CITY HAS EXPERIENCE WITH DOPE SEEKERS

Store of F. G. Fricke & Co., Visited By Party or Parties Seeking Dope That They Craved.

There is evidently someone in the city who feels the necessity of having a shot of their favorite dope as indicated by the breaking into of the store of F. G. Fricke & Co., on Sixth street on Monday night. The drug store was entered by forcing a rear window of the building and thereby gaining entrance to the main store room.

That the party was seeking some dope was evidenced by the fact that there was a small amount of morphine missing from the accustomed place where it was kept and this with a few cents taken from the cash register was all that was found to be missing from the store.

The matter has been in the hands of special agents from Omaha since the time of the robbery and it is hoped that it will be possible to locate the parties who have been in such sore straits to secure some of the dope to ease their wrecked nerves.

Several parties have been making the rounds of the medical men of the city seeking to secure dope for their use and being unsuccessful. It has doubtless been driven to the more desperate expedient of getting their supplies through burglary.

DEATH OF MRS. A. C. CAREY AT MYNARD HOME

HAS BEEN A RESIDENT OF CASS COUNTY SINCE CHILDHOOD—WELL KNOWN LADY

HAS BEEN POORLY FOR YEARS

Deceased Was a Daughter of Sam Barker, Pioneer of County and Known Over the State.

From Wednesday's Daily.

After an illness covering the past two years, Mrs. A. C. Carey, 87, passed away last evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Barker, where she has been residing for the past few years. While the death was not unexpected as the deceased lady has been in failing health for years due to heart trouble, it has come as a severe blow to the husband and children as well as other members of the family and the host of old friends who have known and loved the departed lady during her life long residence in this county.

Laurina Anna Barker was born at the Barker homestead in Eight Mile Grove April 22, 1844, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Barker, pioneer residents of this portion of the state and the father was for many years one of the best known farmers and stock raisers in this part of the state and aided to a great extent in the development of this section of Nebraska. It was amid the scenes of the old home that the departed was reared to womanhood, learning the lessons of usefulness in the care of the household and assisting the parents in the home until her marriage on March 10, 1881, to A. C. Carey. Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Carey have been engaged in farming in the vicinity of this city and reared a family of six children, two having preceded the mother in death. Those who are surviving are Samuel, of Mynard; Will Carey, residing in Eight Mile Grove; Samuel, of Hastings; Zina Pearl Zimmerman, of Mynard; A. C. Carey, Jr., of Plattsmouth, and Teddy, who resided with the parents at home. She also leaves to mourn her death nine brothers and sisters, namely: Steve Barker of near Mynard, Mrs. Martha Wettenkamp, Mrs. Nettie and Mrs. Emma Shaw of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Anthony Howard of Ravenna, Harvey and Horatio of Atlanta, Nebraska, Will Barker of New Raynor, Colorado, and Edgar Barker of Oklahoma.

During the long months of sickness when the work of the household, the husband and children ministered with tender care to the wife and mother hoping that perhaps in the goodness of the all wise Father that the life of their beloved one might be prolonged and she restored to health but the frail spirit gradually grew weaker until the closing of the pages of the book of life brought peace and rest to her and she sank into the sleep that knows no awakening on this earth.

The funeral of Mrs. Carey will be held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The funeral party will go from the home to the Eight Mile Grove church where services will be held and burial made in the cemetery there.

SHALLENBERGER IN RACE FOR CONGRESS

Seeks to Represent Fifth District—More Davis Petitions Filed—McKissick a Candidate.

Lincoln, May 16.—Ashton C. Shallenberger, former governor, filed today as a Democrat a petition for the Fifth district. Prior to serving as governor, Shallenberger was Fifth district representative in the national congress for two terms. When Shallenberger ran for a second term as governor he was defeated in the primaries by Mayor James C. Dahlman.

Two more petitions urging Attorney General Davis to enter the republican primaries for United States senator were filed. One contained the names of Nebraska county republicans and the other bore signatures of Sheridan county republicans.

J. W. McKissick of Beatrice has filed as democratic candidate for the lower house. Herbert D. Walden of Beatrice has filed as a republican candidate for the state senate in that district.

WOMAN AND MAN HURT IN TWO-AUTO CRASHES

Nebraska City, May 16.—Sigurd Pedersen, Otter county farmer, with two companions, returning home from Omaha, drove his car into a ditch in Cass county and overturned. One of the men was badly cut on the face and head with glass from a broken windshield. The car was slightly damaged.

Mrs. Clark Dickson of this city was severely injured in an accident south of the city when the car in which she was a passenger crashed into a car driven by Elijah Babcock, a resident of Minersville precinct, who drove in front of the Dickson machine at a side road crossing. She suffered a fractured cheek bone and a deep cut over her eye. Both cars were badly wrecked. Other occupants escaped injury.

