Mrs. Mary Taylor and daughter, Miss Rachel, who have been visiting at the home of relatives and friends in Union for some time departed for their home at University Place last Saturday after having enjoyed a very nice visit.

F. H. McCarthy, the merchant, felt that he had better be in the hay field getting in the excellent crop, which his farm has produced, and so called Dan Lynn to the store to work in his place while he made hay under the sun.

King David Clark was a visitor in Nebraska City last Monday, the visit being caused by a refractory molar, which has been making things more interesting than pleasant for the popular grain merchant. However, the tooth and Flossie parted company.

H. E. Foster shipped two car loads of very fine cattle to the South Omaha market last Monday, they being fed at his home southeast of Union, and were an excellent bunch of cattle. Mr. B. B. Everett shipped a few with the car load, which also were excellent animals.

L. R. Upton, who has been laid up for so long with rheumatism, but who has been at his place of business for some weeks now, has the good fortune to have three baby goats come to his home, which it is declared by his friends that he will keep for milking purposes.

King David Clark and wife, of Weeping Water, who have a host of friends in Cass county, were visiting last Sunday at the home of their son, Fred Clark and family north of Union and also spent some time at the home of their son, Christian Westervelt Clark, at the Union hotel.

Lemuel Barrett, who is a student in the Omaha Medical college, was a visitor at home last Sunday and a guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Barrett, returning to Omaha Sunday evening. Lemuel is playing in a band in Omaha and is kept pretty busy even during the vacation.

Edward Midkiff, of near Avoca, this county, was a visitor in Union last Monday, looking after some business matters for a short time, but coming to take his daughter, Miss Flossie Midkiff home, who has been visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hughson, for the past few days.

Joe Liggett, owner of the great Chester White hog, Big Jim, and which is a great hog, which one should see, is feeling some better at this time. Mr. Liggett has not been feeling very well for some time, but has shown much improvement during the past week and was able to be down town last Saturday for the first time.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church held a meeting last week at the home of Mrs. E. J. Maugay, at which the principal portion was devoted to work, there being much done for the members themselves after which there was a social season, when refreshments were most appetizing and all enjoyed the delightful luncheon which was served by this popular hostess.

Will Hold Athletic Show

The American Legion post up at Plattsburgh, to which a number of ex-service men from this vicinity belong, will hold a combined wrestling and boxing show at the county seat on Tuesday evening, June 27th. At least three boxing events and a finish wrestling match will be dished out to the lovers of manly sport in the open air arena.

County Building Going Forward

The patrol house, which the county is having built at Union, is going forward rapidly, the foundation being now laid. The contract has been given to Ray Frans, who is pushing the work along. Mr. W. L. Stine did the work of laying the foundation, while Mr. G. L. Brinton and son of Elmwood, an excellent mason, will lay the blocks.

Nebraska Pioneer Answers Call

Mrs. Benjamin Davis, whose husband preceded her to the other world by a few months, he passing away last fall, answered the call of the death angel last Monday evening and was buried at the Wyoming cemetery last Thursday, the services being conducted by a minister of the Episcopal church of which she was a lifelong and devoted member. Miss Cordelia Sherwood was born in the state of Michigan about seventy years ago and came with her parents to Nebraska, settling near Union when she was twelve years of age. Mrs. Davis was most highly esteemed by the many friends whom she has known for more than the past fifty years.

Two Ball Games Sunday

At Spring Dale, which is a few miles northeast of Union and near J. N. Larch, the ball team of that locality known as Milton's Colts played with the Nehawka team. The game was one of much interest during the whole time and furnished much enjoyment for the real ball fan. The result was a victory for the Nehawka team which carried away the honors by a score of 10 to 8.

At Cedar Creek, where a dating had been made by the Union boys, but who were not able to fill the engagement, the young boys from Union with some of the others went over and a game was had in which Cedar Creek won by a score of 8 to nothing.

Visits Friends Here

Mrs. R. L. Newell, who with her husband, formerly lived in Union, was a visitor in this place for a number of days before departing for the south where she is joining Dr. Newell, who is leaving the United States for the Isle of Pines, where he goes to practice his profession that of a dentist, and where they will make their home in the future.

