Mrs. Andrew Seybert and wife of Plattsmouth were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Kell last Sunday, making the trip via the Missouri Pacific.
Mrs. Jack West has been kept to her bed for a number of days on account of ill health and while she is now improving is not as yet feeling as she would desire.
George Shields is having a fountain hog feeder built by Messrs. J. A. Scotten and J. E. Gruber for the feeding of his fine lot of hogs which he has at his farm west of town.
A little flurry of excitement was caused last Tuesday by the burning of the soot in the chimney of Mr. and Mrs. James Hattchett's home, but there was no damage done.
Miss Nida and Messrs. Francis Cook, who are both employed in Omaha, were guests at the home of their parents last Sunday and remained until over Decoration day.
C. A. Trent was a visitor in Omaha for a short time, accompanying the folks who have been guests here for the past few days that far on their departure for their homes in the north.

and nice ones they were and which will surely bring a good price.
Will S. Smith, the popular postmaster, has been sick for a few days and Mrs. Smith has been compelled to look after the work at the office and store. His many friends are hoping he will be all right soon.
Mr. George Jacks and two helpers of Plattsmouth, have been in Murray for the past week when the weather would permit, cutting walnut logs east of town and seeing to having them loaded for shipment.

The two elevators in Murray have been pretty busy during the past week, not altogether in receiving grain, for that was retarded by the excess of rain and consequently not the best roads, but they have shipped a large number of cars, thus relieving the pressure of the grain at the elevators and providing room for more.
Jack West, who has been one of the ball players on the Murray team, has a mishap which put him out of the running since last Sunday, when a player of the opposing team attempted to slide in on third where Mr. West was playing, and twisted his knee in such a way that Jack has been compelled to use a cane and crutch since.
The streets of Murray, under the direction of Mr. C. A. Trent and the working of Phillip Kell and Al Jones surely reflect the work which has been done. The gutters have been cleaned out, the crossings put in good condition and the streets rounded up so as to carry away the surplus water, which makes the town look much better.
Some miscreant thinking more of the destruction of property and the harassing of some one who is trying to make the town look better, cut the wire which was placed in front of the bank to protect the growing grass and thus destroyed its protection. Mr. C. H. Boedecker has endeavored to foster the growth of this lawn, and feels that this act on the part of those who have done this is uncalled for.

The Wildcat's star portside pitcher, Cleney was unable to play and Schroder and Queen did the tossing for the wildcats. Gruber did the catching act and played real ball.