Never can tell when you'll smash a finger or suffer a cut, bruise or scald. Be prepared. These roads rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Your druggist sells it. 30c and 60c.

DEATH CALLS NOBLE WOMAN

Last Tuesday just after the noon hour the angel of death summoned Mrs. C. A. Trent, of Murray, who was a patient at the Lord Lister hospital at Omaha where she had gone the evening before and had undergone an operation for the removal of gall stones. Mrs. Trent had not rallied after the operation and all were realizing the gravity of her condition. All was done that could be for her but of no avail. Death came during the unconsciousness of the operation, though hours afterward. Mrs. Trent realized the seriousness of her malady and her condition and before she would go to the hospital had her will executed, fully believing she would not be able to survive the ordeal. Her mother, Mrs. John Connolly, passed away years ago under the same circumstances. Mrs. Trent leaves the sorrowing husband and two children, one John Brisbane, who with his wife live near Scottsbluffs, a son of a former marriage, and little Dorothy, age about three years. The funeral will be held at Murray on the midnight train Tuesday evening to await burial.

WILL BROADCAST CONCERTS FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 19

C. G. Conn Company to Stage a Big Musical Festival—Send from Eleven Big Stations.

Radio concerts will be broadcasted from eleven stations covering every district in the United States on Friday evening of this week, under the auspices of C. G. Conn, Ltd. band instrument manufacturers, of Elkhart, Indiana. This is the third series of national radio concerts to be given by this company.

As in the previous concerts several of America's most famous dance orchestras and many renowned soloists will give the programs. C. G. Conn, Ltd., is able to enlist the cooperation of these famous artists in view of the fact that they use Conn instruments and are therefore willing to join with the manufacturer in these concert programs. The programs consist of the latest popular music and are so arranged that folks may dance one number and listen to a solo the next.

The programs will be broadcasted from New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Denver, Seattle, Portland, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Boston, Detroit and Kansas City. All of these stations operate on the 360 meter wave length.

Plattsmouth owners of vacuum tube sets of five or more stages of amplification should find no difficulty in receiving the Kansas City concert. Great static is usually heard, but it is doubtful if very satisfactory reception of Pittsburgh sending station that has been heard 3,000 miles away, at this season of the year, when enlarging the range also enlarges the field of static.

As for Chicago, the middle west radio fans report greater difficulty in receiving from that station than in picking up Pittsburgh or even Newark. N. J., several hundred miles further east. Both these latter stations push the waves out with high powered tubes that insure their carrying a great static and were it not for the extra static encountered in the larger field, any good two stage amplifying set should have no difficulty in attaining satisfactory reception from these more distant points.

At the time of the last Conn concert there wasn't a single amplifying set complete in Plattsmouth, although several were in process of construction. Now there are a good number of home constructed sets of this type, in addition to several commercial sets that have been purchased by local parties who have been hit by the radio bug.

Among the famous orchestras and artists who will take part are: Carl Eduard and the Strand Theatre orchestra, Eddie Elkins and his orchestra; John Dolan, cornetist; Ralph Corey, trombonist, all in New York; Paul Beise, Araceli orchestra directed by George F. Mallen, and Sybil Sammis MacDermid, soprano, in Chicago; the Coon-Sanders orchestra in Kansas City; brass section of the San Francisco Symphony orchestra and several soloists in that city; Detroit Symphony orchestra; C. G. Bailey, saxophone; N. Bernier, cornet; R. Proctor, trombone and F. Sordillo, euphonium in Boston.

INTEREST IN ENLISTED RESERVE CORPS

Those Who Have Had Previous Enlistments Eligible for Enlistment with Examination.

Omaha, May 15.—The chief of stationed today that widespread interest in being manifested thruout the division area (South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas) in the Enlisted Reserve Corps. Inquiries in regard to enlistments are being received in large numbers from former servicemen, all of whom signify a desire to identify themselves with this component of the armed forces of the country.

The points about which the greatest number of inquiries are received are, eligibility for enlistment, and attendance at camp during the training period. Any man who served in the army or marine corps for at least four months between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, is eligible to be enlisted in the highest grade honorably held by him during that time, physical examination, only, being necessary.

In referring to the attendance at training camps, Col. Hopkins, chief of staff, was emphatic in his statement that it was his policy to excuse from such attendance any man upon whom this absence from home and business would work an undue hardship. Continuing, Col. Hopkins said: "It is realized that we are located in the heart of a great agricultural district and that the period of summer training will conflict somewhat with the harvest season. It is not and will not be our purpose to interfere with the civil pursuits of members of the reserve corps. War department regulations provide for just such contingencies by directing us to give due consideration to the occupations and other civil duties and responsibilities of reserve officers and enlisted men."

