on juries it will not be so hard to induce the men to sit on them as it is now.

An old fashioned piece of furniture in a rich man's parlor is called quaint. In a poor man's front room it is called junk.

Messenger boys in Chicago are being equipped with roller skates. Now it will take them longer than ever to get back from errand.

Evolutionists or no evolutionist, Mr. Bryan at least understands better than any scientist the relation of the donkey to the elephant.

Down in Texas they're selling gasoline at 13 cents. We always claimed there was no place so bad that it didn't have some good points.

It may be true that the radio will restore the home, by causing the family to stay at home now and then. But it is also going to put some strain on domestic ties in many cases where the old folks want to hear a lecture and the young 'uns want some dance music at the same time.

The present administration goes on the theory that as under the Munroe doctrine this country has a right to manage its own affairs without dictation by Europe, so Europe has a right to manage its own affairs without dictation from us. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

The American Bible society will issue a small volume of scripture selected for the blind. Pages will be seven by thirteen inches and the volume will weigh about a pound. A complete Bible, prepared in the embossed system used for the blind, weighs about 150 pounds and comprises from 11 to 58 volumes.

Some people criticize a newspaper because it is not outspoken in many things that occur in the community, and then when the editor does speak right out in meeting regarding some things, there is another class who are just as eager to criticize the editor for so doing. Now, what are we to do? "It's be damned if you do and be damned if you don't!" See!

One great drawback to prohibition is that it has made the teaching of literature so difficult, says an instructor at the University of Kansas. If you don't believe me, just try to read to a roomful of 18 year old students. Burns "Tom O' Shanter," where Tam gets "fou and unco happy," or in Browning's "My Last Duchess," about "the white mule she rode with, round the terrace," and see what happens.

"It don't take a man long to baz his pants at the knees, and to make a finely tailored suit look thoroughly disreputable—that's the man of it," avers Dainty Dorothy.

But she goes on to explain that the man who is making use of our cleaning, steaming and pressing services is keeping his clothes in much more presentable condition than when he got acquainted with us. And it doesn't cost much, either.

Debate in Kentucky's legislature over the Darwinian theory bore good fruit. Scores of solons now know 10 times more about it than they did before.

This is the time of the year for still another thing—the time when many candidates seek office in spite of the frantic remonstrances of their friends.

The Tipton (Mo.) Times reports that the recent rains along water-courses are said to have removed everything from adjacent farms but the mortgages.

The truce conference between the contending Irish factions has failed to reach an agreement and has adjourned until Saturday. That leaves Thursday and Friday for satisfactory fighting.

Harmony in the democratic party of Nebraska would be a great thing but as long as there are two factions and one faction wants it all their way, harmony is out of the question.

The paving matter is one in which all taxpayers are interested. One thing is certain—the parties who get the contract should understand what they are doing and proficient in this line of business.

In the will of the late O. M. Wentworth, of Boston, it is provided that the seven educational institutions named as beneficiaries shall not receive bequests totalling $5,300 if their students continue to play football.

"Dancing is good for one's health," said an Atchison Young Thing the other day. "So is work," adds the Globe, but not very hopefully, for this is an era when nobody regards work as being much good for anything.

Jack Dempsey's chief worry in Paris is that some Frenchman may kiss him. This doubtless explains why he didn't strain himself to go in 1917, when the practice of kissing Americans was at its height in France.

The joke about the bartender who keeps his union dues paid up may not be the best joke in the world, but it seems the oldest. And besides it isn't such a joke, after all. Bartenders still advertise for jobs regularly in the New York World and probably get them.

W. J. Bryan held his banquet in Lincoln Saturday night. Wonder if he discussed the Darwin theory, or confined his talk in telling his friends just what they had to do. Mr. Bryan's interests are now in Florida and not in Nebraska. This should be borne in mind, as you go along.

The present administration goes on the theory that as under the Munroe doctrine this country has a right to manage its own affairs without dictation by Europe, so Europe has a right to manage its own affairs without dictation from us. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

LITTLE ONE DIES

From Tuesday's Daily.

The sad news was received here last evening by the relatives of the death in Omaha of Ralph, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Larson. The little, who was two years and four months old, was taken sick several days ago, and as the other children had been suffering from the measles and had recovered it was thought that the little boy was also taking this childish malady, but on the arrival of the physician it was found that his case was complicated by an attack of pneumonia, and he steadily grew worse until the end. The death comes as a crushing blow to the parents as well as the relatives of the little babe, with whom he had been a great favorite. Mrs. Larson was formerly Miss Pearl Mumm of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mumm and sister of Fred H. Mumm. The funeral arrangements have not been definitely made as yet but it is thought that the little one will be brought here for burial. Mrs. Fred Mumm departed this morning for Omaha to do all possible for the sorrowing family.
