WM. GEHRTS,

MURDOCK -- -- -- NEBRASKA

Jesse Landholm and family have been visiting at North Platte with relatives during the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Dehning were visiting and looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Monday. Earnest C. Tolson and family of Lincoln were visiting with friends in Murdock for some time last week. E. W. Thimgan was looking after some business matters in Murray last Thursday, driving over in his auto. Mr. H. H. Lawton has been painting and decorating the home of A. A. Riki, here in town, and putting it in condition. Mr. A. S. Depper, the contractor, has not been feeling very well during the past week and for a short time was off from his work. Albert Simmons of Weeping Water has accepted a position on the farm of Herman Schweppe, where he is assisting with the farm work. Mr. Henry Stander of South Bend was a visitor in Murdock on last Thursday, looking after some business matters for a short time. Miss J. D. Gerbeling, of near Wabash, is making her home in Murdock now and is employed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lacey McDonald. Mrs. W. T. Weddell and the children are visiting for the present at the home of Mrs. Henry Kruse, mother of Mrs. Weddell at Le Seneur, Mississippi. Dr. John Carruthers and wife, of Lincoln, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Hornbeck and Louis Hornbeck and family enjoyed a picnic dinner at Louisville last Sunday. Mrs. Charles Schneider, who has been feeling very poorly for some time past, is taking some treatments from a chiropractor at Ashland and with very good results. Doane Pickering and family, of Lincoln, were visiting for the week at the home of O. J. Pothast and W. H. Rush, driving over from the capital city in his car. Harry Gillespie and wife were over to Lincoln on last Wednesday, where Mr. Gillespie was looking after some business matters and Mrs. Gillespie was visiting during the time. Carl Schneider, who has been attending school at Concordia, Kansas, where he is doing some excellent work, returned home a few days ago and will spend his vacation here.

To the People of Murdock and Vicinity:—

When you buy Petroleum Products from us you are patronizing a strictly HOME CONCERN, not an eastern corporation. We pay our taxes and spend our money in Cass county. Our Penn Franklin Motor and Tractor Oils are a pure Pennsylvania product—every drop made from Pennsylvania crude and shipped direct from Pennsylvania. We buy in car load lots, thereby getting the rock bottom price. Remember Pennsylvania oils will not carbon your motor, will stand up under terrific heat and will wear longer. See our Mr. Schafer for samples and prices.

Murdock, Nebraska

Miss Leah Schmidt, who is employed in a department store at St. Louis, was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Schmidt for a few days last week. Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, who was so seriously injured in a fall some time since, is getting along nicely at this time and is able to be out some and is making very good progress toward complete recovery. John Meyer, of Nebraska City, who has just completed the plumbing for the community water system, has also the contract for the new Schweppe home southeast of town. Herman Dall, of Manly, who is an expert electrician, was in Murdock during the fore part of the week and finished the installation of an electric motor which is to furnish power for the Farmers elevator. O. J. Pothast and wife with their babe were spending a few days last week in Lincoln, and while there the business here was looked after by Mr. E. L. Pothast, who with Mrs. Pothast were staying here for the time.

Mr. Will Meyer has his radio receiving set working nicely and with apparatus which he has constructed himself. Murdock is now connected with the outside world through this medium, and the station is in good working order.

Richard Tool is enjoying the work at the summer school in Lincoln during the warm weather. While it is not the most pleasant occupation attending summer school at this time of the year, still we know Richard is equal to the proposition.

Herman R. Schmidt and family were enjoying the picnic of the schools of the church at Murdock, Louisville and Callihan, which was held last Thursday and while they were absent, Miss Esther Rau was looking after the telephone exchange here.

Misses Hulda and Alme Schlieffert gave their friends a most enjoyable evening last Saturday when they gave a shower for their brother, Herbert Oehlerking, who is soon to wed Miss Magdalene Reinko. The young people enjoyed the occasion very much.

Messdames H. A. Tool, A. J. Tool and Harry Gillespie were enjoying the meeting with the ladies of east of Wabash, at the Kensington given at the home of Mrs. Ralph Keckler, last Thursday afternoon. Mr. H. A. Tool very kindly taking the ladies to the meeting.

The wind, which blew so fiercely last Monday night, blew in a portion of the north window of the Murdock Mercantile Company, and caused a loss rather severe. Until the glass, which is to replace the one broken, shall have arrived, the hole has been stopped by the carpenter.

Edward Rau and wife attended a farewell party at Elmwood on last Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Creamer, who left in a short time depart for the east and will spend a number of months at their old home in New Jersey. They are expecting to have a most pleasant summer.

Wm. Deickman, who has been working at the farm of H. F. Schweppe for the spring, has resigned his position which was most agreeable on the part of both employer and employe, and with Mr. Alvin Bornemeier, is getting the machine ready for the threshing which is to soon be upon us.

O. J. Hitchcock and wife of Havelock and Dr. S. B. McDermid, of Omaha, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel last Sunday, they coming to celebrate the sixth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock and to visit with the folks here as well. All enjoyed the occasion very much. The folks visited both Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool and Will Meyers were visiting in Omaha last Thursday, the former being called to that city to see the little nephew, which has recently come to grace the home of Mrs. Tool's sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Eldredge. They were very pleased to see little Robert Bruce Eldredge, Jr., and had a very nice visit. Mr. Meyers was looking after some business while in Omaha and probably he may have met a friend as well.

