SAYS OF HER AS AN ACCOUNTANT.

The G. W. Marsh Auditing Co. of Lincoln, Nebr., has the following to say of Miss Gering's system of book-keeping, in their report to the County Commissioners May 9, 1922: "We have made a survey of the records being kept in the County Treasurer's office and found them to be in unusually good form; in fact we have never examined a Treasurer's office in which the records have been as well kept as they are in Cass county."

LEGION FIGHT BILL DRAWS A LARGE CROWD

BOUTS ALL FINISH IN SECOND ROUND BY KNOCKOUTS—
PROVE REAL GOES.

ANDY SCHMADER WINS FINAL

Schmader Night at Movie Garden as George, Andy and Frank All
Winners in Their Events.

The fight game in Plattsmouth seemed to be very popular judging from the 650 fight fans that assembled at the Movie Garden last night to attend the second boxing bill that the local American Legion post has staged in this city and three fast and snappy boxing events marked the opening of the entertainment and while the events did not go the limit, the losers in all of the events were given the limit of punishment by the victors and the hits and singeing in the semi-windup and the main event.

The opening event, the six-round bout between Frank Blotzer and Joe Smetana, was perhaps the greatest attraction for the fight fans as they had been looking forward to the mixing of these two local boys and a real gory battle was the result until Referee Jack Fitzgerald of Omaha stopped the affray in the second round and awarded the well earned honors to Joe Smetana, the scrapping ex-sailor. In the opening round Blotzer mixed freely and carried the fight to Smetana, who was on the defensive all thru the opening of the round and merely covered for his defense. Smetana then opened up with a series of blows to Blotzer's body and face that knocked his head back when the round ended. Frank was showing the effects of the strenuous efforts he had put forth to end the contest in the opener. In the second round the onslaught of Smetana was terrific and the face of Blotzer, Referee Fitzgerald closed the bout with Blotzer dazed and all in and bleeding profusely. Blotzer suffered perhaps more seriously than anyone in the card, as he had a number of teeth knocked loose as well as his lip and eye split and his right wrist and hand badly sprained.

A HAPPY EVENT

From Wednesday's Daily.

This morning Dr. C. A. Marshall and wife and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seybert, received a message from Dayton, Ohio, announcing the fact that Miss Jane Frances Marshall had arrived at 5:30 this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marshall, Jr., at Dayton. The mother and little one are doing nicely and the little lady tipped the scales at six pounds on her arrival. The occasion has proved a very pleasant one to the grandparents and the other relatives here.

FOR CONGRESS

I hereby announce my candidacy for congress in this district, both for the regular term and for the vacancy, subject to the republican primary.
WALTER L. ANDERSON.

The work of Jack Fitzgerald as referee was also a big hit with the audience. Among the Omaha sporting fraternity to attend the entertainment were Jack Lewis, manager of Andy Schmader; Billy Rolif, one of Lewis' string of fighters; Morrie Schlaifer, Joe Herrick, Billy Uvick and Jack Curley, State Boxing Commissioner. Lani Doyle of Lincoln was also at the match to look over the string of fighters and the wrestling match and was well pleased with the manner in which the event was carried out. To add to the entertainment of the crowd the Marshall orchestra furnished a number of selections during the intermissions and preceding the opening of the boxing bill.

SHOP UNION HEADS WILL CALL STRIKE

DEMAND IN TELEGRAM TO RAIL MEN PRESENT WAGES AND FORMER WORK RULES.

Chicago, June 27.—A strike of the 400,000 railway shompen of the country will be called for July 1, unless the railroads agree to stay the $80,000,000 wage cut due the shop workers on that date and to restore certain working conditions formerly in effect, it was made known tonight through a telegram from B. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts, to the Association of Railway Executives. Decision to call a strike came late today after lengthy discussion by the executive committee of the six shop crafts unions, based on the strike vote of the men thus far received.

The committee left but one loophole to avoid the strike. If the rail heads arrange an immediate conference, agreeing meanwhile to continue present wages, restore working rules modified by the railroad labor board, and discontinue farming out railroad work a walkout can be averted, the telegram said. Otherwise "a sanction of withdrawal from employment on July 1, 1922, as voted by the employees, will be unavoidable."

No Vote Given

The 2,500-word telegram, addressed to T. DeWitt Cuyler, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, threw no light on the actual strike vote beyond saying it was an "overwhelming majority."

Although the actual call for the walkout was made dependent on the executives' reply to President Jewell's ultimatum, little expectation was expressed in railroad circles tonight that the executives would agree to such sweeping demands as those made by the unions and labor leaders said that a strike seemed to be inevitable.

Will Issue Call

The union heads who will issue the strike call, if the proposed conference cannot be consummated, are: William H. Johnston, International Association of Machinists.

J. W. Kline, International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpers of America.

J. A. Franklin, International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Shipbuilders and Helpers of America.

J. J. Hynes, Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' International Alliance.

James P. Noonan, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Martin P. Ryan, Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America.

Declaring that the railroads have acted on a common program to reduce wages and obtain other advantages to the carriers, President Jewell's message pointed out "one benefit which may come to the carriers and their employees, and to the general public, from the fact that there are national spokesmen of the conflicting interests who might be able to halt a nationwide withdrawal of men from employment in the railway service, if the railway executives sincerely desired to avoid this consequence of their previous course of action."

I desire to announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the position of state senator, subject to the will of the republican voters in the primary election, July 18th. Thanking those who in the past have supported me and the measures for which I have worked, I am, very respectfully,

ARBOR LODGE MAY BE NEBRASKA STATE PARK

Park Board Believes Invitation to Meet Morton is Concerning
This Plan—Unofficial.

Lincoln, June 26.—Arbor Lodge, the large estate near Nebraska City of the late J. Sterling Morton, founder of Arbor day, may be offered to Nebraska for state park purposes.

This is unofficial speculation at the capitol today, following an invitation to the state park board, of which Governor McKelvie is chairman, extended by Joy Morton of Chicago, financier and salt baron, son of the late J. Sterling Morton, to meet the board at the lodge for luncheon at 1 p. m. Wednesday.

The board has accepted the invitation and will go to Nebraska City in a body from Lincoln. It was announced at the governor's office today.

The estate contains over a hundred distinct species of shrub and tree, native and imported, planted by the elder Morton in his experiments in reforestation as applied to Nebraska soil.

Since his death the estate and the residence has been kept up by his family, and the front yard—of wonderful landscape development—has been opened as a public park.