Children's Day Observed

The ladies of the Baptist church are to be congratulated on the excellent program which the children rendered last Sunday and a great deal of credit is due the little ones for the very nice program that was had. This in view of the fact that there is no minister here at this time. The membership of a church who takes things in hand in this way and makes a success of the work when there is no minister are worthy of the success which comes to such a church.

Methodists Enjoy Meeting

Last Sunday the ladies of the M. E. church enjoyed a very excellent evening, when they presented the children's day program to the people of Union and vicinity. The children, who had been drilled by the ladies, were very responsive to instruction and the little ones made a very pleasing evening for the delighted crowd.

Masons Go to Nehawka.

Last Wednesday being the regular meeting of the Masonic lodge of Nehawka of which many people in Union are members, a special program has been arranged, and from Union there were the following who were present to enjoy the occasion: Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Messrs. and Mesdames Joe Banning, John Liggett, Earl Merritt, J. M. Patterson, G. W. Cheney and Ray Frans and mother, Mrs. Jennie Frans, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker, John McCarroll and wife and H. L. Swanson.

ELKS STATE MEETING

Columbus, Neb., June 14.—(Special.) Columbus promises to be the Mecca for Nebraska Elks and their ladies on June 21 and 22, one week from today, when the Nebraska State association of the antlered brethren assembles in annual convention. Ten delegates will represent each lodge, but in addition scores of other Elks and their ladies are planning to accompany those with regular credentials in order to rub elbows with their friends from over the state and to participate in the general good time which the Columbus lodge is planning. In order of their age the nineteen lodges in as many different cities in Nebraska are as follows: Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings, Fremont, Grand Island, Beatrice, Norfolk, Plattsburgh, Alliance, Falls City, Kearney, North Platte, York, Nebraska City, Columbus, Fairbury, Scottsbluff, Chadron and McCook. The latter having been formed just this past year.

Harold Stoll, who has been employed at the Sheldon Department store, has accepted a position with the Sheldon Manufacturing company and the position which he occupied has been filled by Mr. Merrill Sheldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anderson of southwest of Nehawka entertained at their home last Sunday for dinner, Mr. Walker Bates, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Rough and Lincoln Creamer and family. A most enjoyable time was had.

On account of the excellent time which the Nebraska City band made for the citizens of Nehawka on last Tuesday evening many of the other towns in the county are now desirous of securing this excellent band for a concert.

Joshua Sutphen was pleased to have an opportunity to visit with his old time friend and neighbor, Ed Fleischman, who is a member of the Nebraska City band which played here during last week, the gentlemen having lived neighbors at Manley years ago.

E. E. Jelberg is suffering from a case of weed poisoning which he received while working in the weeds. He is having the affection treated and is getting some better. He was only one of four who were affected at the same time. Messrs. Wm. Eastrich, Eugene Hicks and John Frans also suffering the same.

C. W. Snyder, the bee expert, captured a large swarm of bees last Friday, there being enough to fill a large coal scuttle, and which immediately went to work making hay for their owner. John Dale was hoping that he would have an extra colony, but on account of the youth of the queen did not swarm.

"Dick" Reynolds, of Washington state arrived in Nehawka for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Agnes Reynolds last week after having been away for some twenty years, and has been visiting with his mother and other relatives and friends since. Mr. Reynolds was away so long that many of his former friends did not recognize him.

There will be the regular services of the United Brethren church in Nehawka, which is Bible school in the morning and the Young Peoples' society in the early evening, followed by the evening service. The morning hour is devoted to the church at Otterbein. The evening service at the church in Nehawka will begin at eight o'clock.

Uncle Walker Bates who last week inserted a reader in our paper for the sale of a Guernsey calf, declares that it pays to advertise, for he was able to dispose of the calf, which was an excellent one, before the paper got to Nehawka after being printed. The calf went to Tekamah, where it was purchased by George Rough, who declares the calf one which cannot be beaten.

