WELL WORTH THE PRICE

There has been some feeling of doubt on the part of the management of the Parmele theatre as to how the amusement loving public of the city would feel as to the slight raise in prices of admission that would be necessary if the very highest motion picture attractions were secured and as the first of the great masterpieces of the motion picture world, Messrs. Clouet & Moore have secured "Way Down East," the W. Griffith production that proved the sensation of motion pictures last year. To do this it was necessary to ask a top price of 50c for the admission and the reception of the picture will indicate to what extent the motion picture lovers will patronize the high class movies to which it is necessary to ask an additional cost in order that they may be secured. The production of "Way Down East" when it was first shown in motion pictures in Omaha was at a top price of $3 per seat and the Brandies theatre was filled with those willing to pay that price and on its return a short time ago at the Rialto in Omaha a price of 50c was asked, so that it can be readily seen that the price asked here is only fair and a great reduction from the original price of admission. With the Parmele the smaller seating capacity of the house is also a reason why the cost is more as the returns will be less even with packed houses than at the Omaha theatres.

Aside from the question of the admission the show is worth all of the amount asked as anyone who has seen it will agree and its coming here is a treat that the public certainly should appreciate. With the proper support it is hoped to bring other of the big pictures of the latest releases here to the Parmele for the benefit of the amusement lovers and they should and we believe they will, say, go to it, and get the best that the film world offers.

HOLD SOME PARTY

Last evening the committee that looked after the arrangements of "In Hot Tamales Land" for the Legion and P. H. Fields, the director of the musical show, were the hosts to the members of the show company as well as a number of guests who were invited for the occasion. The affair was held at the Eagles hall and the hall was filled with the ladies and gentlemen to participate in the very enjoyable event. The time was spent in dancing as well as in the enjoyment of the songs of the show given by the members of the cast and the choruses. A great deal of merriment prevailed and the various stunts of the members of the party brought forth much enjoyment and pleasure. It was in the small hours of the new day when the last songs were sung and the dramatic organization departed for their homes.

Murray

Ivan Jones and his good wife are rejoicing over the late arrival of one of the finest little blue eyed baby girls imaginable, which has come to their home to be a permanent member of the family, bringing gladness and pleasure with its smiles. Messrs. and Madam L. H. Puls of Plattsmouth; A. Gansmer and Fred Hill of Murray, and their families were guests for last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gansmer, and all enjoyed the pleasant day which they all enjoyed.

Mr. A. R. Dwyer, of the Dwyer Brothers, garage men of Union, was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, coming to bring a traveling man from Union to Murray, in order that he could catch the train here after having completed his business here. The officers of the Community club held a weekly enthusiastic business meeting Friday night, at which time it was decided to hold a number of entertainments during the summer months, which will be greatly enjoyed by the public. Announcements later.

Miss Leora Browne, who is attending school at Bethany, was a visitor at the home near Murray on last Saturday until Tuesday and also visited at the home of her grandparents J. W. Berger and wife, as well as with her many friends in and near Murray.

Misses Helen and Fern Gansmer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gansmer, who are attending school at Plattsmouth, after having spent the week end at their home, visited from Sunday evening until Monday morning at the home of A. Gansmer, then returned to Plattsmouth where they took up their school work again.

Bals Messinger who is progressive and believes in having things in such a shape that he can realize the best results from his labors and last Tuesday went to Murray and brought home a fine young and bravely constructed a chicken house for the care of his flock, and is expecting that they will more than pay for the expense of their home.

The Christian church have concluded to change the steeple at the church building and will take the spire away and place the steeple on a roof, which will complete the bell tower and also make at the same time a better appearing building as well as making the supports which carry the bell more substantial. J. A. Scotten with his force of workmen are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Philpot of west of Murray were passengers to Omaha in their auto last Tuesday, where they remained and were met on Wednesday morning by their family physician, Dr. G. H. Gilmore, who accompanied them to the hospital where Mrs. Philpot entered for treatment and probably for an operation for her health, but would not know until after a clinic was held.

The number of "wireless" fans is fast increasing around Murray, and it is very probable that in a short time there will be a large number of radio receiving sets found in this vicinity. Everett Spangler, who recently made a purchase of one of the Westinghouse home type receiving sets, consisting of tuner and one audion detector bulb, is greatly enjoying it, as he is thus able to hear attractive programs that are broadcasted from the various cities many miles away.

Chicken Pie Supper

There will be a chicken pie supper held at the public library Saturday evening, only 35c.

Lewiston Aid Will Meet

The Ladies Aid society of Lewiston will meet at the church for an all day meeting next Thursday, May 11. Our Home Agent, Miss Ida Wilkins will be with us to plan our summer work. All members and friends are invited to come spend the day, bring lunch. There will be quilting to do also.

Services at Presbyterian Church

During the time when the Christian church has been in process of undergoing repairs, decorations and painting it has been inconvenient for the church sessions to be held in the church building. Last Sunday Mr. Edmund Peterson offered the use of Peterson hall for the morning service and the Bible school and as to that the evening service. The members of the Christian church availed themselves of the kind tender and held their Bible school and morning service in the hall.

The members of the Presbyterian church tendered their church for the use of the members of the Christian church for the services in the evening. The members so graciously accepted the kind proffer in the spirit that it was given. We cannot but admire the spirit of the two congregations, feeling so nicely toward each other, and assisting in a Christian spirit the bridging over of difficulties and worshipping in the truly Christian sense.