Reservists are not required to attend weekly or monthly drills, nor are they subject to call for active duty in case of strikes, riots, etc. The reserve forces constitute what the name implies—a reserve force to be called to the defense of the country in case of a national emergency. Where citizens of military age have the time, and desire more active duty in time of peace, it is contemplated that they will serve either in the national guard or regular army. It is hoped that World War veterans, who have the time for service in the national guard, and who do not desire to enlist in the regular army, will identify themselves with the organized reserves. Any inquiries addressed to us at the Army building, Omaha, will receive prompt attention.

BIG CROWDS AT CARNIVAL GROUNDS LAST EVENING

Second Night Sees Increasing Interest Shown at American Legion Carnival Grounds.

The carnival last evening saw a much larger attendance than the previous evening at the Washington avenue park where the Dominion Exposition shows are now showing under the auspices of the American Legion.

From the opening of the shows at 7 o'clock the crowds began their steady procession toward the park and by 8 o'clock the grounds were filled and every one of the shows and the various concessions doing a very pleasing business.

One of the features last night was the athletic show that held interest for those who enjoy the many art of boxing and two negroes participated in an eight-round bout. Owing to the fact that the interest in the show did not warrant the expenditure necessary to keep the show going, the management has decided to close this feature of the carnival.

SOCIAL WORKERS MEET

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Social Workers of the Methodist church were very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Halstrom who was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. James Mauzy, in entertaining. The rooms of the home were very prettily arranged with decorations of the spring flowers and made a most attractive appearance. During the afternoon a program consisting of a piano duet by Mrs. J. W. Tristich and daughter, Miss Esther, as well as a piano solo by Miss Marvel Whitaker was given. Very dainty refreshments were served at an appropriate hour by the hostesses and which added very much to the delight of the large number in attendance.

RED CROSS APPEALS FOR AID FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

President Harding Joins Chairman John Barton Payne in Urging Public to Lend a Hand

The chairman of the Red Cross chapter of this county has just received an urgent appeal from Chairman John Barton Payne of the American Red Cross supplemented by a special letter from President Harding for a half million dollars to assist the destitute men, women and children stricken by the floods in the Mississippi valley.

31,000 homeless are being fed by the Red Cross in the state of Mississippi alone and the first needs in Illinois, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana have already been met by an appropriation of approximately $100,000 by the National Red Cross organization, but it will require the additional sum to continue the care for the health and comfort of the stricken people in these struggling communities.

Our Cass county Red Cross chapter is requested to secure generous aid immediately from our people in behalf of these families without shelter, food or proper clothing.

The fact that President Harding and Judge Payne of the American Red Cross have united in this urgent appeal is evidence that the need is acute and that the cooperation of the American citizenry everywhere is required to answer that need.

We all remember when the great flood disaster in Pueblo, Colorado, overtook the Arkansas valley with death and wreckage how the American Red Cross, by its appeal to the American people got a response of over a half million dollars for re-establishing the families. The present flood covers a much wider expanse of territory in the very heart of the busiest and richest industrial and agricultural districts of the country.

No one can tell when a disaster, cyclone, great fire, cloudburst or floods will strike any community and funds are maintained by the National Red Cross for just such a kind of community insurance, but there have been 70 disasters cared for by the National Red Cross in the past year and a half, ending June 30, last, and funds must be secured on a wider scale to meet the urgent requirements. The local chapters and county organizations in the counties affected by the flood have already contributed liberally and to the extent of their resources. This contribution is meeting the first needs, but naturally is utterly inadequate in the face of such a great calamity.

The people of Cass county may be expected to quickly respond to this call with warm hearted generosity and with entire confidence that their money will be applied most effectively, under the auspices of the Red Cross, for the purposes for which it is intended. Contributions may be sent to the office of the local Red Cross chapter which will in turn forward it to the National organization. Miss Bernese Newell is the local treasurer.

NEW CANDIDATE FOR TREASURER APPEARS

W. T. Adams, Present Deputy County Clerk, Files For Republican Nomination for Office

The political situation was enlivened somewhat today when Will T. Adams, present deputy county clerk, hurled his chapeau into the ring and announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of county treasurer, subject to the wishes of the voters at the primary on July 18th. Mr. Adams has been more or less active in the political life of the county for a number of years as a member of the republican party and was at one time a candidate for treasurer on this party ticket. He is well known over the county and has since 1918 been deputy under County Clerk Sayles.