Mrs. Malcolm Pollard, who will shortly depart for Vermont, where she will spend the summer with her friends and relatives in the Green Mountain state and her daughter, Miss Eowena Pollard, who has been teaching school at Scottsbluff, having just closed her school there and returned home, were guests at the home of S. J. Rough and wife for dinner last Monday.

Who Will Get the House

The question arises, as two young men, both in business or working in a business house and who are now about neck and neck in the race to rent the house of Mr. Delbert Switzer, and as they are both single, why this haste to secure the cage? Oh, well, that is better get the cage before the birds.

Guernsey Heifer Calf For Sale

I have a Guernsey heifer calf for sale. Sire sold for $1,000, and mother from best herd in Wisconsin. Price, $20.00.

W. B. BATES,
Nehawka, Neb.

Two Interesting Services

Last Sunday evening the people of the Methodist church in Nehawka celebrated Children's day with a very appropriate program with excellent decoration of seasonable flowers and a program which was both well rendered and well received by the appreciative audience. The other services of the day were the regular services. There was a program presented at the church of the United Brethren at Otterbein church north of Nehawka during the morning, which was one which was highly appreciated by all who attended and reflected much credit on the children and ladies of the church as well as requiring much diligent practice.

Good Gas Engine

International gas engine, excellent condition, 1 1/2 h. p. For sale cheap. See John Opp.

A Most Enjoyable Time

Last Friday evening the Masonic lodge of Nehawka, with the members elsewhere who came to attend the event, celebrated a most pleasant evening when they gathered to listen to a musical concert which was furnished by the Pierce orchestra, of Lincoln, which dispersed excellent music during the fore part of the evening at the lodge room above.

This band which was organized on account of the decadence of the for a while popular jazz kind, with the purpose of furnishing the better grades of musical melody. Following the concert, the assembled guests and members repaired to the lower floor where a repast of ice cream and strawberries awaited them. This was followed by a social dance which the most of those present participated in.

Will be College Night

In behalf of a better education for all, and especially in an effort to interest those who are now in college, those who have just finished and those who are just now ready having just completed the high school, there has been arranged at the Methodist church in Nehawka a special service on Sunday evening for those who should be interested in a better education. A special invitation is hereby extended to all in college and to those just finished as well as those

MARRIAGE AT EAGLE

Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, two miles north of Eagle, occurred the marriage of Miss Merle E. Carr and Mr. Carl G. Bender of Madison, Nebraska. The wedding was very quiet and attended by only the members of the immediate family. Rev. Laythorne, pastor of the Methodist church, read the marriage lines in a very impressive manner as the young people took the vows that made them as one.

Following the wedding the young people left in the evening for a honeymoon to the east where they will visit at Chicago, Niagara Falls, and also at Toronto, Canada, with relatives before returning home to Madison, Nebraska, where they will be at home to their friends after September 1st.

The bride is one of the talented and charming ladies of the west portion of Cass county and a graduate of the University of Nebraska music department and has been well known for her musical work both as a vocalist and pianist. She has been teaching for the past two years at Madison. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carr, prominent residents of Tipton precinct. The groom is one of the young business men of Madison and held in the highest esteem by a large circle of warm friends.

OBSERVES FLAG DAY

From Wednesday's Daily. Last evening the local Elks lodge observed the passing of Flag day, one of the patriotic holidays which are commemorated by the great order, with an appropriate program of the greatest merit. The members of the lodge enjoyed the singing of a number of the national songs and the lodge listened to a very inspiring address by Judge James J. Begley that proved a real treat as a patriotic offering and in which the speaker took up the history of the flag and discussed it thoroughly and pointing out the virtues that the flag represented and the sacrifices that had been made in keeping the flag unsullied.

SHOWS REAL ENTERPRISE

Brother J. A. Gardner of the Eagle Beacon, has brought out an innovation for the usual run of country papers in having a colored and magazine section added to his usually interesting paper and which will be found a very enjoyable feature to the Beacon. Mr. Gardner believes in giving his patrons the best possible service and his enterprise in securing this feature is one that will be very much appreciated by his readers.