Will Build Home Here

James E. Gruber who was in the west for several months but who returned to Murray a few weeks since has concluded to build himself a home here and will begin at once on the erection of a five room cottage for which the basement has already been excavated. Mr. J. A. Scotten the contractor, will erect the new home which is to cost about $2,000 dollars and will make an excellent home when completed. The building is to be 20x30 feet and with a full basement. Yes, business is better.

Customers Appreciate Specials The enterprising firm of Wilson & Puls which has been making some very special sales for the Saturday business, is in receipt of many remarks of appreciation by the trade for the nice prices and the same is being reflected in the excellent busness which this firm has been doing and especially on the days when these specials are operative.

Visits With Son

Mr. A. O. Hinkle of Ozark, Missouri, where he is engaged in the farming business, was a visitor for a number of days at the home of his son, E. O. Hinkle, the manager of the Murray garage, and after having visited for some days departed for the west and will visit at Colorado Springs, Pueblo and also at Denver for some time before returning to his home in the sunny southland.

Woodmen to Meet Next Week

There will be a special meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America at their hall on Thursday next week, May 11th, at which time they will have a number of members of the grand lodge, and will have a very interesting and special message for the membership here. There will be in attendance Mr. W. C. James, district deputy; Mr. Jackson, teacher of athletics; and E. E. Kester, state deputy. This will be in the nature of a booster meeting and it is urged that every member of the order in Murray and near here be in attendance. Remember that the meeting will be at the Woodman hall in Murray on Thursday, May 11, 1922.

Married in the South

A letter from John Mrasek to his brothers Joseph and Frank Mrasek, of Murray, told of the marriage of that young man at the Catholic church at Chickasha, Oklahoma, on Tuesday morning at 8:30. Who was the fortunate young lady the letter did not tell. It will be remembered that John Mrasek formerly lived in Plattsmouth and went to Oklahoma to live some twelve years ago and has made his home there since. The journal with his many friends in the north are extending their wishes for a long, happy and useful life for this excellent young man.

Got Their Desire

Last Sunday while a farmer living west of Murray was returning from a trip to Manley, where he had been called, he had his team crowded into the fence at the roadside by a large car which captained two couples— young ladies with their escorts. The farmer had only gotten his team out of the fence into the road, when the car turned around and came back "jickety larrup" and again frightened the farmer to a flight.

Now this gentleman, who is but 25 years old and feeling pretty near right, accepted the challenge and got out of his wagon as the two bullies dismounted from their auto. In a moment the battle royal was on. The two smart young men found an opponent worthy of their combined prowess and before long they were badly discomfited and crawled back into their car covered with gore and much wiser as a result of their experience. Administration of such treatment as this to a few more of the human road hogs who go out to claim the highway for themselves would be a mighty good thing.

SHOOTING ON RANGE

The annual target season, Plattsmouth Rifle Range, will commence Thursday, May 4, 1922, and will continue until September 1, 1922. All persons are warned against trespassing on any portion of the rifle range between these dates.

MEMORIAL DAY TO BE ONE OF IMPRESSIVENESS

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION TO UNVEIL TABLET ON THIS DATE.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting was held at the office of Attorney A. H. Duxbury at which were representatives of the Grand Army, Woman's Relief Corps, Daughters of the American Revolution, American Legion and Legion Auxiliary to make the arrangements for the fitting observance of Decoration day, the day that is hallowed in the hearts of all Americans when they pay honor to their heroic dead.

This year the occasion will be made more than usually impressive by the fact that the local chapter of the D. A. R. have, with the co-operation of the citizens in general, secured a beautiful bronze tablet on which will be placed the names of those who have paid the supreme sacrifice in the World War, and which is to be placed at the Cass county court house as a lasting memorial to those who have passed to the great beyond while in the service of their country. The committees have not as yet decided on the exact spot that will be used for placing the tablet but this will be determined in the next few days.

At the meeting yesterday it was decided to hold the regular decoration services of the Grand Army and American Legion in the morning at the cemetery and in which all of the citizens will be asked to participate in making it a universal day of honor to those who come no more.

In the afternoon there will be a memorial service at the Parmele theatre in which the Legion, the Woman's Auxiliary, the G. A. R., and W. R. C. and the D. A. R. will all join, with the American Legion in charge of the service. For this occasion Dr. S. Mill Hayes, D. D., of Lincoln, has been selected as the orator and will give one of the most impressive addresses that has been heard in the city. Dr. Hayes is rector of the Holy Trinity Episcopal church of Lincoln and one of the best known pulpits orators of the state.

In this service the school children will be asked to participate in the musical program and as well as the Boy Scouts who will assist both at the morning ceremonies and at the unveiling of the monument.

The formal program at the theatre will be announced later as soon as the several committees are thoroughly organized.

It is the expectation that as soon as the services at the theatre have been concluded the patriotic societies and the citizens will form in line and march to the court house where the unveiling of the tablet will take place. The D. A. R. will make the formal presentation to the county of the memorial and which will be accepted by the board of county commissioners as a sacred charge of honor for as long as there shall be an organized county government. One of those who have given their loved ones in the cause of their country will be selected for the unveiling and the address will be given by Dr. Hayes. An appropriate program will also be carried out that will be in keeping with the very impressive occasion.

To aid in the marching from the theatre to the court house the Elks band will be secured if possible to add to the beauty of the service in honor of the men who gave their all that our nation might live on in peace and kept unstained the tablets of our nation's life.