Miss Minnie Deickman has accepted a position with the Murdock Telephone exchange, which was made vacant by the resignation of Miss Marie Schmidt, who will rest for the present and assist in the afternoon, in order that both she and sister, Miss Esther may find some time to be out of office during the heated portion of the summer. Miss Deickman will make a good operator and maintain the excellence of the service which has marked this exchange.

Mr. Milton Neitzel of Boise, Idaho, and Joseph Cornish, of Lincoln, who have just returned from a year at Notre Dame, were visiting with friends in Murdock during the past week, and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Guthman. After a short visit, Mr. Cornish continued to his home in Lincoln, where he will spend the vacation. Mr. Neitzel accompanied Mr. Guthman on a trip to Binger, Oklahoma, where the latter is looking after some business matters for a short time.

Working Very Nicely Now Work with the Dusterhoff shops is going along nicely now, and is of a considerable volume. Just at this time the workmen are at work in Murdock, as well as out, they having work at E. W. Thimgan's, Fred Zink just west of town and also at Matt Thimgan's in town. They are doing some excellent work at all places.

Will Give an Entertainment Miss Margaret Tool, who is very enthusiastic as a worker with the

Will Give an Entertainment Miss Margaret Tool, who is very enthusiastic as a worker with the Campfire Girls camp here, which she has recently organized and which is doing some excellent work at this time, has arranged for a play which they will give in the near future, and which is entitled "My Cousin Timmie or Reflected Glory." The play is to be rendered by the members of the Campfire camp here and will be an excellent play, the proceeds of which are to go to the camp to assist in bearing the expenses of the organization. Keep this play in mind and look for further announcements for it will be well worth while.

Doing a Very Good Business During the month of May the Farmers elevator of Murdock shipped some 35,000 bushels of corn from the elevator here, and at the same time received and shipped some five thousand bushels of wheat. During June the receipts were not far from 1,000 bushels per day until the middle of the month.

All Enjoyed the Picnic Last Thursday at the beautiful grove at the Callihan church, southwest of Murdock, where the Bible schools of the church at Louisville, Murdock and Callihan met in their annual picnic, there were gathered some 250 people who enjoyed the excellent program which began at 10:30 in the morning and continued until the noon hour and was followed by the basket picnic, which was one of the very agreeable features of the occasion.

During the afternoon a very sociable time was had, and which was enlivened by games for the children and young folks and social conversation by the older ones. The mission fund, which is one of much interest to the church, received a substantial boost of about $200.00, which shows that the people are in earnest in their mission work.

Will Have Meet June 26th The country club sewing society will meet for their next work and instruction at the home of Mrs. Albert Strich, when they are to have a most pleasant time. This will be a sewing instruction as well as a work meeting and will be coupled with much sociability as well. There will be entertainment as well as the work. An invitation is extended to all to come and enjoy the occasion and also to add to the interest of the work as well.

We can furnish you blank books most any kind at Journal office.

OBITUARY OF CHARLES ROBERT JORDAN OF ALVO

Former County Commissioner and Prominent Alvo Citizen Who Was Called by Death.

Charles Robert Jordan was born in Campbell county, Virginia, June 8, 1849, and at the age of eighteen years moved to Mahaska county, Ia., where he lived for a number of years and where he was united in marriage to Miss Juliet Mitchell, the young people moving in 1872 from their Iowa home to Nebraska and settled on a farm near the present village of Alvo and where they made their home for a period of years that was terminated nineteen years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Jordan moved into the town of Alvo and spent their declining years there enjoying the rest that their industry and thrift had earned. The death of Mr. Jordan occurred on Monday, June 12th, 1922, at the age of seventy-three years and four days. To the union of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan was born eight children all of whom are living except one who died in infancy and all of the living children were at the bedside of the father when death came. Mr. Jordan was the owner of several large farms in Cass county as well as Kansas and Canada and had been in his lifetime prominent in the democratic politics of the country and was elected county commissioner in 1912 and served two terms in that office with credit to himself and the county.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church and the interment made in the Alvo cemetery. Rev. E. A. Knight conducted the services assisted by Rev. M. E. Stair.

For the splendid and untiring service rendered and for the beautiful flowers and sympathy extended to us in our grief due to the loss of our companion and father by all our good neighbors and friends, we desire to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation.—Mrs. C. R. Jordan and Family.

COOK FAMILY REUNION

The reunion of the members of the Cook family will be held on Sunday at the city park at Weeping Water. A large number of the members of the family from this portion of the county will be present if the weather conditions are favorable.

Entertained for Little One

A delightful party for the little folks was given at the home of Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick June 13, in honor of her three little grandchildren, Mildred, Maxine and Marion Gene, daughters of Charles and Helen Barrett. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in playing games on the lawn and dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and pink lemonade were served. Those present were Audrey Quellhorst, Maurine Brobst, Doris and Dorothea Cozman, Maxine and Ila Wiels, Iva Bird, Helen Shaffer, Rotha and Irene Stevens, Mildred, Maxine and Marion Gene Barrett and Geraldine Mowrey, who directed the various games, keeping the children happily amused. At 8 o'clock the little girls departed for their homes and all said they certainly had had an enjoyable afternoon.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism? Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment? The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment thus making sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. Weirich & Hadabra.
