IS A BUSY MAN

Rev. W. A. Taylor, or "Billie," as he is known over Cass county, has had a very busy time the past week as his services have been requested at a number of places over the county to officiate at the funeral of Henderson Heaven and on Sunday Rev. Taylor visited Myrard to be present and preach at the funeral of Mrs. A. C. Carey, which was held at the Eight Mile Grove church. Monday he was at the village of Wash to preach at the funeral of his old friend, Ed Dorr. Truly the work of this genial pastor is never done and the message that he is carrying of the teaching of the Master is given in a most earnest manner by Brother Taylor.

FUNERAL OF C. C. NEFF

From Tuesday's Daily. The funeral services of the late C. C. Neff were held this morning at the Catholic church and attended by a large number of the old friends and neighbors who paid their last tribute of love and respect to his memory. The mass was celebrated by Rev. Haukap, pastor of the church, and the many floral offerings spoke of the high esteem in which the deceased had been held. A number of the relatives from Burlington, Iowa, were present to share the sorrow with the aged wife. The interment was at the Catholic cemetery.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Doan's Regulets are recommended for this purpose. 30c a box at all drug stores.

Pasture for Rent!

I have good pasture with running water for a few head of cattle on my farm, two miles east of Murray.

Holeproof Hosiery

HOLEPROOF is the Hosiery of lustrous beauty and fine texture that wears so well. It is not surprising therefore, that it is selected by many people who can afford to pay far more for their hose, but who prefer the Holeproof combination of style and serviceability at such reasonable prices.

We have these in the season's popular colors, in Lusterized Lisle, 75c Silk Faced, $1.00 Pure Silk at $1.50, $1.75, $2 and $2.50

Philip Thierolf VALUE GIVING

RAIN GENERAL OVER THE ENTIRE STATE

Gentle and Steady Rain Proves Boon to Crops and Pastures Over the State of Nebraska.

From Tuesday's Daily. After several weeks of extreme dryness the drouth was broken yesterday when one of the life-giving rains commenced to fall over the entire state of Nebraska and from points as far west as Seneca and Alliance on the Burlington the reports indicate a very plentiful rainfall. In this locality the rain came just in the nick of time as crops were needing it badly and the gardens and pastures had already commenced to show the effects of the long protracted dry spell. The rainfall here registered 92.100 of an inch and while not coming with the usual fury of the summer storm it was certainly a $1,000,000 rain without a doubt. Members of the H. L. club who were out in the country today inspecting the corn, state that the prospects are good for a great yield and that the crop will realize a great many gallons to the bushel. The rye is also looking much fresher since the rain.

GOES TO UNIVERSITY PLACE AS SCHOOL HEAD

The friends here of the Rev. A. V. Hunter family will be pleased to learn of the selection of Oliver Bimson, brother of Mrs. Hunter, as superintendent of schools at University Place, he having just closed a four year term as superintendent of the schools at Oakland, Nebraska. Mr. Bimson and family were frequent visitors here during the residence of the Hunter family in this city and they will be remembered by a large circle of friends here. He takes the place made vacant by the resignation of A. H. Dixon, and will assume his new duties August 1st. He will spend the summer in Chicago university taking courses in educational work. Mr. Bimson graduated with the class of 1914 from Nebraska Wesleyan. The following year he taught in the Fairmont high school. From there he went to Osmond, Neb., where he was superintendent for three years. From Osmond he went to Oakland, where he has been for four years. Mr. Bimson will receive $2,000 a year at University Place. He is 39 years old, married and has a son four years old.

CASS CO. FARM BUREAU NOTES

Use of Dress Form Twenty ladies of the Murdock County club met at the home of Albert Thiel for the demonstration of the use of dress form and making of patterns. The ladies were very much interested in the suggestions given on how to make a better fitting bungalow house dress. Martha Thiel was chosen leader. The ladies voted to hold the next meeting Monday June 6, at the home of Mrs. Albert Stuke. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served which were enjoyed by all. About twenty five women and girls from the high school met at the home of Mrs. O. J. Pothast for the demonstration on how to use a dress form and alter a commercial pattern. The high school girls were much interested in the work. Several ladies brought their house dresses to the meeting and asked for suggestions on how to make these dresses more attractive and better fitting. The women promised to work out some of the suggestions and report on the same later. Mrs. O. J. Pothast was elected local leader.

Boys and Girls Club Work Monday May 15, the boys and girls from the intermediate and grammar grades of the Greenwood public schools met in Miss Trech's room where four standard clubs were organized. A pig club, rabbit club, sewing club and a cooking club were organized at this time. The children seemed very interested in the work and showed a lively interest in the election of officers and pattern fitting. The women promised to work out some of the suggestions and report on the same later. Mrs. O. J. Pothast was elected local leader.

Free Trips Free trips to boys and girls club week to be held at the college of Agriculture, May 29-June 4, were won by the following: Harold and Willard Timblin of the Alvo Corn club, Harry Knabe of the Nehawka Pig club and Margaret Shupp of the Nehawka Sewing club. The Cass County Farm Bureau offered a free trip to the sewing girls of Cass county. This trip was won by Margaret Shupp. Several boys from Nehawka and girls from over the county will their own expenses. About 250 boys and girls from all over the state will take advantage of boys and girls club week.
